ALFONSO'S HEAD MAY PAY PENALTY

His Life Threatened If He Permits Execution of Professor Ferrer.

PARIS, October 12.—At a meeting today, the French Bar Association adopted resolutions condemning the trial of Professor Ferrer at Barcelona, under sentence to be shot, as a travesty on justice, and protesting against the arrest of his counsel, Gaiacari. A special dispatch to the Temps, from Madrid, says that the censorship at that city has been made doubly strict in order to prevent a leak regarding the fate of Ferrer.

The correspondent adds that King Alfonso has received many threatening letters declaring that his head will be demanded if he does not spare Ferrer's life.

Workmen Protest.
ROME, October 12.—The workmen throughout the city abandoned their employment today, and 20,000 gathered in a meeting to protest against the condemnation of Professor Ferrer, the alleged revolutionist, at Barcelona, sentenced to be shot. Violent speeches were made by radical Socialists and anarchists, who directed their remarks against both the reactionists in Spain and the Jesuits who were connected with inspiring the prosecution. Noticeable among the speakers was Prince Caetani, a Deputy.

The whole nation of Rome is being held in readiness to put down any disorders that may develop, and the Spanish embassy is strongly guarded.

"NOT GUILTY," JURY'S VERDICT

"Dynamic" Wilkins Acquitted of Charge of Looting Bank of Suffolk.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SUFFOLK, Va., October 12.—Following an all-day trial, a Nansemond Circuit Court jury this evening acquitted George A. Wilkins, a 30-year-old white man, accused of looting the Bank of Suffolk last April, after tunneling four buildings.

The State relied on circumstantial evidence, proving that Wilkins, when arrested, carried burglar's tools and a map of the tunnel territory; that he was seen in Suffolk several times during April; that he "blew" money afterward; and that he was $150 in Wilkins was defended by State Senator Edward E. Holland, president of the Farmers' Bank.

WILL IMPROVE THEIR PROPERTY

Members of Petersburg Benevolent Mechanic Association Considering the Matter.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN MEETS

Little Business of Importance at Regular Monthly Meeting of That Body.

Times-Dispatch Bureau,
109 North Sycamore Street,
Petersburg, Va., October 12.—The Petersburg Benevolent Mechanic Association, one of the oldest and most useful organizations in the city, owns very valuable property at the corner of the street and York Streets, with four stores fronting on Sycamore Street, in the business center of the city. The question of improving this property has been under consideration by the members of the association for some time, and at the quarterly meeting held last night the matter was very fully discussed, without, however, any practical or definite action being taken. It is believed that a large majority of the members favor the improvement.

While plans have not been prepared or considered, the proposition is to erect on the site of the present hall a building of seven stories above the basement, the street floor to be used for the store, the second story to be devoted entirely to the library, museum, reading-room and offices for association use, and the several upper floors to be used for the same purposes. It is estimated that the cost of the building will be about $75,000. As stated, no definite action has been taken in the matter, but the sentiment was strongly in favor of the improvement, and it is probable that it will be made.

Meeting of Board of Aldermen.
The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held last evening, but outside of routine matters very little business of importance was transacted. The various appropriations for the different departments and special appropriations for public improvements made last week by the Common Council were concurred in. A petition of citizens of East Washington Street for a gravel roadway and gravel sidewalks on that thoroughfare from Sycamore Street to the Petersburg Hospital, to cost not over $3,500, was presented. The board has passed the ordinance passed by the Council, and the matter of improvements at the City Almshouse was also referred for further report.

Shot by His Wife.
Lovey Green, colored, was shot and severely injured early this morning by the wife of her husband, who was on Farmer Street. The woman had been lodged in jail. Green quarreled with his wife over some act of their little child, and in his anger proceeded to chastise her. He struck her with his fist and then seized a piece of iron with which he struck her on the head, wounding the family. The woman fled to the hospital to be operated on. It was in the same neighborhood that Alice Mickle, colored, recently shot and killed her husband. She was acquitted on self-defense.

MARRIAGES.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Williamson Grigg, of this city, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Martha Grigg, to Marshall Carter, to take place in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Tuesday evening, October 26, at 8 o'clock.

Announcement is made of the marriage in Wilson, N. C., of Wallace G. Stralman, a well-known young traveling salesman in Petersburg, to Miss Minnie Caswell Mayo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Mayo, of Wilson.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

Rev. Dr. David L. Hays, pastor of the Hebrew Synagogue in this city, has been advised of the death of his father, Joel Klein, at his home near Budapest, Hungary. Dr. Hays spent the past summer with his father, whom he left in perfect health. Mr. Klein was seventy-four years old and a man of great culture.

Judge J. M. Mullen will this week preside over the Circuit Court of Culpeper county.

The six Baptist Sunday schools in this city reported a total average registration of 1,225 teachers and pupils last month of September. The average attendance was 1493, or 90 per cent. Thirty new scholars were received and there were thirteen conversions in the Sunday schools.

W. H. L. Neims, an employe of Camp's Fertilizer Factory, got one of his hands caught in the machinery yesterday, and was badly cut.

Sidney M. Rosenstock, a prominent and popular young merchant of this city, was married in Albany, N. Y., today, to Miss Mildred Tanhauser, of that city. A number of the bridegroom's Petersburg friends attended the wedding.

RESIDENCE ROBBERED.

While the family were at church Sunday night, a thief entered the residence of Mrs. Margaret E. Bird, on Hinton Street, and stole sundry articles of value, among them being a wicker vase, a gold locket and chain.

CAMPAIGN IS OPENED WITH JOINT DEBATE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
MEHERRIN, Va., October 12.—The first political gun of the State campaign in Lynchburg was fired at the Courthouse yesterday, when a joint debate took place between Congressman Frank P. Brent, Republican nominee for Representative, and Judge Samuel Williams, Democratic nominee for Attorney-General, for the Democrats, and Hon. Frank P. Brent, Republican nominee for Superintendent of Public Instruction, for the Republicans.

About noon, Judge Barksdale adjourned court, and the speakers took possession. The Democratic county chairman called the meeting to order and introduced Congressman Lassiter, who opened the debate. Mr. Lassiter spoke almost entirely on the national issues, closing with an appeal to the voters to stand by the Democratic nominees.

Mr. Brent was then introduced by the Republican chairman, Hon. A. J. Fore. Mr. Brent held the close attention of his audience for about an hour, in an address in which he vigorously assailed the Democratic party, asserting that it had long since forsaken the principles of Thomas Jefferson, its founder. It is at the present time, he said, without so much as a faint shadow of a prospect of success. He declared that he had left the party to which he had belonged all his life and joined the Republicans. He took up the matter of expenditures by the State government, following the lines of other Republican speeches. He repeated the charges of extravagance and misuse of funds before made against McDonald Lee, chairman of the State Board of Finance, asserting that the revenue from the oyster industry had decreased since he had been in charge.

He dwelt at length upon the school question, comparing conditions in Virginia with those in States under Republican rule, to the disparagement of the former.

Mr. Brent was followed by Judge Williams, who took up the record of the Republican party in this and other States from the time of reconstruction to the present. He pointed out the copies and the school register matter received considerable attention from Judge Williams.

Mr. Brent closed the debate in a brief speech endeavoring to refute the arguments advanced by his opponents. The crowd, which was plainly a Democratic one, was with edge Williams and Congressman Lassiter, though Mr. Brent, who is well known and favorably known in this county, was given close attention.

Nervous Dyspepsia And Neurasthenia

Weakness of the Nervous System Often Dependent Upon Long-Continued Indigestion.

Neurasthenia, also known as "nervous exhaustion," "nervous debility" and "nervous prostration," is a disease which in these modern, strenuous times is becoming more and more prevalent. It is a condition in which there is more or less marked and persistent loss of energy, together with considerable irritability.

Persons who suffer from this trouble are easily excited and irritated; cannot do as much work as formerly, and in attempting any mental effort quickly become confused, and are unable to concentrate the attention. They also complain of insomnia, nervous indigestion, depression of spirits and palpitation of the heart.

There is a general muscular weakness; the person cannot walk very far, and tires quickly on attempting any physical exertion. There is ringing in the ears, blurring of eyesight, headache and vertigo; specks floating before the eyes and a general restlessness. The ability to sustain prolonged intellectual effort is interfered with and the patient imagines he is losing his memory.

Neurasthenics continually watch for new symptoms, unconsciously exaggerate the old ones, attributing undue importance to them. Causes of fear, impending danger, extreme pessimism, dark forebodings and hysteria. Sleep is disturbed, and the patient awakes much more tired in the morning than at night. Horrible dreams and night-mare are usually complained of.

The cause of this trouble is a manifestation of Neurasthenia is Nervous Dyspepsia. In nearly every case this disturbance of the stomach dominates the complaint. Come and strength may be transposed, and dyspepsia may be the result of Neurasthenia, but often indigestion is the original cause of the nervous condition. The nerves are simply "starved" because the stomach does not digest the food properly, and as the nerves are dependent upon the food for their sustenance, any deprivation thereof is sure to cause nervous weakness.

The cause of "nervous" in this condition is a mistake; they merely stimulate, but do not rebuild nerve tissue. Completely digested food is the only true nerve tonic. The nerves are simply starved, and in the treatment of nervous exhaustion one should first cure the nervous dyspepsia, which is usually the origin of the trouble, by taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in doses of one or two after each meal, or whenever needed, and the long train of nervous symptoms will be swept, along with the nervous dyspepsia.

"This celebrated remedy is without a peer in the treatment of nervous indigestion and, in fact, indigestion of any kind. They digest all the food with great thoroughness and facilitate its absorption by the blood, which carries it to the weakened, distressed nerves and builds them up, so that every symptom of Nervous Exhaustion is gotten rid of."

VETERANS BEGIN ANNUAL REUNION

Grand Camp of Virginia Called to Order in Danville Yesterday.

WELCOMED BY THE MAYOR

His Address Received With Applause—Judge Williams One of the Speakers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, Va., October 12.—The twenty-second reunion of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia was called to order this morning at 11 o'clock by Grand Commander S. S. Brooke, of Roanoke, in Ridge Street Tabernacle.

The Decorations Beautiful.
The building was attractively decorated in the Confederate colors. Long streamers of red and white bunting were draped from one end of the large auditorium to the other, while Confederate flags were suspended from the various pillars throughout the building. Seated on the platform were the members of the Grand Encampment, the Confederate Choir, in their gray coats and hats, and the sponsors and maids of honor. Mrs. Andrew Jackson Montague, a prominent worker for the Home for Needy Confederate Women, also occupied a seat of honor on the stage.

Just before 11 o'clock W. N. Ruffin, chairman of the committee on arrangements, announced that dinner would be served free to all veterans at the Star Warehouse after adjournment.

When Luther's band marched down the main aisle about 1 o'clock, playing "Dixie," the entire audience arose and the tabernacle rang with the cheers of the old war heroes. The camp was then called to order by Grand Commander S. S. Brooke, who called on Grand Chaplain Rev. James P. Hays, of the Star Warehouse, for prayer. Music by Luther's band followed the prayer, and a number of familiar Southern airs were played, the enthusiasm of the old soldiers again being awakened when "Dixie" was played. The rendition of "Bonnie Blue Bird" by the Confederate Choir elicited much enthusiasm.

The Address of Welcome.
Mayor Harry Wooding, commander of Cabell-Graves Camp, made the address of welcome. He dwelt on the part Danville had taken in the struggle, and the number of men who had defended the Southland. He referred to the various battles of the Confederacy, when the boys in gray had displayed valor and heroism. During the course of his remarks he was frequently interrupted by applause.

The feature of the morning session was the solo, "Lorena," sung by Mrs. John N. Wylie, the sponsor for the Veterans from the Fifth District. The address of welcome was responded to by Captain R. S. Parks, of Luray, and Samuel W. Williams, following Captain Parks, and paid a glowing tribute to the women of the Confederacy. Grand Commander S. S. Brooke made his report just before adjournment, and reported the organization of a new camp during the past year. Crystals No. 136, of Halifax, now having a membership of twenty. Of the 128 camps composing the Grand Camp, only seventy-four made reports to the Grand Camp. In closing, he referred touchingly to those who had passed over the river since the last meeting.

The Committee.
The following committees were announced: Credentials—Duval Porter, A. Jennings, W. B. Lenz, George J. Rogers and S. L. Crute.

Resolutions and Disbursements—Stith Bolling, John Lamb, James Maggill, George H. Mulvey and Richard Mansson.

The Virginia Division, Sons of Confederate Veterans, was called to order by Commander Pritchard, in the auditorium of the Y. M. C. A., this afternoon at 4:30, for organization. The Sons will hold their business sessions to-morrow morning.

DANCES—ANDERSON.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ALEXANDRIA, Va., October 12.—A pretty dance was given at Christ Episcopal Church at 8 o'clock this evening, when Miss Rose Moncrief Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Anderson, became the bride of Lieutenant Robert Alden Daves, United States Navy. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. CONFESSES KINRADE MURDER

Man in London Says He Got $500 for Killing King in Hamilton, Ont.

OTTAWA, October 12.—The murder of Ethel Kinrade, the most sensational perhaps in Canada's history, may yet be solved. The Montreal Star's special correspondent in London cabled to his paper as follows:

"Edward William Bedford gave himself up to the police here on confession that he had murdered Ethel Kinrade by shooting at Hamilton, Ont., last February, at the instigation of another man whose name he had forgotten, but who gave him $500."

It will be remembered that the police made a violent struggle to force the girl's sister to confess the murder, or at least some guilty knowledge of it.
