A VERY brilliant event will take place this evening in St. Paul's Church at half-after 6 o'clock, when Miss Allice Jennings, daughter of William Leslie Jennings, will become the bride of Ernest Campbell Mead, also of Richmond.

The altar will be effectively decorated in palms, white chrysanthemums, roses and asters, and Professor Rhinehardt, who will preside at the organ, will render Rubenstein's "Melody in F" during the ceremony.

The bride will enter the church on the arm of her brother, Robert Meredith Jennings, who will give her away. She will be handsomely gowned in ivory satin, trimmed in duchess lace and pearls, and her tulle veil will be caught with a coronet of orange blossoms.

The groomsmen will be: Phillip H. Powers, Selator Blackiston, Arzyle Turner, E. A. Baughman, Jr., John Cary, Clinton Williams, Otis Winston, of Washington, and Hunt Hanna, of Norfolk. John Howe Cecil will act as the groom's best man.

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product, has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the approval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed, because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States, in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

Tweedledee and Tweedledum; or, the Way of Man

BY BEATRICE FAIRFAX. Man sets very high store on neatness in woman, and yet he is not invariably neat himself. If a man called on a girl and she received him in wrapper and papers, he would be deeply insulted and would probably lose all interest in her. And yet the same man would not think it such a very serious offense were he to make his call unshaved. It is just as important that a man keep himself neat and well groomed as that a girl should. You need not dress in the height of fashion, and no girl of heart and sense will care whether you do or not. Your coat may be shabby, but it can be well brushed. If you cannot manage to wear clean.

fresh linen, then you cannot afford to pay attention to any girl. How can you expect a girl, sweet-looking girl to feel any interest in a man whose hands and nails are not clean and who will not take the trouble to shave before calling on her?

Girls Notice Such Things. Girls notice all such little details and judge a man accordingly. Also, do you think a girl enjoys talking to a man who smells of spirits and strong tobacco?

If you expect a nice girl to be interested in you and to go out with you, it is necessary that you make yourself attractive. It is not necessary to spend a lot of money on a girl in order to win her love, but it is necessary to be thoughtful of her comfort and to treat her with absolute respect and courtesy.

You must take care of her and not treat her as you would another man. Girls love to be considered and protected. If a girl is worth wooing she is worth wooing to the best of your ability.

If you win the love of a good, sweet girl, you are a mighty lucky young man. You may feel that in marrying a man gives up a great deal of liberty and assumes many responsibilities. That is very true, but don't you think the girl also gives up a good deal?

Mutual love, of course, compensates for all that either gives up, but there is nothing unequal in the sacrifice. If you are going to assume the duties of a married man, and undertake to provide for a wife, you must make up your mind to change many of your bachelor ways.

You may not be able to smoke as many cigars and you will no longer be a free lance, able to spend your evenings and holidays where your fancy will.

If the girl is not dearer than that bachelor freedom, don't marry; you don't love her well enough. If a girl asks you to give up drinking and smoking for her sake, remember that you will benefit by it more than she. You may not be able to give up both; if so, give up the drinking.

Supposing you saw the girl you love drinking cocktails, how would you feel? Well, that's the way she feels when she sees you drinking them. They are just as bad for you as for her.

Do you think a man who drinks to excess or gambles has the right to ask any girl to marry him? Is he fit to become the head of a household and the father of a family?

You young men expect a great deal of girls. The standard you set is a high one. Remember that the girls expect quite as much of you.

If a Thousand People

Told you that a certain thing had done them worlds of good, mentally and physically, wouldn't you feel it worth while to investigate the matter thoroughly, to find out how it might affect you?

We have received thousands of testimonials from people who have voluntarily written us of the benefit derived from quitting coffee and using

Postum

The majority of these people had no idea that coffee caused their headaches, stomach troubles, bad nerves, &c., &c., until after the change—often at the suggestion of a friend who knew about Postum—then they understood.

Ask a friend if coffee agrees, and if the aches and ails come from coffee—investigate!

DIDN'T KNOW That Coffee Was Causing Her Trouble

So common is the use of coffee as a beverage, many do not know that it is the cause of many obscure ails which are often attributed to other things. The easiest way to find out for oneself is to quit the coffee for a while, at least, and note results. A Virginia lady found out in this way, and also learned of a new beverage that is wholesome as well as pleasant to drink. She writes:

"I am 40 years old, and all my life, up to a year and a half ago, I had been a coffee drinker. About ten years ago I had dyspepsia so bad that often the coffee I drank would sour on my stomach and I could not retain it.

"Severe headaches and heart weakness made me feel sometimes as though I were about to die. After drinking a cup or two of hot coffee, not knowing it was harmful, my heart would go like a clock without a pendulum. At other times it would almost stop, and I was so nervous I did not like to be alone, and the pity of it all was I did not know that coffee was causing the trouble.

"Reading in the papers that many persons were relieved of such ailments by leaving off coffee and drinking Postum, I got my husband to bring home a package. We made it according to directions, and I liked the first cup. Its rich, snappy flavour was delicious.

"I have been using Postum about eighteen months, and, to my great joy, digestion is good, my nerves and heart are all right—in fact, I am a well woman once more, thanks to Postum." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.
