

Raleigh Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., January 26.—The Over-the-Tea-Clubs Club was fortunate this week in having Mrs. P. D. Gold for hostess Thursday afternoon. It was one of those delightful hours spent by congenial people in social pastime under the guidance of an especially gifted and gracious hostess. The meeting was one of the most delightful the club has yet held.

Miss H. M. Morson and Joseph B. Cheshire, Jr., went from Raleigh to Hillsboro for the Rouhac-Webb wedding Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Hill Webb became the bride of William S. Rouhac, the ceremony being in St. Matthew's Episcopal Church and Judge and Mrs. Henry Page and their daughter, Miss Nancy Page, of Princess Anne, Md., were here the past week, guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Royster, and were the recipients of much social attention. Mrs. Royster is a daughter of Judge and Mrs. Page.

Mrs. H. W. Jackson and two sons, Masters Herbert, Jr., and Samuel, have gone to Richmond to make their home. Mr. Jackson being now president of one of the leading banking houses of the Virginia city. Mr. Jackson's mother, Mrs. E. E. Moffitt, will also go to Richmond to reside. In the next few days, the people of Raleigh give up this charming family with extreme regret.

Misses Mattie and Gertrude Satterfield, sisters of Mrs. Kitchin, who have been attractive guests at the Governor's Mansion for several weeks, have gone to Roxboro to spend a while as the guests of Mrs. W. R. Hambrick.

Miss Mary Martin, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who is the guest of General and Mrs. Garle Woodruff, was the guest of honor for a bridge party Tuesday afternoon by Miss Mary Latta. Miss Frances Lacy won the prize for best playing. Miss Myers, of Washington, and Miss Bryan, of Connecticut, were other out of town guests. Miss Latta delighted every guest with her cordial hospitality.

There were interesting papers by Mrs. John Harding and Mrs. E. K. Lacy and a report on art, by Mrs. R. B. John, in connection with the meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Book Club, which had Mrs. E. K. Lacy as hostess this week. The special subject was "The Legend of Pritchard, the Great, as Translated From the Morse Language." In attendance, as special guests, in addition to the club members were Mrs. C. B. Aycock, Mrs. Albert Anderson, Mrs. Walter Woodard, of Wilson, Mrs. W. C. Tyree, Mrs. J. B. Pearce and Mrs. Ernest Martin.

Mrs. Gregory S. Gannon received a hundred or more guests Saturday afternoon at a brilliant "at-home" in honor of Mrs. Frank S. Gannon, who is visiting her. The reception was from 5:30 to 8:30 o'clock.

Misses Julia Culbreth and Jane Kornegay rendered a most delightful musical program at Peace Institute Friday evening, that was greatly enjoyed by a large company of people. Miss Culbreth has a remarkably sweet alto voice, and Miss Kornegay has a soprano voice of great promise.

Mrs. John C. Drewry was hostess for her bridge club Friday, 11 to 1. Special guests other than club members, were Mrs. Albert Cox, Mrs. A. B. Andrews, Jr., Mrs. L. A. Mehler, Mrs. H. G. Connor and Mrs. Greff Cannon.

For the Johnsonian Book Club, Mrs. William J. Andrews was hostess Friday afternoon in place of Mrs. H. H. Bailey. There were delightful papers by Mrs. V. E. Turner and Mrs. L. McK. Pittinger, the latter being president for Mrs. A. B. Andrews, who could not attend. Special guests were Mrs. C. A. Woodruff, Mrs. Hubert Hayward, Mrs. Baich, Mrs. A. Hoke, Miss Margaret Ward, Mrs. E. K. Lacy, Mrs. Albert Cox, Mrs. John Andrews and Mrs. A. B. Andrews, Jr.

Mrs. E. E. Moffitt, who leaves soon to make her home in Richmond, was the guest of honor for a delightful informal tea Monday afternoon by Mrs. Alex J. Field. Special friends of Mrs. Moffitt were the invited guests, and included Mrs. H. W. Jackson, Mrs. Horace Dowell, Mrs. F. M. Harper, Mrs. Haywood White, Mrs. C. G. Latta, Mrs. W. H. Bagley, Mrs. S. B. Williams, Mrs. W. McC. White, Miss Edith Roy, et al. Miss Jane Ward.

Mrs. William B. Glavin was hostess Wednesday afternoon for the Waverly Review Club. There was a literary program of special interest to the club women and a dressless provided special entertainment and refreshments that afforded an afternoon of exceptional enjoyment for every one.

Bremo Bluff Social News. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bremo Bluff, Va., January 25.—The dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McKenna was a decided success. The jolly crowd which commenced dancing early, and at 12, refreshments were served, after which dancing was resumed.

Mrs. C. M. Chevington also entertained delightfully on Tuesday. Cards and other games were indulged in, while the sugar was stowing, and then the young people had a glorious time pulling candy. There was great rivalry for the grand prize for the one who pulled the prettiest, and the prize was won by Mrs. E. B. Taylor.

Mrs. I. R. Reardon, from spending the winter with her father at Dillwyn, passed here on Friday en route to Savannah, Ga., where she will join her husband, and make her home in the future.

Miss Virginia Seay returned to her home at Shores Saturday, after paying Miss Tinnie Jennings a visit. Mrs. V. C. Ansell returned to her home at Hanover Saturday, after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ansell.

Mrs. C. C. Ogg left Friday for Hanover, Va., to spend some time with her sister, after which she will make an extended trip to Washington, D. C., where she will visit her cousin. Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell left for Richmond Wednesday morning, after spending some time at Hotel Johnson.

Mrs. R. A. Shipp is spending some time with relatives at Central Plains.

Waverly Social News. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Waverly, Va., January 25.—On last Wednesday afternoon a party of friends gathered at the hospitable home of Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Edwards, to celebrate the birthday of the host, Rev. W. W. Edwards. An elegant dinner was prepared by the hostess. Among those who were present were Judge J. E. West, Rev. H. E. Routledge, Rev. Mr. Williams, Rev. W. F. Dunaway, Jr., A. Gray, J. E. Wilcox, E. L. Gray, Harvey Plewman, D. Gray, S. V. Ellis, R. D. Norris, J. W. West, M. L. Birdsong, Thomas H. Howerton, M. H. West, P. H. Lamb, R. W. Arnold, Jr., Morgan Huntcutt, Hamilton King.

Wallace Chappell, who has been spending some time in Blackstone, Va., has returned home.

Miss Irma Jeffries has returned to her home in Chase City, after spending several weeks in Waverly.
