Reception This Afternoon. The reception at the Asbury Place Church this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock will be a very attractive affair. A delightful and interesting program has been arranged, one unique feature being the "Question Box," conducted by two of the conference officers. All of the women of the church and all friends are cordially invited to attend.

Wedding in Portsmouth. A Trinity Church, Portsmouth, was the scene of a very pretty wedding Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when Miss Nellie Blount Rives and Lewis Palmer King were united in marriage by the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Thompson. The bride, attractively attired in a gray broadcloth tailored gown carrying a shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and maidenhair ferns, was given away by her father. Her sister, Miss Bettie Rives, wearing a gown of pale blue satin in crepe and a large black picture hat, carrying La France roses, was her only attendant.

The groom's best man was his brother, William King, and the following were ushers: W. M. Andrews, James Spedding Farish, L. W. Porter and John Lewis Thomas.

Miss Mattie Hunter was at the organ, and the bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March. April Birds" was played during the ceremony.

The chancel was prettily decorated with Easter lilies, spruce, ferns and palms, and numerous lighted candles. Among the out of town guests were Captain and Mrs. T. P. Pollard, of Raleigh, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. R. Barnwell Rosewell, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Roper Johnson, of R. E. Bland, Misses Anne and Lula Rives and Miss Mary Pollard, of Petersburg; Mr. and Mrs. McClure, of Richmond; Mrs. R. S. Bryant, of Waco, Va.; Mrs. C. F. Carlton, of Boykins, Va.; Mrs. C. A. Pond, of Wakefield, Va.; Mrs. Elizabeth Whitely, Mr. and Mrs. Hicks Rives, of Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. King left for a Northern tour, which will include New York City, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

Week-End Trip. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spencer will entertain a party on their private car on a week-end trip to Charlottesville, Va., leaving Washington Friday morning. The party will include Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Jordan and Mrs. Roosevelt. They will visit the University of Virginia before returning to Washington.

Special to The Times-Dispatch. Lake City, S. C., April 7.—One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place here Tuesday evening at the Baptist Church. Miss Edith Margaret Carter became the bride of Dr. J. Frazer Jones. The ushers were Dr. Alva Weaver and S. L. Courtney, and the bridal party was composed of J. Lenwood Richardson, with Miss Margaret McNeill, of Columbia; S. C. V. Glenn Rogette, with Miss Loula Chandler, J. Peter Mathews, with Miss Irene Agnetts, the dame of honor was Mrs. H. W. Carter, sister of the bride, and Miss Bertha Morris was maid of honor. The bride entered with her brother, T. Lido Carter, and the groom was accompanied by his best man, Dr. Clarence David Rollins. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. F. Jones, brother of the groom. The decorations of the church were in white and gold, with the background of ferns. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Della D. Carter, of this place, and a graduate of the Methodist Episcopal School of Richmond. The groom is the son of J. P. Jones, of Mecklenburg county, Va., a demonstrator of anatomy, Medical College, Richmond.

Immediately after the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. Jones left for an extended Southern tour. They will be at home after April 25, at 6 East Grace Street, Richmond.

A reception was given the bridal party on the evening of April 4 at the home of the bride's mother.

Special to The Times-Dispatch. Charlotte, N. C., April 7.—Philip Stanley, a merchant at Red Bank, this county, and Dr. W. C. Lucy Sandridge, of White Hall, were married at noon to-day at the residence of the groom's brother, Arthur Sandridge, at Ivy, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. M. S. Watts, of the Albemarle circuit.

Special to The Times-Dispatch. Wayneboro, Va., April 7.—Rev. Harry E. Baker, former pastor of the Methodist Church in Basic, and Miss May Newcomb were united in marriage at the home of the bride in Basic on Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock. Rev. Fred Allison officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Baker left this morning for Eastern Maryland, their future home.

Special to The Times-Dispatch. Lynchburg, Va., April 7.—Wednesday night at the parsonage of Central Methodist Church, Rev. J. A. Thomas officiating, Colver Grimes, of Lynchburg, W. Va. The marriage will be celebrated some time in May.

CITY OFFICIALS NAMED BY CAUCUS

Petersburg Council Nominates Candidates for Election in July.

VISIT OF STATE PRESIDENT Negro Arrested on Charge of Complicity in Murder.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 199 North Commerce Street, Petersburg, Va., April 7. The caucus of the two branches of the Common Council, with one exception, last night nominated all of the present city officials for re-election on the first of July for four years' terms of office. The list is as follows: City auditor, G. B. Gill; city attorney, George Mason, register of waterworks, James Brockwell, clerk of the markets, J. A. Pulley; keeper of Blanford Cemetery, L. P. Hoag; city physician, Drs. W. H. Crockerford, W. P. Hoy and R. H. Jones; health officer, Dr. R. A. Martin; port warden, W. P. Atkinson; committee clerk, P. G. Bunting; inspector of milk and food supplies, Jas. E. Collier; collector of delinquent taxes, Chas. L. Wright; city engineer, R. D. Budd.

For several of these offices there was sharp competition, and in some instances the vote was close. George Cameron, Jr., was nominated a member of the Board of Police Commissioners, in place of W. H. Cooper, whose term expires July 1, and Mortimer Williams was nominated to succeed himself as a fire commissioner.

A great deal of interest was manifested in the nomination of the Board of Overseers of the Poor—two citizens from each ward—by the caucus. While no pay is attached to the office of overseer, the board has good patronage to bestow—the superintendent of and the physician to the almshouse. For this latter position three physicians are applying, and to this fact and to much canvassing it is said, was due the choice of the board. Three of the present useful members were defeated in the caucus and the following full board was nominated: First Ward, Jas. M. Saunders, John D. Slate; Second Ward, S. M. Green, M. W. Pyne; Third Ward, B. O. Egerton, A. A. Alley; Fourth Ward, J. B. W. Smith, LeRoy Roper; Fifth Ward, Chas. R. Andrews, J. Powell Watson; Sixth Ward, John H. Perkins, J. A. Hanks.

Visit of State President. Mrs. Eller, of Suffolk, State president of the Virginia Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will visit Petersburg to-morrow, and will be received by the Petersburg Chapter of Daughters at a special meeting called for the afternoon in A. P. Hill Camp.

The political ball incident to the spring election for Aldermen and Councilmen was started to-day by the announcement of Charles E. Bowle and John J. Nelms, as candidates for the Common Council from the First Ward. The two retiring Councilmen for that ward are Thomas B. McClure and W. S. McCance. One half of the membership of the two branches of the Council will be elected in June.

A Notable Anniversary. To-day is the sixteenth anniversary of the memorable fire and explosion at the Rembrandt fireworks plant in Petersburg, by which several of our citizens lost their lives and others were seriously injured. Among the latter was Chief Edgar Farley, of the Fire Department, who was desperately injured, and who bears his scars to this day. Among those killed were Charles N. Foy, John Bland and Capt. James T. Toshi.

T. Pannill's Sons sold at auction to-day for John D. Watkins, trustee, an undivided one-third interest in the "Bell tract" of 294 acres of land in Prince George county, three miles from Petersburg, for $3,000. W. S. Rahlly, of this city, was the purchaser. Six years ago the entire tract was valued at $2,400.

A meeting of the teachers of Dinwiddie was held at the county courthouse yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Harvey Seward, in honor of her late husband, Mr. Board, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Rosa Powell, of Wake Forest, N. C., the latter of whom was a former member of the club. The program embraced selections from modern composers. The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. William H. Hodges Mann, at the Executive Mansion, in Richmond.

The Petersburg representatives on the list composing the permanent organization of the Fortification Conference recently formed in Washington, D. C., are William M. Jones, Edwin L. Quarles and William E. Poole. The fortnightly magazine given by the students of the Southern Female College to-night was an event of great interest. A "Lohengrin" lecture was delivered by Miss Churchill, the director of music, and the piano and vocal numbers on the program were from Wagner's opera, "Lohengrin."

Serious Charge. Charles Thomas, negro, arrested here last evening on the charge of complicity in the murder of another negro in Surry county some weeks ago, was taken back to that county this afternoon by Sheriff Edwards and Police Officer Price, of Dendron. Thomas is not charged with the actual killing, but it is alleged that he furnished the pistol with which the murder was committed. The murderer has never been arrested.

Successful revivals are in progress at Ettrick Methodist Church and at Grove Avenue Baptist Church, in this city.

INJURIES PROVE FATAL. W. L. Richmond Dies as Result of En-counter with His Brother. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Danville, Va., April 7.—William L. Richmond, a well-known farmer of Caswell county, N. C., died yesterday morning at his home as the result of injuries sustained Tuesday afternoon in an encounter with his brother, John D. Richmond, Jr., who is now in jail in Yanceyville, awaiting trial on the charge of murder. The two brothers implicated in the deadly shooting affray are the sons of John D. Richmond, of Top Knot, Caswell county. They are both married, and their ages range between thirty-five and forty years. They resided on adjoining plantations, and on Tuesday afternoon, some time between 3 and 4 o'clock, they quarreled over a singletree to a wagon. Hot words passed between the brothers, and as a culmination John Richmond is alleged to have secured a double-barreled shotgun and opened fire on his brother. Both loads took effect, resulting fatally.

The affair came to Yanceyville and surrendered to the authorities. So far as known, the only witnesses to the affray are two negroes.

AdRins—Elmore. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Henderson, N. C., April 7.—A beautiful wedding was celebrated here at noon in the Baptist Church, when Dr. Elmer Hall Adkins and Miss Caroline Louise, the attractive daughter of Captain and Mrs. J. T. Elmore, were united in marriage. Rev. J. R. Doan, the pastor, officiating. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and dogwood. The ushers were William Horner, of Rosemary, T. M. Patterson, Charles Elmore, Oxford, Dr. Ed. Fenner, J. I. Miller and A. C. Zolteffer. The bridesmaids were Mrs. C. O. Fountain, sister of the bride, Washington, D. C.; and Mrs. S. P. Cooper, of the bride's home. The groom's attendants were Miss Charlotte Adkins, Southampton, sister of the groom; Misses Kitchins, Scotland Neck; Leah Perry, Julia Cooper, Mabel Kelley, Corinne Gregory and Myrtle Jones, Kenansville. The groomsmen were Dr. Irwin, best man, Roanoke Rapids; Dr. Pearce, Dr. Taylor, Thomas Horner, Robert Davis, Augustus Moore and Samuel Watkins.

The bride and groom left on the northbound train for Washington, Baltimore, New York and other cities. On their return they will make Rosemary their future home.

Sentenced for Selling Whiskey. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Suffolk, Va., April 7.—The fifth conviction in four days for illicit liquor traffic occurred this morning when Jere Street and Julius Lawrence were fined $25 each and sent to jail for three months. Suffolk has been legally "dry" for more than a year.

MAIL CARRIER NOT INSANE. Ruling of Henry Postmaster Causes Great Excitement. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., April 7.—The little town of Henry, in Franklin county, is undergoing a period of excitement almost without parallel in its history. The trouble was caused by the suspension yesterday of Rural Free Delivery man C. J. Shelton by Postmaster A. L. Johnson, of Henry, the postmaster alleging that the carrier was insane. A commission in Lynchburg was hastily summoned, and last evening a verdict was returned that Shelton was sound, both mentally and physically, adding that from the evidence presented they were of the opinion that the warrant of lunacy was sworn out through prejudice and malice. Shelton was to-day restored to his position, and he covered his route as usual, receiving congratulations from his admirers.
