

be contended that he can fill Aldrich's place to the full.

Opening for Progressives. It is regarded as inevitable that the progressive tariff doctrines of Beveridge, Dooliver, Cummings, Clapp and Nelson will be given more days in court in the future because there will not be men to gainstay them with the word of authority Aldrich could deliver.

In consequence a wall is expected to go up on all New England and the States of the Atlantic seaboard. And by the same token there are likely to be rejoicings west of the Ohio River.

RIDES TO VICTORY ON TARIFF REFORM

Washington, D. C., April 19.—Although the Democratic members of Congress claim the Rochester election to-day is a party triumph, indicative of Democratic victory at the polls throughout the country in November, the Republicans hold that the personal side of the two candidates was the leading factor in the result.

When the announcement of Haven's victory was conveyed to William Jennings Bryan, just as he took a train for the West to-night, he expressed his deep satisfaction. "It is very significant," he said, "not only as regards the relation given to the Republican party on that whole, but it is vitally significant in that it goes to show that Republicans are displaying a will and intention to register their protest against candidates when those candidates are not personally satisfactory. Mr. Haven's victory is a notable one, and pregnant with great political possibilities."

"The result in the Rochester district," said Champ Clark, minority leader in the House, taken in connection with the results in the Missouri District, and the Fourteenth Massachusetts District, proves conclusively that the country is disgusted with the Republican administration and the Republican voters propose to overthrow them."

Representative Charles N. Fowler of New Jersey, who was deposed from the chairmanship of the Committee on Banking and Currency by Speaker Cannon, declared that the election result "was a judgment on the part of the American people are tired of political piracy, and intend to prevent it from now on."

LITTLE EMOTION SHOWN BY WOLTER

Listens to Harrowing Description of Death of Ruth Wheeler.

New York, April 19.—Albert Wolter sat in court this afternoon and faced the mother of Ruth Wheeler, the fifteen-year-old stenographer with whose murder he stands charged. At no time during Mrs. Wheeler's testimony did he openly evince emotion.

Mrs. Wheeler, called as the third witness by the State.

The jury box had been filled shortly after the opening of the afternoon session, and Frank Moss, assistant district attorney, had delivered the opening address for the prosecution. Mr. Moss spoke calmly and in a low, even tone, which made more gruesome the harrowing details of the murder. He admitted that the State would depend largely on circumstantial evidence, "but," he said, "I shall show that her death was caused by strangulation. I shall show you the cord that was found around her neck, and which sank into the tissue. I shall show you that strangulation and incineration were not the only injuries inflicted on that poor girl's body, and the person who killed her, I shall prove is Albert Wolter."

During this recital, Wolter showed some evidence of emotion. When Mr. Moss had closed, however, the prisoner quickly regained his composure. Mrs. Wheeler appeared a nervous, after an architect had identified a diagram of Wolter's room, where the body was found, and after John Taggart, a waiter, who lived in an adjoining apartment, had described how he and his wife found the bundle in which the upper part of Ruth Wheeler's body was wrapped. This bundle was pushed from a fire escape, and subsequently opened in the yard below.

Maggart told with effect how he had cut the sack open and revealed the charred bust, with the face blackened, and the teeth protruding. It was a horrible description, but Wolter was apparently unconcerned.

D. A. R. CONGRESS CENTRE OF STORM

Secretary-General Reproved for Criticizing President.

General.

Washington, D. C., April 19.—The forecast storm broke in the nineteenth Continental Congress of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution to-day, when the administration forces were sustained in their first skirmish with the opposition. The contest centered around Miss Mary H. Wilcox, recently secretary-general, who, after a parliamentary wrangle, was censured by the congress for the issuing of a circular.

Spring-Cleaning

The Human System Needs It.

Mrs. M. Morgan, 411 Fourth Avenue, E. Brainerd, Minn., writes: "I take from one to two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla every spring to purify the blood just as regular as I do my housecleaning, and go around light-footed and light-hearted. I believe it is the best blood purifier known."

Hood's Sarsaparilla so combines the curative principles of roots, barks and herbs as to raise them to their highest efficiency; hence its unequalled cures. Get it to-day in usual liquid form or Tablets called Sarsatabs.

CITY IS DIVIDED AS TO QUARANTINE

Washington Ward Can't Ship Cattle to Other Parts of Richmond.

Part of Richmond is quarantined for cattle tick and part of it is not. This is another of the anomalous situations arising from the consolidation of the sister cities.

State Veterinarian J. G. Ferneyhough, who was in Richmond yesterday, admitted that there are thirty-two city blocks which are geographically, still below the quarantine line, and in this way Washington Ward cannot ship cattle now any more than it could before it became a part of Richmond.

However, no difference is made in the actual situation. "James River," said Dr. Ferneyhough, "is still there; it hasn't gone anywhere. So long as it is the dividing line between the counties, it will be the quarantine line."

Situation Excellent. Dr. Ferneyhough reports conditions excellent as to the health of Virginia cattle. Of course, he occasionally comes across trouble of one kind or another, but a constant improvement is noted. When he took charge of the office in 1907, there were thirty-two Virginia counties below the quarantine line. The following are all that remain: Chesterfield, Fluvanna, Greenesville, Surry, Sussex, Southampton, Nansemond, Isle of Wight, that part of Warwick not in Newport News Magisterial District and that part of York not in Bruton Magisterial District.

Besides, there is a chance that Chesterfield, and with it Washington Ward, will be relieved from quarantine before the year ends.

Of course, there are, in addition to the above, a few counties where farms are quarantined. This is allowed only in those localities where there is but little trouble from tick.

Appeal Is Granted. The Supreme Court of Appeals yesterday granted an appeal in the case of R. P. Blount against the United States Mutual Savings and Insurance Company, the Southern Mutual Life Association, L. S. D. Sauls and C. P. Orr, from the Court of Law and Chancery of the city of Norfolk. The appeal is in favor of the Southern Mutual Company and Sauls. The case involves a long series of transactions over the stock of the United States Mutual Company, in which Blount was largely interested.

The case was put on the docket and will be heard at the November term.

Books to Be Selected. Single and Multiple Lists Will Be Decided Upon To-Night.

Book agents representing most of the large and some of the smaller book publishing houses of the United States are in Richmond, spending most of the time around the quarters of the Department of Public Instruction. Their claims will be presented to-night to the State Board of Education, which will meet in its assembly room at 8 o'clock.

At that time the list of high school books to be used in Virginia during the next four years will be selected. The bids are all in and will be given due consideration. The bids were asked for on two grounds—the single and multiple systems. The board will give attention to the difference between the two systems.

It is possible that the matter of the fee paid to Second Auditor John G. Dew by the Board of Miller Fund, in consideration of his negotiation of certain securities, will be considered. A demand for the return of this money, amounting to about $500, has been made by representatives of the school.

A curious condition prevails when matters relative to the Miller Fund are taken up. The governing board is the same—the members of the State Board of Education. But as soon as the chair in favor of Governor Mann and Secretary R. C. Stearnes enters, it gives place to Judge Dev. This is in accordance with the requirements of Mr. Miller's will, which provides that the Governor shall be the chairman and the Second Auditor the secretary of the Board of the Miller Fund.

Looking Into Hamilton's Case. Governor Mann, after an extended consideration of the case of Angelo Hamilton, who was convicted of murder in Lynchburg, may extend further clemency. The facts in this case have been printed several times, together with the after-discovered evidence of a witness whose testimony tends to make it appear that Hamilton fired the shot accidentally.

This witness will be brought before the governor, and the executive will examine him as to his account of the affair, which ended in the death of Mrs. Sallie Hicks. It has already been mentioned.

Talk About Feet. Troublesome Skin Affections Put to Rest by Postlam.

A recent exchange of experiences between ten persons developed the fact that nine of them were suffering from foot troubles which caused continual annoyance and serious concern. According to those who know the best thing to do when the feet are broken, inflamed, itching, chafed or itchy, it is to apply a little postlam and note how quickly the difficulty will vanish.

Postlam is the new skin remedy, which so rapidly combats the worst cases of eczema and all skin troubles, stopping all itching with the first application. It makes quick work of eczema, herpes, tetter, scaly scalp, beriberi and every other form of itchy, foot troubles in small quantities. It will quickly banish pimples, hives, blackheads, blotches, etc. A special 50c package of postlam is prepared for those who have postlam for minor skin troubles, and this, as well as the regular two-dollar jar, is on sale at Traylor's, as well as all drug stores.

But no one is even asked to purchase postlam without first obtaining a sample package, which will be sent by mail, free of charge, by The Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York City.

Rev. Edgar Woods, D. D. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., April 19.—Rev. Edgar Woods, D. D., aged eighty-two years, passed away late this afternoon. He was born at Wheeling and educated at Washington College, the University of New York and Princeton.

After several years at the bar, he entered the ministry. A pastorate at Wheeling was followed by one in the First Presbyterian Church of Columbus, O., and eleven years in the church at Charlottesville. His health failing, he bought Pantops, and founded Pantops Academy and Seminary, administered to country churches in Alabama. He declined many calls to churches and educational institutions. He married Miss Maria Cooper Baker, of Martinsburg. Five children and twenty-nine grandchildren survive.
