TEAMS SPLIT EVEN IN DOUBLE HEADER

Norfolk and Portsmouth Each Take a Memorial Day Game.

GOOD WORK OF PITCHERS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Norfolk, Va., May 30.—Norfolk and Portsmouth broke even in the two games of the day, the Tarps taking the morning contest by 5 to 0 and the Trickers the afternoon by the score of 11 to 2.

League Needs Another Official, and as He Is Idle and Good, He Will Probably Report.

If the plans of the Virginia League management pan out as it is thought they will, Jack Grim will join the umpiring staff within the next week.

The afternoon game was easy for Portsmouth. They went after Otey from the jump, and when the hook was applied to him at the close of the fifth, Bushey, who took the firing line, was even easier for the boys with the batting clothes on.

The enthusiasm of the game for the Norfolk rooters, came to its height when the Tarps got to Vail for a few minutes, registering four singles and a double in succession, and earning three runs. Bushey steadied down after this, and was a puzzle for the rest of the game.

Portsmouth. AB R H O A E. Busch, ss, 4 2 2 0 0 0. Bowen, ss, 4 2 1 0 0 0. J. Jackson, 1b, 4 0 0 0 0 0. Toner, 2b, 4 2 2 0 0 0.

Cornell started at 40 stroke and Pennsylvania rowed to 35, but both began to lower the stroke until at the two-mile post each was rowing 24 strokes.

Cornell finished the two miles in ten minutes fifty-two seconds; Pennsylvania in eleven minutes two seconds.

DRIVERS CHEERED ON TO DESPERATE FEATS

World's Records Are Cut Down by Automobile Racers on Speedway at Indianapolis. New Honors for Oldfield.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 30.—In slashing races at the Indianapolis speedway to-day new records were set for the national championships in stock car classes, to be contested annually.

An enormous crowd cheered, the drivers on to desperate feats of speed, and companies of militia were pressed hard to control the eager spectators.

Oldfield cut the mile speed record down from 36 to 35.6 seconds, and the kilometer record from 23.7 to 23.45. He made the former records on the Los Angeles track.

In a wonderfully sustained dash throughout the fifty-mile race Harroun easily led his rivals. He was ahead of the record at thirty and forty miles and the finish. His time was 42.44.

Caieb Bragg, a Cincinnati amateur, with a Fiat, was the third star of the day's triumph. He won two ten-mile races and one five-mile free-for-all race, and had to put up a hard fight for each of them with Kirschner, in a Darracq.

For the national championships the drivers raced with all their skill, forcing the engines to the limit of power.

A Chevrolet, in a Buick winning the 151 to 250 cylinder displacement championship for ten miles, set the record down to 9:03 from 9:45, and Dawson (Marmon), wrestling from Harroun the victory in the 251 to 300 class for five miles, put a new mark at 4:41, seven seconds better than the old time.

Oldfield, in a Knox, won the five and ten-mile championships in the 451 to 600 class, which included the highest powered cars recognized under the stock car racing rules.

The honor of setting for next year's aspirants the championship record for ten miles in the 450 class went to Althen (National), who pulled down the time from 8:08 to 7:52.

Only two accidents marred the day's sport, and in neither of them was any one injured, though Harroun had a narrow escape from death.

Sliding along the top of the wall the car took a narrow turn for fifty feet and then toppled over, flinging Harroun from his seat. He got up unhurt, but the "Wasp" was a snarl of steel.

The accident occurred in the five-mile free-for-all, in which Kirschner's Darracq cast high in the air one of its front tires. The driver held his car on the track and finally turned it off to the inner field and stopped it safely in the sand.

Some Baseball Talk

BY HALF NELSON

While, of course, the Richmond rooters go to the Broad Street Park primarily to see the game, yet there are occasionally little side issues that make the thing worth seeing.

Not an ordinary, common, or garden variety of judge, such as may be found every day in the City Hall, but Judge Yeatman, who stands behind Pop Messitt and captures the balls that pass the netting of the battery.

Although of a juvenile and frisky age, the judge has realized the importance and gravity of his position, and the responsibility of his work bears heavily on him.

When in action his expression is such that a Supreme Court justice when compared with him would appear as frivolous as a carriage chorus girl, and as he throws the foul ball to the catcher it would seem that he were sentencing a man to the electric chair at last.

Now the out-grabbing of mercenary business has torn the judge away from his position of honor, and instead of skipping gaily after the passed ball, he pursues the sordid nickel. The drop from a foul ball re-turner to a soft drink dispenser is almost too far to be talked about publicly, and the front row fanatics demand that the judge be returned to the position which he has made peculiarly his own.

Considering that the Hill Climbers are shot up with injuries and fatalities, their performance in trimming the Colts yesterday is full of merit. The team has to be switched around so that three men were playing in other than their own positions, and, of course, that put the raw edge on the bunch that defeated the Colts yesterday afternoon, however, showed no break in the ranks, and the game they put up was well worth the price of admission.

Morrissey handled himself about as well as any one could expect yesterday, and nothing in the world except that beautiful baserunning of Artie Smith's defeated the Colts. Five and ten innings to a loss is pretty hard luck.

Cowan has shown up in rather fine form in the games he has worked in with the Colts, and considering that his coming solved the left field proposition, Tommy Messitt may be congratulated. Cowan is a willing worker, and his work behind the bat is good.

West Point Defeated. West Point, N. Y., May 30.—To-day's game between the Seventh Regiment, N. Y. M. G., and West Point, was called at the end of the fifth inning owing to rain. Walbridge, second baseman for the Seventh Regiment, broke his leg in sliding to first base.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Seventh Regiment... 0 3 0 0 0—3 7 2. West Point... 0 1 0 0 0—1 5 3.

Georgetown Loses to Fordham. New York, May 30.—Fordham scored an easy victory over Georgetown University today, 5 to 1, making five runs in the first and four in the fourth inning. Georgetown scored its only run in the ninth.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Fordham... 0 4 0 0 0 0—5 12 0. Georgetown... 0 0 0 0 0 0—1 5 3.

Batteries: Mahoney and S. McCarty and McCabe; Balzer, O'Conner and Teelen.

ARTIE SMITH CHILLS COLTS WITH CHEFTS

(Continued From Eighth Page) each touching him up for a couple of safeties. The remainder of the team couldn't see them at all, and as the game was never a time that the visitors had even a chance for a score.
