LOWEST RECORD FOR 3-YEAR-OLDS Colorado E., Bay Stallion, Takes Horse Breeders' Futurity in 2:06 1-2.

Readville, Mass., August 21.—Colorado E., the bay stallion owned by George H. Eastbrook, of Denver, Col., smashed the world's record for three-year-old trotters to-day, at the Grand Circuit meeting here, by lowering the time of 2:06 3-4, made by General Watts, at Lexington, Ky., in 1907, to 2:06 1-2. By winning the second heat of the American horse breeders' futurity in 2:07 3-4, he also made a new world's record for two consecutive heats. It was a most remarkable achievement, as the wind was blowing almost a gale in the face of the horses on the home stretch.

Colorado E. reached the quarter in thirty-two seconds; the half in 1:03 1-4, and the three-quarters in 1:53 1-4. Undaunted by the strong wind on the last quarter, the grand colt swept to the wire, ten lengths ahead, in 2:06 1-2. With the pole, Colorado E. led all the way in the second heat, making the time 2:07 3-4. William G. Bradley, of New York, today raised a previous offer of $50,000 for the three-year-old to $75,000, but Mr. Eastbrook would not sell if Colorado E. was to be driven by any other man in the race except Macey and Mr. Bradley refused to accept those conditions.

American horse breeders' futurity, for foals of 1907, pacing division, two in three—Directum Regent, blk. h., by Directum Kelly, first; Nell Gentry, b. f., second; Lettwich, b. f., third. Time, 2:09 1-4.

2:08 pace—purse, $1,000. Two in three—Ase Wilkes, ch. h., by Roan Wilkes, first; Beauty Wilkes, b. m., second; Dillon Queen, b. m., third. Time, 2:07 3-4.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Norfolk, Va., August 31.—Phenom Ryan, by clever work in pitches and the material assistance of Jimmie Jackson, annexed a third victory from the Colts this afternoon, before the threatening rain that began in the second inning turned into a downpour and ended the contest in the last half of the seventh. The score was 4-0.

A couple of errors in the first inning and Jackson's triple in the sixth, after Edmondson had walked a couple of men, accounted for the four runs of the Tars. A base on balls and three singles in the fourth gave the Colts their first run. Except in this inning they were perfect. The four runs and Jackson's fielding. From the stand-point of the Tars it was a wonderfully played game, with the four runs, three bases and driving in two runs, belongs all of the credit for the victory, except Ryan's part.

A number of chances were hard, and his work necessarily sensational, but he delivered the goods. In the second his wonderful stop and quick action in the greatest double play of the season, and wound up his performance by riding the ball between Ryan and Edmondson. The fence for three bases and driving in two runs, belongs all of the credit for the victory, except Ryan's part.

HIGH CLASS ENTRIES AT WARRENTON SHOW Last Exhibition on Virginia Circuit Opens With Large Attendance—Contests Snappy and Exciting Various Classes Show Up in Great Form

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Warrenton, Va., August 31.—With every thing favorable for a great exhibition, the twelfth annual Warrenton Horse Show, the last show in the Virginia circuit, opened here to-day, and the attendance was far above the average for a first day. The grounds were in the most excellent condition, the classes were large, well attended, called promptly and snappy in every way. The various hunter classes elicited great applause and interest. The harness classes and hacks never showed to better advantage, and the show was clean throughout.

Along the prominent exhibitors who were welcomed at the Warrenton Show are Mr. and Mrs. Julian Morris, with their string of international winners; Mrs. Allen Potts, who has claimed without dispute many victories and ribbons this season; Bowles Bros. M. H. Hazen, the Blenheim Farm, of Baltimore; Buckeyeland Stock Farm, and others.

Ponies under saddle, Robin Adair able race in this country. With the exception of the World's Fair Derby at Chicago in 1893 and the World's Fair Derby at St. Louis in 1894, it has always held its position at the head of the list. The high water mark was reached in 1896, when the Saratoga Futurity was won by three three-fifths of a second slower than the track record.

The most remarkable incident of the race was the brilliant performance of the nifty Love Not. On the way to the post she became unmanageable and ran for half a mile before being brought back to the start. She finally pulled her up, but it took twelve minutes to bring her back to the post. When the start came she rushed into the lead and led to the final furlong pole. On actual performance, though, the nifty Love Not was not so good. Owing to his winnings in other big stakes, Novelty had to pick up 127 pounds, conceding weight to every other horse entered.

Fifteen two-year-olds were carded to start in the second race. Babler, Swannow and Sweepaws were withdrawn, leaving twelve horses to face the starter. Betting began with Novelty at 10 to 1, and Harry Payne at 10 to 1. The play in the race developed in General Sanford's Rockville, at 10 to 1. After a delay of twelve minutes at the track the field was sent to the post on an almost perfect start. Rockville was the first to show, followed by Blackfoot and Novelty, with the others well bunched. Love Not led in the stretch, went up next the rail, with a tremendous burst, and soon had a lead of one and a half lengths on the home turn, set sail for the leader. Shilling, however, was alert. He pulled his horse out of the crowd, flashing under the wire by a little over half a length.

History of Futurity. The Futurity was first run at the Coney Island Jockey Club in 1888, with the idea of making it the most valuable race in the country.

The role of Polly, the little circus girl, in Margaret Mayo's remarkable domestic comedy-drama, under the direction of Frederic Thompson, which comes to the Academy Saturday, matinee and night, is the first really grown-up part that Ida St. Leon has played. At that, it is not so very much grown-up; the little equestrienne is supposed to be eighteen years old, and that is Miss St. Leon's age at the moment. One scene is that of an actual ring performance, with fifty people and a dozen animals all in action.
