

Social and Personal

MRS. CLIFTON MILLER was at home informally to a few friends Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Carroll Miller of Providence, R. I., who is the house guest of Mrs. W. G. Miller, in Richmond. Bowls of dahlias and pink candles decorated the parlors. Mrs. Miller, wearing an imported frock, hand-made, received with Mrs. Carroll Miller, who wore a gown of black chiffon, embroidered in gold and draped over pink satin. Mrs. John A. Coke, covered coffee and Mrs. Green B. Smith presided at the tea table. Miss Harwood Engaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Harwood, of 110 Grove Avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Louise, to Robert Gordon Spratley, of Petersburg. The wedding will take place some time in the month of November.

Miss Maybell Elaine Jett and Frank C. Hicks of this city were married in the parlors of Rev. John R. Shannon, Washington, D. C., Tuesday, October 11, at noon. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hicks went to Baltimore, where they will make their future home.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday evening at 6 o'clock in the home of the bride, 415 West Grace Street. The bride, Miss Wanda Sutherland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clifton Sutherland, became the bride of Arno Carl Heinrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Heinrich, Rev. George W. McDaniel, D. D., performed the ceremony. The house was artistically decorated with a background of palms and Southern smilax, and the mantels were banked with white roses. Bassett Hough presided at the piano and played Rubenstein's melody in F during the ceremony.

The bride entered the drawing room on the arm of her father. She wore a beautiful gown of white crepe-de-chine, with trimmings of pearls and real lace, and her bouquet was artistically arranged with a background of roses. Sprays of lilies held her veil in place. She was attended by her sister, Miss Laurie James Sutherland, as maid of honor, who wore a becoming frock of green crepe-de-

Dunlop Flour

"It Makes Everything."

Your Humble Servant

Sets you free from worry and disappointment. Dunlop Flour always brings the best results.

THE DUNLOP MILLS, Richmond, Va.

Hoheimer's

Closed To-Day. Look for Friday's Sale.

J. B. Mosby & Co.

Invite your inspection of FALL GOODS Now Ready

MILAM FOR VELVET SKIN

Sutherland & Cherry

Special Odds and ends in Furniture, Iron Beds, Mattings Stoves, etc. Cheap to close them out.

This Shoe in all Leathers. $2.50, $3, $3.50

PARRISH BROS., 21 West Broad.

Panacea Mineral Spring Water

Stocked by Owens & Minor Drug Co., Richmond, Va.

Detroit Jewel Gas Ranges

Are a Summer Necessity.

Chas. G. JURGENS' SON

Sole Agents, Adams and Broad. Right in the centre of Furniture District.

Kaufmann's Store Closed on account of Holiday. Open To-morrow.

Chinese trimmed in crystal and carried pink garlands. Garland Waddy Wilds was the groom's best man, and Wellford R. Sutherland and Leslie W. Dunn were ushers. Little Misses Jeffries and Dudley Heinrich, wearing lace-trimmed lingerie frocks over green, with green ribbons, held the ribbons.

Mr. and Mrs. Heinrich left at once for a Northern trip, after which they will be at home at 119 North Lombardy Street.

Guests from a distance included: Mrs. Walter Heinrich, of New York City; Miss Katie Stone, of Hurt Va.; Mr. and Mrs. George S. Barnard, of Norfolk; Miss Adelaide Sutherland, of Washington; and Mrs. P. N. Morgan, of Drake's Branch.

To Visit in Charlottesville. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Stewart, of Charlottesville, Va., where they will spend a meeting of the Synod of Virginia, convening to-day in that place. While in Charlottesville, Dr. and Mrs. Stuever will be the guests of Miss Carr at her home on Market Street.

Luncheon at the Country Club. Mrs. Stephen T. Beveridge entertained at a very pretty luncheon at the Country Club of Virginia yesterday complimentary to her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Boswell, of Austin, Tex., and Mr. and Mrs. Griffith, of Kentucky. Pink and covers were laid for twelve guests.

Wedding-Holiday. The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Holladay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James William Holladay, and Marion A. Pitts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Pitts, took place in Scottsville, Va., yesterday evening at 6 o'clock. Rev. L. H. Walton performed the ceremony. The church was decorated with pink roses, running cedar, ferns and lighted tapers, with a wedding bell of pink roses, under which the bride and groom were joined by Rev. Mr. Walton. The color scheme of pink and green was used at "Cliffside," the home of the bride, for the reception which followed the ceremony. In the dining room a mass of pink roses was banked on the mantel and shaded candles and a centerpiece of pink flowers on a table. White roses and ferns were used in the parlors and hall. Mrs. Daniel Lewis, of Scottsville, played the wedding march and "O, Believe Me," and "Narcissus" during the ceremony. Miss Emily Wade, of Richmond, sang Schubert's "Serenade" just before the entrance of the bride party.

The matron of honor, Mrs. A. D. Kincaid, sister of the bride, wore a gown of green mesh and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Clara Pitts, the maid of honor, was gowned in pink satin and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Emily Smith, of Washington; Miss Blanche Luck, of Ashland; Misses Martha Dillard and Lucy Powers, of Scottsville; Misses Kathleen Colley and Magruder Dillard, and the ringbearer, Allyn Dillard, wore costumes of pink and white. The groom's best man, Dr. A. L. Pitts, Jr., of Arvonnia; Garnett Burgess, of Richmond; Allen Christian and Miss Virginia, of Dillard; John Lindsay, Leake Pitts and W. O. Rhodes.

The bride entered the church with her father. She was handsomely gowned in white satin, embroidered in pearls and trimmed in real lace. Her veil was white and she carried a shower of the same flowers and white orchids. Her only ornament was a pearl and diamond necklace.

Mr. and Mrs. Pitts left at once for a trip North that will include Lake George, Thousand Islands and parts of Canada.

Guests from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Dillard, of Park View, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Dillard, of Chesburg, Va.; Miss Emily Smith, of Washington; Mrs. E. L. Luck, of Ashland; Mrs. Tomlinson, of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Perdue, of Beach, Va.; Mrs. G. M. Dillard, of Norfolk; Mrs. J. R. Thurman, of Lewisburg, Va.; and Mrs. J. T. Dorrier, of Ross, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Pitts, of Arvonnia, Buckingham county, have issued cards for the marriage of their daughter, Lottie May, to Rev. Plummer F. Jones, of the church at Scottsville, at 6 o'clock, in Arvonnia Presbyterian Church.

Miss Pitts was educated at the Mary Baldwin Seminary and has a number of friends in this city. Mr. Jones is connected with some of the most prominent firms in the State and formerly made his home in Richmond.

Meet Saturday Afternoon. The October meeting of the Richmond chapter of the Southern Association of College Women will be held at the home of Mrs. Cameron Johnson, 1015 North Plum Street, at 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Miss Ella Agnew, superintendent of domestic science in the rural schools of Virginia, will speak. The chapter extends a cordial invitation to all interested in domestic science to join the association.

Invitations Received Here. Invitations have been received here from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ober, of Baltimore, for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Byrd Ober, to John Gregg Thomas. The wedding will take place November 3 at 6 o'clock in Emmanuel Church, Baltimore.

Miss Ober has visited in Richmond on several occasions as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Watkins, of West Franklin Street. A number of Richmond people will go to Baltimore for the wedding.

Miss Ober and her father, Mr. Ober, will be at home at 119 North Lombardy Street, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Walker and Mrs. G. W. Wynne have returned from their visit in Hampton, after visiting relatives in Richmond.

Dr. McGuire, who is spending a few days in Pulaski and Roanoke, will return to the city Monday morning.

Harry Frazier, who has been a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Erskine A. Miller, in Staunton, has returned to Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Borden are spending this week in New York City.

Miss Bessie Jackson, who has been the guest of Miss Margaret Englesfield, in Indianapolis, will return to Richmond Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Moore are registered at the Hotel Gotham, in New York City.

Mrs. John N. Martin, who has been visiting relatives in Newport News.

visiting friends in Hanover county, has returned to her home.

Rock-Brewington. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Frederickburg, Va., October 12.—Howard Owen Rock, cashier of the Lancaster National Bank, and Miss Lillie DeBerry Brewington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brewington, of Irvington, were married this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Methodist Church at Irvington. The bride, wearing a gown of white tulle, with a train of white tulle, was given away by her father, Miss Myrtle V. Brewington, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The other attendants were Little Miss Ethel Brewington, niece of the bride, ring-bearer; bridesmaids, Miss Fanni Rock, sister of the groom, and Miss Pauline C. Long; ushers, Newton Weaver, of Urbanna; Gilbert K. Massick, B. Lee Simmons, Bernard Williams, W. R. Lowe, Andrew Calvin Brewington, brother of the bride, all of Irvington. During the ceremony Miss Anna Baugher, of Baltimore, sang "O Perfect Love." Mrs. Helen R. Massick, of Irvington, rendered the wedding marches, and played selections by classic and modern composers during the ceremony.

The color scheme of the decorations was yellow and white.

A reception was given at the home of the bride to the bridal party the evening before the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Rock left by steamer for Baltimore, and will continue their trip to Niagara Falls and other Northern points. After November 1 they will be at home at Irvington.

Gray-Powers. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Bristol, Va., October 12.—A pretty home wedding was solemnized here this afternoon at 3 o'clock when Miss Wanda Phyllis Powers became the bride of Elmer Cushing Gray, a member of the local chapter. The nuptials were solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Powers, on Spruce Street, near the Powers mansion, a former Virginian, but now pastor of a church in St. Louis, being the officiating minister. The ceremony was performed by Mr. Shieburg, D. D., of the First Baptist Church, of this city. Following the ceremony a reception was given at the Powers mansion, which was attended by 200 guests.

The home was elaborately decorated for the occasion. Flowers, chrysanthemums, ferns and smilax being intermingled in the decorations. The ceremony was performed under a double arch of flowers. The music was furnished by the Sullins College Orchestra.

Following the reception the young couple left for Washington, and will go thence to New Hampshire, and from there back to New York, after which they will sail for a trip abroad, and may remain in that country for two years before going to Boston, where they expect to reside permanently.

Robinson-Baines. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Fredericksburg, Va., October 12.—Ralph R. Robinson and Miss Laura B. Baines, both of Stafford county, were married in Baltimore Sunday by Rev. H. P. Jackson, of the Fuller Memorial Baptist Church, of that city.

Hammond-Crockett. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Baltimore, Md., October 12.—Mrs. Elizabeth M. Crockett, formerly of Baltimore and later a resident of Norfolk, was married to Dr. Samuel D. Hammond, of Norfolk, at the rectory of St. Peter's Catholic Church, this city, this afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William A. Reardon.

Curtis-Mitchell. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Fredericksburg, Va., October 12.—Emmett M. Curtis, a well-known young merchant of Washington, and Miss Grace F. Mitchell, daughter of Mrs. Lola C. Mitchell, also of this city, were married here to-day at St. George's Episcopal Church at 1 o'clock. The bride is only sixteen years old, and for that reason a license was at first refused, but was granted by the court. The couple left on the boat for Washington, after which they will live at Bailey.

Mitchell-Pickett. Fredericksburg, Va., October 12.—Warren Mitchell and Miss Nellie Pickett, both of King George county, were married here at the pastor's office by Evangelist J. B. Mills. The bride is only sixteen years old, and for that reason a license was at first refused, but was granted by the court. The couple left on the boat for Washington, after which they will live at Bailey.

Dew-Shelton. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Staunton, Va., October 12.—Ardie Dew, of Bailey, and Miss Sarah Adeline Shelton, of Tarboro, were married here this afternoon by Rev. D. F. Axtorn. The couple left on the boat for Washington, after which they will live at Bailey.

ELLIS GOAD CONVICTED. Gets Seventeen Years' Sentence for Murder—Man Thrown From Motorcycle. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Christiansburg, Va., October 12.—The jury returned a verdict of murder, second degree, in the case of Ellis Goad to-day. Goad, in four other murders, Thomas Lucas one night last August, in the presence of his wife, near Hannett's mill, this county. He received a sentence of seventeen years. His youth and previous good character saved him from the chair. Elmer Wills, one of the other four charged with this crime, went to trial to-day.

Stephenson, manager of the telephone company, was thrown from his motorcycle last night and seriously injured.

Councilman J. S. Childress, one of the most prominent citizens of South-west Virginia, was taken suddenly and seriously ill while on a business trip to Maryland and was brought home last night for treatment.

HOG ATTACKS CHILD. Drags Baby Into Yard During Absence of Its Parents. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) South Hill, Va., October 12.—A little child of W. T. Watson, who lives near town, had a thrilling experience the other day. The little fellow is too small to appreciate its precarious condition. It appears that a hog was loose in the yard, and the child went into the house, caught the child by the arm and dragged it out in the yard, with the intention of eating it. R. E. Daniel, who happened to be passing, heard the child's appeal for help and went to investigate the cause. The hog was killed at what he beheld, and lost no time in rescuing the little one from its perilous position. Had no one been there the child would no doubt have been killed and eaten by the brute.

COUNCILMAN RESIGNS. Action Taken Because of Removal from City. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Fredericksburg, Va., October 12.—Councilman John C. Melville has tendered his resignation as a member of the City Council, Chambersburg, Pa., to reside in order to manage the woolen mills there, in which he is interested.

Councilman J. W. Masters has purchased of John C. Melville the latter's real-estate property here on Princess Anne Street. It is desirable property, and the price for it was a good one. Mr. Masters will make a good one. Mr. Masters will make a good one. Mr. Masters will make a good one.

CRUSHED TO DEATH. Man Meets Death While Loading Machinery on a Wagon. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Roanoke, Va., October 12.—While in the act of loading a sorghum mill, William Fletcher was killed this morning at the home of I. G. Staton, about two miles above the city. Mr. Fletcher, with the assistance of two other men, was loading the mill on to a wagon when it slipped and ran over him. Fletcher was thirty years of age, and was survived by his wife, his mother and two sisters. The funeral services will be held Thursday, with burial at Green Hill.

Senator Overman Enters Campaign. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Salisbury, N. C., October 12.—Senator Lee S. Overman of Salisbury, went to Lincolnville to-day, where he makes his first speech in the campaign in the interest of Democracy. His second appointment will be at King's Mountain Friday of this week. Hon. A. H. Elliot, chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, has arranged with Senator Overman to remain in the campaign work until the day of election in November. Soon after the State convention he offered his services to the State Committee, and he is now executing the work.

Record-Breaking Tobacco Sales. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Burlington, N. C., October 12.—The largest tobacco break in the history of the market here was offered yesterday. More than 100,000 pounds were sold at prices averaging 10 cents. Twenty-five thousand pounds of that brought here was not unloaded from the farmers' wagons because of lack of floor space at the two warehouses, but was held for later sale.

THE THALHIMER STORE To Observe Holiday

The Thalhimer Store will be closed to-day.

don, the pastor, who is a relative of the bride, assisted by Rev. John T. Norton.

The bride wore a gray broadcloth traveling gown with hat and gloves to match. Dr. and Mrs. Hammond will be at the Bennett until tomorrow afternoon, when they will leave for a trip North. After October 25 they will be at home at 350 Redgate Avenue, Norfolk.

Gray-Powers. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Bristol, Va., October 12.—A pretty home wedding was solemnized here this afternoon at 3 o'clock when Miss Wanda Phyllis Powers became the bride of Elmer Cushing Gray, a member of the local chapter. The nuptials were solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Powers, on Spruce Street, near the Powers mansion, a former Virginian, but now pastor of a church in St. Louis, being the officiating minister. The ceremony was performed by Mr. Shieburg, D. D., of the First Baptist Church, of this city. Following the ceremony a reception was given at the Powers mansion, which was attended by 200 guests.

The home was elaborately decorated for the occasion. Flowers, chrysanthemums, ferns and smilax being intermingled in the decorations. The ceremony was performed under a double arch of flowers. The music was furnished by the Sullins College Orchestra.

Following the reception the young couple left for Washington, and will go thence to New Hampshire, and from there back to New York, after which they will sail for a trip abroad, and may remain in that country for two years before going to Boston, where they expect to reside permanently.

Robinson-Baines. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Fredericksburg, Va., October 12.—Ralph R. Robinson and Miss Laura B. Baines, both of Stafford county, were married in Baltimore Sunday by Rev. H. P. Jackson, of the Fuller Memorial Baptist Church, of that city.

Hammond-Crockett. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Baltimore, Md., October 12.—Mrs. Elizabeth M. Crockett, formerly of Baltimore and later a resident of Norfolk, was married to Dr. Samuel D. Hammond, of Norfolk, at the rectory of St. Peter's Catholic Church, this city, this afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William A. Reardon.

Curtis-Mitchell. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Fredericksburg, Va., October 12.—Emmett M. Curtis, a well-known young merchant of Washington, and Miss Grace F. Mitchell, daughter of Mrs. Lola C. Mitchell, also of this city, were married here to-day at St. George's Episcopal Church at 1 o'clock. The bride is only sixteen years old, and for that reason a license was at first refused, but was granted by the court. The couple left on the boat for Washington, after which they will live at Bailey.

Mitchell-Pickett. Fredericksburg, Va., October 12.—Warren Mitchell and Miss Nellie Pickett, both of King George county, were married here at the pastor's office by Evangelist J. B. Mills. The bride is only sixteen years old, and for that reason a license was at first refused, but was granted by the court. The couple left on the boat for Washington, after which they will live at Bailey.

Dew-Shelton. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Staunton, Va., October 12.—Ardie Dew, of Bailey, and Miss Sarah Adeline Shelton, of Tarboro, were married here this afternoon by Rev. D. F. Axtorn. The couple left on the boat for Washington, after which they will live at Bailey.

ELLIS GOAD CONVICTED. Gets Seventeen Years' Sentence for Murder—Man Thrown From Motorcycle. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Christiansburg, Va., October 12.—The jury returned a verdict of murder, second degree, in the case of Ellis Goad to-day. Goad, in four other murders, Thomas Lucas one night last August, in the presence of his wife, near Hannett's mill, this county. He received a sentence of seventeen years. His youth and previous good character saved him from the chair. Elmer Wills, one of the other four charged with this crime, went to trial to-day.

Stephenson, manager of the telephone company, was thrown from his motorcycle last night and seriously injured.

Councilman J. S. Childress, one of the most prominent citizens of South-west Virginia, was taken suddenly and seriously ill while on a business trip to Maryland and was brought home last night for treatment.

HOG ATTACKS CHILD. Drags Baby Into Yard During Absence of Its Parents. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) South Hill, Va., October 12.—A little child of W. T. Watson, who lives near town, had a thrilling experience the other day. The little fellow is too small to appreciate its precarious condition. It appears that a hog was loose in the yard, and the child went into the house, caught the child by the arm and dragged it out in the yard, with the intention of eating it. R. E. Daniel, who happened to be passing, heard the child's appeal for help and went to investigate the cause. The hog was killed at what he beheld, and lost no time in rescuing the little one from its perilous position. Had no one been there the child would no doubt have been killed and eaten by the brute.

COUNCILMAN RESIGNS. Action Taken Because of Removal from City. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Fredericksburg, Va., October 12.—Councilman John C. Melville has tendered his resignation as a member of the City Council, Chambersburg, Pa., to reside in order to manage the woolen mills there, in which he is interested.

Councilman J. W. Masters has purchased of John C. Melville the latter's real-estate property here on Princess Anne Street. It is desirable property, and the price for it was a good one. Mr. Masters will make a good one. Mr. Masters will make a good one.

CRUSHED TO DEATH. Man Meets Death While Loading Machinery on a Wagon. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Roanoke, Va., October 12.—While in the act of loading a sorghum mill, William Fletcher was killed this morning at the home of I. G. Staton, about two miles above the city. Mr. Fletcher, with the assistance of two other men, was loading the mill on to a wagon when it slipped and ran over him. Fletcher was thirty years of age, and was survived by his wife, his mother and two sisters. The funeral services will be held Thursday, with burial at Green Hill.

Senator Overman Enters Campaign. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Salisbury, N. C., October 12.—Senator Lee S. Overman of Salisbury, went to Lincolnville to-day, where he makes his first speech in the campaign in the interest of Democracy. His second appointment will be at King's Mountain Friday of this week. Hon. A. H. Elliot, chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, has arranged with Senator Overman to remain in the campaign work until the day of election in November. Soon after the State convention he offered his services to the State Committee, and he is now executing the work.

Record-Breaking Tobacco Sales. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Burlington, N. C., October 12.—The largest tobacco break in the history of the market here was offered yesterday. More than 100,000 pounds were sold at prices averaging 10 cents. Twenty-five thousand pounds of that brought here was not unloaded from the farmers' wagons because of lack of floor space at the two warehouses, but was held for later sale.

U. D. C. CONVENTION MEETS IN SUFFOLK

Many Delightful Social Festivities Planned for Visiting Delegates.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Suffolk, Va., October 12.—The State convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy to-day began a three days' session in Suffolk. Welcome addresses were made by Miss Anna Mary Riddick, president of the local chapter; Colonel R. S. Boykin, on behalf of the Confederate veterans, and James U. Burgess, representing the town of Suffolk. The response was by Mrs. Nathan D. Eller, president of the convention. The principal discussion of the day was regarding proxies.

Mrs. Andrew Jackson Montague extended the convention an invitation to attend a reception at the Home for Needy Confederate Women, in Richmond, and to attend also a luncheon at the Confederate Museum, Richmond. Suffolk donned gala attire in honor of the fair visitors. Numerous affairs of a social nature have been arranged by the local chapter in honor of the visitors. A brilliant reception was tendered them this evening at the home of Mrs. John B. Pinner. An old Virginia oyster roast is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon at the Lake Club house, and on that evening "historical evening" will be observed, the Pythian Castle having been secured for that purpose.

The officers of the Virginia Division follow: Officers.—Mrs. James Mercer Garnett, Mrs. Philip Tabb Yeatsman, Miss Mary Amelia Smith, Mrs. William Mahone, Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart, Miss Sallie Tompkins.

Honorary Officers.—Mrs. James Mercer Garnett, Mrs. Philip Tabb Yeatsman, Miss Mary Amelia Smith, Mrs. William Mahone, Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart, Miss Sallie Tompkins.

The program for Thursday's and Friday's sessions is as follows: Thursday: Morning session—Convention called to order by the president; prayer by Rev. F. L. Delaney; reports of chapters.

A luncheon session—Reports of standing committees; reports of special committees; oyster roast at Lake Savage. Evening session—Historical evening; historian, Miss Mary Nelson Penning.

Patrician Shoes

Patrician Shoes are modeled over lasts especially designed to fit the foot snugly and make it look trim and dainty.

The utmost care and attention has been given to overcome every little difficulty in shoe construction. Try a pair.

$3.50 and $4.00

Seymour Sycle

11 West Broad.

FORT

Of Baltimore and Washington

Will Be at the JEFFERSON HOTEL 11th, 12th and 13th

With the Finest Array of Ready-to-Wear Ladies' Attire

Street, Afternoon and Evening Gowns

Exquisite Wedding and Anniversary Gifts

The unusual kind, which makes your gift stand out in his relief among the others.

For Anything in Gold, Silver or Precious Stones Inspect the Exhibit of C. Lumsden & Son, Inc "Jewelers to the Southern People," No. 731 East Main Street, Richmond, Va.

Floral Fancies

For All Functions

Weddings, Banquets, Teas, Receptions, or any occasion where floral fitness is required.

THE HAMMOND CO., 109 East Broad, Is Equal to any Demand.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children. Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles and cures Constipation. It regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of

Wm. D. Fletcher

In Use For Over 30 Years.

Annual Session Open in Bristol

Large Attendance at Conference of Virginia Society, D. A. R.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Bristol, Va., October 12.—With a large number of delegates present, representing the various chapters in the State, the fourteenth annual conference of the Virginia National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution convened in the City Hall here to-day. Mrs. Samue'l W. Jamison, of Roanoke, State regent, is presiding over the sessions. The delegates were welcomed by Mrs. J. H. McCue, regent of the Sycamore Shoals Chapter, of Bristol.

Mrs. James G. Penn, of the Dorothea Mercer Chapter, delivered the response. This was followed by an address by Mrs. Jamison, the State regent.

Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, president-general of the national organization, delivered an address. During the afternoon the reports from the various chapters and those of the officers of the State society were heard. Luncheon was served to the delegates at the Elks' Hall at 12 o'clock.

This afternoon a reception was given the visitors at the home of Mrs. H. E. Graves. This evening the delegates were entertained at a social dinner at the home of Mrs. Price, wife of Judge John W. Price. The society will conclude the work of the present meeting to-morrow, when officers will be chosen.

CUSHION OF LOVE LETTERS. Years of Courtship Remembered During Wedding Ceremony. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Harrisonburg, Va., October 12.—Wednesday at Cook's Creek Presbyterian Church, Dold L. Lineveaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Lineveaver, and Miss Nellie Bear, daughter of E. A. Bear, all of Mount Clinton, were married by Rev. H. A. Young. During the ceremony the couple knelt upon a cushion containing the many hundreds of love letters that had passed between the young lovers during the years of their courtship.

Richard L. Lineveaver, a brother of the groom, was best man, while Mrs. Bear, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Virginia Armentrout, of Strasburg, and Miss Lucy Lewin, of Staunton.

CATTLE SHIPMENT FROM BLACKSBURG. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Blacksburg, Va., October 12.—Two hundred and thirty-five head of cattle were shipped from Blacksburg, just before the arrival of the train, to A. F. Hostetter, of Hanover, Pa. Eleven cars were required for their transportation, this being the largest shipment ever made over the Virginia Annapolis and Washington Railway. Where they were turned over to the Norfolk and Western.

These cattle were bought by Mr. Broce from Miller Bros. and B. F. Porterfield, of Giles; Johnson Bros., of Shenandoah; J. T. Gardner, of Giles; and F. Spickard, of Montgomery county. They were three-year-olds, and the price paid for the lot was about $13,000. The purchaser will put them on the New York market, after a winter's feeding. Mr. Hostetter also bought two fine horses while in the county.

MURDERER AT LARGE. Mystery Surrounds Killing of David F. Marshall, at Roanoke. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Roanoke, Va., October 12.—The coroner's jury, sitting in the case of David F. Marshall, who was murdered here late last night in a cheap boarding house, has not concluded its investigation to-night, and adjourned over until tomorrow morning. A search was kicked and beaten to such an extent that death followed within two hours after he was beaten.

Although there was an eyewitness to the murder, as yet the police have been unable to secure the name of the murderer. The place is operated by J. Jesse Marshall, was forty-five years old and leaves a wife and four children.

CRUSHED BY SORGHUM MILL. Man Meets Death While Loading Machinery on a Wagon. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Roanoke, Va., October 12.—While in the act of loading a sorghum mill, William Fletcher was killed this morning at the home of I. G. Staton, about two miles above the city. Mr. Fletcher, with the assistance of two other men, was loading the mill on to a wagon when it slipped and ran over him. Fletcher was thirty years of age, and was survived by his wife, his mother and two sisters. The funeral services will be held Thursday, with burial at Green Hill.

Senator Overman Enters Campaign. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Salisbury, N. C., October 12.—Senator Lee S. Overman of Salisbury, went to Lincolnville to-day, where he makes his first speech in the campaign in the interest of Democracy. His second appointment will be at King's Mountain Friday of this week. Hon. A. H. Elliot, chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, has arranged with Senator Overman to remain in the campaign work until the day of election in November. Soon after the State convention he offered his services to the State Committee, and he is now executing the work.

Record-Breaking Tobacco Sales. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Burlington, N. C., October 12.—The largest tobacco break in the history of the market here was offered yesterday. More than 100,000 pounds were