Social and Personal

Among the numerous luncheons and small affairs which have filled the days of this week for society will be the luncheon at the Country Club to-day for Miss Lily West, of which Miss Lora Crump will be hostess.

Mrs. Robert G. Thornton, of 1819 Monument Avenue, entertained at a very handsome luncheon yesterday in honor of Mrs. W. H. Mann. The decorations were entirely in red, and a flat plaque of crimson flowers decorated the center of the table.

In honor of her mother, Mrs. David McIntosh, of Baltimore, Mrs. Walter Norton entertained at one of the handsomest luncheons of the season at the Commonwealth Club yesterday. The table was arranged very attractively in pink flowers, a basket of pink carnations, tied with a bowknot of tulle and pink roses, being used as a centerpiece. Mrs. William Massey and Mrs. Ashton Starke served punch, and Miss Mary Williams, Mrs. William Donnan, Mrs. John Skelton Williams, Mrs. John Lyons, Miss Lucy Lay and Mrs. John T. Anderson assisted the hostess in receiving the guests.

Mrs. Morton wore a gown of pink satin, draped in black chiffon, and Mrs. McIntosh was gowned in black lace over white satin, and carried orchids and lilies of the valley. About eighty guests were present.

Mrs. William Merritt Hablison has issued invitations for a reception to be given on the afternoon of Saturday, January 21, from 4 to 7 o'clock at "Windemere," on the Cary Street Road, the affair to be in honor of Mrs. Isaac Moore Simonin, of Germantown, Pa.

The Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, met yesterday morning at 11 o'clock in the Lee Camp Hall, with Mrs. Norman W. Randolph presiding. An unusually large number of members were in attendance, and the annual reports from the officers, giving account of the financial status of the organization and the philanthropic and educational work accomplished by them in the past year, were heard with interest.

Attention was called to the fact that the general meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will be held in Richmond next November, and the interest of the members is solicited. The Jefferson Hotel has already secured a headquarters for this convention next autumn. It was announced that a picture of Jackson will be presented to the Stonehall Jackson School at 1 o'clock January 15, and all members are asked to attend.

A letter was read from Captain J. Thompson Brown, asking the Daughters to take charge of the entertainment at Lee Camp Hall on January 12. A committee was appointed by the president to confer with the quartermaster in regard to that evening.

Crosses of honor will be presented at that time, and the chest of drawers will assist in the presentation. The annual tea given by this chapter will take place on January 20 at 8 o'clock in the Lee Camp Hall. Committees will be appointed before the next meeting of this chapter, in conference with the memorial association, to formulate plans for the convention next November.

All members are requested to meet at Hancock Hall, Lee Camp Soldiers' Home, Tuesday, January 17, at 8 o'clock after 10 o'clock, to make wreaths for the Lee and Jackson Monuments. Mrs. E. P. Taylor will have charge of this meeting.

Drum and Bugle Band. The Richmond College Dramatic Club will give Oliver Goldsmith's "The Stoops to Conquer" at the Academy of Music on Friday evening, January 20. The play will be a society event, and the list of patronesses for the evening will include some of the most prominent women in Richmond. The boxes will be filled with parties for the occasion, and the fact that there is a lull in the season's entertaining will be an added attraction. Miss Leahy is training the club for the performance of the play.

Attend Reception. Mr. and Mrs. William H. White, Miss Emma Gray White and Mr. Munford, given by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooke Tuesday evening at their home in Norfolk, immediately after the rehearsal for the White-Royster wedding, which was celebrated yesterday afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church of that city. The boxes were arranged with palms and quantities of white flowers, with a draping of smilax. The guests included the bridal party and out-of-town guests.

Leaves for China. Thomas S. Moseley has accepted a position with the Anglo-American Tobacco Company, and will sail from Vancouver January 25 for Shanghai, China. Mr. Moseley is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Moseley, of 1501 Grove Avenue, and he expects to remain in the East for several years.

Joint Meeting Sunday. The King's Daughters of Richmond will unite in a service at Trinity Methodist Church, corner Twentieth and Broad Streets, Sunday, January 15, at 8 o'clock, in celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the order. The pastor of the church and Mrs. Clarence G. Burton, State secretary of the order, will address the meeting. The public is cordially invited to be present.

In and Out of Town. Mrs. George Brown, of Germantown, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. Charles Spicer on Floyd Avenue.

Miss Isabel Perkinson and Miss Eleanor Towles of the University of Virginia are the guests of Mrs. George Ben Johnston, at 407 East Grace Street.

Miss Bessie Tompkins, who has been visiting friends in Norfolk, has returned to Richmond.

Miss Helen Gray Watson is spending some time with Miss Margaret Louise Lee, at Towson, Md.

Miss Nellie McCluer has been a recent guest of Miss Hezier Kiddle, at her home in Petersburg.

Miss Lillie Jennings has returned to her home in Danville, after visiting friends in this city.

present at the ceremony, at which the Rev. Stuart Nye Hutchinson, pastor of the Ghent Presbyterian Church, officiated. The church was handsomely decorated with palms, ferns and Southern smilax, the rostrum and pulpit was banked with tall palms and lighted with cathedral candles.

The bride entered the church and was given in marriage by her father, Richard Dickson Cooke, as matron of honor, and Miss Alice Kelly as maid of honor. The four bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Boyton, of Raleigh, N. C.; Miss Cecelia Woods, of Savannah, Ga.; Miss Emma Gray White, of Richmond, and Miss Mary McIntosh Baylor. Mr. White was attended by C. Wiley Grandy, Jr., as best man, and the ushers were Robert Munford, of Richmond; Frank Sheppard Royster, Jr., of Yale; Robert Tunstall, R. E. Lee Taylor and Charles Hunter. Immediately following the ceremony a large and brilliant reception was held at the Royster residence in Colonial Avenue, after which Mr. White and his bride left for an extended journey. The popularity and prominence of both the bride and bridegroom makes their marriage of unusual interest throughout Virginia and North Carolina.

Miss Royster is one of Norfolk's most popular young society women, and Mr. White, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry White, of Richmond, is a rising young lawyer of this city.

Among the out-of-town guests in Norfolk to attend the White-Royster wedding were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Thom, of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Daney and Miss Eliza Daney, of Baltimore, Dr. and Mrs. Landon White, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Tunstall, of Washington, Mr. U. G. Hinton, of Petersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Staples Fuller, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. George Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Stamps Howard, of Tarboro, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. William Lender, of Rocky Mount, N. C.; Miss Withers, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Warren Taylor, of Richmond; William Jones, of Wilmington, Del.; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Munford, of Richmond, and Morton Bogue, of New York.

FARMERS DISCUSS MANY SUBJECTS

Large Attendance at Meeting of Various Organizations in Roanoke.

VISITORS GIVEN AUTO RIDE Institute, Dairymen's Association and Horticultural Society in Session.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., January 11.—To-day was the big day of Farmers' Week in Roanoke. It was made so by the presence of several hundred members of the Virginia State Horticultural Society, as fine a looking body of Virginians as ever gathered together. The first session of the society began this morning at 10 o'clock in the auditorium of the National Business College.

At the same hour the State Dairymen's Association, a strong and representative organization, met in the assembly hall.

The Horticultural Society was called to order by the president, Dr. S. S. Guerrant, of Franklin. Prayer was offered by the Rev. T. Claggett Skinner, of the First Baptist Church. The address of welcome was by L. E. Johnson, president of the Norfolk and Western Railway. By request, it was read by F. H. LaBonne. Mr. Johnson heartily welcomed the society to Roanoke, and gave many interesting facts concerning the development of the fruit industry in Virginia and in the country generally.

Dr. M. L. McCue, of Albemarle, responded, expressing the pleasure it gave him to see the other members of the society to meet in Roanoke. He briefly reviewed the history of the organization for the past year, giving many encouraging facts.

President Guerrant then made his annual address. The secretary, Walter Whately, of Crozet, made his annual report, showing that the society now has 650 members, including several women.

The report of the treasurer, T. W. Woolf, of Crozet, showed the society to be in fine shape financially.

James M. Irvine, editor of the Fruit Grower, of St. Joseph, Mo., gave an address on "Possibilities of the Development of the Fruit Industry in Virginia," and H. P. Gould, of the United States Agricultural Department, spoke on "The Present Status of the Fruit Industry."

At the afternoon session of the society, addresses were made by Clarence W. Moonaw, manager of the Shenandoah Valley Fruit Growers' Association, and E. L. Dayfield, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, of Lynchburg, on "How Can Fruit Growers Protect Themselves Against Organized Buyers?" On this subject S. L. Lupton, of Winchester, where the orchard man was a heavy loser by not handling his fruit through an organization. H. C. Wyser, of Dublin, made an interesting report on "Exhibits by the Society."

Cook's program consisted of "Orchard Planting," by Professor H. L. Price, State Horticulturist, of Blacksburg; on "Orchard Cultivation," by C. Wertz, of Poagsville; "A Uniform Package for the Eastern States," by Alex. Clohan, president of the West Virginia State Horticultural Society.

Farmers' Institute. The second day's session of the Farmers' Institute, held in the Young Men's Christian Association hall, began at 10 o'clock this morning. Address was delivered by A. L. French, of Byrdville, on "The Necessity of a Factor in Soil Fertility," by Percival Hicks, of the Northern Planter, "Capital As a Factor in Successful Farming," by Captain P. St. J. Wilson, State Highway Commissioner, on "Good Farming," Mr. Wilson discussed his subject in all its phases, emphasizing particularly the reduction of cost in hauling.

The Roanoke Automobile Association this afternoon invited all farmers to go in their machines over the new Roanoke-Cloverdale macadamized road. Many of them accepted the invitation and took the trip.

At a joint meeting this morning of the Virginia Berkshire and Duroc Jersey Associations, the following officers were elected: Dr. E. W. Watson, president; W. J. Quick, vice-president; S. R. Price, of Roanoke; Otto Hall, of Bedford, and Henry Patrick, of Troutville, vice-presidents; Secretary and Treasurer, Leslie D. Kline, of Richmond. Address of welcome made by Dr. N. S. Mayo, of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, and others.

Dairymen's Association. The Virginia State Dairymen's Association was called to order this morning by its president, Dr. D. S. Jones, who delivered the opening address. Professor Layman Carrier, of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, discussed "The Value of Corn Silage as a Component Part of the Ration."

Other addresses were by H. B. Gurrier, of Mississippi, on "Some Subjects of Modern Dairymen Must Consider to Succeed"; C. W. Holdaway, of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, on "Herd Testing."

At the afternoon session the association heard addresses from Joseph A. Turner, of Hollins, on "A Comparison of the Returns From a Dairy Cow and the Beef Animal"; Dr. Brownley Foster, health officer of Roanoke, on "The Production of Milk From a Sanitary and Healthy Standpoint"; Dr. N. S. Mayo, of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, on "Some of the More Common Diseases Found in Our Dairy Herds," and Dr. J. G. Fernyhough, of Burkeville, State Veterinarian, on "How to Treat Some of the Troubles Encountered in Raising Calves."

To-night's session consisted of addresses by Hon. William D. Saunders, State Dairy and Food Commissioner; O. A. Thomas, of Remington; J. B. Loomis, of Newport News; A. A. Howard, of Abingville, and W. K. Brainerd, of Blacksburg.

Overby-Dovell. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., January 11.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized this afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Dovell, when Miss Annie K. Dovell became the bride of John E. Overby, of Danville, Rev. W. F. Locke, of Martinsburg, W. Va., officiating. The house was tastefully decorated in ferns and potted plants for the occasion.

The maid of honor was Miss Edith Slater, of Washington, D. C., who wore a gown of pink chiffon over pink satin, and carried pink roses.

The bride was given away by her brother, H. H. Dovell. She was dressed in a gown of white chiffon over white satin, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

The flower girls were Misses Edith and Annie Dovell, nieces of the bride. The groom was attended by his brother, W. D. Overby, of Danville.

The wedding march was played by Miss Marion Slater, of Washington, D. C., accompanied by Mrs. J. P. Allen on the violin.

After an extended tour of the Northern cities Mr. and Mrs. Overby will reside in Danville.

Webb-Peebles. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., January 11.—There was a beautiful home marriage solemnized to-day at the residence of Mrs. Alice E. Peebles, when her daughter, Miss Alice E. Hart, of Stafford county, was betrothed to John Daniel Webb, a young business man of Disputanta. It was a quiet home marriage, and only the immediate family were in attendance. The ceremony was impressively performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. John W. Eure. The bride was becomingly attired in a suit of gray chiffon cloth, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses.

The bride and groom left on the evening train on a ten-days' trip for Palm Beach, Tampa and other points in Florida. On January 21 they will be at home at Disputanta.

Cates-Lloyd. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Burlington, N. C., January 11.—C. G. Cates, of this city, and Miss Olive Lloyd, of Orange county, were married in Greensboro yesterday.

The wedding was a complete surprise, the most intimate friends of both parties being unaware of matrimonial intentions on the part of the young couple.

BOWIE WILL FILED. Estate Left to Widow—Westmoreland Farms Sold. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., January 11.—The will of the late Eugene Bowie, of Caroline county, has been admitted to probate in the Circuit Court of that county. The estate is valued at $41,000, and is left to his widow, to go to her death to his children. There was only one bequest besides—that of the sum of $2,500 which was left to Mrs. Shepherd, of Richmond, his daughter by his first wife.

"Goose Neck" farm, in Carolina county, belonging to the estate of the late Colonel R. H. Dudley, of Loudoun county, was sold at public auction this week and purchased by L. D. George and George Tiller, at the handsome price of $60,000.

The farms in Westmoreland county known as "River View," containing forty acres, "Bloomberg," containing "Beaver Dam" and "Sunset View," 167 acres, belonging to the late Mrs. Berice E. Hart of Stafford county, have been sold to Johanna L. Schmidt, of New York, and brought handsome prices.

W. R. Lucas, of Warrenton, has purchased of Mrs. W. L. Laughlin, proprietor of the Exchange Hotel here, her lease on the property, the furniture, good will, etc., of the enterprise, and will take charge of the property on January 15. He will conduct it as a hotel, making many improvements to the property.

Jones-Payne. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., January 11.—Alexander Stuart Jones, of this city, son of C. W. Jones, and Miss Laylolette Payne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Payne, of Culpeper county, were married this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Baptist Church, in Culpeper county. Rev. J. W. Hurt, pastor of the church, officiating. The church was handsomely decorated for the occasion. The maid of honor was Miss Berdia Boxley, of Louisa county, and La Prade Starke Jones, brother of the groom, acted as best man. The groomsmen were Dr. W. C. Payne, of Rapidan, and W. Barton Mason, of this city. The ushers were W. W. Payne, of Lancaster, and John A. Gordon, of this city. The bride's costume was a traveling suit of blue diagonal cheviot serge, and she carried white roses. The costumes of the maid of honor was pink satin over silk messaline, trimmed with pearls, bands and beads, and she carried pink roses. The bride was given away by her father, immediately after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Jones left for an extended bridal trip North. They will be at home at "Elm Hurst," this city, after January 20.

WALK TRIAL IN PROGRESS. Special Constable Charged With Killing J. R. Hudson. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., January 11.—Yesterday, 8 o'clock in the Circuit Court were devoted to the trial of R. A. Walk for killing J. R. Hudson at Max Meadows on July 4 last. Walk had been appointed a special constable for the day, which was celebrated at Max Meadows by a match game of baseball. Hudson, who had been drinking, had some trouble with Alfred, the regular constable, when Walk and others came up and arrested him. As they were taking him off Hudson's son threw a rock at Walk, who turned and fired at him, striking him in the leg. Hudson then resisted and kicked Walk, who fired at him twice, striking him in the arm and breast. The last shot proving fatal. A verdict is expected to-morrow.

LAW INSTRUCTOR RESIGNS. Mitchell Now Accepts Position in Washington—J. Flory His Successor. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., January 11.—Mitchell T. Neff, formerly of Harrisonburg, but now of Charlottesville, has resigned his position as an instructor in the law department of the University of Virginia, in order to take a position with the legal department of the Southern Railway, with headquarters in Washington. Mr. Neff graduated in June past, receiving his Bachelor of Law degree at the head of his class.

The vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Neff has been filled by the election of Ira Flory, of Harrisonburg. Mr. Flory is a recent graduate of the University of Virginia, and held the position vacated by Mr. Neff until he went to Harrisonburg to practice his profession last fall.

PIMPLES I tried all kinds of blood remedies, which failed to do me any good, but I have found the right thing at last. My face was full of pimples and blackheads. After taking Cascarets they disappeared, and continuing the use of them, and recommending them to my friends, I feel fine when I rise in the morning. Hope to have a chance to recommend Cascarets to a great many. Tablet stamped C. C. C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back.
