Social and Personal

DEBUTANTE functions continue to all the days, even though the older set is generally supposed to come in for most of the entertaining following the month of January. Miss Ella Baeck will entertain at cards Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at her home at 215 South Third Street. Mrs. Edward Mayo has issued invitations for a card party on Tuesday afternoon. Her guests on this occasion will include the season's debutantes.

Mrs. J. Lightfoot Brooke will be hostess at tea on Tuesday afternoon, her honor guests for the afternoon being Mrs. Barksdale Lathrop and Miss Nan Nash, of Charleston, West Virginia. Mrs. Brooke will receive from 5 to 7 o'clock.

Returning from Abroad.
 Miss Bettie Burwell Booker, who has been with the Covent Opera Company, of London, for the past year, sailed on February 8 for New York, and will arrive at her home at the University of Virginia some time this week. She has a beautiful soprano voice, and her triumphs abroad are of much interest to Richmond people. Miss Booker having formerly made her home in this city.

Handsome Reception.
 Mrs. Herbert W. Jackson, of 509 West Franklin Street, was hostess of a very handsome reception on Thursday afternoon. About 200 of Richmond's fashionable society were included in the invitations, and the decorations were entirely in spring flowers. In the dining room the table was ornamented with a big basket of yellow jonquills and was covered with an exquisite piece of Florentine lace. The mantels in every room were banked with trailing vines and yellow flowers, and pockets of yellow blossoms were hung against the walls.

Mrs. Jackson received in a gown of yellow crepe meteor, trimmed in Duchess lace and velled in chiffon of the same shade. Her flowers were Parma violets and lilacs of the valley. Receiving with Mrs. Jackson were: Mrs. Moffitt, in white crepe meteor, with pearl trimmings, and a corsage bouquet of violets; Mrs. William Hodges Mann, in black spangled net and lace; Mrs. Thomas Nelson Carter, in old rose satin, draped in black chiffon, lilacs of the valley; Mrs. J. Allison Hodges, in pink and white, trimmed in Duchess lace; Mrs. Edmund Strudwick, in black marquisette and jet; Mrs. Richard H. Johnson, in black satin and chiffon, and Mrs. George Bryan, in pink satin with overdrapes of fern net, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. John P. McGuire, in black velvet, with a corsage bouquet of sweet peas, assisted in doing the honors in the dining room. She was assisted by Misses Evelyn Jackson, Lucy Tallaferrero and Kathleen Watkins.

For Miss Watkins.
 Mrs. Ben Rosebro was hostess at tea Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Katherine Watkins. The entire lower floor was arranged with pink flowers, and a rustic basket of pink carnations ornamented the tea table. The lights were also shaded in pink. Mrs. Rosebro wore a gown of old rose cloth, and the guest of honor wore a pink crepe meteor frock, trimmed in real lace, and carried violets.

Five little girls in lingerie frocks served in the dining room and others assisting Mrs. Rosebro in receiving were Mrs. William M. Habington, Miss Jean Knott, Miss Elizabeth Selden, Miss Katie Hoge, Miss Vera Palmer, Miss Wise and Mrs. Ambler Johnston.

Invitations Issued.
 Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lane Schmelz have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Margaret, to Robert Frederick Tate, lieutenant of cavalry, U. S. A., the ceremony to take place at "Elmwood," Hampton, Va., the home of the bride's parents, at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, February 22. Miss Schmelz has visited Richmond on several occasions as the guest of Miss Emma Clark, and is the daughter of one of the most prominent bankers in the State. Although the ceremony will take place very quietly, it will be a notable event in social and army circles of Virginia. After March 10 Lieutenant Tate and his bride will be at home at Fort Myer, Va.

Going Abroad.
 Miss Cornelia Taylor and Miss Cornelia Adams, of 215 South Third Street, expect to take a very attractive party abroad this coming summer. Misses Jane, Cornelia and Paulina Taylor, of Winston-Salem, N. C., will be among those sailing with Miss Taylor and Miss Adams for several months in Europe. They will take the southern trip, landing at Naples, and various places of interest on the Continent will be included in the itinerary of the party.

Engagement Announced.
 Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Friedlin have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Ethel Christian, to Floyd Vaun Dail, formerly of Snow Hill, N. C., but now of Portsmouth, Va. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride, 200 North Hatton Street, Thursday afternoon, February 16, and will be witnessed by only the immediate families of the bride and groom and a few intimate friends. No cards have been issued.

Children's Dancing Applauded.
 The society event of last week, so far as the small people of Richmond are concerned, was the big Valentine Fete given in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel Saturday afternoon. All of the fashionable little girls and boys were present, and a great many took part in the beautiful dances of the afternoon, which were the most striking feature of the entertainment. They were trained by Miss Ella Blinford, and thirteenth danced by sixteen girls and boys in costume: was one of the most graceful affairs given in a number of years. Miss Jean Heck and Marshall Muncie led the dances, and others taking part included Margaret Addison, Margaret Evans, Elizabeth MacLean, Helen Williams, Virginia Jones, Helene Luce, Grace Gilliam, Robert Sharpe, Robinson Capers, Decatur Jones, James Allison, Belton Larkin, MacLean and Marborough Addison. Little Misses Ann Benson and Ann Brokenbrough, who danced the tarantella dance in Tyrolean costume, were much applauded.

In Honor of Miss McGehee.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. P. McGehee, of Portsmouth, Va., entertained at a lunch party last Thursday evening in honor of their niece, Miss Blanche McGehee, of Richmond. Those present were: Misses Blanche McGehee, the guest of honor; Ruth Turner, of Suffolk, Va.; Mrs. W. A. Water, of Farmville, Va.; Anna Muth, Annie Diggs, Ida and Ruth Gregory, Ada and Ida Rudd, Mattie Davis, Lattie Robertson, Edwina Harris, Messrs. Willie Garris, Hannon Wright, Harry Davis, John Lawrence, Henry Mar, Earl Diggs, Cecil Robertson, Clifton McGehee, Joe Britt and Edwin Barkley.

Interesting Program.
 Those taking part in the song recital to be given in the parlors of the Washington Club Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock for the Children's War Relief Memorial Hospital include: Mrs. Clifton Miller, soprano; Miss Gelline Macdonald, alto; Columbus Canapa, tenor; Austin Martenstein, bass. The accompanists will be Mrs. Martenstein and Ernest Cosby.

The program for the evening will be: 1. Quartet, "A Spring Song"; 2. "The Swallows"; 3. "Carmenia"; 4. "Still as the Night"; 5. "Bandolera"; 6. Waltz Song from "Roméo and Juliet"; 7. Quartet, "Annie Laurie," arranged by Patti; 8. Selections from "Stabat Mater"; (a) "Cujus Animam," Mrs. Miller; (b) "Quis est Hic," Mrs. Miller and Miss Macdonald; (c) "Pre Precatit," Mr. Martenstein; (d) "Inimmutatus," Mrs. Miller and quartet.

Mrs. Norris will sing second soprano in this number.

Dovell-Lane.
 Announcement has been made by Mrs. Levin Winder Lane, of Williamsburg, of the approaching marriage of her daughter, Martha, to Grover Ashton Dovell.

The ceremony is set for 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, February 28, at Bruton Parish Church.

Miss Lane is well known in Richmond and Virginia. Mr. Dovell is a graduate of the College of William and Mary, and also of the University of Virginia.

Guest of Miss Crump.
 Miss Jennie Strother, of Lynchburg, is the guest of her brother, Miss Strother has been entertained a great deal since her arrival in Richmond, and was a guest of honor at a very pretty dinner of which Hermann Schmidt was host at the Country Club Friday evening. The table was arranged with spring flowers, and was set in the main dining room of the clubhouse. Miss Strother will remain in the city for several weeks.

Engagement Announced.
 Mrs. J. L. Pattison announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Emily Bertrand Tabb, to Dr. Lorimer Faulstich, of Gloucester county, Va. The wedding will be celebrated in Newport News on Tuesday, February 28.

Miss Gates Entertains.
 A charming children's party took place last Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, when Miss Mildred Meredith Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram T. Gates, entertained about twenty-five of her little friends at a birthday party given in her home, 1107 West Franklin Street. The color scheme was red and white, carrying out the Valentine idea in every detail, and tiny cupid dones in red marked the places of the guests.

Little Miss Gates's guests for her birthday party were: Jane Bove, Margaret May Hoadley, Anne Benson, Edith Bove, Florence Talley, Virginia Donnan, Margaret Brown, Elizabeth Chesterman, Mabel Small, Margaret Chesterman, Anne Brady, Ellen Gordon, Judith Hill, Elizabeth Williams, Anna Christian Guy, Florence Brazin, Virginia Belvin, Ellen Scott, Masters John Lyons, Jr., Garrett Wall, Jr., Arthur Scribner, Alexander Brown, Jr., Edmond Benson, Jr., Bernard McCray and others.

NO PLACE IN STATE FOR THIS LUNATIC
 Asylums Refuse to Receive Him, and He Is Given His Liberty.

Winchester, Va., February 12.—Probably for the first time in Frederick county—certainly in a great many years—a man adjudged a lunatic has been turned loose because there is no place in the State to send him for safekeeping. About a year ago Delbert Strother, of Warren county, was indicted, charged with stealing a horse belonging to his uncle near Winchester, and was about to be tried when physicians certified that he was insane. The court directed that he be committed to the asylum at Marion as an insane criminal, but the hospital authorities refused to accept him. The court then directed that he be committed to the asylum at Marion as an insane criminal, but the hospital authorities refused to accept him.
