

MULES AND GOATS RACE AT MONCREIF

Largest Crowd Ever Seen at Florida Course Attends "Ladies' Day."

Jacksonville, Fla., February 14.—Probably the largest crowd ever seen at a Florida race-course was at Moncreif Park this afternoon, the occasion being the third ladies' day of the present meeting.

As feature attractions the third and fifth races arranged respectively for mules and goats divided attention. Both events abounded in good contests and furnished much amusement.

Melland, favorite, captured the handicap at six furlongs, ran as sixth race, from a field of fast sprinters. Only two public choices finished in front.

First race—purse $100, two-year-olds, four furlongs—New Haven, 8 to 3, first; Gold Mine, 7 to 10, second; Arny, even, third. Time, 1:19.

Second race—purse $100—three-year-olds, 3 1/2 furlongs—Red Bob, 4 to 1, first; DeWitt, 2 to 1, second; Goldmine, 1 to 1, third. Time, 1:08.

Third race—special mule race, catch weights, mile—Simon Slick (O'Connor) first; Bad Bill (Banz) second; Steamboat Bill (H. Sloby) third. Time, 1:15.

Fourth race—purse $100, three-year-olds and up, six furlongs—Oakhurst, 5 to 1, first; John Amuro, 6 to 1, second; Mapleton, 2 to 1, third. Time, 1:13.

Fifth race—special goat race, one furlong—Charrett, won; Felix, second; Rabbit, third. Time, 46 3/5.

Sixth race—purse $100, two-year-olds and up, six furlongs—Melland, 4 to 5, won; Governor Gray, 5 to 2, second; Hat Bridge, 30 to 1, third. Time, 1:12 3/5.

Seventh race—purse $100, four-year-olds and up, mile and seventy yards—Noltrae, 11 to 5, first; Rio Grande, 5 to 1, second; Valley, 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:45 3/5.

Eighth race—purse $100, four-year-olds and up, selling, mile and seventy yards—Radium Star, 5 to 2, first; Canopian, 7 to 1, second; Glaere, 9 to 2, third. Time, 1:15 4/5.

JAW BONE BROKEN BY BATTED BALL

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., February 14.—The first accident of the baseball season at the University of Virginia occurred late yesterday afternoon, when Guy Herbert, a promising young player, was struck in the face by a batted ball. His jawbone was broken in two places, and he will be out of the game for some time.

The ball which struck young Herbert was batted by Spratt, a law student, who made his debut in professional baseball last season with the Roanoke team of the Virginia League. Spratt led the team in batting last year, and was drafted by the Boston National League Club.

Herbert, who is a member of the team, was playing at the time of the accident. Spratt, with several others, was batting to the outfielders. Herbert was tossed a ball to a fellow player and did not see the ball coming. One or two men yelled, but Herbert heard their warning too late.

Herbert resides in Marshall, Fauquier county, and this is his first year at the university. He attended school last year at Bingham School, Asheville, N. C.

Killed by Train in Missouri. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Potosi, Mo., February 14.—Martin Cartwright, the sixteen-year-old son of Captain and Mrs. D. C. Cartwright, who left this city about two weeks ago for a trip West, yesterday was killed yesterday at Sullivan, Mo., by a train on the Princeton Railway.

His remains will be brought here for burial, and the funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon.

for an immediate ascent. o'clock the engine had sufficiently cooled for the attempt and Simon was ready. He climbed into the seat, gave the signal for starting his motor and within less than a minute thereafter was off. And such an air blast as it was. Directly for the southern-most flag on top of the grandstand, the aviator climbed, holding on to the while at an angle which not fall very far short of a vertical. The wind, which had sprang, slightly up the southwest, whipped the steel structure, pulling it up at the planes and sections of the machine in a way that set it over up and down 15,000 spines. Simon was bucking like a wild animal when he cleared the top of the hill. The crowd, which had disappeared from the view of the aviator, was still in the air. Richmond, and many of the fans who have watched his antics around third base will be glad to know that he has been so highly honored by the Washington school. Pity that Virginia lost the Indian game. It had become a classic in the South. However, it is possible that the Orange and Blue can find a more worthy opponent on the gridiron. At least, I sincerely hope so.

Some of the papers throughout the country are printing a story purporting to tell the life history of Tex Rickard, pugilistic promoter and all-around sport. Wonder if the telegraphic report really tells his life history. I wonder, I wonder. Tex started out as a cowpuncher. Then he "gambled on the green" for quite a while. Finally he drifted into pugilistic game. Still I wonder did he tell it all. James E. Sullivan, secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, is harping on his reforms. He says there can be no half-way measures, and that the smaller colleges and clubs must be protected. He hopes that he continues his protests against existing conditions will effect. But he has a hard row to hoe, a hard row.

Listen, folks. There will be no match between Hackenschmidt and Gotch. That is supposed to be news. Now, you and I, who have been reading all the "hot" papers, and who have seen the press agents, knew that much months ago. Manager Sullivan yesterday sent out a circular to the press, advising, of course, the three old men who will be in our midst next season. Deals are on for the trading of Shaw, Burke and Wallace, provided, of course, the coming league meeting does not raise the salary limit. But Shaw will go anyway. Over the wire comes the information that 5,000 elk are starving on Western reservations. Wearers of the horns, don't be alarmed. The elk referred to are of the four-footed variety. The dog show is on in New York. With the meekness which made the "Chin" keep famous, I await the onslaught of bon mots referring to the feast of the sausage makers. Captain Gill, of the Richmond College baseball squad, had some of his men out yesterday night on a preliminary work. They all looked happy.

The second game will be rolled on Saturday night. Beginning next week the regular nights will be Thursday and Saturday. The teams will line up as follows: 1. Stars—H. D. Bryant, captain; W. A. Bruce, J. M. Elmore, Dr. H. S. Corey, O. P. Wright. 2. Meteors—W. H. Chernaull, captain; M. Mercer, M. F. Lawrence, C. L. Schenck, J. P. Schermerhorn, Jr. 3. Crescents—J. C. Kolbe, captain; George Fitzgerald, J. C. Beazley, J. Todd, N. A. Pillow. 4. Comets—Burnette, captain; W. M. Gilliam, W. H. Lowry, J. J. Boehling, E. J. Warren. The Crescents and Comets will roll on Thursday and Saturday nights. The Meteors on Saturday night of this week.

AMERICAN LEAGUE ADOPTS SCHEDULE

Chicago, Ill., February 14.—Playing dates for the 1911 season of the American League baseball league, as tentatively arranged in a schedule drafted by President Johnson several weeks ago, were adopted without a change at the meeting of the club owners and officers of the league to-day. The season will open on April 12, with the Eastern clubs appearing on Eastern fields, and the Western clubs playing in the West. Chicago will open the season at Detroit; Cleveland at St. Louis; New York at Philadelphia, and Boston at Washington. After a four-game series, Chicago will go to St. Louis and Cleveland to Detroit, while the Eastern teams remain idle. Chicago landed the lion's share of Sunday games at home, leading the list with seventeen, while St. Louis gets thirteen Sunday games and Detroit fifteen. The majority of holiday games will be played in the East.

Robert W. Arnold Expires While Counseling New Members. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Winchester, Va., February 14.—Robert W. Arnold, of Alexandria, past grand regent of Royal Arcanum of Virginia, dropped dead late last night while delivering an address to a large class of new members, who had just been initiated by Fairfax Council. The lodge room was crowded at the time, and Mr. Arnold was giving counsel to new members, when he suddenly fell over. As Clarence Shepard caught him, he expired. He was fifty-three years old, and leaves a widow at Alexandria, to which city the remains were sent to-day accompanied by delegation of Fairfax Council.

HAGAMAN WORKS TO GET HURDLER. Wants Men for Low Jumps in Anticipation of Big Open-Air Meet. Athletes of Richmond College were out in force yesterday under the guidance of Coach Hagaman and were put through their paces, in anticipation of the open air games which will be held here April 12, and in which all of the leading colleges, universities and prep schools of Virginia, North Carolina, Maryland and the District of Columbia are expected to take part. No reply has been received by Manager Corley, of the college track team, from the secretary of the South Atlantic division of the A. A. U. giving permission to hold the meet, but a reply is expected momentarily. The medals for the several events have been ordered, and everything which could be done in advance of the sanction of the proper body has been attended to. Hagaman is now using every endeavor to develop a good hurdler. He is satisfied with his relay team, and while he is keeping the men at work, trying to lower the time made, he is exerting himself most along other lines, such as hurdling, pole vaulting and standing high and broad jumps. Shotputting is also occupying some of his time. Men Out Regularly. That the meet will be a success goes without saying. The men are showing the proper spirit, are coming out regularly, and are helping the coach in every way. But what is probably most gratifying is the fact that letters are being received daily from the colleges expected to take part, asking for information. This augurs well for a large entry list. Final arrangements with Owner Bradley were made yesterday relative to securing the park. As has been already stated in these columns, he was most liberal in his terms and offered to assist the boys in every way toward making the meet a success. As fast as the details are arranged the public will be notified.

GREAT AVERAGE MADE BY LOCALS. Hit the Maples for 211 in Three Games Preparing for National Tourney. Yesterday was another good day on the alleys. All of the men who will go to Buffalo to bowl for the honor of Richmond were on the Newport Alleys vowing death to the maples and spilling pins at a frightful rate. The fact that March 11, which date had been requested by the locals, could not be secured, and March 7 and 8, substituted instead, has made each man realize that he must prepare himself with a week less practice. Therefore the great activity.

MAGNETS NAME LEAGUE UMPIRES. New York, February 14.—The adoption of the minor constitutional amendments and the selection of umpires were the only definite things done at a meeting of the National League of Professional Baseball Clubs to-day. The schedule probably will be adopted tomorrow, as prepared. The following umpires were appointed as the staff for the coming season: Henry O'Day, William J. Klein, J. E. Johnson, Charles Rigler, William E. Brennan, Mal Eason, W. F. Fineran, Jack Doyle. Substitute: Robert Emshie. Fineran, who comes from the Eastern League, and Doyle, an old player, are the new ones. They supplant Steve Kane, who is dropped, and Emshie, who is given the new position of "substitute umpire." President Lynch will have sole and exclusive charge hereafter of all umpires. Amendments to the constitution were adopted whereby a club cannot withdraw a claim after the player so claimed has been awarded to it, and the penalty for a violation of the waiver rules was made $250. It was also agreed that no tied or postponed games are to be played off in the first series of the season. The magnates went on record as opposed to doubleheaders, particularly in the early part of the season. The Philadelphia and New York clubs were given permission to use a white suit with hair line stripes on their home grounds. This is an innovation. President Lynch will inspect all dressing rooms all over the league before the season opens, and will insist on proper accommodations for visiting players.

MILITARY GUARDS JAIL. Ready to Frustrate Any Attempt to Escape by Prisoners. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wilson, N. C., February 14.—Last night, about midnight, Sheriff Sharpe received information that flies and saws had been slipped into the jail here by the men in the West prisoners, who are imprisoned there, and the military company was ordered out and watched the jail to prevent any possible escape. None, however, was attempted.

CLARK SENT TO JAIL. Man Who Shot Lee Cousins Will Be Held for Grand Jury. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Amelia, Va., February 14.—L. E. Clark, who shot and seriously wounded Lee Cousins near Nazinchoe Church yesterday morning, has been arrested. He was taken before Justice John H. Coleman and was sent to the county jail to await the action of the grand jury. Application will be made for bail. Cousins is still living, but his condition is regarded as critical. Neither of the men is married.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS ROOM. Richard Francis Perkins Expires of Heart Failure in Washington. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Baltimore, Md., February 14.—Richard Francis Perkins, aged forty years, who was a member of the Baltimore, Md., and Maryland Jockey Clubs, was found dead in a room in the Hotel Napoleon, Washington, D. C., this afternoon. For the past five years Mr. Perkins had lived in this city and on his Virginia estate at Herndon, Va. Five years ago he married Miss Dorothy Henderson, of Herndon, a member of a prominent Virginia family. Mr. Perkins was a Boston man, who had made his home in the South. He was very wealthy, but since the death of his wife three years ago had been of a morose disposition. His death was caused by heart failure, according to his friends in Baltimore, through whom he was identified.

SHAFTS FROM SPORTLAND By GUS MALBERT.

There's a funny man working in Norfolk. He works for a newspaper, and sometimes he has great thoughts along sporting lines, and he writes them down. His latest funny thought is in connection with what Milroy, of the Advance, has called the Jerkwater League. He marvels that those who are opposed to outlaw baseball in Virginia should say so. He can't for the life of him understand why any one should object to two teams in Norfolk and the survival of the fittest. Well, no matter, no matter. Let him rave. Sullivan spent most of his time yesterday between a still hunt for a house and the baseball park. He thinks he has pretty nearly landed what he wants in the house line. Gave a few suggestions to Joe Heenan and walked around looking at other things, and then came home. Talked a little, read a little and house-looked a little. That, in epitome, is the way he spent his time on Valentine Day. The one exciting incident of the day occurred when Jeff Hudgins, a Richmond boy, who last year worked on a semi-professional team near Washington, journeyed out to the park and tossed a few to the local manager. Nothing serious happened, for neither was willing to take any chances with the treacherous weather. The local celebrities who are anxious for a trout have failed to communicate with the manager up to the present time. It might be well to inform them that there is no reason to be bashful, for Sullivan is anxious to have a chance of making their acquaintance and of finding out how much ability they have. Every local man who makes good is saving money for the treasury, and Sullivan, like every good manager, is anxious to save money. Remember that a meeting of the committee appointed to adopt plans for the organization of the Richmond Amateur Baseball League will hold a meeting Monday night at 8 o'clock. You managers who receive the letters asking several questions answer promptly. The interest in the Amateur League is surprising as well as gratifying. Each member of the committee is receiving daily telephone calls asking for some information as to what the committee has done or will do. Dan Marble, an old friend of Jimmie Sullivan, the two having played on the Cincinnati club in the National League, was around the hotel yesterday fanning for about an hour. The result of the fanfest was that the two will meet at Broad Street Park to-morrow and swap a few balls instead of yarns. I see a chance for a pun here. Every newspaper in Washington is boosting the open-air meet to be held by Richmond College in this city on April 12. Why is it that some of the local scribblers seem to fear what is going on out there and fail to help the fellows even a little bit? The meet is going to be a success, however, in spite of the silence of a few derelicts. Young Sitterding, who is captain of the Georgetown University baseball team, is a Richmond boy, the son of Fritz Sitterding, vice-president of the Virginia Railway and Power Company. He has played amateur baseball in
