

ODDS OF 20 TO 1 AGAINST WINNER OF PURSE EVENT

Kaufman Surprises Form Players by Winning Third Race Easily.

Norfolk, Va., April 12.—Carrying the colors of R. J. Mackenzie, the Canadian railroad magnate, Michael Angelo captured the purse event at the Jamestown Jockey Club track to-day.

Kaufmann surprised the form players by winning the third race easily from Planter, who did not get in the money. The attendance to-day was large and the track fast.

The indictments that have been returned against the racing association, Manager Levy and several layers for a further test of the Virginia statutes will not in any way interfere with the meeting.

PARTICIPATION OF STUDENTS IN COLLEGE SPORT

Boston, Mass., April 12.—A formal participation in sports by all college students as a necessary part of the college career was advocated to-day by speakers at the annual convention of the American Physical Education Association.

George W. Elier, professor of physical education at the University of Wisconsin, said that an effort was being made to give every student at Wisconsin the necessary athletic training to fit him for after life.

He believed that this could be accomplished by stimulating the students' interest in athletics.

EASY TO ACQUIRE YOUTHFUL COMPLEXION

"It is so easy to acquire a smooth, rosy, youthful complexion that no woman need despair," writes Mrs. Mac Martyn, beauty expert, in the San Francisco Bulletin.

"Much better than any face powder is an inexpensive lotion, made by dissolving four ounces spumax in one-half pint hot water, then adding two teaspoonfuls glycerine.

"This lotion does not rub off easily, like powder, and it lends to the skin a charming tone of youthful freshness, without giving that 'painted,' powdered look."
