THOMAS BURTON SNEAD entertained the bridal party of the Sneed-Branch wedding at a beautiful buffet supper at the Commonwealth Club last night after the final performance of "Pinafore" at the Academy. The decorations were in Easter lilies and palms, and a centerpiece of lilies decorated the center of the table.

Mrs. Florence Brooks-Ellinger, of New York, and Miss Katherine Wright, of St. Paul, are the guests of Colonel and Mrs. James Branch at the Chesapeake for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Mary Cooke Branch, to Thomas Burton Sneed, which will be celebrated very quietly at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Thomas McAdams, at 6 o'clock this evening.

"Is the World Growing Better?" was the subject of the paper read by Mrs. W. E. Harris before the members of the Woman's Club Monday afternoon. Her address was most instructive and she related a good deal of very interesting matter concerning the early history of man and the contributions to the general good or bad, as the case may be, have been by each succeeding nation.

Mrs. Harris is a very cultured woman, and her paper was a very pleasing affair. Without taking the broadly optimistic view "that the world is so full of a number of things I am sure we should all be as happy as kings," Mrs. Harris brought out the ever-widening humanitarianism of the world, and that the ideas now at work will eventually work out the good of man in the world at large.

The tea tables were decorated in yellow flowers, and Miss Mattie Harris and Miss Evelyn Stiles were hostesses for the afternoon.

To-morrow evening at half-past 8 o'clock the April card tournament will be played in the parlors of the Woman's Club, compass whist being the game. The usual rules concerning gentlemen partners and the registration of tables will obtain.

Miss Crawford Engaged.
The dean of the Virginia Theological Seminary and Mrs. Angus Crawford have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Alice Laurie Crawford, to the Rev. Oscar de Witt Randolph, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isham Randolph, of Chicago. The announcement is of much interest to society here, as Randolph is a native of this city, and the bride-elect and Mr. Randolph are prominently related. Miss Crawford is one of the most charming girls in Virginia society, and has visited friends in Richmond on several occasions. Mr. Randolph recently graduated from the seminary, and also is a graduate of the University of Virginia, where he was one of the most prominent men in college.

Patronesses for Concert.
The Mothers' Club of Glinter Park will give a charming concert on Friday evening, April 21, at 8 o'clock. The patronesses of the affair will be Mrs. C. C. Pinckney, Mr. Mrs. J. E. Osgood, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Warriner, Mrs. E. A. Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. Langhorne Putney, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Cheif.

The committee for arrangements will include Mrs. Howard Sutton, Mrs. E. D. Sampson, Mrs. S. H. Curry, Mrs. F. C. Shourne, with Mrs. Crawford Reed as chairman.

The marriage of Miss Madge Freedy, sister of George J. Freedy, of this city, and Dr. Herant Baron Mateosian, of Pera, Constantinople, took place yesterday in All Souls' Church, Langham Place, London, England. The bride wore a beautiful gown of soft white satin, draped in Brussels net and embroidered in crystals, and carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. After the breakfast, which followed the ceremony, Dr. and Mrs. Mateosian left for an extended honeymoon. They will be at home after May 1 at 3 'pl Bach, Pera, Constantinople, Turkey.

At Petersburg Dance.
Miss Emily Dabney, Donald Register and John Dabney were among the Richmond people attending the delightful dance given Monday night at the Riverside Country Club, Petersburg, by Miss Mildred Orr. Decorations were in spring flowers, and receiving with Miss Orr were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Orr, and Misses Hortense and Gertrude Zimmerman, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Miss Dabney is the house guest of Miss Mary Martin in Petersburg for several days.

Guests From Richmond.
The Tyler home in Williamsburg, at which a reception was given after the wedding of Miss Julia Gardner Tyler and Dr. James Southall Wilson, on Monday afternoon last, has the distinction of being the only house in the United States built by royalty out of its private purse. The French troops occupied former building, erected for the official head of William and Mary College on their way to Yorktown, and by some mischance, a fire broke out and burned this house, which Louis XVI. replaced out of the royal exchequer. The quaint old place looked its best for the wedding occasion, decked with sprays of bridal wreath and other spring blossoms.

Among the notable guests attending from Richmond were Miss Mary Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bisher, Miss Kathleen Briscoe, others. Miss Bruce attend the informal luncheon given at the Tyler home, immediately preceding the wedding, as well as the big reception which followed the ceremony.

Wedding Tea.
A very interesting event in musical circles of South Richmond will be a tea given at the parsonage of the Central Methodist Church on Friday evening. A charming program has been arranged, and decorations will be in pink and white flowers.

Some of the prominent society women who have taken tables for the big bridge whist party to be given in the palm garden of the Jefferson Hotel on Friday afternoon are Mrs. Charles Whitlock, Miss Nellie Tompkins, Mrs. John W. Harrison, Miss Elsie Harrison, Mrs. Edmund Strudwick, Mrs. Allen Donnan, Miss Lucy Foxworth, Miss Camilla Wellford, Mrs. Thomas Rutherford, Mrs. Henningham Spilham, Miss Cally Ryland and others. These will entertain a number of gay parties for the afternoon, and the affair will be one of the most interesting events of Easter week.

Stay-at-Home Whist Club.
The Stay-at-Home Whist Club met on Monday evening at the residence of Mrs. S. W. Travers, 602 West Franklin Street. The tables were engaged, and the highest scores were made by Mrs. Smith and Miss M. O. Harvey. The club will meet next Monday night with Mrs. Arthur Cannon, 914 Park Avenue.

Harriet Mason.
The marriage of Miss Nannie Marshall Mason, daughter of the Rev. John K. Mason, to Dr. Harvey P. Barr, of Louisville, Ky., will be quietly celebrated to-day at the home of the bride's uncle, Judge J. K. M. Norton, of Alexandria, Va. Only the immediate family will be present at the ceremony, owing to mourning in the bride's family.

Immortal Meeting.
There will be an important meeting of the Oakwood Memorial Association this afternoon at 4 o'clock in St. John's brick school house. All members of the association are asked to attend promptly, as business of great importance is to come before this meeting.

Terry-Rosenbloom.
The marriage of Miss Lillian Rosenbloom, of Chicago, and A. T. Terry, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Terry, formerly of Mecklenburg county, Va., was celebrated in Philadelphia, Pa., on Tuesday, April 11. Mr. and Mrs. Terry left for an extended wedding trip.

GUESTS AT "CHERRY GROVE."
Many Visitors Attend Reception Given to Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Fishman.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Ella Mills, of Richmond, at "Cherry Grove," the home of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Downer, was the scene of a gay and attractive gathering yesterday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Downer gave a reception in honor of their daughter, Elizabeth Franklin, who recently became the bride of Dossie Filmeron Fishman, of Richmond. It was the big social event of the Easter tide in this community, a feature of the reception being the large number of guests present from a distance. The rooms were tastefully decorated with Easter flowers, and in the dining-room, where a beautiful dinner was served, sat an appropriate number of tables adorned with the Easter emblems—lilies, eggs, chickens and rabbits. At the dinner all the members of the bridal party were assigned to a separate table.

Late in the evening Mrs. N. V. Wey, of Richmond, favored the guests with several solos, accompanying them with the guitar.

Those present from a distance were Mrs. Parker Harris, Mrs. W. E. Fishman, Mrs. W. E. Fishman, Mrs. N. B. Wey, Mrs. W. E. Houchins, Mrs. W. Edwards, all of Richmond; Miss Julia Jeter, Miss Maudie Brooks, Miss Pearl Hughes, Miss Nellie Stevens, and Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Stevens, all of Hanover; Miss Lou Hilliard, Miss Bessie Schanck, Miss Edith Schanck, Miss L. Edwards, all of Richmond; W. W. Downer, J. P. Downer, J. T. Downer, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Montague, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cummins and Mr. and Mrs. Wick Rowley, of Falls; Mr. and Mrs. K. T. Richards, Mrs. Alta Clark, Mat Puller and Mr. and Mrs. Nat Garrett, of King William Court-house.

MAY FORM LEAGUE OF PRESBYTERIANS

Richmond Pastors Make Request of Presbytery at Petersburg.

STATED CLERK ELECTED Moderator Names Committees. Eight Candidates for Licensure.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Petersburg, Va., April 18.—East Hanover Presbytery, in session at the Second Presbyterian Church in this city, was called to order at 9:30 o'clock this morning with devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. F. E. Jones, of Brunswick. The minutes of last evening's meeting were read and approved.

The first order of the day was the election of a stated clerk to succeed the late Rev. T. P. Pines, D. D., of Nottoway. The Rev. W. S. Campbell, of Richmond, was nominated for and unanimously elected to the office of stated clerk of the presbytery. Dr. Campbell returned thanks for the honor and confidence conferred. His salary was fixed as formerly.

The moderator, Dr. Fair, announced the following committees: Devotional Exercises—D. H. Ralston. On Narrative—D. C. Lilly, F. E. Jones, D. H. Ralston; Ruling Elders S. C. Howison and F. E. Jennie. On Systematic Beneficence—J. C. Stewart, J. H. Hendelitte; Ruling Elders W. S. Robertson, Stanley Reed.

MANY PEOPLE GAVE ADVICE

To Pauline Korn, of San Gabriel, About Her Severe Illness—and Finally She Took It.

San Gabriel, Tex.—"For two years," writes Pauline Korn, of this place, "I suffered with womanly trouble every month.

"I always suffered so much with headache and the backache and other pains. "So many people would tell me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic, so at last I tried it and found it to be a very nice medicine, as it relieved my pains. "Cardui did me a great deal of good, for now I am well and healthy and do not suffer from any pains."

Of course, Miss Korn could have taken a drug to kill her pains, but that would not have made her "well and healthy," as Cardui did.

The great thing for you to remember about Cardui is that it is a perfectly harmless, gentle remedy, with no dangerous after-effects, whatever.

It does good that stays good. It helps, not hinders, other medicines. It has no habit-forming ingredients, and is safe for young and old.

As a tonic there is nothing in the drug store like it.

As a remedy for women's ills it has no equal.

Try it.

Leave of Absence—John J. Fix; Elders W. C. Cosby, John Hubbard.
Elder W. W. Hobson, of Powhatan, made a strong appeal for aid for a minister for the church in that county, which is suffering and becoming disorganized for lack of organized service. The matter was referred to the committee on home missions. Mr. Hobson was anxious that the presbytery provide a minister for the church.

The stated clerk read a number of communications relative to systematic beneficence, Home School at Fredericksburg, church finances, Christian relief, education, etc., which were referred to the private committees.

A communication from the Blackstone Church declaring its ability to sustain a minister and agreeing to pay for his time and services was read. The church has extended a call to the Rev. Thomas R. Young, a student at the Union Theological Seminary, has pledged his salary and asks the presbytery to recognize the call, so that it may be prosecuted at the proper time. Presbytery granted permission to prosecute the call, and appointed Rev. D. H. Ralston as commissioner to do so.

The Rev. R. A. Lapsley presented an overture to the General Assembly, praying for the correction and revision of the Presbyterial Book of Hymns. The overture caused a good deal of discussion. The presbytery, by a vote of 13 ayes and 10 noes, sent the overture up to the General Assembly with its approval.

A report of the committee on installation of the Rev. Charles R. Stribling as pastor of Tabb Street Presbyterian Church, was submitted and adopted.

A request came before the presbytery from the ladies' aid societies of Richmond and vicinity asking for the privilege of organizing a Presbyterian League for that city, the object being to acquaint the officers and unite them for more effective mission work in and around Richmond. Referred to committee on home missions.

Blackstone was selected as the next place of meeting of presbytery, and October 3 as the date.

Candidates for Licensure.
There are eight candidates for licensure, as follows: J. K. Thimmons, W. J. Roberts, R. H. Vizer, J. K. Vizer, J. C. W. Reed, J. F. Kirkpatrick, H. D. Bedinger, T. W. Phillips. These examinations will take place to-morrow.

The report of the committee on ministerial relief was submitted, showing receipt and disbursement of the fund. The committee makes an earnest appeal for larger contributions to this fund, and for better support of those dependent on it.

No session was held in the afternoon.

Night Session.
At to-night's session of Presbytery a highly interesting report on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief was read by Dr. McFadden, of Richmond, of the committee having that department in charge. The work of the committee is divided into five departments, the scope and work of each of which was treated in detail in the report:

First, Education for the ministry during the last year applications of 256 candidates for the ministry were approved by the presbyteries.

Second, Ministerial relief during the year has been granted to fifty-nine ministers and 116 widows and others, in whose homes are seventy-five little children.

Third, Endowment fund for ministerial relief. The endowment fund has now reached $200,000, and the General Assembly has granted that it be made $500,000 as soon as possible.

Fourth, Assembly Home and School, Fifth, Schools and colleges. In order to successfully prosecute this fundamental and extensive work, funds are needed and the committee will be absolutely in need of $150,000, as follows: Education for the ministry..... $50,000 Ministerial relief..... 75,000 Home and school..... 15,000 Schools and colleges..... 10,000 East Hanover Presbytery has under its care twenty-three candidates for the ministry, eight of whom are eligible for licensure at this meeting. The committee submitted several recommendations, which were adopted with the report.

Two candidates for licensure—E. D. Bedinger, of Brookland, Va., and C. W. Reed, of Russellville, Tenn., preached their trial sermons before the presbytery, and a large congregation to-night, and they were sustained as satisfactory ministers by trial.

To-morrow will be devoted to the examination of all the candidates. Rev. J. E. Barber, D. D., secretary of the synod's home missions address, will presbytery to-night on that subject.

SUBSTITUTE IS APPROVED.
Lexington Presbytery Favours Proposed Change in "Elect Infant" Clause.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Staunton, Va., April 18.—Lexington Presbytery failed to complete its rouline business last night, and held a session this morning before final adjournment. Union Church, near Churchville, Augusta county, was selected as the next place of meeting.

The presbytery disapproved any change in the method of conducting the Fredericksburg Home and School. Action was taken on the "elect infant" clause of the Westminster Confession of Faith, approving the form of a substitute for Chapter X, section 3, of the Confession, as proposed by an ad interim committee, of which Dr. A. M. Frazer is the chairman, and Dr. W. W. Moore, of Union Theological Seminary, a member.

The change in no way changes the sense or commits the church to a change of faith on infant salvation or baptism, but attempts to make clearer the position of the church.

The substitution is as follows: "Of those whom God hath given to the Lord Jesus to be His Seed, such as are incapable of being outwardly called by the minister of the Word, are regenerated and saved by Christ, through the Spirit, who worketh when and where and how He pleaseth."

In Session at Roanoke.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Roanoke, Va., April 18.—The Montgomery Presbytery opened its annual session here to-night in the Second Presbyterian Church, and the opening sermon was preached by the Rev. Frank Price, D. D., of China, a returned missionary from China, and a member of the presbytery.

The Montgomery Presbytery embraces Montgomery, Alleghany, Franklin, Floyd, Giles, Craig, Roanoke, Bedford, Botetourt and parts of Campbell, Rockbridge and Mercer county, W.

Lungs Declared Sound--Life Insurance Granted

We advertise Eckman's Alternative to tell those who have lung disease what has been done by its use.

Gentlemen: "On the evening of May 12, 1907, I had five hemorrhages from the right lung. My hemorrhages kept up for one week—I had twenty-eight in all. Septic pneumonia developed. My doctor told me my left lung had also become affected. I started to take Eckman's the last of August, 1907, and improved steadily. Since my recovery about a year ago I was accepted for life insurance, after two examinations by a company that had previously rejected me."
