

A Page of Pictures of People About Whom You Frequently Read

JAMES BROWN SCOTT,
to whom has been intrusted important work in connection with the Carnegie $10,000,000 fund for international peace.

COLONEL S. R. DYER,
of the Twelfth New York National Guards.

ARCHDUKE CHARLES JOSEPH,
Heir to throne now occupied by Emperor Francis-Joseph.

MAJOR-GENERAL WILLIAM P. DUVALL,
United States Army, engaged in investigation work for the government in Manila.

DUKE OF LEINSTER,
Head of one of the greatest houses of the Irish aristocracy, considered one of the greatest "catches" in Great Britain.

MYRON T. HERRICK,
Former Governor of Ohio, mentioned as possible successor to David Jayne Hill as ambassador to Germany.

THEODORE VAIL,
President of the American Telegraph and Telephone Company.

GENERAL FRANKLIN BELL,
Commander of the army of the Philippines and one of the five major-generals on the army list.

MAJOR ARCHIBALD W. BUTT,
Advanced recently to his present rank in the army.

The central figure, in uniform, is that of Baron Uchida, Japanese ambassador to the United States.

PRESIDENT THEOPHILE BRAGA, of the Republic of Portugal.
(Copyright, 1911, by American Press Association.)

COSMO GORDON LANG,
Archbishop of York, second highest dignitary in the Church of England.

JOHN BIGELOW,
Former minister to France, and his granddaughter, Miss Lucy Bigelow Dodge.

JUDGE EDGAR B. KINKAID, of Ohio, who presided at the legislative bribery hearings.

HUDSON MAXIM,
the famous inventor, who does not believe that the end of year among nations is in sight.

JUDGE A. Z. BLAIN, of Adams county, Ohio, who figured prominently in the election bribery case.

PRESIDENT FALLIERES,
of France, made from a recent and very good photograph.