AMUSEMENTS

Academy, Matinee and Night—"Girls,"
Lulu—Audubon.

John L. Sullivan, champion of the prize ring, announced yesterday that he has ended his public career and that his final bow will be on the other side of the footlights. He will appear Saturday night at the Bijou Theatre, where he opened a week's engagement Monday. His appearance at the Bijou has attracted record-breaking audiences.

In the past five years "John L." has amassed a fortune sufficient for his needs until the end of his days, and his engagement here, he says, will be his farewell to the public.

At the amateur performance to-night the heavyweight champion will preside and will bestow the prizes offered in the customary manner—by the approval of the audience. In addition to the regular prizes Sullivan will present a medal to the cleverest amateur, judgment depending solely upon the applause.

DETROIT MAKES BIG OFFER TO YOUNG COLLEGE PLAYER

Elizabeth City, N. C., June 20.—President Navin, of the Detroit American League team, to-day wired an offer of $500 a month for the season, with a bonus of $1,000, to Dave Robertson, Elizabeth City's southpaw twirler, and all-round player. Robertson announced that he had decided to give up his athletic career at the State Agricultural and Mechanical College and accept the offer. He has not been notified when to report.

Shadow Clock Exhibited.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Emporia, Va., June 20.—The attraction of The Times-Dispatch shadow clock complimentary exhibitions become more popular every night. The exhibition at South Emporia this evening was witnessed by at least twice as large a crowd as was present last night in North Emporia.

The mystery of the shadow clock perplexes every one. The clock will be exhibited at Lawrenceville on Wednesday night.

MOTION AGAINST ELKINS ESTATE

Alleges That Senator Was Defaulting Tax-Payer and Sum of $1,087,397 is Due State.

Elkins, W. Va., June 20.—A motion for judgment against the Davis Trust Company, former Senator Davis Elkins, and S. B. Elkins, Jr., as executors of the last will and testament of the late United States Senator S. B. Elkins, has been filed by Prosecuting Attorney H. G. Kump, at the Randolph county Circuit Court clerk's office.

The motion alleges that Senator Elkins was a defaulting taxpayer, and that he has forfeited to the State of West Virginia the sum of $375,043.40 in the year 1909; $237,773 in the year 1910, and by his executors, $311,910.90 in the year 1911, making in all, with interest, the sum of $1,087,397.90, which the prosecutor claims must be paid over to the State of West Virginia by the executors, for the Senator's failure to properly list his property for taxation.

In the motion the State alleges that the late Senator Elkins failed to give to the assessing officer a true list of all his property, which should be assessed in Randolph county.

The prosecuting attorney gives notice that on the 10th day of October he will move the court for judgment against the executors of the estate.

JEWELER ROBBED

Young Man Steals Watch and Ring and Then Escaped.

Under the pretense of having a girl's neck chain repaired, a young white man yesterday afternoon entered the jewelry shop of J. Rosenfeld, 106 West Broad Street, and helped himself to the two stolen articles. He was gone before the thief was hardly noticed, but not before the shopkeeper had been able to obtain a fairly good description of him.

Mr. Rosenfeld described the thief as being about twenty years of age, clean shaven and of full face. He was wearing a blue serge suit, a black soft hat and a cream-colored shirt and soft collar.

The case was reported to the police, and will be turned over to the detectives.

PUT UNDER $300 BOND.

White Man and Woman Bound Over Under Serious Charge.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fayetteville, N. C., June 20.—The white slave traffic figured in the Mayor's court of this city to-day, when Lonnie Long and his wife, Lina Riddle Long, were arrested and arraigned as procurers in the case of a handsome young girl, about sixteen years old, named Lillie Riddle, who is said to be a relative of the accused woman.

The evidence of enticing was so strong against the accused pair that Mayor McNeill bound them over to Superior Court under a $300 bond, failing to give which they were committed to jail.

search work that is world-wide in its scope. A large amount of material has already been obtained.

"This incomplete information," the board says, "necessarily fragmentary in character if transmitted to Congress, would be not only of doubtful utility, but actually misleading. We shall develop the essential facts in relation to both the wool and the cotton schedules in time for forwarding to Congress next December, and in this endeavor we are not only working to the limit of the present appropriation, but to the utmost capacity of our entire force."

The President says in part: "This language and an examination of the detailed account of what the board is doing, contained therein, will show that they have no further information than that which has already been transmitted to the Committee on Ways and Means in any form or condition proper for transmission."

The board of experts reports to me that they will have full and complete reports on the subject of schedules K and its contents, the cost of production of wool and woolsens at home and abroad, and also upon the same facts in respect to the cotton schedule by the first of December next, when I shall be glad to submit both to the Congress.

Meantime, the board is not in a position to transmit anything except what has already been sent to the Ways and Means Committee."

Restrictions Extended.

Washington, D. C., June 20.—The Senate passed to-day the Burton resolution to extend for two years the restrictions now in force upon the use of the water of Niagara River and Niagara Falls for power purposes. The measure now goes to the House.

The regulations were established in 1906, and will expire June 29, unless the resolution extending the time becomes a law. New York State officials asked for the continuation of the restrictions, pending permanent decision as to the amount of water that shall be diverted on the American side of the falls.

Duty on Domestic Animals.

Washington, D. C., June 20.—The free re-entry into this country of all domestic bred animals, except certain ones specifically mentioned in another part of the law, is the effect of a proposed amendment to the Payne tariff law, which the Treasury Department has submitted to the chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee.

The amendment is proposed in view of the recent decision of the Court of Customs Appeals to the effect that certain animals of domestic origin, which had been exported and returned to this country, were not entitled to free entry. The proposed amendment would make dutiable domestic animals straying across boundary lines, or driven across for temporary pastures, unless brought back to the United States within six months.

Discrimination Charged.

Washington, D. C., June 20.—Discrimination against Fort Logan, Col., in favor of Fort S. D. A. Russell, Wyo., was charged by Representative Martin, of Colorado, at a hearing to-day before the House Committee on Expenditures in the War Department to-day. Major F. F. Chenam, of the Quartermaster-General's office, was questioned at length by the committee and asked to furnish information showing the amounts expended at the two forts.

COW CONFINED IN JAIL

Akron, O., June 20.—Prisoners in the Barberton jail last night threatened to demolish it because a stray cow was placed in a large cell with them. They were forced to sleep in the same room with the animal. To-day the cow was fined $2 in general by Mayor Mitchell on a charge of disturbing the peace. The fine was paid by the owner, John Pinter.

News of South Richmond

South Richmond Bureau,
The Times-Dispatch,
1020 Hull Street,
Phone Madison 178.

As an evidence of further expansion of the tobacco industry in the South, the E. K. Vitor Tobacco Company, of South Richmond, yesterday purchased the old barns on Semmes Avenue adjoining its factory and warehouses. According to the deed filed in the clerk's office of the Hustings Court, Part 2, the property was transferred by the Virginia Railway and Power Company for the sum of $4,000 in cash.

The property, which is known as the old car barns, comprises a plot of almost an acre. It lies on the south side of Semmes Street just after crossing the bridge over the Atlantic Coast Line Railway tracks, and has most valuable railway facilities immediately at hand. It fronts 400 feet on Semmes Street, has a uniform depth of ninety-one feet, but on the rear measures only 40 feet. These barns have been abandoned in time for more warehousing at the corner of Seventh and Perry Streets.

It has been rumored for some time that the Vitor Company contemplated the acquisition of this property, but the rumor lacked official confirmation. It is understood that the old barns will be used as the site for more warehouses, although this has not been authoritatively given out. The announcement of this move on the part of the Vitor Company will be welcome news to the men who have been striving to draw the attention of manufacturers to all the advantages that the South-side offers to such enterprises. As a business man remarked yesterday, a couple of big concerns like the American Tobacco Company and the Vitor Company attract more manufacturers to South Richmond than all the laiking and booming of the section's natural resources could possibly do.

Great Day for Kids.

"Chee, Willie, ain't this great?"
"I'll beat yer in swimming."
"No yer won't, neither."

These and a thousand other similar shouts were fired about the grounds of the Chestertown Fresh Air Camp yesterday afternoon, as Adjutant Wiggins, of the Salvation Army, arrived with the first batch of city bred street gamins and turned them loose to see what the real country was like.

Twenty-two of the kids were escorted out to the camp yesterday by the adjutant, and the fun they had on the street car going to the camp turned into pleasure for every one but Old Man Grouch, who didn't like the noise. Six sun-burned, hilarious kids, carried out Monday afternoon when the camp was formally opened, were on hand to greet the squad brought out yesterday. The band scattered like a covey of quail the minute the car stopped, and it was only when every nook and corner of the grounds had been explored, every creek and pool visited and every new sensation experienced that the adjutant could round out the stragglers and give them instructions regarding camp rules.

This present assignment will be kept at the camp for ten days or two weeks, and will then give place to a new batch. The camp is under the personal charge of Mrs. Herbert Young, of the Salvation Army, whose duty it is to curb the boys when they go too far and to furnish them encouragement when the unknown and undreamed of wonders of nature begin to pall.

Hustings Court Docket.

Judge E. H. Wells, who is holding the sessions of the Dinwiddie county Circuit Court in the absence of Judge Watson, will return to the city in time to try the case scheduled for the Hustings Court, Part II, to-morrow morning.

The following cases have been set for trial in this court:

The City of Richmond against the Virginia Railway and Power Company, June 29.

The City of Richmond against O. L. Andrews, Jr., June 27.

City of Richmond against Marshall Vaughan, June 27.

The Commonwealth against Leslie

Maitland, June 23.

The assailant of William Strode, colored, will also be tried at this term of the court on the charge of malicious cutting.

Handling Richard Redd.

Richard Redd, the negro with a criminal record and jail life almost unbelievable, appeared in the Police Court, Part II, yesterday morning. He was suffering from the effects of the gunshot wound inflicted by Captain James Preston, colored, drunk and disorderly, received a fine of $5 and costs.

"Doc" Owens, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5 and costs.

Clarence and Mozelle Randolph, charged with interfering with Patrolman Waymack while discharging his duty, were fined $5 and costs each.

John Butler, white, disorderly on the premises of P. Womack, was fined $5 and costs.

John Jennings, charged with failing to muzzle his dog, was ordered to do so at once.

The ordinance violation against Thomas Nichols, white, was continued until this morning.

Charged with stabbing William Thomas, 104 East Baker Street, Monday morning, Charles C. Dargan, colored, was tracked down and arrested in South Richmond late Monday night by Patrolman Waymack. Dargan was taken to the north side of the river yesterday morning by Detective-Sergeants Woy and Kregel, where he will be given a hearing before Justice Crutchfield.

The cutting, which is said to have been the result of trouble over a woman, took place in Thomas's house. Immediately after the cutting Dargan fled to South Richmond, but the police found him thereabouts and put the Third District man on his trail.

Reached Century Mark.

So enthusiastic has been the response to the call for volunteers for the South Richmond Boys' Brigade that the number of enlisted boys has reached the century mark and a halt has been called.

There were more recruits than could be conveniently handled at the regular drill Monday night, and it was determined that the enlistment books should be closed after this Friday night. All those who desire to wear the uniform of the Boys' Brigade should apply immediately to F. E. Lutz.

A meeting of those interested in the boys' movement has been called for Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Meade Memorial Episcopal Church to meet the Rev. J. T. Haley, pastor of the Stockton Street Baptist Church, and Superintendent Robertson, of that Sunday school. The ministers and superintendents of the various South-side Sunday schools have been invited to attend this meeting, when a general discussion of the Boys' Brigade and its future will be conducted.

Mr. Warren May Accept.

All but a formal announcement of acceptance is wanting in regard to the statement that the Rev. Ernest Warren, formerly pastor of the Immanuel Episcopal Church and the Church of the Good Shepherd, of Forest Hill, will accept the call to fill the pulpit of the Meade Memorial Episcopal Church. Mr. Warren has been away from Richmond for some years, but it is understood that he had intimated a readiness to return. His formal acceptance of the call is expected.

He comes to the Southside most highly commended for his work and abilities, and promises to do much toward the upbuilding of this church. He is a graduate of the Episcopal Seminary, and was ordained by Bishop Randolph.

Funeral Notices.

The funeral of Hildred, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Carter, of 1704 Delaware Avenue, Oak Grove, who died Monday night, was conducted yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock from the home of the parents. The Rev. W. G. Burch officiated. The interment was made in Maury Cemetery.

The funeral of I. L. Bass, of 129 East Eighteenth Street, who died suddenly in the yard of his home Sunday afternoon, was conducted yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The services did not deny his guilty on any of the charges relating his confession of the former day.

If convicting evidence to substantiate his confession of stealing a horse and buggy from the Old Market is not forthcoming, Redd will be turned over to the Charlotte county authorities to be tried for mule stealing and assault upon a deputy sheriff of the county.

Some Other Offenders.

Stanley Thomas, the Norfolk negro who was arrested for being disorderly on a street car Monday while he was "to the city" on an excursion, was stung for $10 and costs yesterday morning by Justice Maurel.

Freeman Preston, colored, drunk and disorderly, received a fine of $5 and costs.

"Doc" Owens, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5 and costs.

Clarence and Mozelle Randolph, charged with interfering with Patrolman Waymack while discharging his duty, were fined $5 and costs each.

John Butler, white, disorderly on the premises of P. Womack, was fined $5 and costs.

The funeral of Thomas Washington Leewood Goodman, who died yesterday morning at 5 o'clock in the home of his parents, at 1013 Perry Street, was conducted yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the Rev. J. T. Haley officiating. The interment was made in Maury Cemetery.

The funeral of Sarah Louise Garber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Garber, of 708 Maury Street, who died early Monday morning in the home of her parents, was conducted yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock from the residence. The Rev. G. T. Forrester officiated. The interment was made in Maury Cemetery.

Get Your Ties, Gentlemen.

A lawn party for the benefit of the Clopton Street Baptist Church will be given Friday night on the lot at the corner of Hull and Clopton Streets, Swansboro. A unique feature of the party will be the giving to each man at the gate a tie. When he finds the girl with an apron of the corresponding color he must treat her to a dish of cream.

Valentine Locked Up.

When Patrolman Westcott responded to a telephone call yesterday afternoon to arrest Robert Valentine, of East Eleventh Street, for being drunk and terrifying the inmates of his home, he found that Valentine was suffering from the effects of a large dose of laudanum. The ambulance was called, and after treatment, Valentine was removed to the Third Police Station. The ambulance surgeon did not believe the dose would prove fatal. In the station house last night Valentine assigned domestic trouble as the reason for his attempt on his own life.
