Covington Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Covington, Va., July 8.—The most popular place for the young people is on the beautiful ballroom floor at the Intermont Hotel. Several card parties have been given by the guests of the hotel during the past week. Mrs. George Hill, of Norfolk, gave a delightful bridge party Monday evening to a few of her friends who are stopping at the hotel. Delightful refreshments were served on the lawn under lighted Japanese lanterns, which were swung to the trees. Those present were Mrs. Jennie Richards, Lynchburg; Mrs. Harry Thomas, Portsmouth; Mrs. R. P. Thomas, Portsmouth; Misses Alice Richards, Lynchburg; Ella Miller, Baltimore, Md.; Mary Stevens, Charlotte, N. C.; Frank Thomas, Portsmouth; Harry Jones, Richmond; Lawrence Hill, Norfolk. The young people gave two delightful dances here on the Fourth at the Intermont. One was given by the young women in the morning, which was well attended. In the evening the young men gave a dance in return, which was one of the best of the season, and enjoyed by all present. Mrs. G. E. Jennings, of New York City, and Mrs. J. L. Jones, of Lynchburg, two charming young brides, are the guests of Mrs. Lulu Suttler, at her home on Lexington Street. Mrs. Vernon Paulotte, of Farmville, is the guest of Mrs. M. M. Giles, at the Intermont Hotel. Miss Victoria Bopst, the daughter of R. F. Bopst, of Lynchburg, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. C. Wright. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Luke and F. W. Dixon, of Piedmont, W. Va., spent the Fourth here with Mrs. Luke's parents, T. M. Rock. Homer Parker and family spent the Fourth at Waynesboro with friends. Harry Morgan, of Eagle Rock, spent the Fourth here with friends. Dr. W. G. Jankans, of Fort Dodge, Iowa, is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. W. Bowman. Miss Laura Seward, of Houston, Tex.,
