Social and Personal

MISS ELEANOR WINGFIELD, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wingfield, and one of the season's debutantes, entertained very prettily at cards yesterday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Corinne Hampton, of Columbia, S. C. The parlors were arranged with vases of pink roses, and nine tables of bridge were engaged. Miss Wingfield received with the guest of honor, and wore a lovely gown of pale pink meshulle trimmed in crystal and pearls. Miss Hampton's gown was of blue flowered net made over blue meshulle and embroidered in silver. Tea was served at the card tables after the game was concluded. Guests for the afternoon were limited to the debutantes of this winter.

Another very attractive debutante function of this week was given on Monday night by Miss Kitty Lancaster in honor of Miss Ellen Ball. Bridge whist was played, and four tables were entertained. Miss Ball has been entertained a great deal this fall, and her coming out will be very gay indeed.

Counting Affairs.
Mrs. James Hayes has issued invitatations for a dance to be given in honor of her granddaughter, Miss Katherine Ewing Ewings, at which Miss Ewings will be formally presented to Richmond society. The dance will be given in the ball room of the Jefferson Hotel on the evening of Wednesday, December 6, at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Stuart Bowe will entertain at her home, 1618 West Grace Street, at her home, in honor of Miss Austin Bertrand, granddaughter of Mrs. S. D. Drewry, who is also making her debut in Richmond this winter.

Miss Jellis Scott has sent out cards for a dance to be given in the parlors of the Jefferson Hotel on the evening of Wednesday, December 6, at 9 o'clock.

Miss Gladys Edwards Neale and Miss Mary Sadie Neale, of 1637 West Grace Street, will give a tea on Wednesday, November 29, from 5 to 7 o'clock, in their home. The affair is given in honor of Miss Ethel A. Wedge, of Mt. Royal Avenue, Baltimore.

Miss Watson Engaged.
Save a recent Danville exchange: "Saturday Miss Madge Vass entertained at luncheon, announcing the engagement of Miss Bessie Martin to Mr. J. Roscoe Anderson, of Philadelphia. Covers were laid for fifteen and place cards and table decorations charmingly carried out a scheme in lilacs of the valley. Coffee was served in the living room by Miss Bland Schofield, while the guests each read a verse of "love poems" at the occasion.

"The announcement was in an envelope tied to the neck of an Angora cat, which was "let out of the bag" by Frederick Van Wagner.

"Those present were Misses Madge Vass, Bessie Watson, Landon Harrison, Bland Schofield, Fannie Bowdler, Nellie Vass, Mayo Nassie, Annie C. Berkley, Bess Swank, of Johnston, Pa.; Aylmer Huges and Roberta Slade, of Columbus, Ga.; Hannah Schofield, Mrs. John H. Schofield, Jr."

Miss Watson has several times visited relatives in Richmond.

Miss Morgan's Wedding.
Quantities of yellow and white chrysanthemums and palms will be used to decorate the Second Presbyterian Church here for the wedding of Miss Margaret Addie Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Murray, and Mr. Wood Bowles, Jr., which takes place this evening at 6 o'clock, the Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D. officiating. The altar will be banked with palms and baskets of white chrysanthemums, tied with tulle. Bunches of yellow chrysanthemums will mark the ribbons and alternating pews down the centre aisle of the church. The bridal party will enter to the "Wedding March" from Lohengrin, and "O Perfect Love" will be played during the ceremony.

The bride will enter the church with her stepfather, Mr. Murray, who will give her away. Her gown of white satin is made with a court train and insets of duchess lace, with trimmings of real lace about the bodice. Her veil of illusion will fall from a cap of duchess lace, and will be caught with lilacs of the valley. She will carry a shower bouquet of lilacs of the valley and white orchids. Miss Daisy Ila Morgan will be her sister's maid of honor. She will be gowned in yellow crepe meter, draped in chiffon cloth of the same shade, with trimmings of crystal and pearls. Her flowers will be yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Geo. Bernard Lorraine, dame of honor, will give her own wedding gown of white satin, veiled in marquisette and trimmed with point lace. She will carry a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. C. F. Rhuhrmann, of this city, will act as the groom's best man.

The bridesmaids will include Misses Mary H. Erwin, Anna Lee Bowles, Addie C. Erwin, of this city, and Edith Hyslop, of Norfolk. Their gowns are of yellow satin, with quaint little coats of Irish lace, and trimmed in gold lace. They will wear Juliet caps and carry big bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. The ushers will be John Lightfoot, R. Stiegel, E. Lorraine, C. Martin and C. R. Phillips.

A small reception for the immediate families of the bride and groom, the bridal party and out of town guests will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride on West Grace Street. House decorations will be in yellow and white flowers and autumn leaves. Mr. Bowles and his bride will go North for their honeymoon.

Guests from a distance for the wedding include Mrs. W. A. Morgan, Mrs. C. C. Hammet, of Salem; Mrs. S. B. Pace, Mrs. M. B. Pace, of Roanoke; Mrs. P. A. Cross, of Fall River, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Woodruff, of New York; Mrs. E. D. Turner, Miss Edith Hyslop, of Norfolk; Mrs. K. J. Falconer and J. H. Falconer, of Washington.

Stay-at-Home Whist Club.
The Stay-at-Home Whist Club met on Monday night with Mrs. William Randolph Robins, at her apartment in the Shirley. Four tables were engaged, and the highest score was made by Mrs. Bland S. Smith and Mr. Robins. The club will meet next Monday evening at the residence of Mrs. Bland S. Smith, 301 East Grace Street.

Concert at Woman's Club.
Mrs. A. B. Guigon, chairman of the music committee of the Woman's Club, is to be congratulated upon having secured the services of such eminent artists as Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hudson Huss, of New York, who will give a concert before the club on Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Huss is a composer- pianist of unusual merit, while his wife, formerly Miss Hildegard Hoffman, possesses an unusually fine soprano voice and interprets her husband's vocal selections delightfully.

Members are entitled to bring men escorts to this concert, but no woman residing in Richmond may be invited.

Lipcomb-Crump.
Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in St. Paul's Church was celebrated the marriage of Miss Estelle Crump and Arthur McL. Lipcomb, only the immediate families of the bride and groom being present. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. Russell Bowler, rector of St. Paul, and Mrs. Lipcomb left at once for an extended Northern wedding trip. They will be at home on their return at 215 East Franklin Street, in this city.

Home Wedding.
The wedding of Miss Alice Isabelle Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Jones, and Arthur Creston Jones, was celebrated on Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, 3303 Floyd Avenue. The parlors were arranged with palms, ferns and American Beauty roses, and chrysanthemums and white flowers decorated the hall and library. The bride was preceded to the altar by four groomsmen—Ashby Jones, brother of the bride; H. Rowland Krieger and O. L. Jones, cousins of the bride, and F. Q. Delaney, R. H. Fetner, of Wilmington, N. C., was the groom's best man.

The bride entered with her sister, Miss Annie Jones, who was maid of honor. The bride's gown was of white satin, trimmed in real lace, and her tulle veil was arranged with lilacs of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. The maid of honor wore a real lace gown, made over pink satin and trimmed in crystal. She carried a bouquet of La France roses.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Lockhart Ball, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist Church, and Professor Rees played the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" at the entry of the bridal party. After an extended Southern tour, Mr. and Mrs. Jones will make their home in Savannah, Ga.

Guests from a distance were Mrs. T. H. Krieger, Mr. Krieger, of Spencer, N. C.; Miss Fleta Ford, of Spencer, N. C.; H. Rowland Krieger, of Chapel Hill, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Farmer and son, of Montgomery, W. Va.; B. H. Finner, of Wilmington, N. C., and Miss Charlotte Perve, of Washington.

In and Out of Town.
Mrs. Julia Pauline Leavens, of New York, who has been visiting in Richmond, will go to Norfolk to lecture in that city.

R. Key Compton, of Baltimore, is spending a few days with friends in Richmond.

Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page is a guest of Mrs. Bryan Lathrop in Chicago for several weeks.

Miss Janet Houston is in Richmond, after visiting Mrs. Craig Patterson, at her home in Staunton.

Frederick Tyson, who spent several days last week in this city, has returned to Baltimore.

Mrs. E. F. Whitehead, who has been visiting in Richmond, is now a guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Russell, in Fredericksburg.

Miss Janie Cooke is a guest of Miss Margaret Phillips, at her home in Suffolk.

DID WORLDS OF GOOD

When Life Was a Burden, This Woman's Friend Came to Give Her Prompt Relief

Escondido, Ky.—Mrs. Frank L. Blake, of this place, says: "I was so weak from womanly troubles that I couldn't do my work or even walk around. My back hurt so bad I could hardly be up, and I suffered with pains in my left side most of the time. Nothing did me any good until I tried Cardui, the woman's tonic. I am certainly well pleased with what it has done for me."

I have taken three bottles, and it has done me worlds of good. Cardui has strengthened me and made me feel better in every way. I can do my work with perfect ease. I sincerely believe if other suffering women will only give Cardui a trial it will help them as it helped me, for I know by experience that it is the best remedy for sick and run-down women."

There is a reason why Cardui has been so uniformly successful during the past fifty years in relieving all forms of womanly weakness and disease. It acts with Nature—not against her. Cardui goes to the weak spots, and helps to make them strong, thus hastening a cure in a natural, easy way. Try it.

TWO BIG SYSTEMS MAY GET CONTROL

Official Discusses Developments in Railroad Situation in North Carolina.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Raleigh, N. C., November 21.—An official in close touch with the dominant railroad interests in this State made the remark to-day that recent and impending railroad sales and combinations make it appear that ere long there will be only two big systems in this State, the Southern and the Pennsylvania. In reaching this conclusion he puts the Atlantic Coast Line, the Norfolk and Southern, and the Norfolk and Western in one combination, as the Pennsylvania system.

Well informed men are taking the view that the extension of the Norfolk and Southern through the purchase of the Raleigh and Southport, the Durham and Charlotte and Aberdeen and Asheboro and the Norfolk and Western back of it, and back of the Norfolk and Western they figure the Pennsylvania system, which has long been closely allied to the Ashboro and Aberdeen, it is believed, will be purchased or construction, with the Elkin and Alleghany, Elkin to Sparta, and from Sparta an extension will be made across the Virginia line to connect with the Craven county fair, which is in progress this week, at South Florida ports for expansion of Panama Canal business.

Announcement has been made at the State Department of Education that all arrangements have been made for a big attendance from North Carolina at Houston, Tex., for the Southern Educational Association, November 30 to December 2.

Governor Kitchin to-day went to Newberry to deliver an address in connection with the Craven county fair, which is in progress this week. The Southern Five and Ten-Cent Store, of Rocky Mount, was chartered to-day with $10,000 capital authorized, and $1,000 subscribed, by L. Schwartz, Howard Cohen, Rosa Powell and others for a general 5 and 10-cent store business. There was no capital for the Mak-Nu Furniture Polish Company, Hickory, N. C., capital $50,000 authorized, and $1,500 subscribed, by H. L. Holloman and others.

Governor Kitchin to-day offered for the State the award of $100 for the arrest of the unknown parties who attempted to wreck a passenger train of the Carolina and Northwestern Railroad at Crowder's Creek, Gaston county, September 19. The railroad company has a reward outstanding of $200.

The Raleigh Lodge of Elks, No. 755, last night celebrated with an elaborate banquet its tenth anniversary. Governor Kitchin and a number of the other State officers were special guests. There were many toasts, and a thoroughly delightful evening was accorded to all.

John Talala, Indian octogenarian, eighty-one years old, arrived to-day from his Swain county home to be with his grandson, Ross French, twenty-one years old, when he dies in the electric chair at the State's prison here on Friday morning. With him came Sallie Thompson, first cousin of the condemned man, who also has a wife and two children, who are not coming, the young Indian and his wife not being friendly since his conviction and sentence for the murder of Mary Ethel Shuler, which he has confessed. The Indian and his cousin were with the condemned man in the death chamber this evening quite a while, and are to see him daily until the electrocution takes place. Talala says the prison authorities misunderstood his request when they sent him the ticket to the electrocution. He does not desire to actually witness the electrocution, but only to be with his grandson as near as may be to the very last. There were to be two electrocutions Friday, the other victim being Taylor Love, colored, who is being sent to the State's prison here on Friday morning for the murder of another negro in Mitchell county. However, Governor Kitchin granted a reprieve for him for one week to December 1 in order that ex-Congressman T. W. Crawford and other counsel may have time to prepare their appeal to the Governor for commutation to life imprisonment on the ground of extenuating circumstances.

Accidentally Shoots Himself.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., November 21.—While hunting with friends this morning J. S. Breeden, twenty-one years old, accidentally shot himself in the head. The injured man was taken to his home near Buckners and physicians summoned. He is not expected to survive.

Herbner-Dwyer.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Alexandria, Va., November 21.—Miss Mary J. Dwyer and Henry G. Bernhardt were quietly married this afternoon at the parsonage of St. Mary's Catholic Church by Rev. L. F. Kelly, assistant pastor. Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Bernhardt left for a trip to Boston by sea. They will reside here.

Ashland News Notes.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Ashland, Va., November 21.—Mrs. Nannie Harrison has concluded her visit to her niece, Miss Cooke, and has gone to Norfolk. Mrs. Carter Redd was here Monday. Mrs. Charles Bridges and little Miss Effie Bridges, who have been visiting Mrs. J. Hutch Denoon, at Atlee, have returned home.

Miss Nell Lewis is spending a few days with relatives in Charlottesville. R. E. Black, who has been visiting from Salisbury, Md., where he attended the Virginia Conference.

Mrs. J. P. Wightman. The society was especially fortunate in having two of the Virginia Conference officers, Miss Little Roberts, the president, and Mrs. W. J. May, the third vice-president, who delivered a very interesting and instructive address on the subject of education. After the regular business meeting Mrs. May assisted the president in organizing a mission study class.

Misses Lucy Beverage, Katherine Robinson, Jellis Scott, Annie Laurie Hayes, Sylvia Augustine, Marie Harwood, Phoebe George, George W. Waddell, Margaret Waddell, of Richmond, were guests to-day of Miss Inocone Riddick.

Mrs. I. O. Kent and Miss Katherine Kent, who have been spending some time in Richmond, have returned home. Miss Nannie Haw was the week-end guest of the Misses Herndon.

Pleads Guilty of Murder.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fayetteville, N. C., November 21.—Wilson Thomas, a negro, was placed on trial in the Superior Court to-day for the murder of George Glover, another negro, while the latter was asleep in a watermelon patch last August and after the introduction of damaging testimony he pled guilty of murdering in the second degree.

Judge Carter has not yet sentenced the defendant, but he is expected to be sentenced to the State's prison here on Friday morning. Glover had been watching for thieves in the watermelon field of his employer and had dropped asleep on the night when he received fatal gunshot wounds.

Eggleston Makes Address.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Alexandria, Va., November 21.—J. D. Eggleston, State Superintendent of Instruction, tonight delivered an interesting address on public school education, before a large audience at the Young People's Building of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Mr. Eggleston also visited the schools in this city to-day and this afternoon visited the public schools in Alexandria county.

CONFERENCE WILL CONVENE TO-DAY

Historical Society Holds Eighteenth Annual Meeting on Eve of Session.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Kinston, N. C., November 21.—The North Carolina Conference Historical Society held its eighteenth annual meeting this evening in the Queen Street Methodist Church. After the opening hymn, Rev. C. L. Read, of Murfreesboro, led the congregation in prayer.

The conference quartette, composed of Rev. J. H. Prizelle, Rev. A. J. Parker, Rev. C. E. Vale and Rev. R. M. Phillips, rendered a selection.

Rev. W. W. Rose, of Franklinton, president of the society, presided, and introduced Hon. Y. T. Ormond, of Kinston, who delivered the annual address, his subject being "Some Methodist History Along the Lower Neuse and Contentnea Rivers." His address was a carefully prepared resume of Methodist history in the territory named above, from the early years of the eighteenth century until the present time.

The historian of the society, Rev. L. S. Massey, editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, submitted his report at the close of the address.

Another selection was rendered by the conference quartet, and miscellaneous business was transacted, after which the officers of the Historical Society for the coming year were elected, as follows: President, Rev. J. D. Bundy; First Vice-President, Rev. L. E. Thompson; Second Vice-President, Rev. G. B. Starling; Third Vice-President, Rev. A. S. Barnes; Secretary, Rev. W. H. Brown; Treasurer, Rev. T. A. Sykes; Historian, Rev. L. S. Massey.

Most of the members of the North Carolina Conference have arrived to attend the seventy-sixth annual session of the conference, which will convene to-morrow morning. A large congregation was present at the meeting held this evening. Bishop Embry E. Hoss, who is to preside over the conference, has arrived, and has been in conference to-day with the nine presiding elders, who, with himself, constitute the cabinet.

Arrangements for the entertainment of the conference have been admirably perfected, under the direction of Rev.

Small Fire at Salem.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Salem, Va., November 21.—This morning shortly after 2 o'clock, the residence of Rev. F. P. Robertson on Baptist Heights, was discovered on fire. The blaze originated in a front room on the second floor from a coal of fire, which dropped from an open grate, and burned a hole through the flooring. It was extinguished without any great damage.

Teachers Will Attend.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Alexandria, Va., November 21.—Nine public school teachers will attend the annual meeting of the State Board of Education, which will be held in Norfolk, November 23, to December 1 next. The teachers will leave here Monday night. All four of the high school teachers will attend.

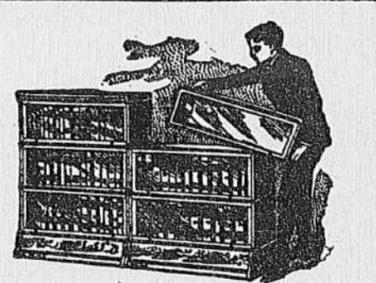

Three Flights by Beachy.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Salisbury, N. C., November 21.—Three flights in a Curtiss biplane were made successfully by Lincoln Beachy, in Salisbury, this afternoon. A large crowd witnessed the flights with great interest. Beachy attained a height of about 600 feet, a speed of ninety miles per hour, and gave no attention to a high wind that was blowing.
