WHERE THEY PLAY TO-DAY.
 Newport News at Richmond.
 Norfolk at Danville.
 Portsmouth at Roanoke.
 Lynchburg at Petersburg.

The Colts took the lead by one run in the fifth inning of yesterday's game with the Newport News Shipbuilders and held it until the eighth inning, when Grim's men tied the score, and put across the winning run in the ninth, winning the game 3 to 1. Deacon Morrissey, who on the previous day was slugged so hard that he was benched, "came back" yesterday and held the Colts to seven scattered hits and one run. He was given excellent support, while Richmond's one error was responsible for at least one run. It looked mighty good up to the eighth inning for Ayers to win his game by administering goose-eggs to the Shipbuilders, but in that inning Bates went out, McComas to Haley. Bowen hit to left centre and piffered, second, and Pleiss was hit by a pitched ball. Wolfe lammed one to McComas too hot to handle after a hard run, filling the bases. Tennant sent a long fly to centre and Bowen scored on the throw in. Pleiss and Wolfe advancing. Bates fled out to Mace. In the ninth Oyer drew a pass.

YALE STAR SECURED AS FOOTBALL COACH

James Reilly, With Wonderful Athletic Record at Old Eli, Will Be in Charge of Eleven at Washington and Lee This Fall.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
 Lexington, Va., May 24.—James Reilly, Yale '12, will be head coach of football at Washington and Lee this fall. This announcement comes after several months of negotiation, and now that Reilly's coming is a certainty the athletic authorities of Washington and Lee are congratulating themselves on their good fortune. Reilly is one of the best products of Yale's athletic system, and will come here with a splendid record behind him. He first broke into the limelight back in 1907 at Andover, as a baseball star; the next year found him the captain of football, basketball and baseball there; his work as a player was so conspicuous that he was retained the next year as baseball coach. Entering Yale in the fall of 1909 he was end on the freshmen team, and in his sophomore year he played at fullback and end; and last fall in his last year he was one of Yale's most consistent backfield men; having all the natural traits of a football player and being a close student of the game, understanding every point of the play. He has been on the basketball and baseball teams for two years, having played forward in basketball, and first base and left field in baseball.

Besides this exceptional athletic record he is one of the most popular men at Yale, having recently been named by the senior class as their most popular man, and by an overwhelming vote, Walter Camp and Graduate Manager Thompson, of Yale, have both recommended Mr. Reilly very highly, saying that he will be the best of the coaches who go out from Yale this year to the other colleges. These men say that Reilly is the sort of man who can command the respect of his squad, and who will get their perfect obedience, and who will be able to ever get the most out of his material.

Reilly will have the help of Clovis

FREIGHT TRAIN WRECKED.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
 Danville, Va., May 24.—A heavily laden freight train was wrecked at 2:30 o'clock, eleven cars were derailed and the track was torn up for about 150 feet. Nobody was hurt and the cause is given as a bucking car. The public road was blocked for several hours by one of the cars. Trains No. 25 and 42 were held up at Pelham, while 26 was held just beyond the wreck, and came in nine hours late. The track was cleared at midnight.

Strain Sold to Detroit

An unexplained rumor is to the effect that Charlie Strain, the left-handed pitcher who has been pitching such remarkable ball for the Colts, has been sold to Detroit. It is a fact that a Tiger scout has been several days looking over the local outfit. Strain is sure to go right. He has everything in his favor, and will make any club a good man.

COMMITTEE FIGHT WILL TURN SCALES

 There is no other side to that question.

In discussing the contests to be brought before the national committee, McFarg said there would be at least 260 or 270 contested seats as against 227 uncontested seats at the 1908 national convention.

June 3, it was said to-night, will signalize the opening of activities in Chicago for the final pre-convention struggle between Taft and Roosevelt forces. On that date the Taft and the Roosevelt national headquarters will be moved from Washington to Chicago. Congressmen, William B. McKinley, of Illinois, will be personal charge of the Taft headquarters, and United States Senator Dixon, of Montana, will direct the work of the Roosevelt bureau.

PETERSBURG WINS DOUBLE HEADER

Vance Pitches and Wins Both Games Against Lynchburg.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
 Petersburg, Va., May 24.—Petersburg took both games from Lynchburg in a double-header played this afternoon, and the 1,500 fans in attendance witnessed a swiftest. Home runs, triples and two baggers were made by the Champs whenever necessary, and Wines, Woolums and Sexton, who pitched for the visitors, were found for thirty-two hits with a total of forty eight bases. Vance pitched both games for Petersburg, and he pitched great ball, holding the visitors down to seven scattered hits in each game. Barnett was the star of both games.

In the first game with one man out and two on the bases and his first time at the bat he knocked the first ball pitched him over the left field fence for a home run, the first time that a ball has been knocked over the fence by any Virginia League player since the fence was moved back.

In the sixth inning with two out and a runner on first and third bases he made a triple.

In the second game the first time up he made a home run, knocking the ball to the clubhouse in deep right centre. Busch, Simmons and Spencer also figured in the hitting. Keating in the eighth inning of the second game made a home run hitting the clubhouse.

 ed probably a half dozen shots apiece. Goad said he had not fired at anyone in the courtroom except Floyd Allen. He showed the jury a number of bullet holes in his coat, which was the same one he had on the day of the shooting. He said there were eleven bullet holes altogether in his clothing, after the battle was over, besides the bullet wound in his neck.

Goad was then asked as to Byrd Marion's position in the court room just before the shooting began, and asked as to its relation to the bullet hole in the left side of Judge Massie's chair. Goad said it was possible for a man standing on the bench where he saw Byrd that morning to have fired the shot.

MASSIE'S CHAIR EXAMINED.

Judge Massie's chair was here brought in and exhibited and examined by the jury. Goad later told Judge Massie having warned Jasper and Floyd Allen that he would call State Attorney Carroll county in necessary to preserve order and respect for the orders of his court. This was at the December term of court, before Floyd's trial.

tosnyatb$fi --hilds em emf emty Goad denied, under cross-examination, that Sheriff Webb had drawn a pistol first when advancing on Floyd Allen, but Goad was positive that he began to fumble with his sweater, that he muttered something about "not going" before Webb reached for his revolver. Goad further denied that Judge Massie was on a direct, or at most direct, line between himself and Claude and Sidna Allen when the shooting started.

Cyrus Phillips, who testified in Floyd's trial about having seen Claude and Sidna Allen standing back of the prisoner's railing in the courtroom the evening before the tragedy, and having seen them put their hands on their pistols in their hip pockets when the jury announced that it had failed to reach a verdict, repeated his testimony to-day. He also showed a blueprint drawing made by him of the Hillsville courtroom, on which were indicated the locations of the bullet wounds, of course, after the shooting. This testimony consumed most of the afternoon session.

Next Trial in July.

It was announced to-day that the next Allen trial would not be held until July 8 at least. The Supreme Court of Appeals meets in Wytheville beginning the first week of June, and the trial of Claude Swanson Allen will last until almost that date, it is expected, unless the defense puts on fewer witnesses than the Commonwealth intends to before it is finished.

The Commonwealth will seek to have all the rest of the prisoners in Wythe jail tried together at the July term on joint indictments charging them with the murders of all five persons slain in the Hillsville horror, provided, of course, Claude be convicted of first degree murder in this trial. If he is acquitted, or even convicted, of any lower degree of homicide, it is the Commonwealth's intention to put him on trial again for one of the other murders. If the
