THE VIRGINIA AERIE IS IN SESSION

Eagles Are Welcomed to Portsmouth for Their Annual Convention.

Probably the most important item of business to be considered during the meeting is the proposition to form a provincial Aerie to be composed of Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia.

The selection of officers will take place to-morrow. C. N. Markham of this city, is a candidate for vice-president, and President John B. Graves, of Clifton Forge, would like to be one of the two delegates to the Grand Aerie, which will meet in Cleveland, Ohio, on a street parade and moonlight excursion on Hampton Roads and Chesapeake Bay are features of the program for to-morrow.

Greatest in Its History

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., June 12.—The close of the eighty-seventh session at the University of Virginia will go down in the annals of that institution as the greatest commencement occasion in its history.

In addition, the presence of the venerable veterans of the student companies that fought for the South in the Civil War and their royal reception have a tone of respect for the hallowed memory of the heroes of that period, the influence of which will be felt in years to come.

The scene was beautiful and impressive. The Confederate event was finely conceived and beautifully carried out. At no time was there an act or word which a visitor from any part of the country would not have approved.

Among those in the audience was Senator Joseph W. Bailey, of Texas, who came down from Washington to see his son, W. M. Bailey, receive his degree in the law school. It was Senator Bailey's first visit to his alma mater for many years.

The following alumni to-night were initiated into Beta Chapter of the Virginia Phi Beta Kappa Society: Ashland, Va., June 12.—The second annual Pan-Hellenic dinner-dance of the Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Kappa Sigma and Kappa Alpha Fraternities of Randolph-Macon College was held last night at the Henry Clay Inn.

The inn was beautifully decorated with great numbers of college pennants and banners, while in the center were suspended long streamers intertwined with vines and ivy.

The chapters of the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Midyette, Mrs. Anne Carr, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Carter and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Howland, Mr. Duncan and Mrs. R. E. Blackwell.

Those present were: M. H. Hunt with Miss McCullins, R. W. Marry with Miss Campbell, E. S. Carter with Miss Anne Macon Potts, J. W. Childs with Miss Hochbaum; Rives Childs with Miss West, J. T. Scott with Miss Johnston, R. A. Sheffy with Miss Louise Miller, A. L. Williken with Miss Emma Lee, C. T. M. Sheffy with Miss Gregory, J. C. Simpson with Miss Marie, L. L.
