

LOCAL DEMOCRATS FULLY CONFIDENT

No Shadow of Doubt That Victory Will Perch on Party Banner.

PROGRESSIVES DYING HARD

Hope for Landslide—All Ready Here for Premier Political Event.

For the first time in twenty years to the day, the Democrats of Richmond and Virginia and the nation will go to the polls to-day with a reason to think they are voting for a winning candidate for President of the United States...

Regular Majority Expected.

State Chairman J. Taylor Kilgus is satisfied that a normal party majority will be registered in Virginia over the votes of the Republicans and Progressive candidates combined.

Citizens who registered on the permanent roll in 1902 and 1903 may secure the aid of any judge of election in marking ballots. Those who have registered since 1903 must mark their own tickets without assistance...

There is a good deal of interest in the relative votes to be secured in Virginia by Taft or Roosevelt. In some sections, where the Progressive movement has not been taken up, Taft will lead as the regular party nominee...

City Chairman Miles M. Martin, appreciating the difficulty of getting out the full party qualified vote of considerably more than 8,000, when there is no doubt of Democratic success in city, district and State, feels that perhaps more than a normal vote will be cast when compared with usual presidential elections.

Hope had not entirely deserted the camp of the Progressives last night at the headquarters of the Roosevelt-Kilgus Club of Richmond, Secretary Simpson based his claims on the silent vote, polls taken in various places and the probability of a landslide for Roosevelt.

Locally, said Mr. Simpson, the party has been handicapped because the Bull Moose movement did not begin until long after voters had qualified for the November election by paying their poll taxes in May.

The Socialist party expects to have a representative at each precinct in the city to-day, to look after the interests of Charles A. Haight, its candidate for Congress. The Socialist-Labor party has named Adolph Miller, of Seven Pines, Governor A. J. Montague has no other opposition, and his majority will be very large.

Nine of the Virginia congressional districts are safely Democratic. In the Ninth the outcome depends admittedly upon the number of Republicans voting for Walter Graham, the Progressive candidate, who is endorsed by Senator Dixon and former President Roosevelt.

Three ballot boxes will be in use at each precinct. In one will go the tickets for President, Vice-President, electors and members of Congress, and in Richmond, the candidates for the Administrative Board. In another will be placed the ballots on the amendment to the Constitution, permitting commission government in cities, and in the third will go the tickets on the two amendments permitting city treasurers and commissioners of the revenue to succeed themselves in office indefinitely.

Ready for Election. Ballots, poll books and other paraphernalia for Richmond were distributed to the officers of election yesterday. The polls at the twenty-two voting places in this city will be open for business at 8:00 o'clock this morning. All the precincts in Virginia will close at 6:00 o'clock this evening, and then the count will begin. It will be somewhat delayed because of the vote on the constitutional amendments, but the results should be known at an hour not over late.

The five Democratic nominees for the Administrative Board in Richmond:

We'll be glad to play any of these Victor Records

Made by The World Famous Soprano Mme. Marcella Sembrich

who will appear Monday evening November 11th at the

CITY AUDITORIUM

Semiramide—Bel raggio lusinghier (Bright Gloom of Hope). Rossini. Sonnambula—Ah non giunge (Recall Not One Earthly Sorrow). Bellini. Traviata—Ah! fors' e lui (He My Heart Forceth). Giuseppe Verdi. Vespro Siciliano—Bolero, Merce dilette amiche (Dear Friends). Verdi. Voce di primavera—Valse (Voice of Spring). Johann Strauss.

Other Records in to-morrow's ad. Come every day and hear the new ones.

The Corley Company Successors Cable Piano Co. Mad. 2586. 213 E Broad who have no opposition, are as follows: L. C. F. A. S. Robert Whittier, Jr., Carlton McCarty, John H. Frazier and H. P. Beck.

Citizens who registered on the permanent roll in 1902 and 1903 may secure the aid of any judge of election in marking ballots. Those who have registered since 1903 must mark their own tickets without assistance...

There is a good deal of interest in the relative votes to be secured in Virginia by Taft or Roosevelt. In some sections, where the Progressive movement has not been taken up, Taft will lead as the regular party nominee...

City Chairman Miles M. Martin, appreciating the difficulty of getting out the full party qualified vote of considerably more than 8,000, when there is no doubt of Democratic success in city, district and State, feels that perhaps more than a normal vote will be cast when compared with usual presidential elections.

Hope had not entirely deserted the camp of the Progressives last night at the headquarters of the Roosevelt-Kilgus Club of Richmond, Secretary Simpson based his claims on the silent vote, polls taken in various places and the probability of a landslide for Roosevelt.

Locally, said Mr. Simpson, the party has been handicapped because the Bull Moose movement did not begin until long after voters had qualified for the November election by paying their poll taxes in May.

The Socialist party expects to have a representative at each precinct in the city to-day, to look after the interests of Charles A. Haight, its candidate for Congress. The Socialist-Labor party has named Adolph Miller, of Seven Pines, Governor A. J. Montague has no other opposition, and his majority will be very large.

Nine of the Virginia congressional districts are safely Democratic. In the Ninth the outcome depends admittedly upon the number of Republicans voting for Walter Graham, the Progressive candidate, who is endorsed by Senator Dixon and former President Roosevelt.

Three ballot boxes will be in use at each precinct. In one will go the tickets for President, Vice-President, electors and members of Congress, and in Richmond, the candidates for the Administrative Board. In another will be placed the ballots on the amendment to the Constitution, permitting commission government in cities, and in the third will go the tickets on the two amendments permitting city treasurers and commissioners of the revenue to succeed themselves in office indefinitely.

Ready for Election. Ballots, poll books and other paraphernalia for Richmond were distributed to the officers of election yesterday. The polls at the twenty-two voting places in this city will be open for business at 8:00 o'clock this morning. All the precincts in Virginia will close at 6:00 o'clock this evening, and then the count will begin. It will be somewhat delayed because of the vote on the constitutional amendments, but the results should be known at an hour not over late.

The five Democratic nominees for the Administrative Board in Richmond:

DRINKING FIREMEN NOT IDENTIFIED

Evidence Shows Men in Uniform Frequent Bars at Fair Grounds.

MAYOR COMPLAINS OF ODORS

Wants Firemen to Flush Out Traps at Regular Intervals.

After examining many witnesses last night, the board of Fire Commissioners was unable to find the names of any of the firemen reported to have been drinking in public saloons during the recent State Fair, one of the witnesses stating that he could not, and would not if he could, even though under oath, point out the men he saw drinking.

The hearing was continued by a sharp tilt between M. K. Tracy, who had been called as a witness, and President of the Board of Fire Commissioners Charles F. Taylor, which, while showing much temper on the part of the witness, threw little or no light on the subject of the inquiry.

Rowland in First Witness. Rev. J. W. Rowland, who wrote a letter in a local newspaper on "Drinking at the State Fair," in which he told of having seen six firemen in uniform drinking at a bar on the grounds, was the first witness.

Mr. P. Pace, an official of the local Typographical Union, testified that he had seen two or three firemen drinking on different days at the fair. He became quite heated and asserted that he did not know the men and would not tell if he did.

Then we will put you on oath, answered Chairman Taylor. "I don't care. I wouldn't tell on these men if I were on oath. It isn't my business."

Woman Saw Drunken Fireman. Mrs. J. M. Osborn and a large committee who had conducted a booth for the Woman's Temperance League of America, told of a fireman in uniform having come to the booth while in an intoxicated condition.

Chief Joyner took the stand and explained the orders that had been given, detaching a squad of men on the grounds during the State Fair, and the directions that they were to line up and report at certain hours for inspection. Captain Cosby, in charge of the squad during the week, said these instructions had been rigidly followed and he had noticed no drinking or drunkenness on the part of his men.

All of the men on duty at the Fair Grounds were lined up in the morning, but the utter inability or unwillingness of the prosecuting witnesses to identify any of them made it impossible for the board to take any action.

Mayor Alms. A communication from Mayor Alms called attention of the board to foul odors from many of the sewers of the city, suggesting that firemen be detailed to open the water plugs at intervals and flush out the traps.

The board accepted the resignation of J. F. Boto, of Engine Company No. 2, and of J. W. Tyree, of Engine Company No. 7, and elected J. M. Simmons, a fireman, grade B, in Engine Company No. 2, and E. L. Simms, a grade B fireman, in Engine Company No. 7. Hagner was elected a grade C fireman in Engine Company No. 12.

Mr. Cunningham is an employe of the Chesapeake and Ohio, and his wife, Mrs. Cunningham, is the youngest sister of D. A. Christian. Immediately after the ceremony the guests were led into the dining room, where luncheon was served.

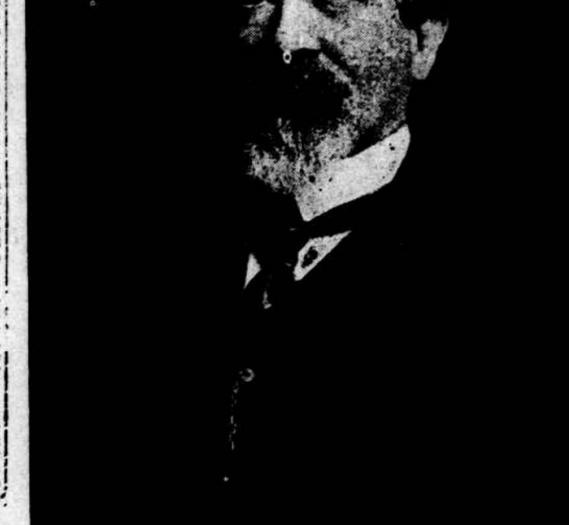

Mr. Cunningham is an employe of the Chesapeake and Ohio, and his wife, Mrs. Cunningham, is the youngest sister of D. A. Christian. Immediately after the ceremony the guests were led into the dining room, where luncheon was served.

T. WM. PEMBERTON DIES AT HIS HOME

Although in Poor Health Recently, End Came Suddenly Yesterday Morning.

FUNERAL IS TO-MORROW

Final Rites Over Man Long Prominent Here From Second Presbyterian Church.

T. WILLIAM PEMBERTON.

The funeral services of Thomas William Pemberton, who died yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock, at his home, 829 West Franklin Street, will be conducted to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Second Presbyterian Church, by the Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D.

Immediately after the completing of his education, he entered business as a partner in the wholesale grocery firm of Brown, Pemberton & Co. When the organization of the Life Insurance Company of Virginia was undertaken, he was one of the moving spirits, and remained one of the oldest officers in that organization.

He was among the first stockholders of the Life Insurance Company of Virginia on its organization in 1871, becoming a director in 1874, and second vice-president in 1888. He was elected first vice-president, January 31, 1901. He had a seat on the directors board of the Virginia Trust Company, the Union Bank of Richmond, and the Planters' National Bank, of Richmond, and the Life Insurance Company of Virginia.

All his life he was a member of the Second Presbyterian Church, and was prominently identified with the work of that congregation. He became a deacon during the pastorate of the late Moses Hodge, D. D., and was made an elder under the Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D. With his death passes one of the oldest members of this church.

He married Miss Mary Elizabeth Crew, a sister of A. E. Warren. Besides his widow, he leaves two children—Dr. Russell Pemberton, of New York, and a daughter, Mrs. Annie Jones, of Starke, Fla.

MADE NO EFFORT TO CHECK RIOTERS. Salem, Mass., November 4.—That militiamen and policemen made no effort to prevent attacks upon street cars in Lawrence on the morning of January 29, and that the cars were besieged by an organized gang of about twenty men, was the testimony to-day of Leo Ready, one of the strikers, at the trial of Ettore Giovanniotti and Caruso for the murder of Anna Lopez.

Ready declared he was near the scene of the riot that morning, and that the strikers were peaceful. "I saw this gang of twenty men go up and down the streets," said Ready. "They were armed with clubs, with which they smashed the windows of the cars. Some of them threw chunks of ice. The policemen on the street made no attempt to stop them. Neither did the soldiers."

"Did you see the police when the windows were being smashed?" asked Attorney George Rowley, Jr. "I saw several times," said Ready. "I saw one of them come up toward the car and stoop to pick up a chunk of ice. One of his pals said to him, 'there's a cop,' and he said to him—'there's a cop,' and let the chunk of ice drive at the car window. The policeman made no effort to arrest him."

Several Lawrence women and children workers testified that police and militiamen clubbed strikers. One told of the stabbing of a fourteen-year-old boy by a soldier.

Thomas Holliday, who was one of the American members of the strike committee, testified that he never heard of any violent action. The witness quoted one of Ettore's speeches to the strikers as follows:

"The great power of the working people is when they do nothing and remain absolutely quiet with their arms folded. As soon as you fold your arms there will be no one to build automobiles for the rich. Then will you have the capitalist class at your mercy and be on the way to victory."

"Already we have accomplished here what 1,000 years of Christianity have

The Pianola-Piano

When you purchase a Pianola-Piano you buy, not only a superb instrument, but also the ability to play. Send for Free Catalogue.

Walter D. Moses & Co. 103 East Broad Street. OLDEST MUSIC HOUSE IN VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA.

not done. We have brought together in one body the Italian and the Turk, the Frenchman and the German, the Englishman and the Irishman. Stand together solidly, let there be no violent uprising, and all will win."

OBITUARY

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Funeral of Mrs. Ray. The funeral of Mrs. Kate A. Ray, widow of William D. Ray, who died suddenly at her home, 212 East Marshall Street, Sunday night, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Venable Street Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Ray leaves two sisters, Mrs. W. E. Stephenson and Mrs. A. S. Craighill, and two sons, L. A. Ray and S. H. Ray.

Advertisement for Wilson, featuring the slogan 'On Nov. 5th It may be Taft or it may be Roosevelt' and 'Wilson in the Bottle Which Won't Rust'.

Advertisement for Wood's Special Grass and Clover Mixtures, highlighting their benefits for hay and pasturage.

Advertisement for Raw Gold Biting Winds, Scott's Emulsion, and Wood's Special Grass and Clover Mixtures.

Advertisement for M. A. O'Donnell, featuring gowns, wraps, jackets, and dinner dresses, located at the Arcade Building.