Perishable Goods—How to Save Them

Perishable goods often are lost by failure to move them quickly. At their very best horses are slow and uncertain. Horse, or animal, transportation is slow transportation—only one step ahead of oxen. Perishable goods often are at the mercy of horse service. Horses do not travel faster than four miles an hour on the average. Moreover, they cannot haul beyond a certain capacity. Alco motor trucks travel twelve miles an hour and one Alco truck—of 3 1/2 tons—carries more than three times as much as one two-horse team. If you have goods to be moved quickly—perishable goods or otherwise—the quickest, safest, most economical method is by Alco trucks. There are many big concerns employing the Alco truck just for this very purpose—dairies, canneries, ice companies, fruit growers, ranchers, truck gardeners and so on. Write us for the names of some of these. Find out what they say.

A Serious Joke on The Rabbit

The U. S. Gov't has been experimenting to discover the poisonous quality of Caffeine (found in coffee.)

57 healthy rabbits were given an average dose of 5 1-10 grains.

—They all died
See Gov't Bulletin No. 148,
Bureau of Chemistry

A cup of coffee contains over 2 1-2 grains of Caffeine, enough in two cups to kill a rabbit.
Of course this joke was on the rabbits.
A goodly number of humorous Americans play the same joke on themselves and keep it up until some fixed form of disease sets in, as a result of the daily dose of Caffeine, in quantity enough to kill a rabbit, but only enough to

Cripple a Man
Not at one blow, but by little blows repeated daily.

Of course some systems are strong enough to stand all kinds of abuse, but when a man or woman observes a growing nervousness, or heart trouble, stomach, bowel or eye disturbances, it is time to quit the daily dose of coffee and see if Nature will begin to heal.

It is easy to shift from coffee to Postum. The food beverage has the deep, seal-brown color which turns to a golden-brown when cream is added. The flavour has the crisp tang so winning to the palate and the cup is made instant by one struck spoonful of the powder, stirred in a cup of hot water, and there you are.

INSTANT POSTUM

The change from coffee to Postum works wonders.

party that may have elected the assemblymen.
William Barnes, Jr., chairman of the Republican State Committee, issued the following statement:
"The result of the election in the State of New York demonstrates one thing: that the Roosevelt report was simply a Republican bolt. With all of the frantic efforts that were made to secure votes, the result shows that practically none but former Republicans joined the Roosevelt movement."

STILL OPTIMISTIC

Chairman Dixon Frowned With Showing Made by Progressives.
New York, November 5.—Joseph M. Dixon, chairman of the Progressive National Committee, gave out the following statement to-night:
"The election returns to-night show that more than 4,000,000 voters have enlisted under the banner of the Progressive party. They have enlisted for the war."
"Some of our leaders have hoped that possibly this might have been 1800. It is evidently 1850."
"The result of to-day's ballot makes the Progressive party the dominant opponent of the Democratic party. To-day the old Republican party becomes the 'third-term party' of American politics."
"The realignment of the voters of the nation has become an accomplished fact. We are going forward immediately with our plans to complete our organization in two years from this time. I have issued a call to the Progressive National Committee to meet in Chicago Tuesday, December 10. We have also invited to this meeting of the Progressive National Committee all the chairmen of the State committees, the Progressive candidates for Governor at to-day's election and every prominent Progressive leader."
"We expect to maintain permanent headquarters during the coming four years. The fight to drive special privilege from American politics has just begun."

CELEBRATION IS ON AT PRINCETON

Bell on Historic Nassau Hall Tolls for Victory of Wilson.

Princeton, N. J., November 5.—The celebration of victory by Princeton students began at 11 o'clock to-night when the bell in Nassau Hall, where the Continental Congress met, began to toll as a signal of Wilson's victory. Tolling the bell is an established Princetonian custom when the college is successful in any contest. Students began to gather with band instruments, pennants and torches and formed a parade that passed down through Bayard Lane passed the Grover Cleveland house to Governor Wilson's residence. Friends who were with the Governor while the returns were coming in found difficulty in getting him to concede that he had won. Dudley S. Malone, son-in-law of Senator O'Gorman, of New York, came out of the room where the returns were being read and said, laughingly: "The Governor refuses to be elected."
His message to Chairman McCombe was his first statement admitting that all doubt of his election had passed.

TESTIFIES FOR DEFENSE

Salem, Mass., November 5.—Mrs. Anna Welzenchek, who was a member of the Lawrence textile strike committee, testified in behalf of Ettor, Giovannitti and Caruso to-day in their trial for the murder of Anna Lopiano. speaking during the strike, and that they told the people to be peaceable.
