Whether it is of the nose, throat, stomach, bowels or more delicate organs, catarah is always debilitating and should be attended to. ETTOR IS ANXIOUS TO ADDRESS JURY

Not Believed That Such Permission Will Be Granted to Strike Leader.

CASE IS NEARING ITS CLOSE

Attorney for Defense Bitterly Assails Character of State's Witnesses.

Salem, Mass., November 21.—District Attorney Henry Atty will to-morrow will make the Commonwealth's closing argument to the jury in the trial of J. J. Ettore, Arturo Giovanni and Joseph Caruso for the murder of Anna Lopizzo in the Lawrence textile strike. He will follow W. Scott Peters, who expects to close off behalf of Giovanni, unless Ettore, who would like to say a few words to the jury, is permitted to do so. Such an unusual procedure was deemed unlikely to-night.

The probability of the case going to the jury to-morrow night is remote, as the remaining arguments are expected to take most of the day, and the charge to the jury, owing to the unusual nature of the case, will be lengthy and may not be delivered until Saturday.

Attorney Peters in his argument today for the defense characterized the charges against the accused strike leaders, Ettore and Giovanni, as "the most flimsy and gauzy ever taken into a court." The charge that Giovanni was an accessory before the fact to the killing of the woman, he said, was an outrage, and he assailed the character of the Commonwealth's witnesses bitterly.

Moore, the special policeman; La-court and the Bencardo brothers, private detectives, who gave the most damaging testimony, he described as "damning testimony, he feared to tell 'scum of the earth.' The police, he said, have been 'sitting here banked around the district attorney's table like vultures, waiting until the time when these men in the prisoners' cage, by your verdict, will be offered up as their victims."

The case, Mr. Peters said, came to the district attorney as a burden, the creature of a conspiracy on the part of mill owners to rob the strikers of their leaders.

"I don't say it came crookedly to the district attorney," said Mr. Peters, "but through a desire to get rid of strikes of mill workers, who were in prison the 25,000 poor workers, women and children, would return to the mills, again their slaves. That's the way this flimsy creature, this constructive case, was born."

"JUDGE" GAYLOR ENTERS THE RACE

Petition Signed by Caesar and Cromwell Recommends Him for Postmastership.

"Judge" Gaylor wants to be postmaster of Richmond. The judge, in the language of the toastmaster, needs no introduction to Richmond Democrats. He made a bid for fame everlasting a few weeks ago by offering to sell his body to a local medical college on condition that there was to be no cutting until after his demise.

Falling in this, Judge Gaylor turned his talents to matrimony. In the City Hustings Court the clerk declined to issue a license, and the would-be Benedict migrated to Goochland County. Here he admits it himself—the judge met with better success, and claims to have secured a license, a minister and a girl. None of the trio has ever been discovered in his possession.

This, however, is only negative evidence and in no manner weakens his bid for the postmastership. In a downtown cigar store yesterday Judge Gaylor had on display a lengthy petition signed by his supporters. The document set forth that the petitioner was a citizen in good standing, had generally voted the Democratic ticket, was congenitally opposed to a high tariff and it appointed to the position would wage a war of extermination upon Broad Street masqueraders.

In the matter of signatures, Judge Gaylor has it on every aspirant who has so far entered the race. The roster includes Julius Caesar, Hannibal, Lucretia Borgia, Peter the Great, Charlemagne, Louis XIV, Cromwell, Schopenhauer and Charles Darwin. It takes a man of real calibre to secure the indorsement of these worthies, and Judge Gaylor is properly elated.

Will Buy Motor Car. A subcommittee of the Council Committee on Electricity yesterday recommended the purchase of a Studebaker motor car for the use of the electrical inspectors of the city at a cost of $200. The committee on Electricity will act on the report at a special meeting to-night at 7:30 o'clock.

Supreme Court Proceedings. The following cases composed the docket yesterday in the Supreme Court: Water Front Coal Co. (Inc.) vs. Smithfield Coal Co. and Transportation Co. Argued by Mr. Thorp for appellant and by E. R. F. Wells for appellee, and submitted.

Cardwell vs. Norfolk and Western Railway Company. Argued by Volney E. Howard for appellant and by Marshall McCormick and J. S. Kirkpatrick for appellee, and submitted.

Scott et al vs. Timberlake et al; dismissed.

Next cases to be called: Leary vs. Briggs; Mitchell vs. Williams; the Amateur Billiard Club of Richmond (Inc.) vs. City of Richmond; Roach vs. Southern Railway Company.

ROBIN FORCED TO LOAN $130,000 TO TOTTERING TRUST COMPANY

Threat of Withdrawal of City Funds Used as Club by Hyde.

BRIBE OFFERED FOR CONSENT

Former City Chamberlain of New York Now Is on Trial.

New York, November 21.—Joseph G. Robin testified at the trial of former City Chamberlain Charles H. Hyde today that Hyde, by his control of city deposits, forced the Northern Bank to loan the Carnegie Trust Company $130,000 when the latter institution was about to collapse in 1910. Robin, himself found guilty of grand larceny in connection with the wrecking of the Northern Bank, and who has been in the Tombs for several months awaiting sentence, is the State's principal witness against Hyde, charged with accepting a bribe as a public officer.

Although Hyde's counsel moved for quashing the indictment on the ground that no crime was charged, because it was not shown that the City Chamberlain benefited by his alleged actions, Justice Goff reserved decision until the State's case was closed.

District Attorney Whitman answered this point by asserting he would "trace $130,000 of the Carnegie Trust Company's money into Hyde's pocket."

Robin said William J. Cummins and J. B. Reichman introduced him to Hyde in the latter's offices on the evening of August 22, 1910. Hyde explained that the trust company needed $150,000, and asked Robin to help "the boys." When Robin demurred Hyde referred to the city deposits in Robin's bank, and declared that if the necessary aid was forthcoming he would draw out this money the next day. Robin's story continued:

"Then, Mr. Hyde said, 'I'll tell you what I'll do. If you will do what we want I will give you deposits in the same amount as the loans that you will make. Leave it to me, and if you loan these boys half a million dollars I will give you that much in city funds.'"

Robin testified to calling a meeting of the executive committee of the Northern Bank the next morning, when he told the committee that if it loaned the trust company the money Mr. Hyde had promised materially to increase the city deposits. The committee agreed to make the loan.

In cross-examination, Max D. Steuer, for Hyde, attempted to discredit Robin's testimony by repeated questions as to his own corrupt financial transactions, and by reference to his refusal to plead to an indictment on the ground that he was insane. To one after another of such questions the prosecution interposed objections, and always was sustained by Justice Goff. With the cross-examination unfinished, court adjourned until to-morrow.

ACCEPT RESIGNATION

Town Council of Highland Park Elects Charles Hesse to Succeed McClure. The Town Council of Highland Park last night in adjourned session accepted the resignation of E. M. McClure from membership in the body and elected Charles Hesse to the seat vacated by his withdrawal. Mayor Bahke appointed W. C. Carpenter to the chairmanship of the Finance Committee, which position Mr. McClure had previously filled.

Upon Mr. Carpenter and Mayor Bahke will largely fall the disposal of the $5,000 in bonds which the Council recently authorized to be sold. It was voted last night that the sum of $2,500 should be spent in general street repair work, the funds to be taken from the proceeds of the bonds.

Seventh Arrest. Gobior Zee, a miner from the Gayton district, was arrested yesterday afternoon by County Policeman Bendall and brought to Henric County Jail last night. He is charged with selling liquor without a license. He will be tried on November 27.

Wreckage Hunt by Fall. Louis Rafter, a machinist, of 414 Coward's Avenue, South Richmond, was badly cut about the head yesterday afternoon when he fell fifteen feet from a crane while at work on the south side of Mayo's bridge. He was treated by Dr. C. C. Page, City Hospital ambulance surgeon, and removed to his home.

Grand Jury Adjourns. At the request of Foreman Charles F. Taylor, the Hustings Court grand jury which has been probing the cases of alleged tax-dodgers, was adjourned by Judge D. C. Richardson last night until Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Compromise Judgment. In the case of Ethel M. Davis against the Duplex Envelope and Printing Company, called on to trial yesterday in the Equity Court, a compromise was effected, as by agreement of counsel judgment was entered in the sum of $125.

Southgate vs. McDonald. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Durham, N. C., November 21.—The marriage of Miss Louisa McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McDonald, of Raleigh, and James Fuller Southgate, of Durham, took place in the Church of the Good Shepherd, the former city, at 6 o'clock this afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. I. McK. Pittenger. Miss Flora McDonald, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Katherine Boylan was bridesmaid. Mr. Southgate's best man was Southgate Jones, Durham. Archie Clark, of Wilson, was groomsmen. The ushers were three brothers of the bride—Charles, John and Eugene McDonald, and Joe O'Brien, of Dunn. The couple will make their home in Durham.

CHARLES H. HYDE.

CALIFORNIA MAY YET BE WILSON'S

Court Decision Makes It Likely Democrats Will Score Victory.

Los Angeles, November 21.—The District Court of Appeals handed down a decision in the election controversy late today, which Democratic leaders declare will place California in the Wilson column of presidential electors.

The decision was against the method of the Board of Supervisors in canvassing the returns in Los Angeles County. The court held that the tallies should be counted and not the certifications, now will be virtually thrown out on the decision, with a loss of the plurality for all Roosevelt electors except Wallace.

A preliminary writ of mandamus was ordered issued directing the Board of Supervisors to canvass the election returns in accordance with the constitution set forth in the opinion.

It was an important point, however, as the entire thirteen Wilson electors in the State. This involved the returns of thirty-five precincts, which the Democrats petitioned to be rejected entirely because the sealed envelopes had been opened so that election boards.

The court held that the breaking of the sealed envelopes prior to the time for opening them in public was contrary to law, but did not constitute such an irregularity as to require that the returns be entirely rejected.

In the precincts Roosevelt had a plurality of more than 1,000.

The decision caused consternation among Progressive leaders and the members of the canvassing board because of the brief time remaining for the final certification and protest, which the Democrats petitioned to be rejected entirely because the sealed envelopes had been opened so that election boards.

It also pointed out that the method adopted by the supervisors makes a complete recount of 77 precincts in the county necessary, and the work of canvassing the returns in the county will be continued to-night and day work continuously until Monday.

Suit Instituted Yesterday in the Law and Equity Courts by Arthur E. Johnson against John Fahed and George E. Fahed for damages laid at $200. The plaintiff is represented by Smith & Gordon.

Funeral from St. Peter's Church, Eighth and Grace Streets, SATURDAY (23), at 10 A. M. Interment in Mount Calvary Cemetery.

IT WAS MY SAD PRIVILEGE TO perform the last rites over the body of ESTER HARRIS SEATRICE TRICE. She was the devoted daughter of Brother and Sister W. E. Duncan. She was in her thirtieth year and had been married to her Brother Trice but ten short years. God gave to this union three children that are now left motherless, young Trice, who is the cause of this dreaded disease, and during the last year of his life she was separated from her husband and children, which was her death knell. Her children are all bright and are obedient. Poor little Phillip! How our sympathy runs out for him in his bodily affliction. May the God of all wisdom increase his strong little mind to great usefulness. Sister Trice was a member of Fork of White Baptist Church with her husband.

In her will days, I am told, a more loyal and faithful church worker was hard to find. She died in the Christian's faith and hope, and now wears the crown of her yearning. May Heaven's blessings abide upon the heart-broken and grief-stricken loved ones. God is a Father in every time of trouble; lean on Him. May the blessing of the Eternal One be on you and the dear ones. That she loved so much, in the prayer of the humble pastor, J. S. TAYLOR.

A WARNING TO MANY

Some Interesting Facts Regarding Health Statistics

Few people realize to what extent their health depends upon the condition of the kidneys.

The physician in nearly all cases of serious illness makes a chemical analysis of the patient's urine. He knows that unless the kidneys are doing their work properly the other organs cannot be brought back to health and strength. When the kidneys are neglected or abused in any way, serious results are sure to follow. According to health statistics, Bright's disease, which is really an advanced form of kidney trouble, caused nearly ten thousand deaths in 1910 in the State of New York alone. Therefore it behooves us to pay more attention to the health of these most important organs.

An ideal herbal compound that has had remarkable success as a kidney remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy.

The mild and healing influence of this preparation is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of cures.

If you feel that your kidneys require attention, and wish a sample bottle, write to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper and they will gladly forward it to you absolutely free, by mail. Swamp-Root is sold by every druggist in bottles of two sizes—50c and $1.00. (Advertisement.)
