News of South Richmond

PARADE HOME STREETS
Southerners Will Give Home Folks First Chance to See Their Costumes.
Before proceeding to Richmond Tuesday night to enter the parade in which thousands of loyal Democrats will march to celebrate the triumph of the party, the South Richmond contingent, which is slated to be one of the features of the parade, will march through the Southside streets. The start will be made promptly at 7 o'clock from the courthouse, in Washington Park.
With the Petersburg band in the lead the column will go out Tenth Street to Bainbridge. With red lights burning and the band playing, they will march up Bainbridge Street to Fifteenth, out Fifteenth to Hill Street, and down Hill to Seventh. Here the column will be given route order, and the men will make their way across the bridge to Fifth and Grace Streets.
The South Richmond Democratic Club has been given the place of honor in the column. They will follow directly behind the City Democratic Committee. At least 200 men will be under the banners of the organization.
The arrangements have been practically completed by the committee from the South Richmond Democratic Club.

The Southsiders are ordered to assemble at 6:30 o'clock at the courthouse to receive their costumes. Every man on the Southside of the James is invited to join in, no matter whether he is a member of the club or not. Cheerleaders are cordially invited to participate.

NABS ALLEGED BURGLAR
Negro About to Board Freight Suspected of Breaking and Entering Saloon.
Charged with breaking and entering the saloon of Moore & Burke, at 2313 Hill Street, Raphael Whittico, colored, was arrested yesterday morning at 4:30 o'clock by Officer R. L. Dunnivant. The man was found prowling around the premises, which border on the Atlantic Coast Line. His actions aroused the officer's suspicions, and he was taken into custody.
A bag containing nine bottles of whiskey bearing the label of the saloon was found. It is thought that the man was about to conceal them in a freight car and beat his way out of the city. While waiting for the train to take his prisoner to the Third Station, Officer Dunnivant heard sounds which led him to believe he had run against a game. He held on to his man and made an investigation. Three colored trainmen were found deeply engaged in a game of draw. The racket was landed safely in the station house.

Whittico was sent on to the grand jury by Justice H. A. Maurice. The gamblers were each assessed $5 and costs.

Brooks-Wood Wedding
One of the prettiest weddings of the week was that of Miss Alice Baird Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Wood, of Woodland Heights, to Oscar Russell Brooks, of Jacksonville, Fla., son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Brooks, of 1112 Decatur Street, which took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride. Rev. J. Quaker, pastor of the Woodland Heights Baptist Church, officiated. Only the members of the two families were present.
The reception hall and parlors were beautifully decorated in pinks and cut flowers, the color scheme being white and green. Miss Margaret Brooks, sister of the groom, played the wedding marches, and "Trauermarsch" was played softly through the ceremony.
Miss Louise Wood was her sister's maid of honor. She was given in white marquisette over silk, with lace trimmings, and carried ferns. A. P. Chisholm was the best man and little Miss Florence Brooks carried the ring in a heart of roses.
The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her away. She was very lovely in a traveling dress of blue tulle, tailor-made, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a bride's roses. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks left immediately after the ceremony for Jacksonville, their future home. They were the recipients of many beautiful presents.

this morning at 11 o'clock.

Legged counterfeit money, but has been obtained it from some other source. With this end in view, detectives went to work on the case with the hope of finding more coins and to see whether they have been made in Richmond.
If the fact is established that the two coins Williams' accused of giving Zborzil are "phony" he will be turned over to the Federal authorities for prosecution. When searched, no money was found in Williams' possession.

WORK ON NEW ROAD.
Link of Ashe Highway Through Hanover County Being Improved.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Offley, Va., November 23.—On last Monday, work was begun on the Sever Dam District link in the "Washington-to-Richmond" automobile road through Hanover County. This link is about fifteen miles in length, extending from Newman's Mill, on the South Anna River, to Anderson's Bridge, on the North Anna.

The State engineers have finished the survey and the district road force have commenced the grading on the Anderson Bridge end of the road. At first considerable opposition was manifested towards this being made an automobile road, but now it will be welcomed by nearly every one along the route.
Hunting has about died a natural death this season, owing to the scarcity of game. Fishing has proven much more lucrative than hunting, and some fine strings have been secured. A party yesterday caught twenty-five pounds of fine bass, the largest one weighing four and a quarter pounds.

ARREST RUSSIAN AS COUNTERFEITER
Held on Charge of Passing Two Alleged Bogus Ten-Cent Pieces.
Paul Williams, twenty-four years old, a Russian, was arrested last night by Detective-Inspector Whittico on the charge of passing counterfeit money. Complaint was made at the First Police Station by Frank Zborzil, of 329 North Eighteenth Street, that Williams had given him two bogus dimes in exchange for four nickels in a card game. He displayed the alleged counterfeit, which were to all appearances genuine. They rang true and appeared to be good. They were slightly lighter than the real coin, very bright and shiny, and unusually slick, as though they had been ground.
Williams was found at his home, 437 North Eighteenth Street, and when arrested was so drunk that he could make no statement. At any time it is difficult to understand his broken English.
The police do not believe that Williams has been manufacturing the counterfeit counterfeited money, but has been obtaining it from some other source.
