This List Will Be Added to From Time to Time.

These extra presents are to be presented to the little boys and girls who have the largest number of coupons which are attached to the tickets issued with every gallon and half-gallon order of

Remember, EVERY one attending the Festival will receive a present BUT THESE EXTRA PRESENTS ARE FOR THOSE WHO HAVE SAVED THE LARGEST NUMBER OF COUPONS.

You still have time to save up for a special present—have mother order the Velvet Kind Ice Cream for dessert instead of going to the trouble and bother of preparing pies and puddings. It will be better for you, too. Ice cream is healthful and nutritious—in fact, it is more nourishing than many staple foods and is far better than pastries.

Order the Velvet Kind Ice Cream and look for the tickets—they are enclosed in the envelope that contains the bill—a WHITE ticket with GALLON orders and a PINK ticket with HALF-GALLON orders. ONE WHITE ticket or TWO PINK tickets entitle you to all the privileges of the Christmas Festival and to a Christmas Present.

These tickets are issued only with RETAIL orders, or, in other words, with orders for HOME delivery. Attached to each ticket will be found the coupon mentioned above. TWO PINK coupons are equivalent to one whole coupon—thus, if you have 50 PINK coupons you will be credited with 25 whole coupons. The WHITE coupons are WHOLE coupons.

Obtain all the tickets you can and save the coupons—the extra tickets you can give to your friends so that they can attend the festival and receive a present. Save the coupons and we will tell you later on where and when to mail them. The winners will be announced at the festival.

Out-of-Town Orders

On out-of-town orders, tickets will be issued ONLY ON GALLON ORDERS. The Velvet Kind Ice Cream costs $1.25 a gallon, and is shipped express collect, charges averaging between 25c and 30c.

Send orders direct to our Richmond office. We guarantee delivery in perfect condition.

Out-of-town customers who cannot attend the festival may receive the regular present by mailing their tickets to us with 4c in stamps to cover cost of forwarding. Out-of-town customers are, of course, eligible for the special presents. In mailing the COUPONS (we will announce the time and place to mail them later) they should include a list of their choice of the special presents—specify first choice, second choice, and so on, so that if the first choice or second choice, or any of the subsequent order of selection, is won by a person from out of town the special present they desire will be laid aside and forwarded.

Tickets with coupons attached are now being issued, and will be discontinued after December 22d—that is, no tickets will be issued with orders for delivery AFTER December 22d.

CROSSES OF HONOR TO BE CONFERRED

This Will Be Feature of Leg Birthday Exercises in Petersburg.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 5 Bollingbrook Street (Telephone 1485), Petersburg, Va., December 10.—The coming anniversary of the birth of General R. E. Lee, January 19, will be in part observed by Petersburg Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, by conferring crosses of honor on such veterans, widows of veterans and their descendants as may be entitled to them. There are some who have not heretofore availed themselves of the opportunity to receive this honor.

The anniversary falling this year on Sunday, A. P. Hill Camp of Confederate Veterans will have a memorial service at one of the churches, to be followed on Tuesday following with the annual parade and banquet. Details of the celebration are now being made.

Death of Former Residents.

Information has been received of the death in Wichita, Kan., on December 8 of Martin Heller, a former citizen of Petersburg. He was eighty-one years old, and is survived by his wife, who was Miss Maggie Brander, of Petersburg, and who has many friends and relatives here.

R. K. Jones, a former citizen of Prince George County, and well known here, died at his home in Dayton, O., on Sunday, in the seventieth year of his age. The body will be brought to Petersburg for burial to-morrow morning. Deceased is survived by several nephews and nieces, W. C. Jones and Mrs. Z. A. Vaughn, of this city; R. O. Jones, formerly of Petersburg, now of Savannah, Ga.; Mrs. George A. Duncan, of Forest, Va., and William L. Jones, of Lynchburg.

Large Tobacco Sales.

The sales of tobacco to-day were the heaviest of any day of the new season, aggregating 849 lots—159,000 pounds. Prices ranged from $5 to $16 per hundred pounds, according to quality. The daily sales this week are expected to be larger than those of to-day.

The Postmaster's Day.

There are three aspirants for the office of postmaster of Petersburg under the incoming Democratic administration: R. P. Barham, former editor and owner of the Index-Appeal; Robert G. Bass, a well-known young attorney, and William M. Martin, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Each has an influential endorsement. The term of General Sixth Bolling, the present postmaster, does not expire until May, 1914, and his successor will probably not be appointed until then.

The Collectorship.

There are several aspirants for appointment to the office of collector of customs, now held by H. Claiborne Wilson. Among them may be mentioned Bernard Mann, a prominent lawyer; James Brockwell, city water works registrar, and Walter Edward Harris, owner and editor of the Index-Appeal, each of whom is strongly backed.

The "Professor" Located.

"Professor" Carlo Mora, known also as "Professor" Chase, formerly organist of the High Street M. E. Church, and a teacher of music in this city, who mysteriously disappeared some weeks ago, has been located in Palmetto, Fla., where, it is said, he is the organist of a church. He was recognized by Petersburgers visiting that place. When Mora or Chase left Petersburg it was ostensibly to visit an alleged brother in Washington. Two or three days later a telegram signed by the alleged brother was received here, stating that Carlo Mora had died in a Baltimore hospital of injuries received in an automobile accident. The report could not be verified by friends here, and the Rev. George Zeigler, pastor of the Christian Church, went to Washington to investigate. He discovered that Mora was known there as "Professor Chase," and had left that city several years ago. The telegram from Baltimore about the automobile accident and death, with the information that the body would be cremated in New York, was sent by Mora to his friends to enable him to disappear from public view.

Acid Negro Found Dead.

When a neighbor went to the house of Asa Heath, an aged negro, living on Third Street, in Pocahontas, this morning to carry him something for his breakfast, she found him lying dead and cold on the floor. He had been feeble for some time, and it is supposed from the partially undressed condition of the body that the old man had gotten up for some purpose in the night and had fallen and expired. He was between eighty-five and ninety years old. A grandson lived in an upper room, but he went to work early without looking into the old man's room.

Meeting of Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen met in regular session last night, transacting much routine business and voting concurrence in all measures sent up by the Council. All appropriations, general and special, made by the Council were approved, as were contracts awarded for street and other public improvements. The traffic ordinance met with some opposition, but was passed. No new business of importance was introduced.

General News Notes.

The Christmas shopping in Petersburg is in full blast, with fair weather conditions to aid the purchasers. The streets are crowded and the store people are busy from morning until night.

Spanish peanuts have advanced in price during the last day or two, today commanding $1.20 per bushel. The movement in the trade is quite large.

A hunting party in Dinwiddie County yesterday was successful in catching two foxes.

Attempt Is Frustrated.

What came near being an attempt at jail delivery was frustrated here tonight by Detective Wright when he entered and searched the cell of Gus Neal, colored, and found secreted there several small steel saws. Neal, who is a desperate negro, and who has the jail trustees afraid of him, was arrested in October on the charge of burglary committed in Dinwiddie County, and he has been in jail here ever since that time. He will be brought to trial next week. Lillian Mann, a colored woman, who has been going to the jail to see Neal, secreted the saws in to him. The plan, it is alleged, was for Neal to saw himself out of his cell, and when Jailer Howler appeared he was to attack and try to kill him, then release the other prisoners.

Kenbridge Masons Elect Officers.

Kenbridge, Va., December 10.—Monday night was the regular night for the annual election of officers in Free State Lodge, No. 225, of Kenbridge. The election resulted as follows: Thomas W. Oslin, worshipful master; F. W. Clark, senior warden; J. T. Harris, junior warden; D. N. Matthews, senior deacon; L. J. Skillman, junior deacon; William A. Bridgeforth, secretary; S. B. Watkins, treasurer. The annual banquet of the lodge will be held on December 27.
