

FOREST MILLS UNDERWEAR

The "just right undergarment" for women who are particular about fit and value. Six specials from this "best of all brands" on sale in our popular basement today.

FOR THE LADIES Ladies' Fleece Lined Vests and Pants, bleached, in sizes 24 to 38; a leader for 25c.

Women's Union Suits, fleece lined and medium weight, made with the high neck, long sleeve and ankle length; in all sizes; no better anywhere for 50c.

For a satisfactory Lady's Mixed Wool and Cotton Vests and Pants. Try this popular seller at 75c.

FOR THE CHILDREN Children's Vests and Pants to match, fleece lined, bleached and unbleached; a sensible garment for the kids in all sizes each.

Children's Woolen and Cotton Mixed Vests, Pants and Union Suits; good values for 50c each.

Social and Personal

Colonel and Mrs. Joseph E. Willard and their daughter, Miss Belle Willard, entertained at a dinner dance at their home on West Franklin Street last night in honor of Miss Marian Hiddle, of Philadelphia, and Angus McDonald and Lord Cecil Blackwood, of England.

The wedding took place last night at 8 o'clock in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, in Petersburg, in the presence of a brilliant assemblage of relatives and friends, and the Rev. E. P. Dandridge, assisted by the Rev. C. R. Strickling, of Tabb street, presbyterial church, performed the ceremony.

Baltimore's social season formally closed Monday night with the last great business meeting of the season, held at the Lyric and, like the two held there early in the series, was brilliant.

The Locator, comprising the various members of the families in all the city registers and containing 149,200 names, has just been issued.

On Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock a business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Charles V. Meredith, will be held at 300 East Broad Street, headquarters of the Equal Suffrage League.

It is interesting to note that more than half of them, nearly 54 per cent, appear as married couples.

Of the eligible bachelors, the women outnumber the men three to two.

There are also 8,153 "Juniors," comprising misses from twelve to seventeen years, and messrs. from fourteen to twenty, as shown in the following figures:

Mrs. either bachelors or widowers 15,529

Misses, widows through natural or legal causes 8,153

"Juniors" 160,290

The Locator indicates not only the head of the family under which a name may be found when grouped out of alphabetical order, but also the social register of any of the following cities where it may be found recorded:

namely: New York, Washington, Philadelphia, Wilmington, Chicago, Boston, Providence, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Dayton, St. Paul and Minneapolis, San Francisco and Oakland, Baltimore, Buffalo, New Orleans, Richmond, Charleston, Savannah, Augusta and Atlanta.

The Locator is intended as an aid to the proper reading of the various social registers, the constant shifting of the families from one city to another making it necessary to have some such means of tracing them.

Stay-at-Home Whist Club met on Monday of this week at the home of Mrs. Walter K. Martin, 214 North Shafer Street. There were four tables and the highest score was made by Mrs. Basil P. Spalding and Admiral Harrie Webster.

The German given at the Virginia Hotel in Staunton Monday night by the Staunton Cotillion Club was largely attended.

J. D. Crowle led, with Miss Sarah Robertson. Others dancing were Miss Nell Talbot, of Waynesboro, with Captain Foster; Miss Champe Thompson, of Waynesboro, with Captain Legge; Miss Virginia Letch with Max-Im Gilkison; Miss Mary Sue Bowman with Captain Pitzer; Miss Fair Searson, with Charles Hogg; Mrs. Berkeley Iglehart with Fitzhugh Picklen; Miss St. Clair, of Charlottesville, with Captain McCue; Miss Farris, of Charlottesville, with Dr. Miller; Miss Reeside with Frank McFarland; Mayof and Johnson, H. H. Wray, of Staunton; W. W. Sprinkel, of Meigs; W. W. Williams, Thomas Holt, W. Mooney, E. F. Shewmake.

In and out of town Miss Sarah Hamilton is the guest of Mrs. Lee Taylor in Norfolk for a stay of several days.

Miss Hester Riddell has returned to her home in Petersburg, after a short visit here.

Miss Alice McGraw, of Loudoun County, is the guest of Miss Marie Brown, 100 South Third Street.

Major James H. Dooley, of "May-

mont" is visiting the Misses Elder at their home in Staunton.

Mrs. John Alsop has returned to her home in Richmond, after visiting friends in Roanoke.

Mrs. J. A. Gilmore, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. James F. Minor, here, has returned to Charlottesville.

Miss Nellie McCluer, of Bon Air, has been the recent guest of friends in this city.

Mrs. K. B. Savage has returned to the city, after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. John Antrim, in Roanoke.

Mrs. Nora L. Bueck, who is doing such splendid work in the mountains of Buchanan County, is the guest of L. R. Dashiell here for several days.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Lee and their daughter, of Danville, are in this city for a short stay.

Mrs. Carroll Smith and Miss Lillian Smith are guests of Mrs. Cecil Hillups in Norfolk.

Mrs. Garland Skinner, of Warrenton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. P. Wood, at 1029 West Grace Street.

INDICTED FOR ROBBERY. Johnson City Young Man Charged With Blowing Railway Safe.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Bristol, Va., February 4.—Dave Campbell, a Johnson City young man, who was arrested here last fall, charged with blowing the Southern Railway safe at Jonesboro, when $400 was stolen, was today indicted for the robbery by the Washington County grand jury.

STOLEN GOODS IDENTIFIED. Meadow View Merchant Will Ask That Boys Be Held for Indictment.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Bristol, Va., February 3.—Clothing and jewelry found in suit-cases held here after Mike Lucas, aged seventeen years, and John Bush, aged sixteen years, had been sentenced to thirty days for trespassing, were today identified as articles stolen from a store at Meadow View. The merchant will ask that the boys be held for indictment.

ROUTED OUT OF BED BY FIRE. Home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Crawford Considerably Damaged.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Harrisonburg, Va., February 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Crawford and family were routed out of bed late last night, when fire considerably damaged their beautiful home on Campbell Street. The fire, which started in the basement near the furnace, filled the house with smoke before the family was aroused. Most of the furniture was removed from the house, and the fire company saved the building from destruction. The loss will be about $1,000.

Mr. Crawford is a well-known local attorney. Mrs. Crawford was Miss Rountree, of Richmond.

FARMERS' UNION MEETS. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Amherst, Va., February 4.—The Amherst Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union met here Saturday. There was a large, well-attended meeting, among other things, steps were taken looking to the establishment of a tobacco warehouse here. A committee was appointed to get up a charter and make other arrangements about the warehouse.

HOPKINS' HALF YEARLY SHOW. SALE is now in progress. It's the big shoe event that happens but twice in each year.

Tragle's Positive knowledge is as essential as pure drugs in your prescriptions. Try Tragle's

THE LATEST IN ICE CREAM AND CAKES from Shepherd's New Factory. 2008 W. Broad St. Call Mad. 7148

CHICHESTER'S PILLS. THE GREAT URINARY PILLS. THE ONLY PILLS THAT GUARANTEE CURE. SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

who was her sister's maid of honor, was gowned in palest pink satin brocade and carried an armful of Killarney roses. Frank E. Emery attended the groom as his best man, and the ushers were Lem Roy Jones, B. Mason Hill, Herbert Pritchard, Alexander D. Hamilton and Edgar S. Bowling, of Petersburg, and Dr. Samuel Bond, of Norfolk.

A reception was given at the residence of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony at the church. Palms, tulips and jonquills decorated the drawing-room, and a big silver bowl of Killarney roses was arranged on the table in the dining-room. Guests from a distance attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Bryan, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. John Van Landingham, Miss Dean Van Landingham, Ralph Van Landingham, of Charlotte, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley Carrington, of Danville; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Taylor, of Norfolk; Miss Dorothy Maurice, of New York.

There were an unusually large number of guests at the big masquerade ball given on last night at Washington and Lee University. Miss Elizabeth Clemens, one of the season's debutantes, and William Hodges Mann, Jr., of this city; Miss Jeanie Coker, of Roanoke; Miss Etta Tallafiero, of Baltimore, and a number of others were among those attending the dance. There was a grand finale, and there will be another hop to-night by the students of Washington and Lee, and two dances later in the week, at which the cadets at the Virginia Military Institute will be hosts.

Miss Marion Douglas Sampson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin DeWitt Sampson, was married to Thomas Green Tate, son of Dr. and Mrs. George Tate, yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's brother, Edwin D. Sampson, in Ginter Park, and the Rev. J. Y. Downman, D. D., rector of All Saints Church, officiated. Decorations were in pink carnations, ferns and palms, and the ribbons were held by little Eva Night and Mary Rutherford Sampson, nieces of the bride, and Martha Alsop and Irene Rose, cousins of the bride. They wore white, mull frocks with wide pink sashes. The wedding marches, from "Lohengrin" and Mendelssohn, were played at the entry of the bridal party, and Mr. Sampson gave his sister away.

The bride wore a blue cloth going-away gown with a smart hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies. The bridesmaids, George H. Culpeper, attended in bridegroom as his best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Tate have gone South on their wedding trip. Guests from a distance here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Knapp, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. J. B. Smith, Mrs. Lucile Nelson, Mrs. Lizzie Steptoe, D. J. Coleman, B. Roy Hume, Hamilton Smith, Dr. A. S. Rixey, all of Culpeper, M. M. Green and Mrs. Nannie Lomas, of Warrenton; Miss Anna S. Briggs, of Winchester; Mrs. John Sadler, of Baltimore; Henry C. Stuart, of Russell; Captain T. L. Tate, of Palisades; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Watkins, of Lexington.

On Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock a business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Charles V. Meredith, will be held at 300 East Broad Street, headquarters of the Equal Suffrage League. It is interesting to note that more than half of them, nearly 54 per cent, appear as married couples.

Of the eligible bachelors, the women outnumber the men three to two. There are also 8,153 "Juniors," comprising misses from twelve to seventeen years, and messrs. from fourteen to twenty, as shown in the following figures:

Mrs. either bachelors or widowers 15,529

Misses, widows through natural or legal causes 8,153

"Juniors" 160,290

The Locator indicates not only the head of the family under which a name may be found when grouped out of alphabetical order, but also the social register of any of the following cities where it may be found recorded:

namely: New York, Washington, Philadelphia, Wilmington, Chicago, Boston, Providence, St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Dayton, St. Paul and Minneapolis, San Francisco and Oakland, Baltimore, Buffalo, New Orleans, Richmond, Charleston, Savannah, Augusta and Atlanta.

The Locator is intended as an aid to the proper reading of the various social registers, the constant shifting of the families from one city to another making it necessary to have some such means of tracing them.

Stay-at-Home Whist Club met on Monday of this week at the home of Mrs. Walter K. Martin, 214 North Shafer Street. There were four tables and the highest score was made by Mrs. Basil P. Spalding and Admiral Harrie Webster.

The German given at the Virginia Hotel in Staunton Monday night by the Staunton Cotillion Club was largely attended.

J. D. Crowle led, with Miss Sarah Robertson. Others dancing were Miss Nell Talbot, of Waynesboro, with Captain Foster; Miss Champe Thompson, of Waynesboro, with Captain Legge; Miss Virginia Letch with Max-Im Gilkison; Miss Mary Sue Bowman with Captain Pitzer; Miss Fair Searson, with Charles Hogg; Mrs. Berkeley Iglehart with Fitzhugh Picklen; Miss St. Clair, of Charlottesville, with Captain McCue; Miss Farris, of Charlottesville, with Dr. Miller; Miss Reeside with Frank McFarland; Mayof and Johnson, H. H. Wray, of Staunton; W. W. Sprinkel, of Meigs; W. W. Williams, Thomas Holt, W. Mooney, E. F. Shewmake.

In and out of town Miss Sarah Hamilton is the guest of Mrs. Lee Taylor in Norfolk for a stay of several days.

Miss Hester Riddell has returned to her home in Petersburg, after a short visit here.

Miss Alice McGraw, of Loudoun County, is the guest of Miss Marie Brown, 100 South Third Street.

Major James H. Dooley, of "May-

mont" is visiting the Misses Elder at their home in Staunton.

Mrs. John Alsop has returned to her home in Richmond, after visiting friends in Roanoke.

Mrs. J. A. Gilmore, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. James F. Minor, here, has returned to Charlottesville.

Miss Nellie McCluer, of Bon Air, has been the recent guest of friends in this city.

Mrs. K. B. Savage has returned to the city, after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. John Antrim, in Roanoke.

Mrs. Nora L. Bueck, who is doing such splendid work in the mountains of Buchanan County, is the guest of L. R. Dashiell here for several days.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Lee and their daughter, of Danville, are in this city for a short stay.

Mrs. Carroll Smith and Miss Lillian Smith are guests of Mrs. Cecil Hillups in Norfolk.

Mrs. Garland Skinner, of Warrenton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. P. Wood, at 1029 West Grace Street.

INDICTED FOR ROBBERY. Johnson City Young Man Charged With Blowing Railway Safe.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Bristol, Va., February 4.—Dave Campbell, a Johnson City young man, who was arrested here last fall, charged with blowing the Southern Railway safe at Jonesboro, when $400 was stolen, was today indicted for the robbery by the Washington County grand jury.

STOLEN GOODS IDENTIFIED. Meadow View Merchant Will Ask That Boys Be Held for Indictment.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Bristol, Va., February 3.—Clothing and jewelry found in suit-cases held here after Mike Lucas, aged seventeen years, and John Bush, aged sixteen years, had been sentenced to thirty days for trespassing, were today identified as articles stolen from a store at Meadow View. The merchant will ask that the boys be held for indictment.

ROUTED OUT OF BED BY FIRE. Home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Crawford Considerably Damaged.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Harrisonburg, Va., February 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Crawford and family were routed out of bed late last night, when fire considerably damaged their beautiful home on Campbell Street. The fire, which started in the basement near the furnace, filled the house with smoke before the family was aroused. Most of the furniture was removed from the house, and the fire company saved the building from destruction. The loss will be about $1,000.

Mr. Crawford is a well-known local attorney. Mrs. Crawford was Miss Rountree, of Richmond.

FARMERS' UNION MEETS. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Amherst, Va., February 4.—The Amherst Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union met here Saturday. There was a large, well-attended meeting, among other things, steps were taken looking to the establishment of a tobacco warehouse here. A committee was appointed to get up a charter and make other arrangements about the warehouse.

HOPKINS' HALF YEARLY SHOW. SALE is now in progress. It's the big shoe event that happens but twice in each year.

Tragle's Positive knowledge is as essential as pure drugs in your prescriptions. Try Tragle's

THE LATEST IN ICE CREAM AND CAKES from Shepherd's New Factory. 2008 W. Broad St. Call Mad. 7148

CHICHESTER'S PILLS. THE GREAT URINARY PILLS. THE ONLY PILLS THAT GUARANTEE CURE. SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

The great popularity and general use of the Royal Baking Powder attest its superiority

When you buy and use only the ROYAL BAKING POWDER, you have the positive assurance that your food raised by it is not polluted by alum, lime, or any of the adulterants common to other powders.

It is unwise to take chances by the use of any other brand

LORD BALCARRES NOW EARL OF CRAWFORD

New Premier Earl of Scotland Universally Popular and a Good Citizen.

BY LA MARQUESE DE FONTENAY. VERY member of the grand old Scottish clan of Lindsay, and there are thousands of them in the New World—has cause for satisfaction that their new chieftain, hitherto known as Lord Balcarres, who now, through the death of his learned father, has become twenty-seventh Earl of Crawford and thirty-fifth Lord Lindsay, should be so universally popular, good-looking, useful and altogether wholesome a citizen.

After leaving Oxford, he became identified with the Madras and London. Magdalen College at Oxford for near half a century maintained this institution in the slums of the British metropolis and every Magdalen student has already paid several visits to the Settlement House in the neighborhood of Bethnal Green.

Lord Crawford, who like several other extremely clever boxes, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

LORD BALCARRES NOW EARL OF CRAWFORD

New Premier Earl of Scotland Universally Popular and a Good Citizen.

BY LA MARQUESE DE FONTENAY. VERY member of the grand old Scottish clan of Lindsay, and there are thousands of them in the New World—has cause for satisfaction that their new chieftain, hitherto known as Lord Balcarres, who now, through the death of his learned father, has become twenty-seventh Earl of Crawford and thirty-fifth Lord Lindsay, should be so universally popular, good-looking, useful and altogether wholesome a citizen.

After leaving Oxford, he became identified with the Madras and London. Magdalen College at Oxford for near half a century maintained this institution in the slums of the British metropolis and every Magdalen student has already paid several visits to the Settlement House in the neighborhood of Bethnal Green.

Lord Crawford, who like several other extremely clever boxes, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

LORD BALCARRES NOW EARL OF CRAWFORD

New Premier Earl of Scotland Universally Popular and a Good Citizen.

BY LA MARQUESE DE FONTENAY. VERY member of the grand old Scottish clan of Lindsay, and there are thousands of them in the New World—has cause for satisfaction that their new chieftain, hitherto known as Lord Balcarres, who now, through the death of his learned father, has become twenty-seventh Earl of Crawford and thirty-fifth Lord Lindsay, should be so universally popular, good-looking, useful and altogether wholesome a citizen.

After leaving Oxford, he became identified with the Madras and London. Magdalen College at Oxford for near half a century maintained this institution in the slums of the British metropolis and every Magdalen student has already paid several visits to the Settlement House in the neighborhood of Bethnal Green.

Lord Crawford, who like several other extremely clever boxes, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

He is a member of the House of Lords, is an extremely clever boxer, is a test-taker from taste rather than from principle, is an adept chess player, is an authority upon Italian art and is married to a daughter of Sir Henry Pelly, by whom he has a family of six children.

MAY SOON REPORT ON V. M. I. CLAIM

Good Progress Being Made by Subcommittee in Investigation of Matter.

NO PUBLIC HEARING LIKELY

Independent Tobacco Men of Virginia Discuss Trade Conditions.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Washington, D. C., February 4.—From what was learned here today, action is expected to be taken by the Senate on the claim of the Virginia Military Institute against the government for the burning of its buildings and equipment in June, 1864, by Federal forces.

It was also learned that there probably will be no public hearings. The reason for this is manifest, Senator Dupont, author of the bill, having been present at the burning of the buildings, there could be no better evidence introduced than his own testimony.

In addition to this, Senator Martin knows all the facts so well that it is believed there is no reason to bring on a delegation of persons interested in V. M. I., as that could shed no more light on the claim than is already in possession of the committee.

Tobacco Men in Washington. A big delegation of independent tobacco men of Virginia met today at the Hotel Richmond to discuss the trade and exchanging ideas with one another, among those present being W. T. Reed and Hugh Campbell, of Richmond.

A Buchanan, of Tazewell, was today nominated by President Taylor for another term as postmaster at that place. Although there is little probability of his nomination being confirmed now because of the attitude of the Democratic members of the Senate, it is understood that he will press the matter and endeavor to have leading Republicans in the Senate assist him.

FINED FIFTY DOLLARS AND COSTS. Fredericksburg Man Charged With Selling Liquor.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Fredericksburg, Va., February 4.—John F. Stevens, of this city, was before Justice Dandridge today, charged with selling liquor. Several parties were present, and Stevens denied the charge, but did not state where he got the liquor. Justice Dandridge imposed a fine of $50 and costs, amounting to $65, and required him to give bond of $100 for two months.

Stevens will go to jail for six months, and will be sentenced to work on the highway for one month. He will be given until Saturday to arrange