

EASTER MUSIC ON THE Victor OR Victor-Victrola

There is no reason why the beautiful Easter anthems should be confined to one day or one week alone, no reason why such music should not be enjoyed all the year around, and yet, after you hear them in the churches on the special occasions they are laid aside for another year.

With a Victor or Victor-Victrola in your home, you can hear as often as you wish, the hymns you like best, sung by the very best singers of the day. The anthems that delight you at Easter can be repeated in your own home ANY TIME. Many beautiful hymns, which probably you have never heard, are brought right to you, and impress you with their tender words and exquisite melody.

Come in and hear the Victor Records of Easter Hymns and other sacred music.

Lady Mary Sackville

London, March 15.—Lady Sackville, the mother of the beautiful Lady Mary Sackville, is again to appear in the law courts in a case which promises to be sensational.

She was a Sackville-West herself and a daughter of the late Lord Sackville. She married her father's nephew, Lionel Sackville-West, now Lord Sackville, in 1890. They have had one child—Lady Victoria Mary—who was born in 1892, and it is for her sake that Lady Sackville is a determined litigant.

Her present legal fight is to protect the fortune left her by the late Sir John Murray Scott, one of the trustees of the famous Wallace collection. Sir John died suddenly in January of last year, and a draft of a codicil to his will was found among his papers leaving "V. M. S." generally assumed to be Lady Sackville, a fortune of about $75,000, together with his collection of pictures and furniture, valued at $1,000,000. A reward of $50,000 was offered for a duly executed codicil, and this was presented to Justice Barrgrave Deane by Lady Sackville.

It is now alleged that there is another codicil in existence, which revokes all bequests to Lady Sackville. The relatives of Sir John Murray Scott intend to fight the case to a finish. They allege that certain facts concerning Lady Sackville came to Sir John's knowledge, and that this caused him to revoke his bequest, and they further declare that should these facts come to light Lady Sackville will surely lose the money.

CHAUFFEUR WINS SOCIETY BRIDE

Elopement of William P. Storty and Miss Gertrude Middleton Comes to Light.
Washington, March 15.—Following the example of Jack Geraghty, the Newport chauffeur whose marriage to Miss Julia French was a nine days' wonder of the smart set, William P. Storty, a Washington chauffeur, eloped with Miss Gertrude W. Middleton, a friend of Mrs. Geraghty, on December 17 last. The news of the elopement has been kept a secret even from the bride's mother. The chauffeur-bridegroom and the society bride, well known in exclusive circles, have set up housekeeping in a modest flat. Mrs. Storty refused to discuss the affair, and would say only "We are happy, that is enough."

News of Petersburg

The Times-Dispatch Bureau, 5 Bollingbrook Street, (Telephone 1485), Petersburg, Va., March 15.
The Council at an adjourned meeting held last night, after hearing the report of the special committee on water supply, voted unanimously to authorize the Mayor to contract with the Virginia Railway and Power Company to supply water to the city from the Appomattox River. The special committee is composed of William E. McKenney, chairman, and G. C. Wright, of the Board of Aldermen. The report was presented by Chairman McKenney. It was an elaborate document embracing details of proceedings of the committee meetings; of correspondence that had passed, and of the careful consideration given the subject. Mr. McKenney gave a verbal explanation of all details. The report gives praise to the City Attorney, the City Engineer and the Mayor for their valuable aid. The committee is the one outlined by the Mayor, and in brief covers the following points: That a contract be made with the Virginia Railway and Power Company for a supply of water as needed for a period of five years; the Railway Company to make no charge for the water, but to receive a price not exceeding 1 and 1/2 cents per gallon for furnishing power to pump the water into the city's high service reservoir; the city to be granted at nominal cost rights of way over the properties controlled by the railway company for laying and maintaining its pipe lines. The estimated cost of this plan to the city for pumping the water would be $5.50 per million gallons. The city uses a million and a half gallons a day. This agreement would be an adequate water supply for five years, which would give sufficient time for the Council to look into the feasibility of making a more definite and permanent contract, or to look out for other sources of supply. This is the basis on which a contract is authorized to be made, and it is believed the Railway and Power Company will agree to it. The committee urges that agreement be done in the way of entering into a contract with the Railway and Power Company, should be done speedily.

OTHER COUNCIL MATTERS.

Plan for Improvement of River Street is Approved.
The report of the Public Improvement Committee recommending the plan of improvement of River Street and adjacent streets, as agreed on by the special committee in charge of the matter, was presented to and approved by the Council. The plan follows conditions laid down by the Federal Government and the Norfolk and Western Railway. To secure improvements contemplated by them, an ordinance providing for the improvement was presented, but it was referred for further consideration. An estimate places the cost of the work at $44,700, exclusive of property damages. A resolution to appropriate $15,000 to build a new almshouse as provided for in the bond issue, was referred to the Public Improvement Committee to ascertain and report whether the said sum is sufficient for the purpose. A new traffic ordinance was introduced, which lies over until the next meeting. Councilman McKenney offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the city engineer to prepare a plan of the city without a house fire, including the Metcalf lot and all property adjoining belonging to the city, showing locations and sizes of all buildings; the plan to be delivered to the Public Improvement Committee for use in determining a site for the proposed armory.

WRECK IN DINWIDDIE.

Long Freight Train Breaks Apart and Sections Crash Together.
A wreck occurred last night on the Seaboard Air Line Railway in Dinwiddie County, near Metcalf River, which resulted in damage to a number of freight cars and injuries to two persons. The accident was caused by the breaking apart of a long freight train and the coming together of the two sections. A wreck train arrived at the scene late in the night, and the work of clearing the track was begun at once. Engineer Sunday and Fireman Hartman, both of Raleigh, N. C., were both hurt, the former having a leg broken and the latter an arm broken. They were brought to the hospital in this city, where they are
