

ARRESTED AFTER CLAIMING CHILD HE HAD ADOPTED

Dillman Produced Court Record to Prove His Rights.

WEST VIRGINIA CASE PATHETIC

Gave Girl Up When Legality Was Questioned, but With Proper Papers He Came Here and Took Her—Released on Bail Given by Lawyer.

Charged with taking the child surrendered to him by her mother through process of law nearly eight years ago...

Events were fast and furious for Dillman, and more near-tragedy has entered his life within the past week than in all the years combined before...

Child Legally Adopted. According to the story told by Dillman, Mrs. Wright, mother of Myrtle...

Three years ago the Dillmans moved to West Virginia. Mrs. Wright married Armstrong P. Driscoll, and moved to Richmond, making their home at 3294 West Clay Street, Monday, a week ago...

Communication with the clerk of the Circuit Court of Grayson County satisfied them that the adoption had been legal, and, armed with the papers of adoption and a letter from the Rev. T. C. Vaughan, a Methodist minister...

Myrtle heard the sound of her adoptive father's voice. She met him at the door, and, coming halfway through and clasping the door with both hands, gulped, "Father." Tears started to her eyes, and she could say no more...

Myrtle heard the sound of her adoptive father's voice. She met him at the door, and, coming halfway through and clasping the door with both hands, gulped, "Father." Tears started to her eyes, and she could say no more...

Constantine Cornell took the child and Robinson and Broad Streets, and there put them on a car. Later they were joined again by Mr. Smith, who, in order that there might be no basis for future complaint, took Mr. Dillman before Attorney James W. Gordon, who Mrs. Driscoll said was her counsel...

EDITOR ASSAULTED BY JUDGE LAWLESS

Norfolk, Va., August 26.—Charles Russell Kiely, editor of the Norfolk News, a twice-a-week publication, was assaulted by Judge Joseph T. Lawless, of the Norfolk County Circuit Court, to-day, at City Hall Avenue...

Judge Lawless, it is said, took offense at statements published in Kiely's paper relative to the trial of Chief of Police Backus, of Norfolk County, who was recently acquitted of permitting violations of the law at Ocean View.
