Colonial Rag Rugs!

Their Beauty, Utility and Old-Time Charm!

"COLONIAL," a fine old word, aptly chosen for our Rag Rugs. With it come thoughts that harken back to the simple, artistic atmosphere of the homes of a century or more ago; a period of quaintness of architecture—exterior and interior—that in real beauty and charm never was excelled. To see the welcome with which these Colonial tendencies are received in our modern homes is refreshing.

With COLONIAL RAG RUGS, homes are made less of a "Show-Place" and more of an abode in which every appointment is primarily considered with a view to comfort, restfulness and refinement.

A quick impression of what is meant by these words, "comfort," "restfulness" and "refinement" is received upon entering a home in which COLONIAL RAG RUGS are liberally used. They bring personality into these rooms—a real personality entirely typical of the presiding genius of the home.

An interesting feature of COLONIAL RAG RUGS for summer is that they are adapted for use in so many places. For Bed-rooms, Living-rooms, Halls—or, as our forefathers used them, in front of doorways and fire-places—they are ideal. With them, a room on the porch, for instance, may be made as dainty, as inviting and as comfortable as one's own room within the home.

Of particular interest at this season is our very large and varied exhibit of these deservedly popular Rugs, which come in the oddest, quaintest old-time designs imaginable.

Our Rag Rugs are made of brand new, fresh materials—prints, calicoes, ginghams, chambrays, bed-tickings, etc.—woven in "hit-or-miss" effects, some with a border of solid color.

And there is such a large assortment of designs and colors—oval, round and oblong shapes—at moderate prices for furnishing the summer home that the variety to choose from seems almost limitless.

In price they range from

MILITARY PLANS CAREFULLY LAID

Virginia Troops Can Be Moved Promptly in Event of Trouble.

CAMPED HERE 16 YEARS AGO

Better Equipped Now Than When Call Was Issued for Spanish War.

Just sixteen years ago the Virginia militia was called to begin its work of selecting textbooks for the public schools for a period of not less than four nor more than seven years. Committees have for some time been engaged in examining various texts submitted to them, and though their work is far advanced, it does not now seem probable that there will be any final adoption of books until the last session of the board.

The task of selecting textbooks is one of the most difficult that the board has ever set itself. It will be finished only after careful and exhaustive study and a close comparison of the many and varied texts submitted by the publishing companies.

When war was declared, Virginia had forty-six companies of infantry and three batteries of artillery. The latter was not equipped with modern arms, and when the call for volunteers was made, the artillery was not included.

In response to an urgent telegram from R. A. Moberg, Secretary of War, the department that Virginia had at last mobilized three complete regiments, of which the first was the 10th Virginia Infantry, which was organized in Richmond, were camped at Fort Lee, Va., on June 2, 1914, and were ordered to camp at Fort Lee, Va., on June 2, 1914.

The first movement of Virginia troops occurred on June 2, when the 10th Virginia Infantry, commanded by Colonel James A. Kline, was ordered to camp at Fort Lee, Va., on June 2, 1914.

Forty infantry companies, three batteries of artillery, and one company of engineers, are being drilled in the city and will begin drilling in field maneuvers on June 2, 1914.

Blacksmiths Washes Floor. Dr. A. L. Weinstein, City Hospital ambulance surgeon, was called to 166 West Cary street yesterday for a blacksmith who had washed his floor with a hammer.

Accused of Giving Bad Check. E. W. A. Robinson was arrested yesterday by Detective Sergeant Wiltshire and taken to the station on the charge of obtaining a bad check for $200 from John J. H. Robinson, 49 West Broad street, by means of a worthless check.

Entertainment Postponed. The "Marie Mirror" which was to have been given at Westminster Presbyterian Church to-night has been postponed.

SCHOOL BOOK LIST BEING PREPARED

State Board of Education Is Endeavoring to Standardize Courses.

SINGLE LIST IS PREFERRED

Authorities Will Endeavor to Prevent Frequent Changes Hereafter.

The State Board of Education met yesterday morning to begin its work of selecting textbooks for the public schools for a period of not less than four nor more than seven years. Committees have for some time been engaged in examining various texts submitted to them, and though their work is far advanced, it does not now seem probable that there will be any final adoption of books until the last session of the board.
