

The Times-Dispatch
Published every day in the year by The Times-Dispatch Publishing Co., Inc.
THE TIMES-Dispatch Founded 1858
THE DISPATCH Founded 1850

ing population are not tilling the soil, but are engaging in industrial and commercial pursuits, and thus becoming additional customers of the farm, but in no way increasing the production.

Richmond Dance Halls. Chief of Police Warner should be granted the authority he will ask to see that the dance halls of the city be conducted in a proper manner.

The Welcome Awaits Them. They are off again—that ever dwindling remnant of heroes who followed the standards of Lee and Jackson, Longstreet and Johnston.

SICKLES. The death in New York of General Daniel E. Sickles marks the passing of a brave soldier who, by his unfortunate weaknesses and partly by misfortune, barely escaped the forfeiture of his claim upon his country's gratitude.

The Federal Reserve Board. Any fears, real or pretended, that President Wilson would make his selections of members of the Federal Reserve Board for political reasons must be dissipated by the offer of places to Richard Olney, of Massachusetts, and Paul Warburg, of New York.

To the Virginia Senators. The city of Newport News is fighting just now for a square deal. Its bid for naval contracts was rejected by the Navy Department, and that of Philadelphia and Boston accepted.

Blind Guides. In the Agricultural Department of this paper yesterday we published a letter from a puzzled farmer who wrote from Ivy Depot, Va.

One good thing about Huerta. The Washington Herald, "in that he hasn't any relatives in Atlanta." Don't know about that; he would get more publicity, wouldn't he?

Church Hill Chinese Laundry sign. Special Attention Paid to Women's Dresses. That about makes it unambiguous.

Wayside Chats With Old Virginia Editors. "The people who will award the Nobel peace prize for 1914 will have a job on their hands. Think of the Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch. Oh, well, they can start with Hearst and Johnnie eliminated, anyway."

The Danville Recluse hopes and believes that the House will pass the M. I. war claim bill. "With a large Democratic majority in that body," it thinks, "and with Virginians heading several important committees, and Virginia as a prominent prospect seems brighter than ever before to secure this tardy act of justice to a State institution that needs the money."

"If it develops," says the Danville Recluse, "that any discrimination between or among States in the matter of the same book, such differences may not be justified, and should be abandoned."

What Was News Fifty Years Ago. From the Richmond Dispatch, May 4, 1864. Four vessels that have just commenced to run the blockade have withstood the past three days successfully entered a southern port that is open to the world.

Concord Boy Fires First Gun of Battle. Headline in Concord (N. C.) Daily Tribune. Can always count on the Old North State to fire the first claim for being first at something.

While Atlanta is worrying with Leo Frank it might find some good method of settling with those people who are repudiating their affidavits. Isn't there a law in Georgia covering perjury?

General Grant has razed General Butler, and the latter is now nothing more than a chief of police and civil engineer. He has been ordered to leave the territory about Port Monroe and Hampton, so says the New York Herald.

Old World Gossip. BEER being represented in the House of Lords by nearly a dozen peers, prominent among them Lord Levegh, Lord Ardilaun, and Lord Hindlip, and groceries by Lord Belper, head of the great grocery firm of Kerley & Co., a seat in the upper chamber of the imperial legislature is now about to be accorded to soap, in the person of Sir William Lever, who is to receive his coronet on the occasion of the impending distribution of honors in connection with King George's birthday, this month.

Port Sunlight, the headquarters of the concern, is now a large and thriving town, occupied exclusively by Sir William's employees, and containing in number, with churches, public libraries, gymnasiums and theatres of its own, all provided by him, and which was visited by both the King and the Queen on the occasion of their visit to the town, and Lady Derby, at Knowlsey Park, at the beginning of last month.

Card of Thanks. To the Editor of the Times-Dispatch: Sir—As it is impossible for me to thank personally the hundreds of churches throughout the city and State who gave me their support during the recent Times-Dispatch campaign, I beg to express my heartfelt appreciation of their kindness.

Queries and Answers. Reverend. "Psalm cxi. 9 refers to Jehovah as 'reverend.' Is a 'right reverend' higher than God?" R. C. C. "I fear that our friend is inclined to visit the sacred precincts of all and several, forgetting that the title 'right reverend' is not the arrangement of the church's discipline and practice, but a title of respect, and is used of men, and very much more likely to be used of the clergy, than of the laity."

Women and Angels. Every man, with the possible exception of a few grumpy old bachelors, believes that there is at least one woman who is an angel, but that remained for Andrew Carnegie, philanthropist and ascetic as he is, to make the sweeping assertion that women are angels.

Day of Atonement. Please give me the date of the "Day of Atonement" in 1909. Saturday, September 25.

Women and Angels. Every man, with the possible exception of a few grumpy old bachelors, believes that there is at least one woman who is an angel, but that remained for Andrew Carnegie, philanthropist and ascetic as he is, to make the sweeping assertion that women are angels.

THE BRIGHT SIDE. Neither Pronunciation nor Poetry. We've sent our marines to Huerta to show the old Indian where to get on.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

And All I Did Was Just to Grow a Little. ONE OF THE DAY'S BEST CARTOONS. A cartoon showing a man being pulled back by a dog labeled 'DOG OF WAR' and another man labeled 'MEDIATION'.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.

THE PUBLIC PULSE. Editorial Expressions from Leading Newspapers. No one can deny that Tom Lipton is doing what he can to cheer us up by planning another boat race—Washington Post.