Eyes Grow Dim and Heart Sad as He Contemplates Desolation and Waste.

SAILS TO ATTEND CONCLAVE

Speaks in Most Affectionate Terms of Late Pope Pius, and Expresses No Preference in Matter of Election of His Successor.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NEW YORK, August 21.—There can be no glory in a victory of any nation or nations which will result in the desolation of thousands of homes, the killing of or perhaps of a million men, and in the destruction of the property which has stood for the development and culture of hundreds of years.

Cardinal Gibbons made his comments relative to the European war during a walk in the park on Monday morning of the White Star line for the steamer Canopic, on which, with Cardinal Connell, of the church here, he sailed for Rome, where he will attend the conclave which will elect a new pope.

JAPANESE PREPARING TO TAKE ACTION AGAINST GERMANY

FOR ULTIMATUM TO EXPIRE WASHINGTON, August 21.—Owing to the delay in official replies that the German government will avail itself of the last minute before replying to the Japanese ultimatum, demanding the evacuation of Kiauchau and withdrawal of the German fleet from the Orient, the exact moment when this ultimatum expires has become a matter of special interest.

In the Japanese note Germany was given until noon August 23 to answer. But noon in Tokyo and noon in Berlin of August 23 are separated by many hours.

If the answer is made through the German embassy at Tokyo, then the Berlin government must address itself to Japan by the devious method of cable communication, passing through the hands of its enemies, the British, but to-morrow if it is to reach Tokyo by noon Sunday.

On the other hand, if Germany takes the ground that the terms of the ultimatum may be met by a response delivered to the Japanese embassy in Berlin, the reply may be delayed until a few moments before noon Sunday, Berlin time.

THE HAGUE, August 21.—Berlin is indulging in an excess of patriotic enthusiasm. The German capital, because of the news that Louvain, the main position of the Belgian army, has been taken. The publication of the report that the crown prince had been wounded accompanied by the official statement that he is "at the front."

It is confidently predicted in Berlin that the army of Alencu, already moving southward from Louvain, co-operating with the first army of the Moselle is on the point of breaking through the French opposition, which the general staff declares will not be so difficult to overcome as was that of the Belgians.

That the infantry is the main reliance of the army is indicated by the long lists of dead and wounded in which the names of foot troops predominate. Contrary to reports from French and British sources it is stated that the German army has been of the greatest service in the Belgium advance, and is checking the French forward movement in Lorraine.

Four Drowned in River. DAVENPORT, Ia., Aug. 21.—Thomas Thomas, aged fifty-six, and his three daughters, aged twenty-one, seventeen and eleven, were drowned in the Mississippi River near LeClair, Iowa, today. The father lost his life in an attempt to rescue the three girls.

CANADIAN HOUSE VOTES OTTAWA, August 21.—A $50,000,000 war appropriation was put through the Canadian House of Commons yesterday. There was no opposition or criticism.

The Prime Minister, Sir Robert L. Borden, explained that the sum was required in financing the military organization, which Canada has offered the British government, and the vote was approved. The proceedings occupied one minute.

The Premier announced to-day that the term of the Governor-General, for the Duke of Connaught, which ordinarily would have terminated October 22 had been indefinitely extended because of the war.

The Finance Minister, W. T. White, announced his budget proposals, which are to make up the expected deficiency in the Dominion's revenue entailed by the $50,000,000 war appropriation. The decline in imports and expenditures of public works. These proposals include a tax of 3 cents per pound on green coffee, at present on the free list, and increases in customs taxes on raw and refined sugar, spirits, cigars, cigarettes and tobacco, as well as increased excise duties on spirits, malt liquor and tobacco.

PRISONERS ACCUSED OF ROBBING DEAD BODIES PARIS, August 21 (5:50 P. M.).—Eighty-three German prisoners, accused of robbing the dead on the field of battle, arrived to-day at Clermont Ferrand, capital of the Department of Puy de Dome, where the police had great difficulty in restraining the population from attacking them.

When arrested near Muelhausen, many jewels, a number of wedding rings and large sums of money were found on the Germans. It is alleged these valuables were stolen from the bodies of officers and soldiers.

COMPLETE OF SERBS REPORTED ROME (via Paris, 1:25 A. M.), August 22.—The newspapers print the following dispatch, dated Nish, Serbia, August 21:

"The general staff announces the complete victory of Serbs in a four-day's battle near Lonitz. Austrians lost to the number of 150,000 fought an equal number of Serbs. The losses on both sides were enormous. The victors captured great booty and several thousand prisoners.

Portugal, and one each from Ireland, Belgium and Canada, form a total of nineteen.

The two Germans and six Austro-Hungarians make up another group of eight.

The neutral group is composed of the three Americans and one each from Brazil and Holland, forming a total of five.

Separately stands the bulk of Italian cardinals, numbering thirty-three. The whole Sacred College numbers sixty-five cardinals, so that the next Pope needs forty-two votes to be elected.

The Italians alone or with the five neutrals are, therefore, insufficient, while any attempt to join either the German or Austro-French group would cause other splits. Thus it appears likely the choice will fall on an Italian.

NOTHING OFFICIALLY KNOWN ABOUT WILL OF LATE POPE Nothing is officially known about the late Pope's will, but the Giornale d'Italia says it is drawn in humble, plain language. It recommends his executors to grant a pension of 400 monthly each, but does not mention his niece, Gilda Parolin. It also expresses the desire that a pension of 112 monthly be granted to his valet.

The newspaper adds that the late Pontiff asks that his secretaries, Monsignor Giovanni Bresnan and Monsignor Giuseppe Pescini, be promoted to cardinal rank and archbishops.

The will contains a recommendation that the burial be a modest one in the crypt of St. Peter's. It concludes by invoking God's forgiveness for the sins which the testator may have committed.

Cardinal Merry Del Val, papal secretary of state, to-day delivered into the hands of Cardinal Della Volpe the whole machinery of the Catholic Church, giving him at the same time a detailed report of all business.

Cardinal Merry Del Val, retire after a long and busy career, and heads of departments at the Holy See. The next Pope may reappoint if he so desires.

PIUS SUFFERED RENEWED ATTACK OF GREAT WAR. The Corriere d'Italia to-day publishes an interview with Dr. Marchisava, in which he says that during the last week of his life the Pope suffered from a high fever, and that he was ravaging Europe. Dr. Marchisava endeavored to encourage his patient, but without success. Every time he was informed of further armed encounters, the Pope's condition grew worse. He was physically and mentally depressed. He died unexpectedly, but overwhelmed with peace, and that his duty as a saint had been done.

With Cardinal Gibbons, besides Marquis Maloney, was his secretary, Father St. John.

At the pier a continual procession of clergy from all over the city came to the pier to bid the Cardinal farewell. Just before the Canopic sailed, he was presented with a "flag of peace" which was asked to deliver into the hands of his successor, Pius X.

It is asserted that the cardinals have discussed the advisability of holding a conclave for election of a successor to Pius X. without shutting themselves within the Vatican throughout their deliberations, as has been the traditional practice. Hereafter cardinals have had an apartment in the palace with accommodations also for his secretary and servants. On the occasion of the last conclave the three days' session of the Sacred College entailed an expense of $120,000.

It has been suggested that the cardinals meet at the Vatican twice daily for a ballot, until a choice has been made, and the close of each session return to their homes or wherever they may be stopping. These sittings would, of course, be under the seal of absolute secrecy, while permitting greater freedom on the part of members of the college.

The assembling cardinals and others of the faithful here were greatly relieved to-day by official denial of a generally accepted report that Anna Cario, sister of the late Pope, had died during the night from shock. It was said, however, that she still was prostrated with grief over the death of her brother, whose companion she had been for many years.

DURING CHOICE OF POPE MAY ASK FOR PRICE. Among the so-called political cardinals, headed by Cardinal Agliardi, a movement is under way to have the Sacred College of Cardinals address the rulers of the countries engaged in war, asking them to declare a truce while the new Pontiff is being elected. This plan, as well as the proposition to attempt mediation, provides for the assistance of the United States as the greatest neutral power.

Greatest efforts are being made to prevent the conclusion of the spectacle of schism among the foreign cardinals on account of the conflict now raging throughout Europe. If such a breach should occur, it is expected the foreign cardinals would be grouped as follows: The seven from France, five from Spain, two each from England and
