

Russian Resumption of Przemysl, in Galicia

ing to the French report, General Joffre's armies have gained ground and strengthened their positions.

The Germans continue to destroy bridges and railways in Belgium, but with what object remains a secret. It is thought, however, that they are making preparations to winter in that country.

The Russian army under General Rennenkampf, is fighting its way into East Prussia and has taken Gumbinnen, which is on the railway from Lyck to Soldau, both of which towns already are in Russian hands. This gives to Russia, in a country which the frontier in German territory, and several branch railways running into the interior.

The central army which drove the Germans back from the Vistula and only unimportant engagements, but it is known to be pushing forward to the borders of Posen and Silesia, which the Germans are crossing.

The Russian left wing has followed the "Klebe" Railway to the Austrian frontier, and is within a few miles of Cracow, whose siege is imminent. The southern army, under General Iuzusky, is at Rzeszow, between Przemyel and Cracow, and the Austrians are opposing its crossing of the San River.

Another detachment continues the siege of Przemysl, while still another is operating against the Austrians holding the passage of the Carpathians.

The army of Armenia, whose base is on Kars, Transcaucasia, is approaching the Turkish fortress of Erzerum.

PRINCE FORMS MILITARY MEN

FOR GRAND DUKES

The manner in which Grand Duke Nicholas, the Russian commander-in-chief, is wielding these armies and the mobility they are showing are the subject of admiration by military men here.

A message from Sarajevo says the Governor of Bosnia has addressed a proclamation to the Austrian army declaring the Serbians must be defeated before wintering in Bosnia.

The Serbians have been driven back to their own country, but according to the Serbian account, they defeated the Austrians who attempted to enter their territory.

There is a steady flow of recruits for Kitchener's army, and it is expected that with the territorial, who number 400,000, England before long will have an army of 2,000,000 men. New armies also are being organized in India.

GERMANS DRIVEN BACK IN FURIOUS ATTACKS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

PARIS, November 12.—The Yser today was the white pit of a inferno raging in West Flanders. Across it belched, rained and screamed a terrific and deadly flow of machine gun, rifle and cannon fire, the sorely battered Belgians, reinforced by French and British, desperately defending the west bank of the canal from the furious attacks of the rehabilitated army of the Duke of Wurttemberg.

The German offensive on the Yser, after overwhelming the Belgians at attempting a sortie at Lombardzyde, following an advance from Nieuport. The Germans also were in Dixmude.

The German offensive on the Yser driven back across the Yser in a furious attack to which the allies returned after being reinforced, and to-night the invaders have been expelled from the west bank, except at Dixmude.

The War Office at Bordeaux describes as "two or three hundred metres" (approximately 218 to 335 yards).

As the Germans have failed to improve their position at Dixmude, an attempt to debouch from Dixmude during the night of yesterday resulted in

Three German Cruisers Reported Sunk in Pacific

LONDON, November 12 (3:30 P. M.).—A report was current in the House of Commons that three German cruisers had been sunk in the Pacific at a place not specified. No confirmation, however, of the rumor is obtainable.

GERMANS WIN DIXMUDE AT FRIGHTFUL COST

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]

PARIS, November 12.—The Germans won Dixmude at a frightful cost, according to a wounded officer brought to Paris to-day.

"The German attack began Saturday morning," he said, "Monday evening, when I was wounded, the enemy were still fighting for possession of the town. The attack was so fearful, violent, and our losses were heavy, the Germans again suffered wholesale slaughter. My brigade exterminated 3,000 in an hour.

"On the one incident I witnessed: A Bavarian regiment advanced upon our trenches with standard displayed. When 300 yards distant we blazed a reform and advanced again.

"We allowed them to come within 100 yards this time before raking them, again driving them back.

"A third time the regiment advanced, having lost two-thirds of its effectiveness. I shouted the order, 'Let them come! Cease fire!' Then, when they were 200 yards away, I gave the order to fire.

"On the left standing of the entire regiment."

GERMANS CLAIM ADVANCE IN REGION OF YPRES

BERLIN, November 12 (via London, 6 P. M.).—German general headquarters reported the following:

"The enemy advanced from Nieuport as far as Lombardzyde, but was driven back. The eastern bank of the Yser as far as the sea is now clear of the enemy.

"Our attack across the Yser Canal to South Dixmude is progressing.

"At the time the east of Ypres we have advanced further, and captured 700 French soldiers, four cannon and four machine guns.

"The enemy's attacks in the forest of Argonne, which are continuing, have advanced further, and captured 700 French soldiers, four cannon and four machine guns.

"The eastern theatre of the war our cavalry, operating near Kalize, have driven back the Russian cavalry, which made a fresh advance.

"The headquarters reports that in the battle for the Heights of Mear against the Serbians between November 6 and 11, 4,300 prisoners were taken.

"Constantinople headquarters reports that the Caucasian army is attacking the second line of the Russian positions. According to reports of prisoners, the morale of the Russians is very bad.

"Turkish troops, which have crossed the Egyptian frontier, have occupied El Arish and Sheikza."

GERMANS DRIVEN BACK FROM POINTS ON YSER

PARIS, November 12 (10:36 P. M.).—The official communication issued by the French War Office to-night was as follows:

"To the north we have held on all our positions. The enemy has sought to debouch from Dixmude by a night attack, but has been repulsed.

"We have resumed the offensive against the enemy which had crossed the River Yser, and have driven him back at all points except at one place, where he still occupies from 200 to 300 metres on the left bank.

"In the centre we have gained some ground in the region of Tracy-la-Val to the northeast of the forest of l'Aligue.

"In the Argonne region, the German attacks have been very serious, but have amounted to nothing."

failure, for the German night attack was met at the allies' trenches just outside the town, and the invaders were driven back.

More reinforcements are being rushed to the front, and the allies hope before the end of another day to have dislodged the Prussians from the town.

Generous Check Emphasizes Urgency of Situation—Regular Steamship From United States and Transportation to Interior Being Arranged.

LONDON, November 12 (6:50 P. M.).—William Joynton-Hicks, Unionist, in the House of Commons to-day reflected the widespread anxiety concerning the presence of German spies. He said there were 70,000 alien enemies in the country. It was certain signals had been given German submarines to only those to torpedo British ships, he said, and that by some means a chart of the mined area had reached the Germans. Otherwise, he declared, the German squadron could not have got so near Yarmouth.

Reginald McKenna, the Home Secretary, in reply, said the government must be careful that injustice was not done to the German people. The department was acting under instructions of the military authorities.

FIGHTING ON LEFT WING CONTINUES WITH VIOLENCE

PARIS, November 12 (2:45 P. M.).—The French official report to-night in Paris this afternoon says that the fighting on the left wing continues with violence, and has been characterized with alternate advances and retirements without importance. Generally speaking, the statement declares, the battle front shows no important changes since the 10th of November.

SERBIANS ANNIHILATE AUSTRIAN INFANTRY

NISH, SERBIA, November 12 (via London, 11:57 A. M.).—The six battalions of Austrian infantry with quick-firing guns which crossed the Danube under cover of artillery fire on November 9 have been annihilated by a Serbian counterattack, according to official information given out in Nish to-day.

ports that he is on the way with General Villa to learn the exact facts. Silliman has so far reported that he had interviewed with Senor Pesulista, the Mexican Minister of War, and that he has been assured by that official that there are 25,000 troops in and near Mexico City who can preserve order. It is understood that the secretary of the administration here took just now as to Mexico City than as Vera Cruz, because of the number of legations of foreign nations in Mexico City and the necessity for guaranteeing their safety. This is particularly true of the German and Austrian legations.

MEXICANS ASK WILSON TO REMOVE CAROTHERS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

MEXICO CITY, November 12.—Foreign Minister Ysidro Fabela, through his newspaper, El Pueblo, this morning called on President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan to remove from office George C. Carothers, the special agent of the State Department with Villa. Without any mining of words, Carothers is charged with persistent intrigues in Mexican politics, "and are, neither diplomatic nor disinterested."

Here, in part, is the Carranza government's indictment of Carothers, as set forth in El Pueblo:

"George C. Carothers is truly unwholesome and highly prejudicial to the peace of Mexico. Carothers is continually insinuating to President Wilson that Villa is the great man of Mexico, that he is the only man who can make peace and give guarantees to everybody.

"Carothers comes and goes in the interior of the republic, carrying confidential messages from the northern rebel to the loyal generals. He whispers in their ears perfidious phrases, insinuating that the United States will not recognize another government other than the one which he advocates. He goes secretly and mixes in the convention at Aguascalientes, in order to assure the members of the convention that Washington will stand by his decisions, and, on the whole, does things which serve to aid the reaction and to divide the great Mexican family for the purpose of starting a civil war, which is the only man who can make peace and give guarantees to everybody.

"FATE OF ALLEGED YEGGMAN IS IN HANDS OF JURY

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ASHEVILLE, Va., November 12.—The fate of John McBride, an alleged crackman of many picturesque aliases, who was charged with the murder of a Federal Court. At 10:30 o'clock the jury was dismissed without being given time to deliberate, and will assemble at 9 to-morrow. McBride is charged with breaking into the Gladys post-office in September, and being several days under guise of a traveling barber.

GRANDIN LUMBER COMPANY IN HANDS OF RECEIVERS

ASHEVILLE, N. C., November 12.—The Grandin Lumber Company, owning timber lands in Watauga, Wilkes and Caldwell Counties, N. C., and the Watauga and Yadkin River Railroad Company, operating twenty-five miles of railroad in this State, was placed in the hands of a receiver to-day, W. J. Grandin, of Grandin, N. C., being named as the receiver. The company was started by holders of preferred stock in the lumber company and miscellaneous creditors who are not holders of secured claims. The receiver is the president of both companies. Assets are given as $7,000,000 with liability of $1,500,000. Inability to realize on the assets is given as the cause of the receivership.

BATTLE IN FLANDERS AS FAR FROM DECISION

Paris, November 12.—The battle in Flanders is as far as ever from a decision, according to the official communication, and judges from stories told by eyewitnesses arriving from the battle-front.

The Germans have given an emphatic denial of the reports that they were in retreat by extending Dixmude on the Yser, twelve miles north of Ypres, and on the road to Dunkirk which the Germans are striving to attain. French bluejackets at Dixmude had held out against them in the face of fierce attacks for the past week, but were finally compelled to give way.

The allies' attempts to drive the Germans out again have thus far failed.

On the rest of the front as far as the River Lys, the situation, according to latest advice, remains practically unchanged.

As the principal action latterly has centered to a large extent around Dixmude, the Germans are entitled to claim the advantage but the French are strongly posted in the vicinity, and the possession of the village so far has availed them but little.

UNITED STATES INFORMED

Notes Do Not Require Any Action, but Merely Advise Washington Government of Correspondence. No Complaint Against Chile.

WASHINGTON, November 12.—Ecuador and Colombia have been warned emphatically by Great Britain and France that the allies will not countenance further violations of neutrality by these South American states. After making strong representations through the British and French ministers at Quito and Bogota, the British and French governments communicated with the United States, in view of possible complications that might arise between Colombia and Ecuador and the European belligerents.

Two notes were presented to Secretary Bryan by Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, and Jules Jusserand, the French ambassador, respectively, calling attention to representations made to Colombia and Ecuador. The notes do not require that the United States take any action, merely advising the Washington government of correspondence with the South American states, in line with the customary policy of keeping the United States informed of matters of international consequence, passing between Europe and countries with which the United States has friendly relations. The notes expressed the hope that Ecuador and Colombia would be impressed with the value of maintaining strict neutrality, in which the United States had given no signal example.

SETBACK AT DIXMUDE PARTLY COMPENSATED FOR

The setback at Dixmude, in the opinion expressed here, is somewhat compensated for by the progress made on the rest of the front. The Newport-Ostend road, it followed up, thus apparently would threaten the German flank.

East and south of Ypres the Germans seem to have found fresh masses of troops to hurl into the murderous fray, but the allies seem to be holding their own. The country here is undulating, well wooded, and covered with a multitude of farms which are surrounded by large chimneys. The villages are small, and most of the population is centered on these farms, which are distant from each other, at the most, from 200 to 300 yards. These villages are made of solidly built brick houses, with their walled courtyards, and sometimes with deep ditches, make excellent basos for small detachments, and play an important part in the battle. The struggle is taking place among the farms in the direction of the border towns of Comines, Werwick and Menin.

A combat around Labasse and Arras, where the British are operating, have shown no decisive change.

BOTH AMERICAN CRUISERS SAFE IN MEDITERRANEAN

Navy Department Gets Cablegram From the North Carolina and Tennessee—No Marines Landed at Beirut.

WASHINGTON, November 12.—Cablegrams received from the American cruisers North Carolina and Tennessee in the Mediterranean to-day, brought word to the Navy Department that all was well aboard the two warships, and that the marines of blue-jackets had been landed by the North Carolina at Beirut, Syria.

For three days the department had been flooded with messages from the two men-of-war, the cruisers who were alarmed by published rumors that the North Carolina had been blown up by a mine in Turkish waters. Interrupted cable service had cut off communication with the vessels for more than a week. Queries from the department brought no replies until today, when a cablegram came through from the captain of the Tennessee announcing that the vessel was safe with the North Carolina and that she was safe. Later came a message from Captain Oman, of the North Carolina, saying everything was quiet at Beirut.

The department was relieved to hear that the North Carolina and Tennessee were safe for the relief of distressed Americans.

CHILD'S REPLY TO PUBLIC

In this connection Eduardo Suarez, the Chilean ambassador, made public to-night a cablegram from Manuel Salinas, Minister of Foreign Affairs at Santiago, giving the minister's reply to the Senate to public rumors of assistance to German ships from Chileans.

The Foreign Minister said Chile was suppressing all wireless installations, and that the government had adopted various measures to prevent the belligerents from making use of ports or territorial waters as bases of naval operations.

One significant point in the cablegram was that the Foreign Minister spoke of "endeavoring to come to some arrangement on the point with other American countries." Some here believe that Chile may take the initiative in having South American countries adopt a uniform regulation on the wireless question.

SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR

Rheumatism depends on an acid which flows in the blood, affecting the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain. This acid gets into the blood through some defect in the digestive process, and remains there because the liver, kidneys and skin are too torpid to carry it off.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old-time blood tonic, is very successful in the treatment of rheumatism. It acts directly, with purifying effect, on the blood, and through the blood on the liver, kidneys and skin, which it stimulates, and at the same time it improves the digestion.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla to-day. Sold by all druggists.—Adv.
