LEGAL NOTICES.
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA, S. S.:
Whereas, a libel has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Virginia, on the 12th day of July, A. D. 1865, by Rear Admiral David D. Porter, Commander-in-Chief of the United States Naval Forces composing the North Atlantic Squadron, on behalf as well of the United States as of himself, the officers and crews of the United States sloop of war "Torpedo," "Sassacus," "Mammoth," "Chippewa," "Commodore Perry," and others, against the rebel steamer vessel of war "Torpedo," her boiler, machinery, &c., alleging in substance:
"That pursuant to instructions for that purpose from the President of the United States, the said Torpedo, and with the said United States vessels of war, their officers and crews, did subdue, seize and take upon the James River (an arm of the high sea) the said rebel steamer vessel of war, the 'Torpedo,' a rebel naval vessel of war, the property of the so-called 'Confederate States,' and the rebels in arms against the United States, and that the said Torpedo, and her boiler, machinery, furniture and tackle, and all the contents thereof, were taken on board, and were in the possession of the said Torpedo, and her boiler, machinery, furniture and tackle, and all the contents thereof, when she was captured by the public armed vessels of the United States, and that the said Torpedo, and her boiler, machinery, furniture and tackle, and all the contents thereof, were taken on board, and were in the possession of the said Torpedo, and her boiler, machinery, furniture and tackle, and all the contents thereof, when she was captured by the public armed vessels of the United States, and that the said Torpedo, and her boiler, machinery, furniture and tackle, and all the contents thereof, were taken on board, and were in the possession of the said Torpedo, and her boiler, machinery, furniture and tackle, and all the contents thereof, when she was captured by the public armed vessels of the United States, and that the said Torpedo, and her boiler, machinery, furniture and tackle, and all the contents thereof, were taken on board, and were in the possession of the said Torpedo, and her boiler, machinery, furniture and tackle, and all the contents thereof, when she was captured by the public armed vessels of the United States, and that the said Torpedo, and her boiler, machinery, furniture and tackle, and all the contents thereof, were taken on board, and were in the possession of the said Torpedo, and her boiler, machinery, furniture and tackle, and all the contents thereof, when she was captured by the public armed vessels of the United States, and that the said Torpedo, and her boiler, machinery, furniture and tackle, and all the contents thereof, were taken on board, and were in the possession of the said Torpedo, and her boiler, machinery, furniture and tackle, and all the contents thereof, when she was captured by the public armed vessels of the United States,
