dog, and was not entitled to so much respect as one of those animals, which found full scope in the cruelties committed at Andersonville.

The oysters shall be yours, neighbor, but we would prefer you should take 'spots.' Don't you like 'spots?'

They are all the rage here, and the people seem to be in the fix of the leopard, which could not change its spots.

European advices to the 18th inst. say the Great Eastern had arrived out on the 17th. It is thought that arrangements will be immediately made for a renewal of the efforts to recover the cable.

A Washington despatch denies the sensational story about President Johnson, a few days since, refusing to receive a Minister from Maximilian.

Why is a Norfolk boarding house like a leopard? Because it cannot change its spots. Eh, Marston.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

CITY OF RICHMOND.—This elegant and highly finished specimen of naval architecture arrived in our harbor yesterday forenoon.

THE WEATHER.—The thermometer at Dr. W. E. Lewis' drug store, under the Atlantic Hotel, indicated the following state of the weather Wednesday.

THE COURTS.—MILNER'S CASE.—Y. W. Miller, came to our recollection. Near our office is an ice house, where regularly every evening a gang of colored aspirants to woe-ability meet and enjoy the cold comfort of the locality.

THE HERALD'S WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT gives the following items of intelligence: CASE OF HON. R. M. T. HUNTER.

MENTION has been made of the presence here of Mrs. R. M. T. Hunter, soliciting pardon or parole for her husband. It is not probable that the lady will succeed in obtaining a pardon for Mr. Hunter, but the parole will doubtless be granted.

THE BALTIMORE AMERICAN informs us that fifty hands are employed in repairing the steamer George Leary, and therefore we may soon expect to see her at our wharf again.

ARRIVALS at the Atlantic Hotel, Aug. 30: M. N. Falls, Balt.; H. D. Riler, New Orleans; F. E. Howay, N. Y.; M. Lavy, Worcester, Mass.; G. W. Hunter, Va.; F. A. Brown, Va.; W. A. Shultz, Balt.; George H. Sully, Richmond; M. T. Hughes, Va.; W. A. Richmond, Va.; A. C. Oke, D. C.; G. Goodwin, Va.; N. C. M. Malvey, Balt.; L. A. Waterman, Va.; D. J. Johnson, Va.; J. B. Dugh, Fort Det. point; John P. Archer, N. Y.

THE SENATIONAL story about a Minister from Maximilian to President Johnson, presenting himself to the Secretary of State with a letter of condolence on the death of President Lincoln, and being politely refused, conveys at least as much information to the State Department as any such public Minister, any such letter, or any such interview.

THE NEW YORK correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says: "Gentlemen just from Washington, in a position likely to know, says that the striking out of the names of General Lee and James A. Seddon from the specifications and charges against Captain Wirz was done at the earnest solicitation of Grant, President Johnson concurring."

THE NORFOLK POST, through its vivacious "Local," proposes to us one of those fair exchanges which "do no robbery." Some have gone out of fashion here, neighbor; their secession proclivities render them unsafe diet for loyal citizens. We are afraid, besides, that if we ate your hog-fish we would have a Post-mortem. Nevertheless, send along your fish and oysters. We'll send you sard and eggs.—Petersburg Index.

THE PHILADELPHIA Ledger's Washington correspondent says that "it is not true that the negro troops are to be disbanded. I telegraphed you a week since that they would be largely employed in the garrison of the Southern States so long as such garrison should be necessary, and I repeat the remark, despite all rumors to the contrary.

There appears to be no end to the number of railroad casualties. Yesterday a collision occurred on the Long Leaf Railroad, near Jamaica Plains, N. Y.

IT IS generally known to one of the military commanders in the western part of Virginia that there was at a point in that State, near the Tennessee border, a large number of cattle formerly the property of the Rebel Government, and a small detachment was sent to take possession of them.

AN OFFICER in authority, who visited Jeff. Davis on Friday last, says that he reported himself in good health, except a slight touch of erysipelas. In speaking of Wirz he denied all knowledge of that individual, and said he had never seen or heard of him here in his arrest.

THE STATISTICS of the Quartermaster's Department show that the average consumption of each soldier is about two and a quarter pounds of dry food daily, about three-fourths vegetable and one-fourth animal, making an annual consumption of about eight hundred pounds.

BISHOP Kavanaugh, of the Methodist E. Church, South, has created some trouble by supplanting a loyal clergyman at Parkersburg with one of known secession proclivities, against the remonstrances of the congregation, who have informed the new incumbent that his services are not acceptable.

THE FRANKFORT (Ka.) Commonwealth, says that in one hundred and eight counties, Neale, the Union candidate for State Treasurer, has two hundred and eighteen majority. Two counties he is behind from, but it thinks Neale is elected.

SEVERAL discharged soldiers and sailors of the United States have murdered the crews of small boats, on the coast of Honduras, and turned her into a pirate. They have captured several vessels. An English man-of-war is pursuing them.

CHAMP Ferguson is sinking rapidly. He is now so weak that he cannot walk from the court to the prison, and has to be conveyed in a hack. He still keeps up his indomitable spirit and iron nerve, and cherishes hopes of getting clear.

MAJOR General Torbett, of volunteers, has been brevetted brigadier general in the regular army, and ordered to duty at Norfolk to take command of that department. General Ayers succeeds him in command at Winchester, Va.

A Richmond correspondent repeats a rumor current there, that two of the strongest soldiers in the military in that city, recently ordered to be fitted up, are designed for the reception of Jeff. Davis and John Mitchell.

THE NEW YORK World's Washington correspondent says that Lee, Longstreet, Ewell, Beauregard, Hill, Wheeler, Mahone, Buckner, Gardner, and other officers of the late rebel army are about to go to Europe.

Mrs. Sarah Hokiker, a dress-maker in Bridgeport, Conn., was found Wednesday morning, hanging by the neck in her garret quite dead. She was 38 years of age, and has been partially insane.

THE BALTIMORE American informs us that fifty hands are employed in repairing the steamer George Leary, and therefore we may soon expect to see her at our wharf again.

ARRIVALS at the Atlantic Hotel, Aug. 30: M. N. Falls, Balt.; H. D. Riler, New Orleans; F. E. Howay, N. Y.; M. Lavy, Worcester, Mass.; G. W. Hunter, Va.; F. A. Brown, Va.; W. A. Shultz, Balt.; George H. Sully, Richmond; M. T. Hughes, Va.; W. A. Richmond, Va.; A. C. Oke, D. C.; G. Goodwin, Va.; N. C. M. Malvey, Balt.; L. A. Waterman, Va.; D. J. Johnson, Va.; J. B. AGENTS for the BOARD of UNDERWRITERS.—Walter H. Taylor, of this city, where he is well known, has been fully commissioned by the following reliable and first class insurance companies of New York as their agent, viz: the Germania, Niagara, Republic and Hanover. The merit and standing of these companies, like their agents, need no praise of ours.—It is national. Colonel Taylor also accepted the special agency of the Atlantic Fire Insurance Company of New York, and has been tendered several more, but he has declined the agency of some few, for the reason that it would monopolize his time to the detriment of other business obligations.

ATROCITIES.—In company with a brother Lord, while standing in the hall of the Temple of Justice yesterday we were approached by a colored man named W. H. C. Williams, bleeding from the mouth and presenting other appearances of having been badly used. He told us that while near the Academy as the guard were passing along with some prisoners, the latter suddenly set upon him and sought for protection but they told him to get out of the way. We referred Williams to General Mann as the proper person to take action in the premises. There are always two sides to every question, so we shall await the investigation of the facts in this case.

MELANCHOLY.—Ye votaries of music, come to our recollection. Near our office is an ice house, where regularly every evening a gang of colored aspirants to woe-ability meet and enjoy the cold comfort of the locality, while we get the full benefit of their squealing, reminding us very much of a lot of pigs jammed under a barn gate, and trying to lose themselves by discordant squeals and whinnies. We would advise you are rehearsing for a grand concert to "make the dead hear."
