LOCAL BREVITIES.

The circuit court convenes Oct. 13th. The board of supervisors meet Oct. 12. The new subscribers still continue to come.

The Hubbardston fair was a success financially and otherwise. Miss May Cook, of New York, is visiting A. B. Spinney and family.

The annual tax sales for Gratiot county will be held in Ithaca Oct. 6th. The new hand caps are very pretty, and give the hand a very nobby appearance.

Derwin Ely is the postmaster now, his term of office having commenced Wednesday. "Fast Lynn" will be produced Oct. 13 with Mrs. Chas. Hutchinson in the leading role.

S. Fink's family have moved into the rooms over the vacant store adjoining his saloon. Mrs. Trux and Mrs. Pierce, of Gouverneur, N. Y., are visiting V. M. Wilson and family.

The L. A. Mt. P. & N. railroad is completed as far as Forest Hill and will soon reach Salt River. Mrs. S. Moody, of Forest Hill, was one of the callers at this office this week.

Married, in Arcadia, at the home of the bride, Sept. 25, by the Rev. J. Van Antwerp, Mr. M. J. Morton and Miss Mary E. Clark. Mr. J. B. Witcher, of the Black Hardware Co., left town this week with a good big order. He is not married yet, alas poor Joe!

This office has just received a fine lot of borders, ornaments and new type, so if you want a tidy job you can get it right here at home. The trial of Jim Carr, of Clare county, novelties, at the next term of the Gratiot county circuit court seems to be exciting considerable interest.

Dr. J. H. Lancashire, of Saratoga, N. Y., is in town this week looking after business matters. He is accompanied by a friend, Arthur D. Dowd. Miss Moody, of Forest Hill, attended a meeting of Christian workers at Ionia last week. He reports an interesting time and much good work accomplished.

Wright's Opera House Band has been hired to play at the rink regularly, and for that purpose has been divided into two squads, playing on alternate nights. T. F. Timbey, a former resident of Alma, but now of Brooklyn, N. Y., has been in town this week visiting his sister, Mrs. I. P. Gilman, and shaking hands with old friends.

Quite a pulling and hauling is going on at Forest Hill over the depot site. Some parties want it in one place and another faction want it in another place about a mile distant. Mrs. Julia Courter, who lives near Elm Hill, was in town this week visiting friends. She made this office a pleasant call, and before leaving ordered the Record sent to her one year.

The wooden building on State street, recently occupied by Spicer & Son as a meat market, is being moved to the lot just west of Gilman's harness shop, on Superior Street. We understand that it will be used there as a meat market by a new firm. Ithaca Journal: It seems that the Journal was in error a few weeks ago in stating that J. H. Seaver, of this village was the first merchant in the county to receive a consignment of tea direct from China, as Wright, Schneider & Stutz, of Alma, preceded him by some months—a correction the Journal takes pleasure in making, as it never mistakes a fact if it knows it.

Remember the dance at the rink this evening. It is now unlawful to sell other than "straight grade" butter. The Rev. F. N. Jones is the coming man in the Alma M. E. church.

Diphtheria has caused several vacancies in Mt. Pleasant homes lately. Harper's Magazine has a contributor in Saginaw, V. B. Paine by name. The Lakeview postoffice war will probably close now. John J. Bale has been appointed.

Read the communication on the fourth page. He intends giving us a series of letters on Kansas. A new cross walk has been put down between Ellison's and Pollasky Bros' stores. A much needed improvement.

St. Louis Republican: The Park House bus, team and harness, were sold for taxes to day. Col. Elwell bid them in for $76. A new sidewalk has been put down by the Congressional society, and the same is duly appreciated by the pedestrians on State street.

The former presiding elder of the Ionia district, Rev. C. L. Barnhart, has been removed to Albion and Rev. Moors now takes charge of the district. Deer may be hunted in the lower peninsula from Oct. 1 to Dec. 1 only; wild turkey, Oct. 1 to Jan. 1; quail, Nov. 1 to Jan. 1; partridge, Sept. 1 to Jan. 1.

Big Rapids has adopted a steam whistle as a fire alarm. This town may be induced to follow the example if it continues to have such poor luck with the bells. East Lynne is to be played Oct. 13 by our home talent. Every body will want to be there on a front seat probably, for we understand that the company is a great favorite with our citizens.

Mr. Pleasant Tribune: The right-of-way for the Lansing & Mt. Pleasant railway, between here and Salt River, is nearly secured and from present indications the work of grading will commence next week. We were wondering why the Stanton papers were so apathetic in regard to the fair this fall but when we happened to see one of the premium lists with the Detroit Post imprimatur it the mystery was solved.

As a party of St. Louis people were returning from Estella last Saturday the horses became frightened and ran, and Mrs. H. L. Wood was thrown out, receiving a dislocation of the ankle and fracture of one leg. Rev. J. W. Sutton is preparing to remove to Lakeview. He and his estimable wife have made many friends here who will be pleased to learn that their new field of labor is not so far distant but that they can frequently visit their old home.

W. W. Pike, of Elwell, will hereafter make Alma his home. He is building a new house on Woodworth avenue. It is singular how old acquaintances are found now and then. Mr. Pike and one of our big brothers were chums when we were engaged in making mad pies—and all the other trouble that children can when they try.

The subscribers of the St. Louis Herald who live in the southern part of the county complain of not receiving the paper promptly. The editor of the Herald thinks the trouble is in the Ithaca post office and proceeds to stir up Bro. Smith in great style. We fear these gentlemen do not strictly obey the scriptural injunction, "love one another."

The Evening News is a little previous in stating that a new $800 jail is to be built here at once. The council has appointed a committee to investigate the cost of a good, safe building for that purpose, and the committee has not even reported its estimate yet. However, when this town gets pretty well interested in any project something usually comes of it.

The Commercial house register of Tuesday shows a good business. There were twenty names registered, and eight different states were represented.—St. Louis Republican. Here is the number registered at the Wright House each day this week up to today. Monday, 40; Tuesday, 24; Wednesday, 18; Thursday, 21. Comparing well don't it?

Persons wishing to buy or sell, work or hire, rent or exchange, etc., will find it to their advantage to make their wants known at the Intelligence-Office, opposite the Wright House. See ad. in next column. J. E. Davidson is still confined to his house. Being unable to attend to business he has made arrangements with Dawson, a St. Louis photographer, to come to his gallery two days in each week, Wednesday and Thursday.

Work on the abutments of the new iron bridge over Pine river at this place commenced this week and is being pushed as rapidly as possible. A Mr. Ramsey, of Portland, has the contract for this part of the work at $749. The Smith Bridge Co., of Toledo, Ohio, have the contract for building the bridge proper, the contract price being $1,885, with some rebate on timber, not yet determined.

The St. Louis Leader says that Prof. Richards was presented with a fine set of "Guyatz's History of France," on the 22d ult., that being his birthday. Have you lost your spelling book Bro. Hoskins? When we used to know him he spelled his name Guizot. Such is fame! Even the great men who have made name and fame are thus abused when they take up their abode in the "long and narrow cells, draped o'er with sod."

The finishing touches were put on Alma's new horse cart, manufactured by J. T. Noble, last week. On Monday, at 5 p. m., the Wah-Wah Sum hose company, accompanied by the Junior band, took the cart to Alma. We doubt if a handsomer cart is owned by any fire department in the state, and the Alma people were loud in their praise of the workmanship and finish, and all, including the village officials, announced themselves highly pleased.

The hose company and band were taken to the Wright House for supper, after which skating and a hop were the order at the rink. The St. Louis boys returned well pleased with the attention shown them, and hope to no distant day to have the pleasure of entertaining the members of Alma hose company No. 1.—St. Louis Republican.

The cart is certainly a beauty, being built upon honor and beautifully finished, and is a credit to the builder. It has a double reel, making it possible to lay two lines of hose at the same time, when desired, thus saving considerable time and work. Our citizens have every reason to be proud of the cart, the purchase of which reflects great credit on the good judgment of the common council. The Wah-Wah sum hose company and Junior band, of St. Louis, are a fine looking and gentlemanly body of men, and will always be welcome in Alma.

We have gradually been making up our mind that we had no weight with the new administration. Grover appointed the postmaster here without saying a word to us about it, and several other matters pertaining to Alma and vicinity he has not even asked our opinion at all, but we know they begin to see the folly of their way for on Thursday William, you know William Vilas, sent us a real nice letter telling us all about the new ten-cent delivery stamp. He is mistaken if he thought we did not know all about it before, but for fear some of our readers don't we'll quote from the aforesaid "document." The following is a description of the stamp: A line engraving on steel, oblong in form; dimensions 12-16 by 1-7-16 inches; color, dark blue. Design: On the left an arched panel bearing the figure of a mail messenger boy on the run, and surrounded by the words, "Secures immediate delivery at a special delivery office." Across the top of the tablet is the legend, "Special Postal Delivery," and at the bottom the words, "Ten cents," separated by a small shield bearing the numerals, "10." Letters or packages bearing these stamps may be delivered in any town or city whose population is 4,000 or over. These stamps are now on sale at Uncle Sam's store across the street, and if you want a letter delivered with "swiftness and dispatch" just ask for a special delivery stamp and this in addition to the regular postage, will secure its immediate delivery in any 4,000 inhabitant town.

The following list of M. E. appointments will probably be of interest to our readers: Alma—F. N. Jones. Carson City—L. M. Garland. Edmore—D. C. Rich. Elm Hill—J. Hill. Lakeview—J. W. Sutton. St. Louis—Geo. Donaldson. Breckenridge—S. Simons. Ithaca—C. A. Jacobs. Maple Rapids—L. B. Tallman. Hickles—A. E. Boynton. St. Johns—H. H. Brearly. Salt River—Thos. Young.

FOREST HILL. Correspondence of the Record. The first train of cars entered Forest Hill Saturday afternoon and now we expect to see the cars every day if we look for them. When they arrived they found a nice side track ready to put the iron on, as soon as the company think best. A mile lacking 40 rods was laid Saturday. A free lunch was furnished the workmen after they were done work, by the kindness shown, the superintendent invited the ladies to take the cars for Alma and return the same evening, but they were obliged to decline until a more convenient opportunity occurred. A fine depot will be erected in a short time, and we expect business will fairly boom. They expect to reach Shepherd by Saturday night.

Bohemian suits men are canvassing this town pretty thoroughly. Our advice is to give them a wide berth, or else the toe of your boot. Uncle Stallion Rice, of Chatham, Ohio, visited friends and old acquaintances in this vicinity last week. He is 89 years old and came through alone.

We hear that Miss Alice Leonard of the Williams neighborhood was married to a Mr. Hart, of Ohio, last Friday night. A number from these parts expect to go on the excursion to Wellington and Tiffin Oct. 5. Mrs. H. N. Robinson accompanied the K. P. excursion to Detroit Wednesday and returned Friday night.

Some sickness here lately. Mrs. Albert Udell has been confined to her bed with a fever for some time but is now able to sit up some. Mrs. Holmes is quite low and probably will not survive long. Our blacksmith is getting along finely with lots of work to do, but we think it would be much more pleasant if he had some young lady to keep house for him.

Pollasky & Waldy has a few thousand dollars to loan on prime real estate securities at a low rate of interest. MONEY TO LOAN in sums of $200 to $5,000, on good security at low rates of interest. Call on or address E. Brant, Alma, Mich. Notice of Stockholders Meeting. Notice is hereby given that a special meeting of the stockholders of the Lansing, Alma, Mt. Pleasant & Northern Railroad Company has been called by the Directors of said company to be held at Wright's Opera House, in the Village of Alma, Gratiot County, Michigan, on the 17th day of October, A. D. 1885, at eight o'clock in the evening, and that said meeting will be held accordingly at said time and place. Dated September 30th, 1885. MARCUS POLLASKY, Secretary of said company.

WHEREAS, my wife, Margaret Coon, has left my bed and board without any just cause or provocation, I hereby warn all persons from trusting her on my account as I shall pay no debts of her contracting after this date. Alma, Sept. 21, 1885. G. B. W. COOK.
