Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

A large amount of correspondence and other matter was crowded out this week because of the president's message, which makes about 85 columns of this issue.

PERRINTOS.

Miss Maud Murray of Grand Rapids, is the guest of D. M. Atcher and family. Friends of F. E. Strom on Lansing, are paying him a visit, during this week. F. E. Ducey went to Lansing Thanksgiving day on business, returning Friday. The assessment roll is in his hands and any one wishing to pay tax, can do so by calling at the bank in Perrinton. Miss Kitty Forney who has been visiting at this place the past few weeks returned to her home in St. Louis, Monday. Kitty had a good time here among her old friends. Come again Kitty. A. C. Gillett and wife have returned from a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Emma Sumners, who resides at Lake City. It is Grandma and Grandpa Gillett now. E. V. Dean has arrived, having one small deer on his back, when we first got sight of him. I presume he killed it to keep it from dying. Miss Nellie Kirk has been on the sick list for the past week, but is reported some better at this writing. The Ladies' Aid society gave a 10-cent Thanksgiving dinner and realized about $10 from it. Baker Bros. shipped a car load of fine porkers from here Thursday. At the rolling match Wednesday evening Frank Longwood got eleven fine turkeys, so it is reported. Miss Minnie Lauce has returned from Elsie, where she has been for a few weeks. Sylvester Sebring who moved from this place Tuesday last, met with a serious accident on his way to his new home north of Crystal. His team became frightened and threw Mr. S. off of the wagon and in some way he fractured his ankle. This is a bad accident for him as he is a poor man and can ill afford to be laid up until his recovery. Jimmy Murray who was hurt on the railroad, is so he can get about a little. This was a close shave for him.

S. W. NORTH STAR.

Thanksgiving day has come and gone. Ever yet, we think, found something to be thankful for; thankful for one thing if nothing more, that we live in one of the best spots of the best nation on the earth, at peace with all other nations, with the best social, religious and literary advantages and privileges. John Barnes and wife ate turkey and cranberry sauce at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sam Barnes on Thanksgiving day, as did also Geo. Barnes of Howell and his son Albert. A. W. Barnes, Chas. Hawes, Chas. M. Chaffin, wife, and daughter Bessie. Mr. Barnes is in his 73rd year, but ate his dinner with as much relish and seemed to enjoy the day as well as any of them. The family of Henry Wood spent Thanksgiving day at John Melchior's, Mrs. Harmon of Ithaca, spent the holiday with her daughter, Mrs. T. Hawes. Miss Laura Fleming of Lake View is visiting at the home of J. F. Way and wife. The parsonage on the Martin corner, is a thing of the past. The Barzagar boys have bought the buildings and Ed Churehill the land. The U. B. society have bought in North Star. The trustees are having a new roof put on the church. Michael Richard has built a good new house for his chickens. GLENNIE.

NORTH WHEELER.

James Brown of Hagerman, Hilldale county, has bought the Wyant place, and moved onto it last week. Frank Berry is very low with consumption. Rev. Mr. Sandy addressed the people at the Center line last Sunday afternoon. Albert Kreber of Collins, Will Smith and wife of Hubbardston and Will Rogers and family of Alma, spent Thanksgiving at W. J. Bush's. B. A. Bringer and W. J. Bush have both lost valuable horses lately. W. J. Bush and James Harford were in St. Louis last Friday. Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. Anna Chrysler of Merrill were guests at B. A. Bringer's Saturday. W. H. Sture was in Saginaw Wednesday of last week. E. Arnold of St. Louis was down to see his farm on Friday of last week. Ohs. Neitzke and family of Bay City, arrived last Saturday and are now visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Neitzke. Harvey Ripley and a brother of Leslie, are making their abode in this place at present. E. C. Chapman and wife started for Leslie Tuesday of last week. J. Brennan is reported on the sick list. School commenced at the Jackson street school house, Monday, with Huber Riddle as teacher. A new organ at Dute De Haven's. Miss Bush was home to spend Thanksgiving, returning to her school at Hope, Midland county, the fore part of the week. XXX.

TOWN LINE.

The members of the Sowers' M. E. Sunday school gave a Thanksgiving dinner at the school house, all report a good time. O. M. Fairbank has his house completed and ready to move into, just in time to enjoy a visit from his oldest son, who has returned from the far west, after an absence of twelve years. John Williams has moved into the house with Mrs. Coleman, and intends to work her farm the coming year. Wayne Porter and family are expected back from Lapeer to live on their farm again. Mrs. George Frost spent Thanksgiving with her parents at Shepherd and returned Friday, accompanied by her sister May Wilson. Horace Goodwin has bills out for a sale; as intends to move to Battle Creek. A. Weaver lost quite a valuable horse last week, from colic. Mrs. R. Dil-worth who has been ill for some time, is on the gain. Carrie, daughter of George and Ota McDaid, died Sunday afternoon, of typhoid fever, at the age of sixteen years. She was a bright and promising girl, and leaves many friends to mourn her loss. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

NEWARK CENTER.

Janet Eicher's folks received a little girl at their house last week. It weighed 8 lbs. 5 oz. Chas. Stunk went to Pomper one day and came home with a brand-new wagon. Geo. Beck came home from a hunt the other day and brought two deer with him. Ernest Peter's baby is only six months old and weighs 22 pounds. Phil Brown and wife of Ithaca, are making a visit at home here for a few days. Christ Eicher and sister were riding home from their brother's the other night, when the horse became frightened and threw her out, hurting her side and shoulder.

ELBA CENTER.

Grandma Covert is on the sick list. Mrs. Martha Moore has bought the Muller place, one-half mile west of Bannister, and intends to move soon. Mrs. E. Hayes has been spending several days with her mother, Mrs. Hustin. Chas. M. Matteson and children have returned from a four days' visit with his sister and aunt at Paines. Mrs. Judith Snelling of Ionia, daughter of Wm. Krom of Elba, died at her home on Nov. 27th. The remains were interred in the Maple Grove cemetery at Ovid on Nov. 28th. She leaves a husband and father, one younger sister and a large circle of friends to mourn her loss. The bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends. SAM.

LAFAYETTE.

The beautiful fall weather is still with us, and the farmers are logging and burning their fallows, which is something that does not happen very often this time of the year. Mr. Turner of East Saginaw, is here visiting friends. He has a good store with house attached and a house and lot besides, which he will trade for a farm. Some man can get a good bargain with him. J. H. McNall has twenty acres of fall plowing done. He has one of the best hundred and sixty acre farms in Gratiot county. S. Cassius returned from Lansing. He will change his former plan and build a house on the gothic style. A nice looking house on the farm is not so bad a thing to have after all. O. H. Tenney and wife commenced keeping house on Thanksgiving day. A very easy thing to remember through life. John Stambugh has bought the mill route from Eureka to St. Johns and has moved to the former place. Will Lenox and his sister Nellie of Ithaca, were the guests of their sister, Mrs. Geo. Godley, on the 3d. Mr. Hood and wife entertained Mr. F. W. Wessinger of Ithaca, and another party, are here looking for a farm. James Powell has bought a farm near Wheeler. It is an old saying that the early bird catches the worm; it proved very true last Sabbath, as some did not get to church until the preacher was about ready to say Amen. We understand that the Christmas exercises at the Presbyterian church will be conducted with reference to a star. H.

POLLIWOG.

Mrs. Sarah Stafford, wife of Chas. Stafford, a resident of this vicinity, died Sunday, of dropsy, at the home of her father, Mr. Frye, at Sumner. Miss Ella Hesse of Oshtemo, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Marvin Root, and expects to remain till after the holidays. Mrs. Ben Ray was cheated out of her Thanksgiving dinner by some sneak thief, who has an appetite for gobbling gobblers. Choyton Rousa also lost a quantity of corn through the same source, and he says if they repeat their visit they will carry away something besides corn. Rev. Terpening, Mortimer Clark and Geo. Ray have returned from the lumber woods for a few days' visit with their families. The scarlet fever patients are improving and no new cases have developed. (Orin) Leppson of Elmore, is visiting his brother Sethus. Mrs. Rousa is visiting in Ithaca last week and ate Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. Bowman's family. Mrs. Kloeck, whose sickness we mentioned last week, is improving. Fred, with his "best," is visiting at his home, E. J. Dellinger's. TADPOLE.

SUMNERTON.

Last summer some Germans from Ohio came here to look the territory over in quest of farms. We understand now from our neighbor Mr. Florian, that some eight families are coming here in the spring, with the intention of purchasing, in the immediate vicinity of Sumner-ton. This is welcome news to our community, as the influx of capital and vim is what is needed. We will extend them a cordial greeting. W. J. Morgan received an order for nine car loads of cedar shingles; the first sale in fifteen months. These will be manufactured at Hong's mill at Mud lake, three miles north and west of here. Hance's mill that was burned last summer, will be rebuilt, with new machinery, and will be soon running at its full capacity, and they intend buying logs soon, thus indicating that the hard times have had their day, and that an era of business prosperity is in sight. Last week Thos. Ingraham sold a gray horse on confidential terms; there is nothing strange about that, but the average citizen's inquisitiveness is very characteristic in this stage of the world, and Tom is importuned at every step to know how much he got for that horse. Now the only way to get peace of mind is to get a planed and mark in plain figures and carry around on one's back, in order to satisfy a morbid curiosity on the part of some individuals. Ora Barney, the champion month organ player of Shepherd, made a call on friends Saturday evening, and entertained an audience with some of the most charming music that is possible to get out of such an instrument. Come again Ora. Mrs. Levi Birge is very sick, but good neighbors are kind and attentive to her wants. Wood of Forest Hill has thinned the turkeys out from here, and it is doubtful if there are enough left to satisfy home demands for Christmas. Most of our farmers have buried their potatoes for the winter rather than sell them at 25c. They anticipate at least 70c by spring. D. M. Ferry's seed man was on hand taking orders for garden seeds for spring, recently. Our girls haven't got the snuburn off their hands nor the freckles off their noses yet, from last summer's gardening, and this is a mark of a mild winter.

RIVERDALE.

Hello Central! Hello! Give me 210-3 rings, please. I'm in a hurry. Hello! Well Hel-!, what's the matter? Why don't you say something? (I guess the wire is down, or perhaps it has not been put up yet.) Wait a bit. The telephone poles are all set as far west as our village. The line will reach Edmore in about ten days. Thou Riverdale may talk east and west. It is said that the drug store formerly owned by Geo. W. Summers has been sold to a physician in Kalamazoo, who, with his family, will move to this place in the near future. Will Starbuck is rapidly improving. He has already discarded his crutches, and is about with a cane only. The soap and water man was wrong only in this particular. It should have been a basket of soft soap and a half barrel of water. It takes some man to get a deal of cleaning for some people, whether they do it on their own or hire it done. In either case we extend our sympathy, hoping that a neglect of years may not occur again.

NORTH STAR.

C. D. Lyon was examining a 32-calibre revolver belonging to Ed. Dean when it was discharged, the ball passing through the top of the shoe and between the toes doing but little damage. Those wishing to participate in the light fantastic toe, will do well to join the North Star Dancing club, operated by the cornet band; the proceeds to go for suits for the band boys. Some person or persons entered the saloon of J. S. Bard and took from the till about $26. On the same night, while Walter Spooner was in the back room of his meat market some came in and hidged themselves to steal some of his oysters and some tobacco. Do not forget the entertainment of the school for the benefit of the library Dec. 8.

SOUTH NEW HAVEN.

Edwin Andrews is conducting a singing school at Sethton with good success. John Chambers is wielding the rod of correction over the little ones at Sethton school this winter. Why not have a bell on the Sethton school house? The Ladies' Union Aid society of the Wiles district, will give an oyster supper at the residence of D. L. Wiles, on Thursday evening, Dec. 20th. Remember the date and all come. Alex. Chapman has at last got a roof over his mill. Samuel Bigelow has moved in his new home on Sec. 18, New Haven. Jerry Bigelow met with a serious accident on the eve of November 30th, while on his way home from Orion City. His team became frightened at S. Bigelow and ran away, throwing J. B. from the wagon, skimming his nose and otherwise injuring him, so that he was barely able to get home. You can easily guess the cause of the trouble. John Ronk has gone north to make his home. W. J. Everett has a part of the material on the ground for his new store at New Haven Center. John Gilms has moved in the house of R. Chapman on Sec. 27. C. H. Blanchard has gone south on some business in regards to the estate of the late Wm. J. Everett. Mr. Orson Knapp has been very poorly for some time, but is improving at present under the care of Dr. McWilliams of Sethton. THE GOOD SAMARITAN.

ELM HALL.

Mrs. Wood is sick with bronchitis. The Ladies Aid society met with Mrs. Swift on Wednesday. Wm. Kumbal of the Riverside Milling Co. and Min. Fisk of Riverdale were married Thanksgiving. S. Hicks and Delbert have returned from their hunting expedition loaded with deer and bear. T. J. Blair has just completed a twenty-foot extension to his barn. He is putting in a tread power preparatory to cutting feed. E. G. VanDevanter and Miss Fredrick spent Thanksgiving at their homes. John Hall, E. J. Johnston, Rev. J. E. Jackson, wife and daughter of Detroit, Thanksgiving. Mr. Jackson is an uncle of Mr. Hall. H. B. Gibson was in Ithaca last week. The enrollment in our school has reached 22 with 106 children in the district drawing public money. Mrs. Tom Croton is enjoying a visit with her sister from Tennessee. MYRLE.

POMPER.

Henderson and Payne have a large stock of lumber for sale. John Crowner has a business; he is running a pool table in the building next to the brick. Merritt Smith has a dance in Henderson's hall, Dec. 10th. Mrs. Eber Oyster has moved back to this place. The oyster supper given by the Epworth League was a success. Ezra Engstrom is in New York state. He has the management of a large enterprise there. Born to Lon Mills and wife, a boy Nov. 27. All children well. Science, writing, Erastus Miksell is improving. Mrs. James Richardson has purchased a new piano and it is a dandy. Mrs. John Seaver is visiting relatives at Marshall and vicinity. E. J. Adams has closed his cigar mill after a successful run. He is going to build his machine shop at once.

For Sale.

A. H. and A. W. Stone, residing five miles north-east of Breckenridge and three and one-half miles north-west of Wheeler, have a quantity of seasoned hemlock, soft maple and black ash lumber for sale. Will furnish all grades of sized boards, sheathing and bill stuff. 859-3P413

FIFTY-TWO DIVIDENDS

As a general thing investors are pleased to receive only two dividends a year, and if they are paid with regularity, are fully satisfied. When one, however, can receive fifty-two dividends in a year upon an investment of only three dollars, the matter deserves very serious attention.

THE INDEPENDENT of New York for forty-six years has held the first position among the great religious literary and family weeklies of the land. It presents features for the coming year far in advance of any heretofore offered. It has the leading contributors of the world; it prints the best poetry; it has twenty-one different departments, edited by specialists; devoted to Art, Science, Religion, Insurance, Finance, Biblical Research, Sunday School Missions, Health, etc. The INDEPENDENT is particularly fitted for intelligent people, whether professional men, business men or farmers, and for their families. It costs but six cents a week and gives a great deal. A subscriber receives fifty-two dividends a year.

The subscription price of THE INDEPENDENT is only three dollars a year, or at that rate for any part of a year, and a sample copy will be sent to any person free by addressing THE INDEPENDENT, New York City.

SCHOOL COLUMN.

[BY PROF. E. G. GEORGE.]

This seems to be a good opportunity to make an earnest plea for a better understanding and more united effort on the part of parents and teachers. If parents only realized what an improvement might be made in their children's work, and how much better results might be obtained, I am sure greater sympathy and more active interest would be shown.

One would naturally suppose that parents would visit the schools at least two or three times a year, but the truth is that the majority do not take time to make even one such visit, from the beginning of the year to the close. Not is this all, they are usually satisfied to receive a careless statement from the child that he is getting along all right, when they make an occasional inquiry about his school work.

We have sought to better this condition by sending home a monthly report of each pupil's progress, and though there have been some gratifying results, we have not met with the response we desired in many cases. Let me urge parents first of all, to visit the rooms where their children attend, and thus get a clear idea of the work the children are doing, and of the difficulties which the teacher has to overcome. Then let them talk with the teacher, learning in what directions their children have the most trouble with their work, and discussing means for helping them. Parents should question children carefully about their work from day to day, and at the end of the month make a thorough examination of the report, comparing with those of previous months, and noting the number of lines absent and tardy and the record for deportment. See to it that pupils are never tardy, and absent only when absolutely necessary, and that they bring a written excuse stating cause and exact time out of school, when they first return.

Have pride enough in your own children, if not in the appearance of the school, to see that they are neatly and properly dressed; it is not patches, but the need of them, that is a disgrace. The parent may not see the necessity of regular and punctual attendance, but the teacher does. Don't send children to school before they are old enough to come, simply to get them taken care of a few hours each day.

Don't imagine that your child is entirely different from other children, that he is of little finer clay, and that on this account he should and will receive more than his share of the teacher's time and attention. Your child will not be favored less than any other, nor can he very well be allowed privileges or exemptions that cannot be granted to all. Do not expect him to receive more care as one of forty in the school room, than he actually does receive at home, as one of three or four.

Be careful not to destroy the pupil's confidence in his teacher by making disparaging remarks about her ability or her methods. More harm can be done in this way in a moment than can be undone by a whole year's careful work. Above all, do not, even indirectly, excuse or uphold a pupil in any stubbornness or disobedience. The rules of school throughout the land are essentially the same, and are the result of years of experiment and improvement; it is necessary that these should be obeyed by all pupils, and in case of willful disobedience, punishment must sometimes be resorted to. If your child should be so unfortunate as to be whipped at school, the best way to prevent its happening again is to follow the good old-fashioned rule and whip again when he gets home. Always hear both sides of the story before forming your opinion, and don't complain to the teacher in the presence of the child. Don't complain to the teacher at all, but see the superintendent if you have any complaints to make.

Finally, let me ask parents to be a little more thoughtful and considerate remembering to multiply by forty the care and trouble your child causes you, before finding fault. The parent can bring up the child independent of the teacher, but the teacher can do little or nothing without the cordial sympathy and hearty co-operation of the parent.

The Proof Accumulates.

The evidence continues to come and all helps to prove our claims for Dr. Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer.

W. C. Fick, ex-postmaster, New Garden, Columbiana Co., Ohio, says: "About two years ago I was all run down, had no strength to work, was listless, drowsy in day time and wakeful at night, and felt about as nervous and miserable as I could feel and live. Salem doctors applied a battery, examined me closely and pronounced it a serious case of nervous prostration, for which there was no help except to keep as quiet as possible. I think that they didn't expect me to live long. I spoke of trying a patent medicine, but the doctor said no patent medicine could help me. But as I steadily grew worse I had to try something, so got Dr. Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer, which was highly recommended for nerve diseases. I felt a good effect from the first use of it, so continued to use it and continued to improve in health. Think I used six bottles and I believe I am perfectly cured."

Dr. Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer is a medicinal preparation which cannot fail to help any nerve disorder or run down condition of health. Sold by B. VanDenBergh and all druggists.
