ITHACA.

Postmaster Hall is getting ready to assume the reins of government of the U. S. Institution "up the street." Last what ex-Postmaster Pettit will do after he lays down his ink pad and stamp your scribbles know not, but rumor has it, and the old lady seldom gets things correct the first time, but he will move to Lansing. The Epworth League has had complete editorial control of the Grand Rapids last week and a pretty good paper it was, too. Bets were freely offered on the streets that the Herald would follow the News' example and be given over to some religious society, for some weeks' issue, even if it had to be offered to them. And now they say that the Baptist young people will edit it before long. The populist convention at the court house Saturday, we learn was not a howling success. We say we learn, for to tell the truth we had forgotten the date and was not present. However, we met a friend who kindly gave us the details. John P. Madou called the few delegates together and did not stop to make a speech. He wanted to resign his position as quickly as possible, and out of consideration for his feelings they elected W. T. Pitt of Sville chairman, Elmer Post of Aradua was honored with the position of secretary, and the convention was organized. They said it was a mass convention, but the mass was not overwhelmingly great. As there seemed to be a disposition to go ahead and immediately elect delegates to the state convention, one stranger inquired if that was all regular, if it wasn't in order to have committees on credentials and resolutions and "such," but he was told that there wasn't any need of such formalities this time, they were all right in campaign times, but no good now, and satisfied with that explanation the interrogation point subsided and the ball went on. The state delegation was elected as follows: W. T. Pitt, T. A. Johnson, John P. Madou, G. Helms, Geo. Irish, Elmer Post, James Livingston, M. Koller, R. C. Cline, C. Rockwell, H. P. Sage, R. C. Lake, C. C. Greene, John Pink, Geo. Eldridge, T. Knapp, C. Wonders, F. McLean, Jim Moore, F. Palmer, W. Bishop, I. Montague, C. C. Eno, H. Haring, P. Snyder, W. Pagsley, A. Ramsey. Your scribble was a little surprised that Vandercorke was not put on the delegation, but his name was not even mentioned. In fact you wouldn't have thought that there was a man of his prominence in the county. The election of the delegates really closed up the business. Of course they had to have some speaking, and we understand that C. Wonders, W. Bishop, W. Kinney, J. P. Madou, N. Burns and W. T. Pitt edited the audience. Some resolutions were adopted, but as they were hard to get, I have omitted them. This closed the work of the day and the convention adjourned with not a word said about the spring campaign.

PERRINTON.

The past week has been an eventful one. The funerals of Mr. Sidel and Mr. Howe were largely attended. Mr. Fitzpatrick was buried at Hubbardston and the funeral was attended by friends from this place. Rev. Steffe preached the funeral sermon for Mr. Sidel and Rev. Craig for Mr. Howe; they were both buried in the Fulton Center cemetery. Mr. Howe was buried under the auspices of the A. O. U. W. The G. A. R. Post of Perrinton turned out in a body at both funerals. Mrs. Keith died very suddenly Sunday. She was the mother-in-law of Jackson Vallance with whom she lived at the time of her death. Mrs. Emory Eggleston, died on Sunday last. She was the daughter of Joseph Green, who preceded her to the mystic shore. Chas. A. Price Post will give an entertainment on the evening of Feb. 10th. Geo. H. Sidel will give a graphic description of his capture by Mosby's guerrillas, and had to draw lots to see which was to be hung. He drew the fatal ticket and will tell how he escaped. Mrs. J. L. Richards is visiting in St. Louis this week. The revival meetings closed Sunday evening. Ten professed religion. Simon A. Howe was born in Maine, March 8, 1830. Received common school education, and an industrial education at Ferrisburgh, and in his school was successful farmer. Married Miss C. E. Pratt in 1852, who died about seven years ago, he afterwards married the widow Alpaugh. Was a member of the First Mich. Engineers and Mechanics and served in the western army under Col. Emis. A member of Chas. A. Price Post and was O. D. last year. Mr. Sidel was born in Perry county, Pa., Sept. 8, 1833. At 18 learned blacksmith trade and began business for himself in Lawrence county, Pa. Five years later moved to Ohio and worked at his trade. Enlisted in 1861 Ohio Infantry in 1862, was in the battles of Winchester and Martinsburg and was taken prisoner at Petersburg, but was only held a short time. He came to Grand Rapids in 1865.

SUMNER.

Miss M. Peters of Seston visited her brother, F. Andrews, last week. Wilbur Owens of Ithaca was in this place last week. Preaching in the Disciples' church every Sunday at 11 a. m. by Rev. McCarthy of Alma; prayer meeting Wednesday evenings. A. Thompson and wife visited their son in St. Louis, where he is attending school, last week. Mrs. C. Ferris is on the sick list. Mrs. A. Ward was the guest of St. Louis friends last week. Miss Mattie Prindle of Bedford, B. Henry, and E. Wilkins and wife of Portland, were guests of F. Andrews and family last week. May McQuin is home from Alma. Miss Bertina Ward is visiting friends in Cadillac.

FOREST HILL.

A brand new girl in the home of Mr. Harvey. Mrs. Campbell and her brother, J.

Moore, were called to Ohio last week by the severe illness of their mother. The members of the Christian church met Tuesday evening to discuss plans for building a new church. One car of wood and seven cars of logs were shipped from here last Monday. Miss Josephine Brady has returned from the north. The thermometer registered 22° below zero last Monday night.

RIVERDALE.

The L. O. T. M. start out with 26 charter members. R. E. Mobio is depositing lumber at the rate of 3,000 feet per day on his lot. Room for logs along the railroad seems insufficient, hence the trespassing on the triangle. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Coveri, a daughter on Friday. To Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Loring, a daughter on Saturday, and on Monday a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lathrop. Dr. Morey reports all doing well.

N. E. BETHANY.

The little daughter of H. Bodkins is quite sick. Farmers are getting in a fine crop of ice this winter. John McCallum purchased another horse last week. There was a surprise party given at the residence of G. H. Schneider Jan 31. All report a good time. Welling & Son's mill shut down until warmer weather. C. Stival is getting out timber for a new house. Considerable timber stealing is going on near the County Line. Aaron Sabin and family spent Sunday with G. A. Schneider. Bert Thompson spent Sunday with G. A. Schneider.

PLEASANT RIDGE.

Fire was discovered in H. M. Davenport's house one morning last week; it was extinguished before any great damage was done. Married, by Justice Fordyce at Mt. Pleasant, James Freeman and Mary Eagon. They are now at home in the Melville house. Joseph Byers was in Greenleaf on business last week. The Ladies Aid met with Mrs. A. Leonard last week. Mrs. Jackson who has been under the doctor's care for some time past, is now better and able to be around. While John R. Hamilton and L. B. Leonard were driving to Shepherd with L. D. Alexander's horse and cutter, the horse became frightened and ran away to damage done with the exception of a few broken eggs. The new church is still progressing. The logs are at the mill and stone are being placed on the ground. Mrs. Shively donated the timber. Mrs. Eliza Leonard has broken up house keeping and gone to Mt. Pleasant. Chas. Hays, her youngest child who has been sick for the past week, is convalescent.

BEBEE.

Mrs. Albert Smith, who has been suffering with neuralgia is able to be out again. Mrs. Thayer, we learn is better. Albert Smith lost a horie last week. The donation at the M. E. church was a success, netting about $45. George Wannacott expects to move onto his new farm this week. Mrs. Robert Gamble, who has been sick for the past week, is convalescent. Mrs. Toier of St. Louis preached in the Free Union church last Sunday. Rev. Killeen visited a number into the Methodist church last Sunday. A pleasant surprise party was given at the home of Geo. Wannacott last Tuesday evening in honor of their son, Fred. All seemed to enjoy themselves. They move away this week and Fred leaves many warm friends. Wm. Henderson was found dead in bed last Tuesday morning.

N. W. EMEPSON.

About twenty friends of Mrs. Lewis Wiser came to her home unexpectedly last Saturday evening. The surprise was genuine and was evident from her manner when she entered the room where her self invited guests were assembled. The evening was enjoyably passed.

BRECKENRIDGE.

Mr. and Mrs. Root, graduates of the Michigan School for the Blind, gave a concert in the Congregational church last Friday evening. Mrs. Root rendered some beautiful instrumental music, while Mr. Root sang several solos. The entertainment was highly appreciated by a fair sized audience. Quarterly meeting of the M. E. church last Sunday evening. A crowded house listened to Preaching Elder Henry. Miss Payne spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents near Maple Rapids. Addison Root and wife have moved onto their farm west of town. Mrs. Lewis Derry visited her children and friends here last Monday. Mr. Sidel, whose home is in Syria, gave a lecture about the habits and condition of his people, in the M. E. church Saturday evening. He will soon return to his own country as a missionary. Charles Meyers of Wheeler has opened a barber shop in Merrill's store. Rev. McGreaham, assisted by his brother from St. Louis, is holding meetings in the Congregational church this week.

I read in your valuable paper how one of your subscribers made money in the plating business; but I can beat that, and I am only a girl. I sent and got the new Gray Plater, and cleared $212.16 in one month. Can any of your readers beat this? You can get special rates and jewelry to plate at every house. Some big articles I sent and had plated at the factory. There is plenty of work to do, both in the city and country, and why should any person be poor and out of employment, when such an opportunity is at hand? Anyone can get my plater by writing to Gray & Co. Plating Works, Columbus, Ohio. They do all kinds of plating and will teach the art. My plater has a tube, wheels, tools and materials for polishing—a nice little work shop. I hope my experience will help others.

Divined His Intentions. His face was of the shade of red that showed plainly that harvest was over, while his sand-colored trousers looked like the front legs of an elephant. He was 23, rural, unsophisticated and abused.

He had stood gazing in the window in a sheepish, half-frightened manner for ten minutes before he came in, and after glancing nervously around had darted into the store between two real old, motherly-looking ladies. His eyes wandered nervously from one to another in the crowd as though afraid of being recognized, and then he was slowly pushed along by the crowd toward the little black-haired clerk who had been watching him with some amusement. She was standing at the button counter at the time.

The crowd stepped in its irregular ebb and flow, and the young man was grounded directly in front of her, his face rosier than ever. Perspiration started to his forehead in great beads as she approached with a smile.

He stammered, took off his hat, raised one foot and slowly scratched the other leg with it and tried to speak. It was of no use. He just couldn't.

"I know," she said kindly, as she came up, "don't worry about it. You want to look at baby carriages. This way, please."

His hat dropped to the floor, and he gasped as though choking on a spoonful of prunes.

"Why-it was only Wednesday—how'd you know?" he stammered.

"Never mind," she replied, kindly, "we get so we can talk. Here is a nice one for $5."

It was just what he had intended to pay, and he bought it as though in a dream.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

LIGHT AND AIRY.

Love In Parentheses. Love is tapping at your door, dreamy eyes of love! (Think I've heard that knock before. Can't you get in?)

Do you hear his gentle tap— "Tapping, tapping, tapping!" (Wonder if that isn't the chap (With my grocery bill)?)

Open, dear, and give him joy, Poor and trembling soul! (But I'm thinking that's the boy (With the bill for coal)?)

—Atlanta Constitution.

Happiness. "We are not very rich," said the new married lady, "but, oh, we are so happy!"

"I thought you would be," said the unmarried lady. "In fact, that hateful Aunt Higgins said you had to be happy because you would be so poor that you would not even have anything to quarrel about."—Indianapolis Journal.

Inappropriate. Committee man (to public school teacher)—He was thinking of putting up a nice motto over your desk to encourage the children. What do you say? How would "Knowledge Is Wealth" do?

School teacher—That wouldn't do. The children know how small my salary is.—Household Words.

In the Future. I know a maiden passing fair, With soft blue eyes and golden hair. About her form a maidentosh Protectors form from the rain and sash.

For soft blue eyes look into mine Each morning when I reach the line. Conductor on a trolley car, She is a maiden passing fair.

Why It Was. "Baker must be a great lover of reading. He tells me that he often stays in his library all night."

"Yes, that's so. But did he tell you that the only library he has is a folding bed fixed up to look like a bookcase?"

"Why—er—no."—Indianapolis Journal.

A Stumper. "You should never take anything that doesn't agree with you," the physician told him.

"If I'd always followed that rule, Maria," he remarked to his wife, "where would you be?"—Tit-Bits.

His Love. He said, "My love is like the sea— It brings its moss, it brings its pearls, And strands them at its feet for thee."

She said, "Yes, like the love of man, The tide turns, sweeping out again, And carries them to other girls." —Kate Field's Washington.

Compromise. Customer—I want a dress of some neutral tint. Modiste—But you are a pronounced blonde.

Customer—Yes, but my cook is a brunette.—Detroit Tribune.

Account Balanced. Mr. Much—Who gave you the nickel, Dickie?

Dickie—Sister. Mr. Much—For what?

Dickie—Not telling you how old she is.—New York World.

A Printer's Blunder. The reporter wrote, "She is an aunt," but the printer made it "all feet."

And the writer's best girl, so they say, Doesn't speak to the scribble when they meet.—New York Journal.

Break It Gently. "Have you read that article on how to tell a bad egg?"

"No, I haven't, but my advice would be, if you have anything important to tell a bad egg, why, break it gently."—American Review.

The Boy. Down through the snowdrifts in the street With blustering joy he strove, In rubber boots, full of feet, And his tippet full of cars.

—Chicago Record.

Had Been a Gentleman Once. "Tramp—Malina, I've brought back these shirt studs."

Kind Lady—Why don't you put them in the shirt I gave you?"

Tramp—I never work.—Clothier and Furnisher.

Not Necessarily Passes. This Boston girl, judged by her looks, Has scarcely left her teens, But she insists on being classed As one of the "fine ladies." —Detroit Tribune.

Answered From Experience. The Government—If you have a $5 bill and you go into a dry goods store to purchase 15 cents' worth of ribbon, how much do you have?

The Girl—Car fare to get home.—Chicago Record.

A Pointer For Young Men. I used to strap her skates, what next? To tell my heart forbids; I used to strap her skates, but now I have to strap her kids! —Boston Courier.

Prize. Miss Pert—Is Miss Strait Laced circumspicer?

Miss Caustic—Circumspicer? Why, she won't accompany a young man on the piano without a chaperon.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

His Way. He was learning to skate, And now every cold day, When seeking for him, You'll find him awa swim. —Chicago Inter Ocean.

A Fair Division. As the street car was blocked, a woman was heard confiding her boots and shoes to a neighbor. "Yes, I keep a girl awhile, so as to rest my body. Then I go without her awhile, so as to rest my mind."—Boston Post.

Boston, A. D. 1900. The clock in the steeple is striking the midnight hour at the fields.

And papa is rocking the cradle, While mamma is down at the club. —Truth.

Cause and Effect. Visitor—Your stove is red hot. Editor—Yes, I have some bright contributors.—Atlanta Constitution.

Sad, but Probably True. Her loving thoughts he could not guess As they walked to the moonlight wan. He could not hear her murmured "Yes," For he had his arms full.—Chicago Record.

A Clean Collar
One that you can keep clean all the time—a collar that does not wilt when you get over-heated; that does not fray on the edge, or tear out at the buttonholes, and can be cleaned by simply wiping off with a wet sponge or cloth. These collars and cuffs are made by covering linen collars or cuffs on both sides with waterproof "celluloid," thus giving strength and durability. They are the only waterproof goods so made, and every piece is stamped as follows:

Ask for this, and refuse to take any imitation if you expect satisfaction. If your dealer does not keep them, send direct to us, enclosing amount, and we will mail you sample. Collars 25 cts. each. Cuffs 50 cts. pair. State size, and whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted.

THE CELLULOID CO.,
427-29 Broadway, New York.

He Couldn't Drive Nails. Jonas Swartz, Hartsville, Ohio, relates an experience all the more wonderful because he is now nearly seventy. He says: "I wouldn't take $100 for the good Dr. Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer has done me. I always worked hard, and was careless about a little stomach trouble. I had and sleeplessness, which I suppose accounts for the nervous trouble which struck me about four years ago. Lamps of my right side got so I couldn't control them; at times I couldn't hold a cup in my hand to drink from it, and in a crowd would unconsciously hit people with my jerking right arm. The doctors called it nervous paralysis and said that, at my age, I couldn't be cured. I saw Dr. Wheeler's Nerve Vitalizer advertised in the Repository, and got a sample bottle of it, which I thought helped me, so I bought a bottle. I think I have used three bottles, and they have made a steady man of me. I have not felt as well in the four years, and am still improving. Why, for two years I couldn't drive a nail."

Geidinger, in whose store the interview took place, fully corroborated Mr. Swartz's statement, saying his cure was a surprise to all who knew of the case. We are authorized to say, this medicine for control and cure of all nerve troubles, is sold by B. Van Den Bergh, druggist, and by all druggists. Feb.

Riverdale, Mich., June 1894. Having been so wonderfully benefited by the use of Elixir of Mullein and Facial Balm, I desire to make it known to the public. I had been afflicted with rheumatism for a number of years, the last year, I was unable to do any work. My suffering was terrible most of the time. I tried many different remedies, treated with eminent physicians, took mineral baths different times, also electricity. I gradually grew worse until I began the use of Dr. Oimstead's Elixir of Mullein and Facial Balm. After using a number of bottles of each, I am happy to state, I was entirely cured. I was so afflicted with nasal catarrh so that for a number of years I had entirely lost my sense of smell, by the use of both a permanent cure has been effected. My little girl, three years old, was afflicted with catarrh and lung trouble, with a severe cough a great deal of the time, which greatly weakened her. By the use of both of these remedies, she is now strong and healthy.
