

COUNT TOLSTOI GONE.

Noted Author Left October 10 Saying He'd Live Alone Rest of His Life.

A private message received from Tula, the home of Count Tolstoy, near Moscow, says that Tolstoy has been absent since October 10 and that Countess Tolstoy, in despair at her inability to find his whereabouts, tried to end her life.

Count Tolstoy left home October 10, leaving a letter to the countess saying he had decided to spend the rest of his life in solitary seclusion. He was accompanied away from Tula by Dr. Alakovsky. Countess Tolstoy immediately made efforts to learn whether they had gone, but all her attempts were unsuccessful.

Tolstoy is 82 years old. His health has not been strong since the illness of 1901, which almost terminated his life.

Teach How to Prevent Mine Disasters.

Two government "rescue cars," fully equipped for coping with mine disasters, will start out early next week on a tour of instruction, in which miners and mine owners will be taught the use of the oxygen helmet and the best methods of preventing disasters or of meeting them when they occur. Incidentally, squads of men in the various mines visited will be organized into rescue companies, so that they will be available instantly when called on to assist the experts of the bureau of mines.

One of the cars will leave Chicago stopping at La Salle, Rock Island and Sherrard, Ill.; Coates and Des Moines, Ia., and Omaha, Neb. The other car will leave Pittsburg, traversing West Virginia and Maryland. Stops in those two states will be made at Morgantown, Fairmont, Clarksburg, Grafen, Tunnelton and Piedmont, W. Va., and Frostburg and Cumberland, Md. The car leaving Chicago is en route to Rock Springs, Wyo., where it will be stationed in readiness for any call in that region.
