Wheeler School

Editor-in-Chief—Mamie Baird. Assistant Editors—Alfred Wolansky, Emma Phelps, Bertha Rich.

Last week they molded chickens out of clay. Grace Hale was absent a couple of days last week. Emma Phelps is now absent on account of illness.

Viva Hillock was a visitor at school Wednesday afternoon. Neva Lytle was absent Thursday and Friday on account of sickness. They have a garden in their sand-table and the plants are now up. "You can't play in our front yard," because it's going to be "seeded." The children in the primary room painted pictures of all the common birds and put them in a book. The intermediate pupils made folders with Easter lilies on them Friday. The side that was defeated in the contest treated with home-made candy made by the teachers.

Short talks were given by Mr. and Mrs. Johnstone, Mrs. A. Allen and Mrs. Pearl Baird, which were very much appreciated.

Our school grounds being small the boys play baseball in Mr. Johnstone's field and basket ball back of the school-house.

As the ground is now favorable the boys are putting up new basket ball goals. The poles were furnished by Edmund Wolfgang.

Viva Hillock, Della Baird, Mrs. Pearl Baird, Mrs. Johnstone, Mr. Johnstone, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. A. Allen and Mrs. Hoard were visitors at school Monday afternoon.

There was a debate Monday at 3 p. m. Subject: "Resolved, That Panama Coast-wise Vessels Should Pay Toll." Affirmative—Leader, Harold Johnstone; Philip Faustman, Marguerite Robins, Russel Allen, Negative—Leader, Mamie Baird; Alfred Wolansky, Nial Bradford, Grace Hale. Judges were Rev. B. J. Young, Mrs. Barnes and Miss Hazel Way. The debate was decided in favor of the negative side.

"Wear out the Old First" seems to be the motto of Sumner township, as it has the distinction of having the oldest gate keepers at the recent election, their combined ages is 173 years. Don't go abroad for an extension of life, just keep hustling and you will be hale and hearty. These two men were Timothy Boardwell of Elm Hall, 89 years, and John Hammonree of Sumner, 84 years.

Richard Lang and Emma Carley of Elm Hall were married at the bride's home Thursday and arrived here Saturday evening. They were treated to an old-fashioned charivari by their townsmen. After a great deal of noise they were invited in the house and treated to cigars and candy, the company then dispersed wishing the newly married couple much happiness. Later the Grange went down in a body and were made welcome and treated to cigars and candy. They have the best wishes of their many friends.

The Alma Hotel is being repaired and shingled.
