On Saturday of this week Coach Helmer's pet will meet the strong M. A. C. aggregation at East Lansing, in what probably will be the hardest game of the present season.

The Farmers are as strong as last year, according to dope. Two weeks ago, Olivet fell before the Aggies by a larger score than they did last year, and the Crimson is thought to be at least as strong as a year ago.

Just what kind of a showing Alma will make cannot be estimated. It is almost a certainty that the Aggies will play hard against the Maroon and Cream.

This year Helmer's men are hoping to score more than two touchdowns. They may, and again they may not score any. Only next Saturday can give the result, and it will find the Alma team fighting hard, to do something noteworthy.

IS A STATE ROAD

The efforts of the Gratiot county board of supervisors, which started with the business men's association here, to get the road west from this city to be designated as a state road, has met with success, the Michigan state highway commissioner having sent notice to the Gratiot county board of supervisors to this effect.

The annual County Y. M. C. A. committee meeting was held in the directors' room of the First State Bank of Alma at 2:30 Sunday afternoon.

The outlook for this year's work is good and many more boys will be reached in the various branches of the work than last year.

With the interest of the boys have taken in agricultural club work it will be easy to double the number next spring. Some have all ready signed up.

The boys who attended the high school conference and rural leaders' conference at the state boys' camp (Hayo-Went-Ha) came back enthusiastic over it and will help interest a much larger number next year.

The question of having a county camp for the boys was favorably commented on. The present officers were all re-elected namely: Dr. M. G. Skinner, chairman; H. C. Moore, vice chairman, and Carl H. Washburn, secretary-treasurer.

The financial condition of the organization is good, and the committee feel that the work is well started. We hope with the help of our financial supporters, volunteer leaders and the guidance of God to help during the coming year, many a Gratiot, county boy may become nearer like the boy God would have him be.

THE THEATRE

The offering at the Idlehour for Friday of this week is one of unusual excellence. Blanche Sweet, who was seen here recently in "Judith of Bethulia," will appear in "The Secret Sin," a powerful drama in which Miss Sweet plays two characters, both appearing on the screen at the same time.

Saturday matinee and evening will bring the double-feature Triangle program with a five-reel feature, "Jordan is a Hard Road," and a most unusual comedy, "Fatty and the Broadway Star," featuring "Fatty" Arbuckle, Wiber & Fields, Sam Bernard and Willie Collier, an array of comedy talent never before gotten together to make one comedy subject.

Monday the Paramount program presents Mr. Edgar Selwyn in "The Arab." A special subject that has been booked in because the management of the Idlehour has seen it and knows it to be a wonder. Those who get out to see this picture will enjoy one of the reel treats of the season.

Tuesday, Blanche Ring, whose magnetic charm and infectious comedy has made her a footlight favorite, presents her great stage success, "The Yankee Girl." If you enjoy clean, high-class comedy drama don't miss this.

On Wednesday the Idlehour has booked another Triangle program such as has only been shown on Saturday in the past. The popularity of this program, providing a high-class feature and a high-class comedy, has been amply demonstrated on Saturday nights, and as the cost of this combined program is very much higher than the feature program usually given, it is necessary to charge a little more for it.
