"The Ne'er-Do-Well"

By Rex Beach, author of "The Spoilers"

The Idlehour
Thanksgiving Day

BEGINNING AT 3:00 O'CLOCK

A masterpiece providing two hours chuck full of the keenest enjoyment.

The greatest and most costly Special Feature ever shown in Alma.

"The Ne'er-Do-Well" is greater than "The Spoilers"; its flights of sweet romance are higher; its depth of dastardly intrigue are blacker—its action, its risks and dangers more thrilling.

You see the construction of the Great Panama Canal, intermingled with a beautiful story of love and romance.

No play of the year has met with such phenomenal success. It took New York, Chicago, Detroit and the large Eastern cities by storm.

Opinions of "The Ne'er-Do-Well" by those who know

"Better than 'The Spoilers'."—Brooklyn Eagle.

"Greater than the book."—Moving Picture World.

"One of the strongest pictures the screen has ever witnessed."—Dramatic Mirror.

"Not a scene could be cut in the entire ten reels."—N. Y. Telegraph.

"It is action—action—action all the way."—Motion Picture News.

"The biggest success we have had during the past year."—Eugene Roth, Portola Theatre, San Francisco.

"Packed to the doors with extra performances we filled two other theatres from our overflow. Greatest financial success in my entire history."—Jack Root, Strand Theatre, Pasadena, Cal.

"Broke all records in this city previously held by 'The Spoilers.'"—Modesto Theatre, Modesto, Cal.

"A worthy successor to 'The Spoilers.'"—New York Mail.

"THE NE'ER-DO-WELL" is destined for a long and prosperous run."—Billboard.

"The public praise this picture highly, and any picture that we can run for three weeks is above the average."—Clare's Auditorium, Los Angeles. (Capacity 3,000).
