MANY MEN RETURN

Among the 4,500 men of the 85th division which landed in New York Wednesday were several from Gratiot county, including four from Alma. One of the four is Alger H. Wood, the son of Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Wood, who has been mentioned as the coach at Alma college next year.

The list of men from this county who returned yesterday follows: Alger H. Wood of Alma, Roland T. Mayes of Alma, Raymond Lake of Alma, Louis C. Darmond of Alma, Elmer J. Hanna of St. Louis, Serg. Clyde Sallant of St. Louis, Glenn E. Coffin of Ithaca, Arthur J. Peters of Ithaca, and Edward D. Baker of St. Louis.

LARGE NUMBER REGISTERED

Alma's registration books show by far the largest number of people registered at the present time, that has ever appeared on the registration books of the city. There are 2,957 men registered here for the coming election and 1,901 women registered. This makes a total registration in Alma of 3,958.

As there is a great interest in the forthcoming election because of the beer and wine amendment and the city election, it is certain that Alma will have several hundred more votes cast this coming Monday, than have ever been counted before.
