Marguerite Clark —in— "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" The girl who was always trying to help her friends—and enemies too—will grip your heart from the screen as she clutched the hearts of millions who read the novel. Marguerite Clark fits "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" like a glove. You're bound to like her as "Lovely Mary." Also Mack Swain —in— "Ambrose Cup of Woe" Matinee 2:30 Children's Matinee 3:30 Evening 7:00-8:00 No advance in prices	Constance Talmadge —in— "Good Night, Paul" Generously sprinkled with thrills. A laugh in every foot of film— Five reels of wholesome comedy. —also— "A Misleading Lady"	Pauline Frederick —in— "The Woman on the Index" Who is she? What did she do? Why was she trailed? You will never know until you see Pauline Frederick in this, her first, Goldwyn picture. —also— Sennet Comedy "Beware of Boarders"	Dorothy Dalton —in— "Hard Boiled" The only thing "rubie" about Dorothy Dalton is her lips! Yet she settles down in a rube town. Why?—that's the picture. She surely does give the gossips something to chew on. Come and see her do it! —also— Final Chapter of "The Iron Test"	Wm. Desmond —in— "Deuce Duncan" His motto is "Shoot First and argue about it afterward." If you like good westerners see this. —also— Big V Comedy "Huns and Hyphens"	Tom Moore —in— "A Man and His Money" He wanted experience and got more than he bargained for. He became a valet to pet puppies—and all for a girl. —also— Billy Parsons —in— "A Pair of Pink Pajamas"

Thursday--Lina Cavalieri in "Two Brides" She thought he was trying to buy her like so much dry-goods, because she was an artist's model. But he wasn't. To convince her was the job though! and—
