Neck Broken—Herman Grewe of Clare received a broken neck in an automobile accident near Harrison, when he turned out for a truck, and his car turned turtle. He was removed to Harrison for treatment but no hope is held for his recovery.

Mrs. H. Holmes Injured—Mrs. Howard Holmes of Mt. Pleasant, a former resident of Alma, received three broken ribs and other bad injuries, when an automobile in which she and four others were driving went into a ditch near Ithaca, while the party of people was enroute home from St. Johns. Her recovery is expected.

Short of Quota—The Salvation Army Home Service Campaign in Clinton County has secured $1,075, or about one-third of the quota of the county.

Some Night Walker—If there are any medals to be given to night walkers, one certainly should be awarded to little six year old Florence Ryerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ryerson of Portland. Shortly after midnight the other night the little girl got out of her bed and walked three blocks in her sleep to the home of her grand-parents, entering their house by way of a window, climbing into the window by the aid of a washing machine. Her grand father hearing a noise investigated and found the tot asleep on a couch. She had no recollection the following day of the midnight escapade.

Largest Class—St. Johns High School graduated 45 seniors this year the largest class in the history of that school. President Crooks of Alma College gave the commencement address to the graduates.

Farmer Injured—Albert Biglow, farmer in Enreka township, Clinton county, suffered from a painful accident when he fell under a load of oats and corn that he was hauling. The wagon with its load weighed a ton and two wheels of the wagon passed over his body. He will recover.

To Visit Greenville—Denmark's highest church dignitary, the archbishop of Schellard, Bishop H. C. Ostentfelt, who will be in the United States soon is expected to visit in Greenville, an invitation having been extended to him by Montcalm County Lutherans.

New Filling Station—The Gratiot County Oil Company, which has its headquarters in Alma, has started the construction of a new filling station at the corner of Mill and Center streets in St. Louis.

Narrow Escape—Douglas, young son of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Kemp of St. Louis, had a narrow escape from drowning when he fell into the race there. His cries were heard by J. Carlson at the roller mills, who hurried to the rescue.

WHEELER RESIDENT DEAD

Mrs. Hannah Pomey, a well known resident of Wheeler township, died at the home of her son-in-law, Samuel Hackett, Saturday evening at the age of 78 years. She had been a resident of that township for a period of 55 years. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, at the M.E. church there, Rev. Beel officiating. Burial was held in the Breckenridge cemetery.

SOUTHEAST COE

"How We Cleared Our Summer Home of Rats," by Mrs. Perry.

"When we opened our seaside home last May, it was alive with rats. They'd gnawed all the upholstery. We cleaned them out in a week with RAT-SNAP. I prefer this rat killer because it comes in cake form, no mixing. Saves dirtying hands and plates."
