At a meeting held at the Union Mills, on Saturday, 26th of December, by a portion of the Union men of Cabarrus, Wm. M. Coleman was called to the Chair, and William T. Blume was appointed Secretary.

On motion, a committee of five were appointed to draft resolutions. The committee reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted. Whereas, Andrew Johnson has utterly failed to carry out the principles which he had previously declared should guide him in the performance of Executive functions, in the event of his elevation to the Presidency of the United States; and whereas, he has violated all his pledges and betrayed the Republican Union Party, in that, instead of "making treason odious," as he proclaimed he would do, he has done all in his power to make it respectable, and instead of making traitors take back seats, he has to the uttermost of his ability endeavored to thwart the wise designs of Congress in attempting to exclude disloyal men from offices of trust and responsibility; and whereas, he has set himself in opposition to the two-thirds of Congress, and to a vast majority of the loyal men of the nation; and whereas, by reason of the aid and comfort he has given to disloyal men, the governing power in North Carolina is still in the hands of men who rebelled against the rightful authority of the government, and in the hands of their friends and sympathizers: Therefore be it

1. Resolved, That North Carolina, by leaving war against the government of the United States, in its organic capacity as a State, has forfeited its right to the privileges of a State under the Constitution.

2. That being conquered on the appeal to arms, the district formerly comprising the State is necessarily reduced to the condition of a subjugated territory.

3. That the authority to re-create the State is exclusively vested in Congress.

4. That in the Constitutional amendment, known as the Howard amendment, we recognize a measure, wise, generous and just, and that its rejection by the assembly at Raleigh was prompted by a spirit of littleness towards the Union, and by the encouragement held out by Andrew Johnson.

5. That the security of the country imperatively demands that the disloyal be disfranchised and be rendered incapable of holding office, and that the control of the government both State and National, be entrusted to loyal men only.

6. That we rely upon Congress alone for putting into practical effect the principles embodied in the foregoing resolutions.

7. That a committee be appointed to draft a petition setting forth the grievances of the loyal men in the South, and praying Congress for a redress of the same.

8. That we heartily approve of the bill known as the Stevens' amendment, and see in it a wise measure for securing the government of life and property for loyal men, and of re-organizing the State on a sound basis.

9. That it is the sense of this meeting that the government of North Carolina ought to be re-organized; that we believe such re-organization necessary, and we urge that it be accomplished as speedily as possible.

10. That these resolutions, with the signatures attached, be forwarded to Congress in lieu of the petition recommended in Resolution 9.

11. That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the North Carolina Standard.

WM. T. BLUME, Esq., Chairman.
NICHOLAS COOK,
JACOB CARROLL,
ALLISON PINK,
JOSEPH COOK, Committee.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted; whereupon the meeting adjourned.

WM. M. COLEMAN, Chairman.
WM. T. BLUME, Sec'y.

Messrs. Editors: Having visited a Union meeting of the citizens of Davidson County, on the 26th inst., I was very much elated to find that there was but one sentiment prevailing (the Union). The meeting was addressed by Messrs. Adams and Henderson in a very appropriate style. The subject of their discourse was the Union, the Constitution and the laws enacted by Congress. Mr. Adams said the meeting was not intended for public debate, but for the securing of peace he was compelled to address the meeting. As he had been informed by particular friends, that a certain gentleman (F. R.) came here for the express purpose of ascertaining some particular point, he attempted to reply to Messrs. Adams and Henderson, but met with a very cool reception. The assembly was unanimous for the Union. They are desirous of getting back into the Union upon the best terms possible. They think it is the duty of our Legislature to accept such terms as Congress may impose upon the people of North Carolina, as it is the only method of regaining our relation to the federal government, and until they do comply with those measures, they may expect nothing but taxation without representation. But our latter-day war spirit tells us not to accept those terms which have been offered to us, for we as an honored and brave people will disgrace ourselves, but we, as the Union people of Davidson are determined to show the people of the State that we are not to accept those terms that they have thus far presented to us, for we think they are constitutional in every sense of the word. They are repeatedly told that if we accept of those terms, we shall be reinstated to the federal Union which was handed down by our great ancestors, and once more breathe the air of freedom, and with that glorious old "Star Spangled Banner" as our guide, we can march on to the road to prosperity and rejoicing. Yours truly, R. D. Lexington, Jan. 28th, 1867.

Since Mr. Jerome donated five thousand dollars to Princeton College, with the interest of which annually the donor desired a medal to be purchased for presentation to the first gentleman of the graduating class; the question arises what constitutes a gentleman? The best definition of a gentleman that we have ever met with is this: "Truthful in all things, deeming others equal to himself"—or as the bard hath it—"Tis not vocation makes the gentleman, but what?"

"Tis not vocation makes the gentleman, but what?"

"Tis not vocation makes the gentleman, but what?"

"Tis not vocation makes the gentleman, but what?"

"Tis not vocation makes the gentleman, but what?"

"Tis not vocation makes the gentleman, but what?"

REASON WHY THE AMERICAN WATCH Made at WALTHAM, MASSACHUSETTS, is so much used.

It is made on the best principle. Its frame is composed of SOLID PLATES. Nor can it interfere with the harmony of its working and no sudden shock can damage its machinery. Every piece is made and finished by machinery (itself famous for its novelty, as well as for its effectiveness) and is therefore properly made. The watch is what all mechanical men should have—ACCURATE, SIMPLE, STRONG and ECONOMICAL. Except some high grades, too costly for general use, foreign watches are chiefly made by women and boys. Such watches are composed of several hundred pieces, screwed and riveted together, and require constant repairs to keep them in any kind of order. Persons who have cared and "sawed" "legions" and "English Patent Watches" are perfectly well aware of the truth of this statement.

At the beginning of our enterprise more than ten years ago, it was our first object to make a thoroughly good low priced watch for the million, to take the place of these foreign imitations; the refusal of foreign factories, which were entirely unsuitable at home and perfectly worthless elsewhere.

Now well we have accomplished this, may be understood from the fact that so many years of public trial, we now make MORE THAN HALF OF ALL THE WATCHES SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES, and that no others have ever given such universal satisfaction. While this department of our business is continued with increased facilities for perfect work, we are at present engaged in the manufacture of watches of the very HIGHEST GRADE KNOWN TO CHRONOMETRY, unequalled by anything hitherto made by ourselves, and unsurpassed by anything made in the world. For this purpose we have the amplest facilities. We have erected an addition to our main building expressly for this branch of our business, and have fitted it with the best workmen in our service. New machines and appliances have been constructed which perform their work with consummate delicacy and exactness. The choicest and most approved materials only are used, and we challenge comparison between this grade of our work and the finest imported chronometers. We do not pretend to sell our watches for LESS MONEY than foreign watches, but we do assert without fear of contradiction that for the SAME MONEY our product is incomparably superior. All our watches, of whatever grade, are fully warranted, and this warrant is good at all times against us or our agents in all parts of the world.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of responsible dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.
