or Rebel Meeting, held in Raleigh 27th September, 1867.

Resolved. That the Conservative men of Wake County, claiming to be truly loyal to the Government of the United States, feel called upon to declare our unwavering devotion to the fundamental principles of American liberty, as embodied in the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence of May 20th, 1775, the Declaration of American Independence of July 4th, 1776, and in the Consti-tution of the United States.

Resolved, That the will of the people, as expressed in the "Constitution of the United States and the laws," we hold to be "the supreme law of the land. Resolved. That we deem it unwise, wicked and unjust for the State of North-Carolina to pass any law organic or statutory, disfranchising, proscribing or confiscating the property of any of her citizens for past polit-

Resolved, That the unmistakable developments of a vindictive and persecuting spirit in the speeches and doings of a majority of the delegates to the Radical Convention in this City, towards the body of the white people of this State, call for the unanimous efforts of all truly Conservative men of all classes, whether white or black, to endeavor to check the progress of that spirit, and to defeat the aims of bad men among us, who seek to destroy the peace of our people, to stir up strife between the whites and blacks. and to maugurate a state of things in North-Carolina, which must effectually prevent immigration, check the investment of capital, destroy confidence in all business enterprise, and diminish largely the sources of employment to our large laboring population.

Resolved. That our movement is not partisan in its character-that it has no connection with National politics or either of the great National parties, nor is it designed to form a White man's party, but originates in the spontaneous uprising of the Conservative men of the State, of all shades of political opinion, for the one object of ward ing off the dangers which threaten us from the success of the ultra Republican or Radical party in this State; and we hail, as a hopeful indication, the manly and more moderate stand taken in the aforesaid Radical Convention by the calm and moderate Republicans of that body, as well as the dignified and manly positions since taken by Daniel R. Goodloe, Esq., of the Register, and his coadintors.

Resolved, That we will support no man for the approaching State Convention, to draw up a new Constitution, who is not pledged to oppose and defeat, by all legitimate means, any attempt to incorporate into the Constitution the proscriptive and vindictive measures of the ultra Radicals of this

Resolved, That we urge upon all Conservative men, of all classes and all shades of opinion in the State, to hold precinct and County meetings, for the purpose of concentrating their influence in effecting this object; and we call upon our fellow citizens of this County to hold precinct meetings in their several registration precincts, for the purpose of expressing their views and uniting with us in a Mass Meeting in this City, to be held on Saturday, the 12th of October

"The orders of Gen. Sickles, forbidding our Courts to exercise laws which have existed with us and our ancestors for many hundred years, in the face of the previous proclamation of the President, declaring that civil law existed in all the States which had engaged in the late rebellion, astounded the

My mission to Washington touching this encroachment on the right of the State to administer her laws, not pretended to be inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, and other imperative administrative duties since my return, have engrossed my attention and left me no time to prepare an address suitable for the occasion. This order of a military officer, asserting, in effect, his right to annul such of our laws as he may deem unwise, is suspended by order of the President. This arbitrary step is scarcely arrested, when a measure is proposed by Congress, looking to the sanction of this military supremacy over our laws.

In the midst of the progress of these events we are astounded by a proposition originated by North-Carolinians, and brought before Congress under auspices calculated to alarm us, that North-Carolina, one of the original thirteen, is no longer a State, but a territory of the United States. The scheme proposes that a new Convention be called, the members of which are to be elected by voters with qualifications prescribed by Congress, including negroes, excluded from voting by our Constitution .-This Convention, thus elected, is to frame a new Constitution for the District formerly known as the State of North-Carolina. The Constitution, when formed, is to be approved, not by the people, who are to live under it, but by Congress of the United States, with the power in the Congress to approve, modify, or reject the same; and with a test oath framed with apparent intent to reverse the principle, that the majority of the people It is remarkable that the avowed and prominent projectors of this scheme were distinguished actors in the origination of the present State government, and have sought, or hold office under it. Under these circumstances, I assume, by the choice of my countrymen, the painfully responsible duties of Governor of the State, without time, in carefully considered commentary, to review these revolutionary move-

I ardently desire, independent of my official oath, to maintain and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of North-Carolina, and cannot, therefore, assent to any scheme of compromise based on the idea that North-Carolina is not a State of the American Union; nor to any scheme of amending the original com-pact, which the State shall have no hand in

Let us not despair. We still have the Constitution, which, in the language of the great and good Gaston, "with all its pretended defects and all its alleged violations, has conferred more benefit on man than ever yet flowed from any other institution, and which under God, if we be true to ourselves, will insure the blessings of liberty to us and our posterity." If this temple of liberty, is to be destroyed, I pray that North-Carolina may have no hand in this act of vandalism. Let us in our forlorn condition emulate the example of the present chief magistrate of the nation, who, amidst the tempests of fury which assail him, firmly steers the ship of State by this chart of our liberties, and is thus inscribing his name high on the temple

Extract from a letter recently written by Hon. William A. Graham to a citizen of Arkansas.

"The situation of the States of the South, to which you allude, is indeed melancholy We are realizing the truth of the declaration of Mr. Fox, that "the most dangerous of all revolutions is a restoration." The idea of distraining the States by military domination, into the adoption of constitutions for local governments, with the right of suffrage extended to negroes, without any qualifica-tion, except being of the male sex and over 21 years of age, and by the Howard amend ment to the constitution of the United States has just been announced here, and includes and stripes, the emblem of peace and happione negro to two white men generally throughout the State. When the whole series of steps in the process of "reconstruction," as it is called, shall have been contemplated, I think the people, wherever they constitute majorities, will find it to their interest to vote against conventions for the objects in view, and bear with the reign of military governments until another appeal can be made to public opinion at the North, and especially in the Northwest."

1867. According to previous notice, a large portion of the people of Hyde County, irrespective of race or color, met at Swan Quarter and organized by calling Dr. Andrew J. Glover to the Chair, with Frederick McElvain and Martin Credle, Esq's., colored, as Vice Presidents. The Chair appointed Linden E. Swindle and William Hodges, Esq's., white, as Secretaries.

On motion, a committee of five was anpointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, consisting of William B. Tooley, E. H. Gurkins and Thomas Newby, whites, and Francis Whitney and Haywood D. Dudley, colored. The committee retired and after a short time, returned and reported through their Chairman,

1. Resolved. That we recognize the hand of a merciful Providence in the changes which have been wrought in the land, and we invoke this assistance and direction in the work now devolving upon us, and pray Him to bestow upon us and our whole country, his favor and blessings. 2. That we are pleased with the acts of Congress to reconstruct the Southern States, and we are ready and willing as loval citi zens to do all in our power to give effect to those acts, but we feel bound to say from observation and experience, that it is necessary in order to secure the reconstruction of this State on a thoroughly loyal basis, that the existing rebel State organizations should be abolished.

3. That we hold that this government ought to be administered by loyal men, and loyal men only; and we believe that in a government founded on Liberty, justice and equality should be secured to all its citizens right; that class proscriptions are opposed to the spirit of free institutions, and inconsistent with a Republican form of gov-

4. That we detest and hold as unworthy of Republican or Union man, the man or men, that would seek to divide the loval people at this time, or become the willing tools" of disloyalists for the sake of office 5. That our thanks are due to the Union Congressional Committee, and the State Executive Committee, for their efforts to reconcile our people to true loyalty, by sending able speakers and papers among us. sent to the Union Congressional Committee. also a copy be sent to the Raleigh Standard for publication.

Mr. H. D. Dudley made a few remarks, after which, he introduced to the audience, Mr. A. Jones and J. R. Ballard, both color ed gentlemen from Philadelphia. Mr. Jones then proceeded to address the assemblage, and tendered his counsel and advice to his colored friends on the important topics and issues of the day, entertaining them for one hour, and then Mr. Ballard addressed the assemblage, remarking upon the great task that was upon the colored people by the changed condition of affairs at the South. It was natural and proper that they should seek and go with those whom they knew to be true and loyal during the war, and particularly with those whom they knew to be friends, and competent to instruct them, but warned them to watch their enemics-vote for none but true Republicans, &c., after which the resolutions were adopt-

There being no further business, it was moved and seconded that Dr. A. J. Glover be the candidate for the Convention, which was unanimously carried. After tendering his thanks &c.

On motion, the meeting adjoorned. ANDREW J. GLOVER, President.

For the Standard. REPUBLICAN MEETING IN IREDELL COUNTY. On Saturday the 14th of Sept., 1867, a goodly number of the loyal people of Iredell, met at Old Lebanon, ten miles north of On motion, J. G. Sloan was appointed Chairman, Robert Johnson, Jery Boles, Burges White, Williamson Johnson, Milton Templeton, Jeremiah Sloan, and John Me-Cleland, a committee to draft resolutions, and J. M. Shaver, Secretary. Wm. F. Gray then arose and addressed the audience about an hour and a half. He spoke in high terms of General Sickles for prohibing the meeting of the Legislature. He also spoke in high terms of the Heroes of America and Union League, and cautioned them to be careful how they cast their votes in the approaching election. In short, he made an excellent speech notwithstanding he was interrupted by a group of unprincipled, ungenteel, unintelligent, infamous rebels.

We feel very safe in saying to the loyal people of Iredell, when the time comes to east your votes, if Wm. F. Gray is in the field, cast your votes on him, for he is the boldest defender of the rights of Republicans that we have in the County. He is a perfect giant in the cause.

The following resolutions were then presented and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, We as a loyal body were opposed to the late rebellion and dissolution of this once glorious and happy government, and always looked upon treason as the most villainous and infamous of crimes; that we hold and still hold that the government of the United States, is and ever has been, our best protector and supporter, and as we were and are still denounced as tories and traitors to our country by rebels; therefore, be it

1. Resolved, That as a loyal and law-abiding people, we are not willing that any man who voluntarily engaged in the rebellion should rule over us or have any hand in rebuilding the government of the United States or of this State. 2. That we do not acknowledge that the term tory is in any wise applicable to us, but as the word is applicable to a person that advocates a kingly power, we think that the rebels are the very identical persons, and as a proof that they favor a usurpation, we call attention first, to conscription; secondly, to and speaker, with, perhaps, a reporter from the twenty negro law, and thirdly, to the tithing law, the most corrupt thing the world bas ever produced, demanding the tenth part of the poor woman's hard earnings while her husband was away from home fighting for the so-called Confederacy. 3. That we have lost all hope and confidence in obtaining justice at the hands of our present leading men in power in this State, for we believe that a majority of our leading men are more disloyal now than during the rebellion, and we are not willing to be governed by men who have looked on us with contempt and sneered at us with disgust for the last seven years.

creat monster tyrant that filled so many houses with mourning and caused so many tears, and widows and orphans, to wit: contion came along, had courage enough to ise to obey, and did not go to old Jeff's call, but crossed the mountains through dangers thick and thin, joined the federal army, and were instrumental in the hands of an All-Wise Being in bringing back the old stars

5. That in our judgment these men have made to themselves a name that will carry them above all the taunts that may be thrown at them by rebels, by calling them tories, horse thieves, &c., and that they have reared to themselves a monument as lasting. as the Union itself.

6. That although the war has resulted in a great loss of property to the rebels, and the Union men not exempted, we are not responsible for one dollar of it, but that the rebels are responsible for every dollar that has been sacrificed and every life that has been lost, and every tear that has been shed, both North and South.

7. That notwithstanding the original secessionist are the men that made the first moves in the direction of freeing the negro, they are not entitled to one particle of the honor, from the fact that they intended to establish a government of their own in which the colored race and the poor white people were to be slaves forever.

8. That we look upon Abraham Lincoln as having been one of the greatest men the world has ever produced, from the fact that he advanced steadily from one degree of fame to another, until he at last, as it were, with one single stroke of the pen raised four millions of human beings from the worst state of degradation the world has ever

9. That we heartily approve of the wise course pursued by the 40th Congress, and cheerfully submit to that body as the ruling power of the nation, and that we look to that body only for relief and protection.

10. That we desire as soon as practicable all offices held by rebels be vacated, so that none but loyal men be permitted to participate in the reconstruction of this State and in its return to the United States.

11. That we are firmly resolved not to cease in our efforts until we have thoroughly eradicated-the elements of disloyalty from our good old State.

12. That we fully endorse every article in the Republican platform adopted at Raleigh, March the 27th, 1867, and that we will not support any man, white or black, for any office who does not stand fairly and squarely on its principles. 13. That we regard the Raleigh Standard as being among the most safe and reliable Republican papers in our State. 14. That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the Standard for publication, with a request that other Republican papers

Fellow-Citizens :- As one of the representatives of the Republican party of North-Carolina, being a member of the State Executive Committee for the 5th Congressional District, I take this opportunity to address you a short letter, upon matters of the greatest importance to your future welfare.

We, fellow-citizens, have been newly enfranchised, and it is our duty to stand by the friends of the United States government who are the loyal people in North-Carolina. Without regard to race or color these loval people have formed a party, known as the Republican party. It is pledged to stand by the great principles of Union, Liberty, Justice and Equality. The man that oppses this party, opposes these principles, and cannot be trusted by you, for he is no friend to the government, the loyal white or the Therefore, I appeal to you to stand up as one man upon the platform of the Republican party. I know that you have done so in the past, but now the time of all the most important is approaching, and you cannot be too firm in defending your rights, or too cautious in avoiding the snares of the enemy. Fellow-citizens, we are charged with being in favor of confiscation. Where is the proof? Let it be shown. For one I can say that I am not in favor of confiscation, and no man can prove the assertion to be false. I am an humble man in many respects, no doubt, but it is my desire to do right, and see you do right and become more and more happy every day. Let us unite then for this purpose more closely. Shoulder to shoulder let us all march under the banner of the Republican party, and carry our State back to the Union, where the rights of every man are respected and all are protected by equal laws

LOYAL UNION CONSERVATIVE MEETING.

Goldsboro', Oct. First (N. B. 1st.) 1867. MESSRS. EDITORS.—The Loyal (?) Union ?) conservatives of Wayne county, to the amazing number of some ten or twelvehalf a score or a dozen-for I think the igure, exaggeration and amplification may be very legitimately introduced-remained in the Court house after the court took recess at twelve o'clock, to take up the unfinished business of 25th ult. On going into the Court house I saw Dr. Adam C. Davis in the presiding officer's seat, two or three in the Secretary's place, and Wm. G. Morrissy delivering a sort of peripatetic lecture on some sort of political hybrid of a Connecticut Democrat and Southern secessionist .-And Saml. Carrow who, on his way to Raleigh, stepped in, most solemnly assures me that the animal cannot live. But be this as it may, the admirers of "my policy" were, as I stated on last Wednesday, few; and to-day they were beautifully less. If it be called-as such manifestations sometimes are—the ghost of a meeting, I can only say there was nothing by any means appalling in its ghostship. The Dr. is a very respecta-ble looking presiding officer, and Mr. Morrissey a pleasant, very pleasant talker indeed. His pleasantries are (perhaps designedly) so pointless that they cannot give even impingent annoyance to any; and as his audience did not comprise many units above zero, i. e. 'twas not large enough to get up a laugh, Mr. M. did not seem to receive much And now as to the Star's report of the

On motion, Col. John T. Deweese, of Wake, was unanimonsly appointed Secretary to the Committee. On motion, the Chairman appointed committee consisting of Messrs. Howell and Harris, to wait on Daniel R. Goodloe, Esq., and respectfully inquire of him if it was his purpose to act as a member of the State Committee. The committee performed this duty, and reported that Mr. Goodloe informed them that he declined to act. Whereupon, on motion, Dr. Eugene Grissom, of the County of Granville, was unanimously chosen to fill the vacancy thus occasioned in the

The following resolutions, offered by Hon-A. H. Jones, of Buncombe, were considered, discussed, and quanimously adopted:

1. Resolved, That in accordance with the plan of organization adopted by the late Convention, the following Committees be appointed to act for their respective Counties. That in the absence of further informa tion as to suitable persons to be appointed for other Counties, the Committee will not proceed at present beyond these appointments; but that the Republicans of the various Counties are hereby respectfully requested to designate, ir conventions or public meetings, suitable persons for said Committees, and to transmit the names to the Chairman of the Republican State Committee at Raleigh, to be announced as such. 2. Resolved, That "all political power is ted in and derived from the people only. ty, fidelity and capability, should be the test for office among Republicans: that any other test would be unwise and anti-Republican in its character; and that we will not encourage any expressions or conduct calculated or intended to excite one portion of our people against another, on account of nativity or color. Every citizen of the State who is loyal, and whose devotion to the nation is paramount, is entitled, so far as the reconstruction acts will permit to the support of Republicans for places of honor and trust; and we would profoundly deprecate any steps that would array race against race, our adopted fellow-citizens against natives, or the latter against our adopted fellow-citizens.

5. Resolved, That we earnestly appeal to our Republican fellow-citizens throughout the State to preserve their organization, and to be diligent, zealous and active in the great work of reconstructing and restoring the State to the Union on a loyal basis.

6. Resolved, That the whole question of reconstruction, including confiscation and relief from political disabilities, is in the hands of a wise and patriotic Congress; that we have full confidence in that body, and believe that, in all respects, it will do what is best for our people and for the preservation of American liberty. 7. Resolved, That in the opinion of this Committee, it is not the wish of Congress or of the Republican party that private property should be confiscated for political offences; but that, to avert such a result in the future, as well as to secure to our people the innumerable benefits and blessings of the Union, it is highly important that they avail themselves promptly and in good faith of the reconstruction acts of Congress. And further, that in the opinion of this Committee, it is not the purpose of Congress to continue beyond a safe and proper period he disabilities unavoidably imposed on loyal Union men, but that it is believed such disabilities should be and will be removed in due time, from all who may be clearly and unmistakably shown to possess the confidence of the Republican party of the State. To the Voters of the United States. In this hour of National Reconstruction, ve appeal to good men of all parties, to Conventions for amending State Constitutions to the Legislature of every State, and to the Congress of the United States, to apply the principles of the Declaration of Independence to Women. Governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed." only form of consent recognized under a Republic is Suffrage. Mere tacit acquiescence is not consent; if it were, every despotism might claim that its power is justly held. Suffrage is the right of every adult Citizen, irrespective of Sex or Color. Women are governed: therefore they are rightfully entitled to vote. The problem of American statesmanship is, how to incorporate in our institutions guarantee of the rights of every Individual. The solution is easy. Base government on the consent of the governed, and each class will protect itself.

COLONEL FORNEY'S LETTERS FROM inquiries and requests respecting the publication of the above letters in a collective form, we have again to state that they will be issued in a handsome 12mo volume of about five hundred pages, with portrait finely engraved on steel, and index, by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, of this city. In the course of next month this publication will take place. The correspondence gives the author's impressions of various countries which he visited during an European tour of several months, with observations upon society, politics, amusements, manufactures educational and religious institutions in England, France, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, and Holland. The variety of these letters may be judged from the fact that they were written from London, Liverpool, Oxford, Windsor, Halifax, Stratfordupon-Avon, Chester, Paris, Berne, Lake Leman. Baden-Baden, Heidelburg, Wiesbaden, On the Rhine, Coblentz, Brussels, Antwerp, and and the Hague.-Phil. Press.

An Irishman being in an up town church, where the collection apparatus resembled an election box, on its being passed to him, whispered in the carrier's ear that he was not naturalized, and could not vote, but he was ready to make a speech.
