Documents for the People. A friend writes us from a County west of this, expressing his warm approval of the recent appeal in this paper to the Workingmen of the State, and suggesting a general circulation of this appeal. We have printed this appeal in pamphlet form for distribution, gratis. Send in your orders, friends, and the pamphlets will be forwarded at once.

PUBLIC SPEAKING .- We are requested to state that Capt. J. Q. DeCarteret, by request, will address the people at Nat Jones' STGAR! on Tuesday next, in behalf of the nominees COFFEE! of the Union Constitutional Convention .-Time will be divided with any gentleman of 95 BARRELS SUGAR, A., B., C., P. R. the opposition who may attend. - Progress.

We learn that this "amnestied hero"—as he is styled by his organ, the Progress-will be replied to by Mr. Booker Hutchings on the part of "the opposition." Mr. Hutchings cooled Mr. Bledsoe down not long since, at Morrisville, and it is believed he can do the same for this corn-stalk Captain.

The leading Rebels promised in 1865 to submit in good faith to the national authority, and take such terms as the nation might give them. But now they demand their own terms. They thus stand convicted before the world for both treason and lying. Pass this fact round among the people.

A vote against a Convention is a vote for slavery. The colored man who does not IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF vote for a Convention, and for Republicans as For the Albemaric District In Bankruptcy. chegates, consents to put the shackles again on his own limbs.

The Rebel leaders of Wake County have nominated the following ticket for the Convention: Daniel G. Fowle, Bennett T. Blake, P. H. Mangum, Jesse A. Norris. It is rumored, however, that Mr. Mangum declines. The loyal men will soon have their ticket before the people, and there is no doubt that they will sweep the County by a large majority.

For the Standard. MESSES, EDITORS: William T. Blume, Esq., has been regularly nominated by the Republican Convention of Cabarrus County for the Constitutional Convention. Mr. Blume's sterling integrity and untaltering Republicanism gave him the nomination without a single dissenting voice. With perfect harmony among ourselves, the colored vote a unit, and in a County which gave Holden a majority over Worth, Mr. Blume's majority over the disunionists will be overwhelming.

> ---The Papal Power in Peril.

The Garibaldians continue to cross the frontier. The telegraph is cut and Rome is isolated from the world. Spain has decided to join any action of the Catholic powers in favor of the Pope. Victor Emanuel has issued a proclamation denouncing Garibaldi and declaring that the French policy meets the views of the Italian Government. The Pope has left the Vatican and sought refuge in Castle St. Angelo.

CHARLESTON, Oct. 31. A conservative convention to take action in behalf of the white population of this State, has been called to meet in Columbia on the 6th of November.
