REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Resolutions adopted by the Republicans of North-Carolina, at a Convention held in Raleigh, 27th March, 1867:

Having assembled in the City of Raleigh on the 27th of March, 1867, in conformity with a timely and patriotic call, reflecting the sentiments of the loyal men of the State, and believing the time is at hand when an open and fearless expression of sentiment, opinion, and purpose is urgently demanded, do hereby:

1. Resolved, That in view of our present political condition, our relations to the National Government, and the people of all sections of the country, we do this day with proud satisfaction reaffirm the brilliant and glorious banner of 'True Republicanism,' and that we are equally true and patriotic men in the State to rally to its support.

2. Resolved, That we hereby renew our expressions of admiration and gratitude toward the resolute and patriotic majority of the Congress of the United States; especially do we emphatically approve of the noble stand recently taken by the House of Representatives, in maintaining the rights and liberties of the people against the encroachments and flagrant assumptions of a corrupt and unscrupulous President.

3. Resolved, That we hereby endorse the efforts of the Republican Party, in its present organization, to secure the re-election of President Grant, and to place the stigma and ban of social ostracism upon thousands of patriotic Southern white men, who have manifested manliness and courage to stand firmly by the Republican Party, in its just regard for narrow, reckless and vindictive, and well calculated to excite the content of every honorable man.

4. Resolved, That we hereby endorse the efforts of the Republican Party, in its present organization, to secure the re-election of President Grant, and to place the stigma and ban of social ostracism upon thousands of patriotic Southern white men, who have manifested manliness and courage to stand firmly by the Republican Party, in its just regard for narrow, reckless and vindictive, and well calculated to excite the content of every honorable man.

5. Resolved, That we hereby endorse the efforts of the Republican Party, in its present organization, to secure the re-election of President Grant, and to place the stigma and ban of social ostracism upon thousands of patriotic Southern white men, who have manifested manliness and courage to stand firmly by the Republican Party, in its just regard for narrow, reckless and vindictive, and well calculated to excite the content of every honorable man.
