

IMPORTANT NEWS FROM LIMA.

The Unhappy Salaverry defeated and taken prisoner. By a letter from our correspondent at Payta, March 21, 1836, we have the important information that the civil war in Lima has terminated by a pitched battle, Feb. 7th, on the heights of "Alto de la Lima" near Arequipa, in which the army of Salaverry was completely routed, and he taken prisoner while attempting to make his escape to Islay, on the sea coast, where his vessels of war were assembled. He had 25,000 men, while Santa Cruz numbered 6,000 composed of Peruvians and Bolivians. The battle lasted 7 days, when Salaverry, after repeatedly repulsing the assaults of Santa Cruz was ultimately compelled to yield, from fatigue and exhaustion to an overwhelming force. Our correspondent adds "the slaughter is said to have been terrible, and the field was covered with headless trunks, the dying and the dead." Santa Cruz acknowledges a loss of 600 men.

On the 18th of February, Salaverry, together with his Generals and Colonels Fernandez, Picoaga, Moya, Cardenas, and five others were shot. The officers suffered first, and when Salaverry was brought out to have the bandage placed on his eyes he disdainfully refused, saying "I can look my murderers in the face, for fear is no part of my composition." We may admire the courage but must despise the cruelty, and rejoice in the fate of this wretched tyrant. He expressed a wish to be shot by a guard of his own countrymen, which was complied with. This so-called "Napoleon of South America" then carried out the farce still further, but very inappropriately by imitating that great captain at Grenoble, and saying, "If you will kill your General—fire!" which they did. Eighty more of his officers were sentenced to hard labour, in chains, for three years on the public works of Peru. Among which, will be a splendid bridge near Arequipa, which Salaverry blew up in the course of the action. It is hoped this punishment, thus for the first time established, will have a salutary effect in suppressing the frequent and bloody insurrections which have desolated that country and destroyed its bright prospects—to say nothing of the injurious consequences to America commerce.

We learn from St. Louis, that on Thursday last, a coloured man was arrested on board a boat, by a deputy sheriff and constable; that another coloured man assisted him to escape from the officers, whom they immediately arrested, when he killed the sheriff upon the spot, and so badly wounded the constable that he was not expected to live. The negro was then secured and committed to prison, but the people assembled in great force, with the determination of tearing down the prison, if he was not given up to them.

He was delivered to the mob, who conveyed him to the outskirts of the city, placed a chain round his neck and a rope round his body, and fastened him to a tree a few feet from the ground, when they then placed fire round the tree and literally roasted him alive! His shrieks were most awful during the performance of this terrific tragedy.

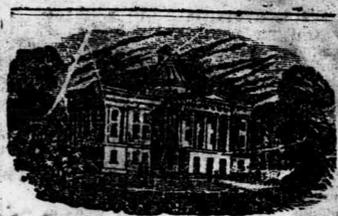

Supposed Bank Robber Arrested.—We learn that Mr. Bicknell, of this city, was on Friday instrumental in arresting a person supposed to have been concerned in the recent robbery of the Merchants' and Manufacturers Bank of Pittsburgh. On entering his office in the morning, he was informed by one of his clerks that a man had been in with some Ohio paper, which he wished to exchange. He was requested to call again and did so a short time after. He asked the price of exchanging the notes of the Belmont Bank of St. Clairsville, and agreed to exchange notes to the amount of $250. Mr. Bicknell immediately suspected him, and gave him a check for the money,—but before it was paid, informed the Mayor of the circumstances. He was immediately arrested, underwent an examination, after which he was committed. It is believed a large portion of the stolen money will be recovered.

The Hon. R. J. MANNING, a member of congress from South Carolina, died suddenly in Philadelphia on Saturday last. The melancholy intelligence was announced to the House of Representatives on Thursday last, by his colleague Mr. PICKENS, in a feeling and eloquent manner, after which the House adjourned immediately. Col. Manning was one of the only two Union men returned to Congress from South Carolina, and stood deservedly high in the estimation of his constituents and the public.

Extract of a Letter from Mississippi, April 17. "Democracy must and will triumph in Mississippi. The vile slanders against Mr. Van Buren are daily becoming better understood by the People. They will answer the charges of Abolitionists, and an enemy to the South, at the Polls in the Fall, by giving him the vote of the State with a handsome majority."

We learn from the Mississippi, that Mr. James M' Raven, sen., a decided opponent of Plummer and Poindexter, and a firm democrat, has just been elected to the Senate to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Col. Grimball, by a large majority. What a commentary upon the alleged violation of the will of his constituents, by Judge Nicholson.

Mississippi Free Trader. DEATH OF THE GOVERNOR OF DELAWARE.—Caleb P. Bennett, Governor of the State of Delaware, died on Saturday evening last, at his residence in Wilmington. He was 78 years of age. The duties of the office will devolve upon Charles Polk, Speaker of the Senate and formerly Governor of the State.

THE STANDARD, RALEIGH: THURSDAY, MAY 19, 1836.

THE PEOPLE against THE BANK. Martin Van Buren, for President. Richard M. Johnson, for Vice President. Richard D. Spaight, for Governor.

The absence of the Editor, we hope, will be a sufficient apology for the want of Editorial matter until his return.

"Vindex," No. 6, has been received, and we are sorry that its length precludes its appearance this week, we will give it a place in our next.

MILITARY.—At a recent court Martial held in this place, composed of the officers of the 35th Regiment of Militia, the following appointments were made, viz:

D. L. Crenshaw, Col. Commandant. Wm. A. Williams, Lieut. Colonel. L. B. Johnson, Major. T. W. usbee, Adjutant.

CHATHAM COUNTY.—The following nominations have been made for members of the next General Assembly: VAN BUREN.—Senate—Joseph Ramsay. Commons—R. C. Cotten, Edward Rives, and Abr'm G. Keam. WHITE.—Senate—Wm. Albright. Commons—John S. Guthrie, Spencer McClannahan, and Isaac Clegg.

LINCOLN COUNTY.—Michael Reinhardt, in the Senate; Henry Causler, Michael Hoke, Thomas Ward, and Oliver W. Holland, in the Commons, are the Republican Candidates for the next General Assembly. There is but little doubt but the entire Republican ticket will succeed in this county.

TEXAS.—The news from Texas, which will be found in another column, will be read with pleasure by the friends of freedom in every country. We sincerely hope the accounts given may be correct, and that in a few days, we may not only hear of its confirmation, but also of the defeat of the remaining Mexican Army in Texas.

Virginia.—Full returns have been received from the elections in this State, and the result is highly favorable to the cause of democracy; indeed it is almost beyond the most sanguine expectations of the republican party. The majority in the next Legislature, will exceed that of the last by at least four, on joint ballot.

The Prospect.—Although it is now morally certain that the candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, nominated by the democratic party through their delegates in the Baltimore Convention, will receive a triumphant and most overwhelming majority of the popular votes at the next election, the federal editors are endeavoring to raise the desponding hopes and cheer the drooping spirits of their partisans, by representing the case to be at least somewhat doubtful. At it is really amusing to notice the shifts employed to this effect.

The little town of Auburn in New York happens to elect federal supervisors—and straightway the "empire State" is safe for Harrison. Some insignificant hamlet in Pennsylvania makes choice of a federal inspector—and forthwith the patriotic "keys-one" is mortgaged to the petticoat hero. One of the counties in Virginia is carried by the meagre plurality of half a dozen votes—and no stronger evidence is wanted that the "Old Dominion" has forever abandoned Van Burenism and joined her fortunes to the triangular coalition of White, Harrison, and Webster.

Now, there is not even a shadow of probability, in the opinion of those best acquainted with the strength of political parties, that either of the three great States named will be found in opposition to the democracy of the Union at the next Presidential canvass. The federal editors know this—and they know, too, that Mr. Van Buren's election by the electoral colleges next December is as inevitably certain, as any event that has not yet transpired can be—he is the man whom the people delight to honor, and, maugre the efforts of the disappointed, ambitious and unprincipled combination to prevent it, he will be elevated to the first office within the people's gift. Those who choose to rely on the federal papers for correct information as to the aspect of the political horizon, will ere long be taught as in '32, that they have been leaning on a "broken staff."

DEATH OF THE GOVERNOR OF DELAWARE.—Caleb P. Bennett, Governor of the State of Delaware, died on Saturday evening last, at his residence in Wilmington. He was 78 years of age. The duties of the office will devolve upon Charles Polk, Speaker of the Senate and formerly Governor of the State.

GOV. SPAIGHT.

The Governor of North Carolina, is just now receiving a large share of the attentions of the Whig press. A portion of the Whigs abuse him in no measured terms he has not yet ordered an election, in the 12th Congressional District, to supply the seat made vacant by the removal of Mr. GRAHAM. We, of course, have nothing to say as to the conduct of the Executive of that State; it is a subject for the approval or condemnation of his own immediate constituents, and not for us; but we do feel it our duty to correct an error into which some of the Governor's opponents have fallen. For instance, the Fayetteville Observer, in commenting on the subject says: "Two years ago, a special election was ordered in South Carolina, to take place as late as the 3d June. The member elected took his seat in the House some time before the Session closed on the 30th June." The Editor has made a considerable mistake in this matter; the election alluded to, was that to supply the place of the lamented General BLAIR, but the member elected did not take his seat at all that Session, nor did he proceed to Washington. The length of time elapsed, after the vacancy occurred, before the election was ordered, and the failure, on the part of the Executive to furnish the member elected with the usual credentials, until within a few days of the adjournment of the Congress, rendered it useless for him to attempt to take his seat, and he did not do it.

The Whig press in N. C. have in our opinion selected a very bad precedent for the condemnation of their Governor, when they refer to the election in this District for that purpose. If Gov. SPAIGHT was really desirous of preventing the voice of the 12th Congressional District from being heard in the Halls of Congress for the remainder of the present Session, and wanted a high precedent to sustain him he has only to make himself acquainted with all the circumstances attending the election referred to, and he would be able to give such authority for his conduct, as the Whigs would hardly be disposed to condemn. We would advise them not to moot this question. Camden Journal.

The Superior Court of Craven terminated its Spring session on Saturday last. There was considerable business, as respects quantity, despatched, but no case of much general importance came before the Court. One thing, individually important, surprised us a little, viz, the selling of a free man by law, at the Court-house. To us, uninitiated in the extent of the powers of law, and unacquainted with the clause of either the State or United States' Constitution which sanction such sales,—even for a limited time, as in the case alluded to—there appears something anomalous in the transaction.

Judge Saunders presided; and as this was the first professional visit which he has made to this place since his elevation to the Bench, it may be proper to state, that the manner in which he discharged the responsible duties of his station has given very general satisfaction. The gentlemen of the Bar here, the best judges of the case, speak of him in terms of approbation. Thus far of his law knowledge, which we report on very respectable "here say"; but we speak from our knowledge when we say that his impartiality is praiseworthy. His lucid, and honest exposition of the law and evidence, in the case of a very particular friend of ours, from whom, by the by, His Honour has received some political rubbing, settled a two-and-sixpenny matter in five minutes that had been eighteen months before the Court in consequence of one judge's unnecessary reluctance to try it, and of another's inexplicable and most singular, though, we believe, well-meaning, charge. Weadmire prompt men. Newbern Spectator.

The Richmond Whig alleges that the recent Van Buren triumph in that State, is not a sign that Virginia will go for Van Buren at the Presidential election, but on the contrary. Admitting the surpassing clearness with which the conclusion flows from the premises, may we ask of the Whig whether the rule is a good one, and will work both ways—whether in case of a White triumph in April, a Van Buren triumph would be a consequent result in November, and if so, why the Whig labored so hard for the success of the drapreau blanc at the late election? If in Virginia all signs and portents fail—it coming events do not cast their shadows before—if in that region there is no connexion between cause and effect, but "on the contrary," and if a victory in April ensures a defeat in November, it surely was the Whig's policy to have exerted itself to procure a Van Buren majority in the Legislature, or at least it should now be delighted that such is the case, instead of pulling its hat upon its brows, and wearing an aspect so indignant.

That paper, however, does not appear to have much faith in its own newly discovered method of reasoning, and throws out its paradox for the want of something better to do. If it hopes at all, it hopes against conviction, and utters its "on the contrary" to weaken, as far as possible, the moral effect which the success of Van Buren in Virginia, will have throughout the South and West.—Pennsylvanian.

A Small Mistake.—The Mobile Chronicle, a warm advocate of the election of Judge White to the Presidency, on noticing the accounts given by the Richmond Whig, of the first returns of the election in Virginia, exclaims, with great apparent delight, "Van Burenism is literary expunged in Virginia, if not in the whole South." The Editor will find, when he receives the full returns, that the Whig has led him into a great mistake, and that the "expunging" has been upon the opposite page. Their prospects instead of being White look rather blue. So much for hallooing before leaving the woods. Balt. Repub.

GEN. HARRISON.

It was with surprise we lately heard some of the political friends of this gentleman say that they believed he would not only get the vote of Ohio, but that he would get a majority of 80 thousand votes in Pennsylvania; and moreover, that he would be the President of the United States. On hearing this declaration, we could not think the persons making it believed it themselves; but on remembering of reading in an ancient book, of some who, in relation to other matters, were given up to strong delusions, that they might believe a lie; we thought probably that might be their situation. Just such declarations were made concerning Pennsylvania in 1828, in favor of John Q. Adams, and with about the same grounds for the conclusion then, as for the present calculations. No person who is correctly informed on the state of politics in the United States at this time; and who is not entirely under the influence of prejudice, can hesitate for a moment, in believing, not only that Gen. Harrison cannot be elected, but that Martin Van Buren will. If there had been a loop on which to hang a doubt, before the late elections in Rhode Island, Connecticut, Virginia, &c. it is now taken away; and all grounds to hope for success, on the part of the opposition, have vanished like a vision. Even in the City of Cincinnati, Gen. Harrison's strong hold, and where the Editor of the Whig said a few weeks ago, no Van Buren man should have an office within the precincts of the city, even down so low as that of street commissioner; and where they actually did make the Presidential question a test at the Spring election, a number of Van Buren men were elected, and the whole result shows an increase of from 5 to 700 votes in our favor within the last year.—Zanesville Aurora.

We are informed that several members of Congress have made inquiries of the President in relation to the fact stated by Mr. Adams in debate, that he had consulted him (then a Major General in the United States Army) in regard to the limits stipulated in the treaty of 1819, for the southwestern frontier of the Union. We are informed that the President, in reply to these inquiries, has said, that Mr. Adams must have fallen into some mistake; that he had not the slightest recollection of having been consulted on the subject; that he could not have expressed an opinion in regard to the stipulation, because he had not any exact information at that time, either in regard to the topography of the country, or the nature and extent of the claim set up for it by our Government; and because the only point in the treaty with which duties as a military man made him acquainted being Florida, he presumes, if consulted at all, in relation to the treaty, of which he has no recollection, it must have been in regard to that Territory.—Globe.

FOR THE STANDARD. Col. White: In the early part of April, the Republican party of this County notified their friends by printed handbills, that a meeting of the friends of the present administration was ordered on the 26th of last month, at 2 o'clock, in the Court-house; for the purpose of making arrangements in reference to the approaching election. Late in the month, the federal Whig Bank party requested a meeting of their friends on the same day, and place, at 3 o'clock. The day arrived, the Court adjourned, about one o'clock, when the hour of 2 arrived, the rush to the Court House doors was tremendous. In a few minutes it was perceived that the House could not contain the immense multitude, which had left their farms at this busy season, to concert measures for defeating the deep laid schemes of a wretched faction, whose insidious movements have ever been directed to the subversion of civil liberty, the birth right of freemen. When the house had become completely filled, and the meeting organized; a proclamation was made to the friends of Judge White, to assemble at Davidson's corner. A few of the old Federal party having stepped in, (as spies I presume,) and being literally wedged up by the crowd, were seen struggling to return to the street again, to mix with black spirits and grey, blue and green, who were then congregating at the corner of an old Store-House. Their places in the House were soon filled with better stuff, and I assert it without fear of contradiction, that a meeting of the friends of the present administration was held in the Court-house, at that time before. At this piebald meeting, John Giles of Salisbury (standing in the door) addressed the meeting in a strain, which will soon be forgotten. His ranting, and raving, and misrepresentations were not surpassed even by the recreant pampered senator on the 20th of May last. His inflammatory harangue was replete with charges against Andrew Jackson and Mr. Van Buren, which have been made by the federal party, and as I conceive, have become too stale, to be noticed now by intelligent men of either party. There were two charges made by Mr. Giles, which merit a special notice. He says the Van Buren party is made up of all the old federalists, and that that party were always considered Tories. Were Alexander Hamilton, John Jay, John Adams, John Marshall and Samuel Dexter Tories? These were the acknowledged fathers of the federal party. But let us come a little nearer home. Was Gen. Wm. R. Davy, Gen. Joseph Graham, or Col. Caldwell of Irwell Tories? They all acknowledged themselves members of the federal party; some of whom have descendants in this vicinity, who cannot so well swallow Mr. Giles' denunciations. Mr. Giles surely forgot the chivalry of the citizens of this far famed county, he should have remembered the result of the panic exhibition of May last, and he would not have thus tampered with mine filled with the elements of danger. Some of us view it as a great indignity for Panic Whig Orators, not of this district, to be strutting about our country, delivering political lectures, attempting to dictate to us, who humbly conceive ourselves as intelligent as honest, and far more courteous than even the eloquent Mr. Giles. While Mr. Giles was speaking of Tories, who did he not say something about a certain Mr. Dunn of Revolution memory. It is said by some of the descendants of the old Federal party, that this Mr. Dunn was arrested as a Tory, and taken through this place in front of South Carolina. As Mr. Dunn is a relation of Mr. Giles, I should be glad to know. With what animosity does Mr. Giles now charge Gen. Jackson for his removals from office; and with what eloquence did he advocate the principle of rotation in office, when contending with John Long for a seat in Congress. I am really sorry, that the eloquent and once famous John Giles has so far given loose to party passions, as to have forgotten all his national courtesy, and become a perfect political fanatic. I will conclude by saying, the good cause still prospers. When I have time, I will write again. Z.

SHOCCO SPRINGS. THIS well known Watering place, situated in Warren county, North Carolina, will be ready for the reception of Company by the 15th inst. LAND FOR SALE.

THE subscriber, intending to remove to the West, wishes to sell his land in Wake Forest, joining the lands of Mrs. Phillips, Cyrus Whitaker and John Eigon. Esqs. containing five hundred and fifty or six hundred acres, part of which is first rate woodland, with a sufficient quantity of open land, which is fresh, to work 8 or 10 hands to advantage. It is well adapted to the culture of cotton, corn, and other productions, with a comfortable dwelling and convenient out houses on it. The land is located in a healthy section of the country, as good society as the State affords, and the water inferior to none. Persons wishing to remove from the lower section of the State, for the benefit of their health, are requested to call on the subscriber, and examine the land, &c. as a bargain will be given to the purchaser. Great Northern and Southern DAILY MAIL ROUTE. THE Petersburg Rail Road company inform the public that their road, extending from Petersburg, Virginia, to Blakely, North Carolina, on the Roanoke, a distance of 61 miles, and constituting a part of the Great Daily Mail Route, North and South, is now amply provided with superior Locomotives and Cars, to accommodate all the travel that may be required, at each end of the Road daily, on the arrival of the respective Mails. Travellers with their own equipages, can have their horses and carriages transported on this Road, with perfect safety and convenience; and thus perform in 5 or 6 hours, while resting their horses, a journey that would otherwise require two days to accomplish. The Blakely Hotel at the southern termination of the rail road, has been rebuilt of brick on an enlarged scale, and so pains will be spared to render its accommodations such as will give satisfaction to passengers and travellers generally. Besides the daily line of Mail Coaches from Blakely to the south, via Raleigh, Fayetteville, &c. there is a Line via Tarboroough three times a week, connected with the Mail Line at Fayetteville, and also a line from the Rail Road at Beaufort to Clarksville, Milton and Danville. Another tri-weekly line from Blakely, passes through Warrenton, Oxford, &c. and connects with a line to Salisbury, N. C.

In the course of the present season, a branch will be opened from the Petersburg Rail Road at Beaufort, to Wilkins Ferry at Gaston, on the Roanoke, from whence a Rail Road to cross the river by a bridge, is now about to be constructed to Raleigh. The Rail Road from Baltimore to Washington is now in operation, thence to Potomac landing, the line is continued by Steam-boats thence via Frederickburg to Washington, a considerable portion of the Rail Road is finished; and the remainder is in a rapid course to completion. The line continues from Richmond to Petersburg, by a turnpike road; and thence by the Petersburg Rail Road to Blakely, as before mentioned, is the main and only Daily Mail Route between Boston and New Orleans. March 12. 1384

TO CONTRACTORS. SEALED proposals will be received until the 16th May, for the erection of a brick building for the Milton Manufacturing Company, of the following dimensions: Length 78 feet; breadth 48 feet; to be three stories high, exclusive of the basement story; each story to be ten feet high in the clear. The side walls to be three bricks thick for the first story; two and a half bricks for the second, and two bricks for the third: The end walls to be a half brick thinner than the side walls: The basement story to be of rock, and to be built by measurement: The roof to be covered with tin. Any further information can be obtained on application to the subscribers. STEPHEN DODSON, WARREN M. LEWIS, WM. M. McGEHEE, AUGUSTUS C. FINLEY, J. WILSON. Directors. Milton, N. C. Doct. Wm. Martin Crenshaw, HAVING recently located at the well known Store of his father and brother, (W. Crenshaw & Son,) 15 miles north of Raleigh, and within two miles of the Institute offers his professional services to the inhabitants of Wake Forest and the surrounding country generally. His charges will be moderate, and lenity will be extended to the poor. He intends devoting his time exclusively to the business of his profession, and hopes to staid a portion of public patronage. Wake Forest, April 1, 1836.

"Dr. CRENSHAW has been in attendance on the lectures of Jefferson Medical College, for the three past sessions, and has been our office pupil for upwards of two years. He has seen with us much practice, and has, under our direction, had many patients committed to his charge, and from his judicious treatment of the same, we confidently recommend him as being amply qualified for the practice of his profession in its various branches.
