

DOG EAT DOG!

Duff Green, the notorious mouth-piece of the Disunionists, is at loggerheads, in his Telegraph, with the Clay and Webster fractions of the "whig" coalition, about the candidature for the Presidency, four years ahead!

So fight away, Messrs. wigwags, nullifiers and federalists. It is Turk against Turk; the Democrats don't care which whips.

HON. BEDFORD BROWN.

The Danville Observer pays a deserved compliment to this highly esteemed representative of the Democracy of North Carolina in the Senate of the United States. "We had the pleasure (says the Observer) of attending a dinner given to this gentleman, in Milton N. C. on the 17th ult. He was greeted by a large concourse of his constituents, and on being toasted he delivered one of the best and most eloquent speeches we ever heard. He is a fine speaker, and a polished gentleman. Let partisans sneer and whigs growl, it is an honour of which a virtuous and faithful representative might well be proud that to be honoured and esteemed by his constituents. The people of N. Carolina, may well be proud of such a son as Bedford Brown. He stands in elevated and enviable contrast with W. P. Mangum. Let the right of instruction be vindicated and Brown sustained."

POOR SUBTERFUGE.—It is a stale trick among pick-pockets, for escaping detection, to mingle among the crowd and most lustily cry thief! thief! So with the nullifiers and federalists now! In order to avert the odium which attaches to their Senator, (Mangum) for clinging to his office in despite of the instructions of the Legislature, they pretend the late election of Governor is tantamount to an instruction of the Democratic Senator, Mr. BROWN! Instructions for him to do what? Mr. Brown is a democrat in sincerity, and always holds himself in readiness to do the will of his constituents, when expressed to him by a majority of them, or resign his seat, that they may fill it by some one who will represent them. Have the people, in electing Gen. Dudley, instructed Mr. Brown to turn round and oppose Gen. Jackson's Administration? No one will be silly enough to pretend they have done any such thing. Well, what have they instructed him to do, then? Go to the polls, and vote against Mr. Van Buren? No soul on earth has any right to control his action in that respect. No; the election of Gov. had no more to do in instructing Mr. Brown, than the election of Constable in Raleigh had in justifying Mr. Mangum in his obstinate disobedience of the instructions of the Legislature.

If the nullifiers and federalists are sincere in claiming the Legislature, let them next session, try their hand at instructing Mr. Brown: we dare them to it. Mr. Mangum has clung so closely to their skirts, that we suppose they must run him for re-election; but they know he cannot succeed. Apart from the fact that there is a majority of Democrats in the Legislature, several members elected as White men, but who hold to the right of instruction, have declared, we understand, that they will not support a contemner of that Republican doctrine, which they would do in voting for Willie P. Mangum.

BOWERY THEATRE BURNED. We learn from the New York papers, that the Bowery Theatre was entirely consumed by fire, early on the morning of the 22d ult. Every thing in the theatre was consumed. It is supposed the fire was communicated by the wadding of a gun fired during the performance on the evening preceding. Mr. Hamblin was the owner of the theatre; his loss is estimated at 70 to 90,000 dollars; Miss Medina's at $20,000, &c.; no insurance.—It is stated in the Express, that the building was 140 feet long, by 40 wide, built of brick; and it is further stated, that a sufficient sum had already been offered Mr. Hamblin, to commence the rebuilding of the house, which it was thought he would immediately set himself about. It was burnt down about eight years ago.

Massachusetts.—A federal whig convention has been held at Worcester Massachusetts, formed an Electoral ticket, and resolved that it shall be of the Janus-faced tribe—that is, with two faces; to vote for Webster or Harrison, as circumstances may warrant. Such are the miserable combinations to which the enemies of the Democratic party are driven, in their madness, to resort, in efforts to defeat the Republican candidates. Harrison, the abolitionist; Webster, the blue-light federalist; and White, the tool of the Nullifiers—all coalescing against the Democratic party.—No good can come of so unnatural, so anomalous a commingling of discordant materials.

In Maine, the federal party are growing weaker and weaker every year. Dunlap's majority for Governor, this year, is about 8000 votes; whereas, in 1834, it was only 8000. In the late election, the federalists elected two members to Congress; this year they have only elected one. Yet we hear the nullifiers and federalists shouting "cheering news from Maine!" We suppose it is "cheering" to them to know they are not totally annihilated.

PLAIN FACTS.

In 1832-'33, who vilified Gen. Jackson as a despot; compared him to counterfeiter, and raised a panic in the country for the purpose of reviving the U. S. Bank? Nullifiers and federalists. Who supported Gen. Jackson? Judge White; and who now supports Judge White for President? The nullifiers and federalists. And who is Judge White pledged to put into office and power if he should happen to get elected? Why, the nullifiers and federalists, of course.

Who supported Gen. Jackson in 1832? John C. Calhoun. And who opposed him in 1832? Why, the same J. C. Calhoun. Why did he support him in 1832? To obtain the President's place in 1832.—And why did he desert him in 1832? Because the President would not decline the Presidency and give place to him.

Who supports Judge White in 1836? John C. Calhoun, Henry Clay, and the Bank of the United States. Why does Mr. Calhoun support him? In order that he may get a foothold for himself to ride into power, and have a nullification Cabinet. Why does Henry Clay support White? In order to mortify Gen. Jackson, who defeated this same Mr. Clay for the Presidency in 1832. Who are Gen. Jackson's bitterest foes? Henry Clay and John C. Calhoun; and who are now Judge White's most intimate political friends? These same Henry Clay and John C. Calhoun.

And why does the Bank of the United States sustain Judge White, since he once voted against it? Why, for the very obvious reason, that the Judge's son-in-law, Mr. Jaudon, is Cashier of the Bank—who, with John Bell and the little caucus of eleven at Washington City that nominated the Judge, have colluded with the federalists and nullifiers to run his name,—he, in fulfilment of his part of the contract, having joined in and voted with the nullifiers and federalists in the Senate, and a postulated from his old principles and friends.

MICHIGAN.—A majority of delegates opposed to the terms of admission proposed by Congress, has been returned to the Convention. We are of the opinion, notwithstanding, that the Convention will compromise the matter in some way, and adopt such measures as will enable the Territory to come into the Union as a state.—alho' such admission may be qualified by a string of whereases, resolutions, &c.

WASHINGTON AND JACKSON.

Gen. Jackson has been abused most outrageously, by the nullifiers and federalists, for preferring his friends to his enemies, in his appointments to office. Gen. Washington did the same thing, and so always have the federalists themselves, whenever they got into power. "I SHALL NOT," says WASHINGTON in his letter to Mr. Pickens, dated Sept. 27, 1795, "whilst I have the honor to administer the government, bring any man into office of consequence, knowingly, whose political tenets are adverse to the measures which the general government are pursuing; for this, in my opinion, would be a sort of political suicide."

A great fire occurred, in Liverpool, England, on the 16th Aug., consuming the extensive warehouses of Messrs. Sands, Hodgson & Co., together with 1,000 bales of Cotton. All seems to have been covered by insurance.

Pennsylvania.—An extract of a letter from a very intelligent gentleman in Pennsylvania, is published in the Globe; which says: "I am much cheered with the prospect before us; all looks well through the state. You may rely upon the vote of Pennsylvania."

Lynchers LYNCHED.—We find a long account in the New Orleans papers, of an outrageous but unsuccessful attempt to lynch Judge BERNUDEZ. It seems the Judge had given a judicial opinion which was unpopular with a certain class of people; for which these people made an attack on the Judge, at his own dwelling, for the purpose of lynching him; he defended himself with pistols and such other weapons as came in his way; and after killing two or three of his assailants on the spot, the others retreated, leaving the Judge unhurt. So it seems Judge BERNUDEZ is more than a match for Judge LYNCH.

Henry Ashburn, Esq. one of the proprietors of the Norfolk Beacon, died of an apoplectic attack in that Borough on Thursday last, 22d inst. aged 40. He was born in Bertie county, N. C.; served his apprenticeship in Edenton, and has been one of the publishers of the Beacon nearly ever since its establishment. He has left a wife and two children; and was an honorable man and good citizen.

NEW COTTON.—We learn from the Norfolk Beacon, that a few bales of New Cotton was taken to that market on the 24th ult. and readily sold for 18 cents per lb.

TEXAS.—A New Orleans paper of the 15th ult. learns from Galveston, that another unsuccessful attempt had been made to liberate Santa Anna, by a Spaniard named Pages; who said he had been employed by the Mexican Consul in New Orleans. At Galveston, the election had gone in favor of Gen. Houston for President, and Lamar for Vice President.

Charleston and Cincinnati Rail Road. A list of Commissioners, appointed by His Excellency Gov. SPAIGHT, to receive subscriptions to the Stock of this Road, will be found on the 4th page of this week's Standard.

"A" has been received and shall be attended to in good season.

The second No. of "North-Carolina" is received; and shall be published as soon as the crowded state of our columns will admit.

WHO ARE THE TARIFFITES?

Since it has become necessary for the coalition party, composed of nullifiers and federalists, to adopt a Janus-faced Electoral Ticket—Harrison the high-tariffite daubed on one side of their banner, and White the nullifiers' stool-pigeon on the other—the Nullifiers are as much as death about the oppressions of the Tariff—the "odious tariff!"

Only four years gone by, the whole south were roused, and goaded on almost to revolution, against the tariff—"the bill of abomination!" Meeting after meeting, resolution after resolution, speech upon speech, even rebellion itself, (for nullification was little short of it) were arrayed against the "accursed tax!" Vide the South-Carolina Nullifiers' Convention—Mr. Mangum's speech about "coining [his] heart"—Gov. Swain's speech—the address of their Raleigh convention—&c. &c.; they all harmoniously responded to Gov. Hamilton of South-Carolina. "We will go our death for the sugar, and the 40 bale theory—down with the tariff!"

Now, Messrs. federal-nullifiers, you see that Mr. VAN BUREN, in his letter to Sherrod Williams of Kentucky, has declared himself in favor of reducing the tariff to the wants of the Government. Will you unite with him in bringing about a measure which, according to your own showing, is so imperiously demanded by the South? We have already had your response; No! No! is your cry; we must not touch the tariff, now; Messrs. Clay and Calhoun have agreed that the tax shall be collected from the people, until 1842, that we may divide the "spoils" among the States, for electioneering purposes!

CHOLERA AT CHARLESTON.

Sept. 17th. 8 cases; 1 white, 3 colored; 1 death.

18th. 8 cases; 3 whites, 5 colored; 1 death, and 1 death of the cases reported yesterday.

19th. 19 cases; 6 whites, 13 colored; 4 deaths.

20th. 16 cases; 3 whites, 13 colored; 4 deaths.

21st. 10 cases; 4 whites, 6 colored; 2 deaths.

Six cases had occurred at Col. T. Pinkney's plantation, North Santee, four of which terminated in death.

22d. 10 cases; 2 whites, 8 colored; 1 death.

23d. 27 cases; 5 whites, 22 colored; 10 deaths.

24th. 12 cases, 1 white and 11 colored 4 dead.

25th. 18 cases, 5 whites, 13 blacks.

26th. 34 cases, 7 whites and 27 colored; 7 deaths.

27th. 44 cases, 11 whites and 33 colored; 11 deaths.

28th. 39 cases, 9 whites, 30 colored; 6 deaths.

Accounts from Daniel's Island, state, that 18 deaths by cholera have occurred on Thos. F. Capers' plantation; and that 27 negroes are now sick with the disease.

FRENCH MINISTER.—We learn from the Washington Globe, that the French Government have appointed M. EDWARD PONTAIS, as Minister Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary to the U. States. It seems that M. SERRURIER, former French Minister to the U. S. has been appointed in the same capacity to the Government of Brazil.

An extract of a letter is published in the Globe, from Lawrenceburg, Indiana, which says, "you may set it down for certain, that Wm. H. Harrison will not receive an Electoral vote West of the Mountains, out of Kentucky," and that he will not receive a majority of votes in the county in which he lives, by from 500 to a 1000!"

WHIG DECEMY.—A federal whig Editor, in speaking of the Germans and descendants of Germans, (who mostly belong to the Democratic party) sneeringly calls them "Hog Dutch!" Such is another of the insults with which the federal and nullifying aristocrats are constantly offering the people. Mr. Van Buren they call, by way of derision, the LITTLE DUTCHMAN! And so, in the eyes of these upstart aristocrats, a man who is from German parentage is to be marked as of an inferior caste! Every Democrat is satisfied with the title of American. If Mr. Van Buren and the democratic party are to be stigmatized as "Hog Dutch," they might retort upon these would-be sprigs of nobility, by calling them Englishmen!—which word sounds, to our ears at least, (and ought to every American ear) as grating as that of Dutchman!

LIBERALITY.—The Pennsylvania Lyceum is prepared to deliver, gratuitously, an elementary set of specimens in Geology & Mineralogy, to any & every county Lyceum, which is or may be formed in the Union. Applicants are to call upon John Simmons, corresponding Secretary of the Pennsylvania Lyceum, or upon Dillwyn Parish, corner of Arch and Eighth Streets.

The communication in relation to the imposition practised on the Stage Passengers, is crowded out by other matter; it shall appear next week.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. We are grateful to our friends who have honored us with communications; but they must indulge us. We regret the necessity of deferring the publication of their favors; but other matter entirely fills our columns, which all must agree has paramount claims to an early insertion.

"The Atlas," a Whig paper printed in Boston, says—Candor compels us to say, that every thing admonishes us, that the candidate of the Baltimore Convention must succeed. It were idle to deny the fact."

BARBECUE AT HILLSBORO.

I have heard it said, and until now I always believed, Judge WHITE was a Jackson-man. Being a warm friend and supporter of Gen. Jackson, I attended the great Barbecue recently given at Hillsborough. But there, for the first time, my eyes were opened; and I began to see things in a new light. The Whites made, made speeches and drank toasts; I was treated with politeness enough by the great men there, who had impressed me with the belief, (when electioneering among Jackson-men) that Judge White was a real Jackson Republican; and who got my vote in August for the White ticket.—I had no fault to find with their manners towards me. Good feeling towards each other, and merriment, seemed to pervade the whole company.

But considering the dinner was given in honor of the friend of Jackson, a true hearted republican as I supposed, I was surprised to find that Judge White, John C. Calhoun, Judge Mangum, Wise, of Va. Governors Tyler and Tazewell, Governor Dudley, Henry Clay, Preston of South Carolina, and the whole host of nullifiers, were toasted; and even William L. Long, of Halifax, a young nullifier, was toasted; while Gen. Jackson, that venerable Patriot, the illustrious President of the People, the fearless champion of their liberties, was abused, and ridiculed, for the amusement of Judge White's friends. I was duped in August; but will not be deceived in November.

WHIGGERY. What is it?

The whole history of parties perhaps does not present so unique a faction, as this piebald, mongrel, Coalition of Whigs. They are made up of all sorts of odds and ends of politicians—of ultra Nullifiers and ultra Federalists. The two Candidates they are running have scarcely one great principle in common—White has supported Jackson twice for the Presidency; Harrison went for Adams and Clay.—W. has uniformly supported, until he became a Candidate himself, the measures of the Administration—Harrison as generally opposed them—White has gone against the Bank, Internal Improvement, a high Tariff—Harrison for all of them.—The one professes to be a strict constructionist—the other is a latitudinarian—White claims little for being a military chieftain—while that is the principal feather in Harrison's cap. They have adopted the same ticket, which may indiscriminately vote for either of the extremes. They pull together—they never run their candidates against each other—but together. They rejoice at each other's success. If White is supposed to succeed in Alabama, the friends of Harrison cry out, Hurrah for White! If Harrison is supposed to carry the day in Indiana, White's friends cry out, Hurrah for Harrison! Harrison's friends in Virginia use White as a decoy duck in the East, to catch votes for Harrison; and each is talking of playing the same game in Mississippi, and Illinois; though the Whig electors are pledged to vote for White. Any thing to gull the people—to catch votes—to put the people into the hands of the Electors, bluffed and handcuffed.

Nothing can be more curious, absurd, and revolting than this hydra-headed party—and yet they expect an intelligent people to acquiesce in all their schemes, and to bring into power the most monstrous party that ever attempted to seize the reins.—Rich. Enq.

FROM THE RICHMOND ENQUIRER.

DEBTOR AND CREDITOR. The Whig presses have opened an account, under this head, of the Elections, as they pass on. They give V. B. credit by only 22 Electoral votes, (viz: Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas and Maine,—and charge him with all the rest, viz: 68. We would state the account current as follows:

Table with columns for State and Votes. Includes entries for Kentucky, Vermont, Indiana, Alabama, Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas, Maine, and a final balance in favor of V. B.

RALEIGH RAIL ROAD.

A correspondent of the Raleigh Register, thus speaks of this enterprise. In the past week, I have travelled along the line of the Rail Road from Gaston to Chalk Level. It affords me great pleasure to say to you, and through you, to all persons interested in the work, that it is progressing as rapidly as its most sanguine friends could expect. Notwithstanding the many difficulties attendant upon the commencement of a work of that magnitude, the Principal Engineer and his Assistants have located 40 miles of the Road, and at the time I left, 16 miles of the route commencing at the River, had been contracted for, and daily applications were making for contracts, by persons residing near the route, and from a distance. The construction of the Road will be commenced immediately; and in the next twelve months, without some unforeseen accident, the Road will be completed to Tar River.

The writer of this entirely concurs in the opinion expressed to him by one of the Directors, that the rapid progress already made is attributable to the constant and unremitting attention of the Principal Engineer and his Assistants to the duties assigned them.

ALABAMA LEGISLATURE.

The Washington Sun furnishes an extract of a letter from Harpersville, Ala., Aug. 24, which says, "their cause is triumphant," and asks, "Will the Globe or Richmond Enquirer have the bold frontiery now to claim Alabama for the little man of Kinderhook?" We do claim it, and upon the latest and most authentic intelligence. We have just seen a gentleman, who left Huntsville on the 3rd inst. The Whigs there had given up the contest—even Mr. McClung, the nephew of Judge White, and the late Speaker of the H. of R., admitted that no Whig could be elected to the Senate of the U. S. in place of Mr. Gabriel Moore.—Rich. Enq.

EXPRESS MAIL.

The letting for the Express Mail took place on the 15th inst. Mr. JAMES A. BECKHAM of this place is the contractor between Fredericksburg and Richmond. He receives, we understand, $13,000 per annum. The mail is to be carried on horseback, and at the rate of 10 miles per hour. If the weight of the Portmanteau exceeds 70 lb. the contractor is to employ another horse, and will be allowed double the sum. The postage by the Express Mail is triple the ordinary rates—payable at the office where the letter is mailed. It will go into operation 15th November. The mail will arrive here from the North at half past 11 P. M., and from the South at 8 A. M.—Fredericksburg Arcana.

Truth will out when rascals fall out.—It is said that Duff Green, in his recent tirade against Mr. Webster, speaks indignantly of that gentleman's efforts, in getting up the celebrated bank panic. "Mr. Webster, quoth Duff, forced himself on the Senate, as chairman of Finance Committee. He gave an impulse to the panic; he prophesied there would be a deficiency in the revenue." And this is the panic so long and stoutly denied, now charged to Webster alone. What a commentary does it speak upon the great whig party. Danville Observer.

The citizens of Washington have subscribed a thousand dollars to procure a full length likeness of the President to adorn their City Hall. The Globe, in mentioning the circumstance, adds: "This subscription we learn was suggested, and has been obtained, by some of the public spirited men of the city, always opposed to the President in his political principles, but penetrated by a grateful sense of the interest which, as Chief Magistrate, he has evinced for the prosperity of the City, and the great improvement in it which has been effected during his administration."—Pennsylvanian.
