

ALLEN & GILES, EDITORS.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 18, 1851

AGENTS FOR THE "DEMOCRATIC SENTINEL & FARMER."

Office of the Sentinel & Farmer, No. 113 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

NOTICE!

Those indebted to the "CADIZ SENTINEL & FARMER" for Volume 15, No. 11, will settle their accounts with the publisher, Mr. J. M. Harrison, at No. 113 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

Official Vote in Harrison County.

Table with columns: Townships, Constitution, License, Yes, No, Yes, No. Lists various townships like Short Creek, Greer, German, Athens, Cadiz, Archer, Bamley, Moorfield, Nottingham, Stock, North, Freeport, Washington, Franklin, Monroe.

By the above it will be seen that in Harrison county the new Constitution has been defeated. The Whigs as a party, were severely organized against it, and used every effort in their power, to bring out the entire vote.

The second term of the Court of Common Pleas for this county, commences next Tuesday, the 24th inst. Several important cases are to be tried.

A Word to Postmasters.

We hear complaints from quite a number of our subscribers in this county, that they do not receive their papers. We know this, and we are glad to say that the Postmaster in Cadiz does his duty.

Allison's Verdict.

When we advised the young Ananias editor of the Steubenville Herald last week to be careful or he might show his veracity, we did not expect that it would develop itself quite so soon.

Our Prospects.

When we have taken charge of the Sentinel, our prospects have been quite flattering, for which we are very thankful to the good people of Harrison county.

Michael's Modesty.

We had much rather never write one solitary line of editorial, than that what we do write, should be the proof that we were only a liar, and blackguard, and ruffian.

Spedy's Lady's Book.

This splendid magazine for July is on our table. It is well filled with a large number of splendid engravings, and a vast amount of literary reading.

Daniel Markey, who killed James Myers, near Tippenee, in this county, a short time since, was brought before Judge Arnold, in this place, on last Thursday, for a hearing, on a charge of manslaughter, and held to bail in the sum of $3,000, for his appearance at court.

We learn that quite a destructive fire occurred in Harnestville Belmont Co., last week. Several dwelling houses were consumed with their contents. We have however recovered nothing further.

Stevensville and Indiana Railroad.

The Pittsburgh Post says that the Hon. D. Gilgus, President of the Stevensville and Indiana Railroad, is now in this city, superintending the engraving and printing of the Company Bonds, which are nearly ready for execution.

We learn that Mr. Kitzler will leave in a few days for the city of New York, for the purpose of placing the bonds of the Stevensville and Indiana Railroad in the market.

The necessary stock to build the road, as the reader has been previously informed, is subscribed, from the Ohio river to Coshocton, and the Engineers are making their final survey, preparatory to locating the road and putting it under contract.

AUDITOR OF STATE.

Messrs. Editors: As the New Constitution will be adopted, and as there are several important offices to be filled under it, and none more important than that of Auditor of State, I know of no person more worthy or better capable of filling that office, than JUSTIN G. MORRIS, of Jefferson county.

Mr. M. is a printer by trade, was for a long time editor and publisher of the American Union; has filled several important offices in this county, and is one of the long tried and faithful Democrats.

JEFFERSON COUNTY.

We heartily second the nomination made above, and trust that Mr. Morris may receive the nomination, for a man more worthy is not to be found in the State.

The Press.

We are under obligations to our brethren of the press, for their very kind and flattering notices of us, and the recent improvements in our paper.

Pennsylvania.

The Democratic State Convention, met at Reading, on the 24th inst., and nominated Col. Wm. Bigler, of Clearfield county, for Governor, and Seth Glover, of Clarion county, for Canal Commissioner.

Col. Bigler is an amiable and estimable man, and deserves great credit for the manner in which he has surmounted every obstacle in his path, and reached his present honorable and elevated position.

Col. Tod.

This distinguished Ohioan—our present Minister at the court of Brazil, is expected to return to his native State, about the 20th of the present month.

Cholera.

Mrs. ODELL, at Quincy, Ill., died on the 1st inst. with cholera. On the Friday before, her son ALFRED, and on Saturday, her two daughters, ELLEN and ELIZA, died of the same disease.

We learn that a cabin passenger on the steamer Bob Rogers, from St. Louis, died of cholera, and was buried at the wood yard below Evansville. There was two other cases and one death.

The Flood.

At Keokuk, Iowa, the river was over three feet higher than during the destructive flood of 1844, and a rise of three feet above still coming down upon them.

An Abolitionist Sent Off.

We learn from the Greenboro' (N. C.) Patriot, that on Sunday last, Mr. B. the abolitionist preacher, who, with Adam Crooks had been given notice to quit that town, was sent by about two hundred citizens, on his way to an appointment elsewhere, and conducted over the county line—giving bond in $1,000 never to return to Guilford, and to leave the State, and not to send any publication whatever on the subject of slavery, into North Carolina.

The Flood.

At Keokuk, Iowa, the river was over three feet higher than during the destructive flood of 1844, and a rise of three feet above still coming down upon them.

Cholera.

Mrs. ODELL, at Quincy, Ill., died on the 1st inst. with cholera. On the Friday before, her son ALFRED, and on Saturday, her two daughters, ELLEN and ELIZA, died of the same disease.

An Enemy of the People in the State House.

The following official circular of the State Auditor, addressed to the Bankers of the State will speak for itself. It is written, as it purports, on the passage of the law lately passed, for taxing Banks. As a document emanating from the official officer it is a disgrace to the State.

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Directors of the Portage County Branch Bank of the State of Ohio, at Ravenna, the act entitled "An Act to tax Banks &c." passed March 21, 1851, so far as it imposes a tax upon this Branch, different from that required by the charter, without the consent of the incorporators, is unconstitutional and void.

Stump Speaking—An Amusing Exposure.

Our neighboring State, Kentucky, has been the theatre of some amusing encounters of satire, witicism and trickery. Two candidates are haranguing the people from the gubernatorial stump, and now and then they are helped to a variety by some volunteer from the rank and file.
